

THE PORTLAND PARTY.

Pittsburg Will Send the Largest Delegation to the General Assembly. IT WILL ALSO BE HEARD THERE. Major William B. Negley to be Elected for Vice-Moderator.

NAMES OF THOSE BOOKED FOR THE TRIP

Next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, a special train of Pullman vestibuled cars will leave the Union Depot, this city, for Portland, Ore. It will be loaded with nearly 100 Presbyterians, representative of this region, who go to attend the meeting of the Presbyterian General Assembly. This highest court of the denomination will convene in Portland on Thursday morning, May 19.

The majority of those who go are not, however, so much interested in the Assembly itself as in the trip across the Continent. The General Assembly has never before met beyond the Mississippi, except in St. Louis, Omaha and Minneapolis, and it now meets for the first time on the Pacific coast.

It has required no labor worth naming on the part of anyone to secure the first railroad facilities ever offered for such a trip. The railroads have generously offered everything that could be reasonably asked, and among the great trunk lines there have been commendable and important offers of accommodation over the road.

The banner train from Pittsburg. That no city in the Union will send a larger delegation, lobby counted in, than Pittsburg is proven by the fact that the Union Pacific has just issued a circular from New York, in which the district passenger agent of the Chicago and Northwestern and Union Pacific lines.

One month ago Rev. Samuel S. Gilson began organizing this Assembly company as a labor of love. The phenomenal success, so creditable to Pittsburg, is owing largely to the most efficient and hearty labors of Mr. Samuel Moody, District Passenger Agent of the Pennsylvania line west of Pittsburg, and Mr. Samuel C. Milbourne, of the Union Pacific lines, with Mr. Charles Travers, of the Chicago and Northwestern, as assistants. Hence the excursion is already popularly known as the "Banner train of the three Sams."

All kinds of questions have been asked. One man wants to know, "What is a sweater?" Another asks, "Whether he had better take a lunch basket with crackers and chicken?"—and he is not a minister. Another writes: "What do you mean about my paying for a berth? Don't the church pay that?"

An eminent Doctor of Divinity writes he cannot go because the natural gas company has decided against turning the gas off, and I cannot leave the town and my people while he is ill.

The church at large is taxed a percentage to pay the expenses of all commissioners, and this is one reason why so many brethren have been willing to take a six-weeks' trip across the continent in the service of the Church. The many ladies going have not shown nearly so much curiosity about the details of the trip as the gentlemen.

Persons of the Pittsburg Party.

It is an intensely orthodox party. No Briggs men nor Briggism are known in the company. But there is no talk on the subject. The whole current of conversation is about Chicago, Omaha, Cheyenne, Salt Lake, Mormons, mountains, Indians, the Columbia, California, the Yosemite, San Francisco, Tacoma, Seattle, the Rocky Mountains, the Cascade Range, Portland, excursions. All are anxious to see all they can between the Mississippi river and the Pacific Ocean.

Among the distinguished people going from Pittsburg and vicinity are: Rev. James Allison and wife, Mr. John A. Brannon and daughter, Rev. Dr. J. B. Brannon, Rev. Dr. W. S. Brown, Rev. S. C. Gibson and wife, Rev. Levi Fisher and wife, Rev. Dr. A. A. Mealy, Rev. D. N. Y. Fisher, Hon. Thomas Ewing and wife, Rev. Dr. J. E. McKellar, Dr. Thomas D. Davis, Rev. Dr. J. D. Kramer and wife, Mrs. Stewart Scott, Mrs. Dr. O. L. Miller, Mr. Henry Disque, Mr. George Irwin, Rev. Dr. R. H. Allen and wife, Mrs. Helen W. Slack, Mrs. Elizabeth Kemp, Rev. Dr. Thomas Robinson and wife, Major William R. Negley, Rev. Dr. George W. Goodson, Mrs. G. W. Goodson, Mrs. J. H. Linton, Rev. O. G. McDowell, Mrs. J. J. Matthews, Miss E. Campbell, Rev. Dr. J. Elder and wife, Rev. Dr. W. R. Negley, Rev. Frank Fish and mother, Rev. Dr. William R. Carr, Rev. William M. Hays and wife, Mr. Andrew Porter, Rev. Dr. William M. Taylor, Mr. John Marshall, Rev. I. Revenhough, Mr. N. Q. Spear and wife, Judge G. M. Hinkle, Judge J. P. Jones and wife, Rev. Dr. J. H. Flanagan and wife, Rev. Dr. J. C. Mealy and wife, Mrs. J. A. Crawford and daughter, S. M. Pomeroy, J. H. Deadio, Mrs. E. M. May, Miss J. Smith, Mrs. Florence E. Hart, Miss Belle Craig, Miss Florence Foote, Rev. Dr. James D. Moffat, Mr. John S. Moore.

A remarkable fact about the Pittsburg enrollment is that out of the 100 of the delegation are women. Many gentlemen take their wives. Some unmarried gentlemen go, and some charming young ladies and some delightful and well-endowed widows. It is not known what the impression will be in Salt Lake City. At all events there is room for interesting romances. One is already on the tapis between a young lady and a railroad man who have corresponded largely.

Major Negley for Vice Moderator. The probability is that Portland will regard Pittsburg as the stronghold of Presbyterianism in the United States. The Pittsburg people propose to make their influence felt in the General Assembly in their united demand that Major Wm. B. Negley be made Vice Moderator, especially on account of his activity in the control of vice in Pittsburg.

The first exciting thing to come before the General Assembly is the election of Moderator. The Pennsylvania delegation talk of nominating the brilliant and eloquent young President of Washington and Jefferson College, the Rev. Dr. James D. Moffat. It is questionable, however, whether the Keystone State can get both Moderator and Vice Moderator. The Rev. Dr. Wallace W. Tadcliff, an old Pittsburg boy, and now pastor of the famous Fort Street Presbyterian Church of Detroit, in which the assembly met last year, and of which General R. A. Alger is a member, is prominently named. There could be no better man for this first office in the church. The Rev. Dr. W. Y. Young, President of Center College, Ky., belongs to a great family and will command the vote of the solid South. He is eloquent and a man of fine administrative ability. Another Kentuckian who has been named by Rev. Dr. J. M. Haynes, Blayne, pastor of the Northern and Southern Church in Lexington, Ky.

Another subject which commands the attention of the large Pittsburg delegation is the meeting of the next General Assembly in this city. This, however, may not meet with the approval of the Briggs element in the Assembly.

Briggs a Very Live Issue.

Like Banquo's ghost, the Briggs business will not down. It will be pushed to the front at Portland, and the contest will be warm, as Colonel J. J. McCook, of "the fighting family," and Prof. John J. Stevenson, of Scotch descent, well known in West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania, are among the delegates from the New York Presbytery, and members of the committee to prosecute Dr. Briggs. This and the question of revision will be themselves in the exciting Assembly. It is very generally expected that the prominent men of the church, however, are conspicuous by their absence—the Pittsburg delegation always excepted. One reads the roll in vain for the names of Hall, Johnson, Patton, Parkhurst, Briggs, Nicolls, Purves, Kemsahill, Smith, Jones, Worrall, Withrow, Dickey and such. But the opportunity will be all the greater for men hitherto unknown to achieve reputation and influence. It is very generally believed that the Assembly will be remarkably harmonious.

Tar in the Arts.

In the preparation of tar, pine wood, which is used for use as timber, is usually employed. It is cut into billets of a suitable size, which are arranged into large coils, and these are placed in a furnace in Europe, are closely packed in clay furnaces of a suitable shape. The stacks or piles are covered with a layer of earth and ignited above, and the draft is regulated so as to sustain a slow combustion, without flame, gradually descend and collect in a cavity at the base of the pile. The tar obtained by slow combustion, as described above, is largely employed in the arts for various purposes, when divided into its constituent parts is in one form or another daily prescribed by the best physicians. It has long been known for its balsamic and healing qualities, and for external use has been prepared by Messrs. Jas. S. Kirk & Co. in a most convenient and distasteful form, in their Ducky Diamond Tar Soap. In this form it should be classed among the most valuable of medicinal agents, and is equally suitable for the delicate skin of the mother and the baby or the hardened outside of the workman, keeps the skin soft, clear and healthy, is a sure cure and preventive of dandruff, and, used once a fortnight by ladies, it keeps the hair long, luster and strength to their hair.

Straw Mattings. Matting Time sure enough! Have you bought? No? Well, you should see our assortment of 135 Patterns. Ranging from the cheaper "fancies" to the finest Chinese and Japanese weaves. Straw Mattings not being an American manufacture, the McKinley bill removed the duty, giving us the finer qualities at much lower prices than ruled last year.

Novelties. "Inlaid Cotton Warp" Mattings (seamless) are the latest thing of high grade, in fine straw and close weave, and are most artistic in designs and color effects. Being seamless, they are the same on both sides. Cotton warp being substituted for grass, the permanent wear is largely increased. The "Double-Dyed Seamless" is an improvement on the "inserted" or "straw embroidered" mattings of last year. By a new invention, the colored figures are made alike on both sides, practically almost doubling its wearing value. N. B.—By the roll (40 yards), we allow a reduction of $2, or 5c per yard.
