IE STATE WANTS HIM TO RUN IN 1896

WHEELING, W. VA., May 5 .- The State invention to choose delegates to the Rerblican National Convention at Minneolis, assembled at Martinsburg to-day, d was one of the largest ever held in the ate, there being over 600 delegates. J. E. ooten, of Moundsville, was Temporary mirman, and in his speech arraigned the emocratic Legislature "for senting a Govnor who was not elected," and politicians that party for crimes against the ballot w. E. P. Rucker, a young but eloquent an of Mercer county, was Permanent tairman.

The resolutions adopted reaffirm the Reiblican platform of '88, indorse protection a principle, and commend the McKinley w and reciprocity; assert the belief in merican ability to make all the tin plate maumed in the country, and exhort all mericans to purchase American products preference to imported goods. The free sol bill is condemned as an unjust at il irtful attack on the agricultural interest of e country, and decisive legislation, vigor-sly enforced, is demanded to restrict imigration now pouring in upon the country an alarming rate, threatening the livelicod of the people and menacing our free estitutions. The platform says:

We regard as of the highest importance intevery dollar issued by the United tates shall have a purchasing power of 100 ants, so that our gold, silver and paper sues may be kept on an equal footing. A liberal pension policy is favored, and lemocratic attacks on the present adminis-ration of the Pension Office are denounced s made for partisan purposes. Harrison is adorsed and his triumphant re-election redicted.

The following delegates were elected: C.
I. Hart, of Wheeling: Thomas E. Davis, of iration; John D. Hewitt, of Mercer county, and John A. Hutchinson, of this city. All f them are pronounced Harrison men and cill stand by him. The Second District tepublican Convention elected George M. Sowers and Prof. I. C. White delegates to dinneapolis. Both delegates are Harrison aen.

LOUD CHEERS FOR BLAINE

ly Wisconsin Republicans, Who Hall Him as Their 1896 Champion.

MILWAUKEE, May 5 .- Three hundred and sixty delegates and hundreds of party enthusiasts assembled this afternoon in Westside Turner Hall, for the Wisconsin Republican State Convention. Ogden H. Fethers, of Janesville, was introduced as Temporary Chairman. He made a brief, out superb address, and soon had the convention cheering heartily when be mentioned, "Attery inch a man, and our mentioned, "As ary inch a man, and our is reiterated, and the importation into the model President—Benjamin Harrison." A United States of servile labor is strenuously began to apostrophize "that foremost man in the world, to whom goes out, now, as always, the great heart of the Republican party—J. G. Blaine." Instantly, as at the first intimation of what was coming from the speaker there had been a moment's hush, the hall resounded with hurrahing, renewed time and again till the spec-tators in galleries could be seen holding their ears, so deafening was the uproar.
"Not later than 1896 no power short of the grave shall rob the American people of the right to nominate and elect James G. Blaine President of the United States," concluded the speaker. The din of appro-bation seemed to carry the delegates into the air, so many had jumped on chairs and were waving hats, umbrellas and handker-

The platform calls for honest money; upholds the idea of a protective tariff; com-mends the administration of President Harrison, and congratulates the Republicans on the "gerrymander" decision. Three of the four delegates at large to the National Convention were accorded, each in turn, the honor of an election by acclamation—Henry C. Payne, of Milwaukee, the retiring Chairman of the State Central Committee; ex-Senator John C. Spooner and General Lucius C. Fairchild. For the fourth place there was a lively contest between O. H. Fether, of Janesville, and Congressman Isaac Stephenson, of Marquette. Balloting resulted in a victory for Stephenson by the narrow plurality of four votes.

NEXT DOOR TO INSTRUCTIONS.

Kansas Republicans Get Around a Ticklish Point in an Adroit Manner,

HUTCHINSON, KAN., May 5 .- [Special.]-The Republican State Convention was held here to-day. The resolutions adopted express sorrow at the loss to the State and party of Senator Preston B. Plumb; demand an amendment to the inter-State commerce law to prohibit discrimination in freight rates; urge more stringent legislation against immigration of pauper foreigners; reaffirm adherence to the platform of 1888 in favor of protection, and include the following silver resolution:

That we urge the passage of such laws as efficiences the coinage of silver, looking to the coinage of the production of our own mines as soon as it can be done without injury to the business interests of the country. And that we approve the efforts of the present administration in seeking the co-operation of the principal commercial nations of the world in bringing silver to a parity with gold as the currency of the world.

No instructions were given to the delega-tion to the National Convention, but the following resolution indorsing Harrison's administration was adopted: That as President Harrison's administra-tion has been eminently sound and able, and has so strongly commended itself to the business interests of the country, the Repub-licans of Kansas stand united for his renom-ination and election.

For Congressman at large George T. Anthony, of Ottawny, was nominated. The convention elected these six delegates at large to Minneapolis: Ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls, Calvin Hood, C. C. Jones, colored, J. A. Bigger, F. C. Link and A. H. Ellis L. A. Bigger, E. C. Little and A. H. Ellis.

MINNESOTA DOESN'T INSTRUCT.

Comes in for an Equal Share of Honors With Harrison.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 5.—The Minnesota Republican Convention for the selection of delegates and alternates to the National Convention at Minneapolis met in the old Market Hall at 11 o'clock this morning. The platform adopted inderses the McKinley law; demands an honest dollar; favors an international agreement has a staple ratio between the money rais; indorses the Harrison and Blaine ministration, and denounces trusts and e selection of delegates to the National | was finally carried.

Convention at Minneapolis being in order, the following were chosen: Stanford Newell, of Ramssay county; ex-Governor J. S. Pillsbury, Hon. Frank B. Daugherty and Hon. Frank A. Day. A resolution was unanimously adopted indorsing Senator K. Davis to succeed himself in the United States Senate with a speech from William Henry Eustice, of Minneapolis, the convention adjourned.

ILLINOIS GOES INSTRUCTED.

Cullom's State Delegation Will Vote for Harrison's Nomination.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL, May 5.-The Republican State Convention reassembled at 9 o'clock this morning and another day of excitement was apparent from the very beginning. The action of the committee to select delegates at large dissatisfied the Young Republican League, as well as the colored gentlemen who assumed to represent their race on the floor of the convention, and it appeared that the era of good feeling had passed. The committee to select delegates at-large reported the following delegates: Senator Shelby M. Cullom, ex-Governor Richard G. Oglesby, Hon. Joseph J. Cannon, Dr. Joseph Robbins, James H. Gilbert, Samuel B. Raymond, George B. Swift and Miles Keho. ning. The action of the committee to select and Miles Keho.

Governor Fifer received 941 votes on the first ballot for renomination, as against a total of 294 opposed to him, and he was declared the nominee of the convention. The rest of the ticket was easily elected. The platform indorses Harrison and instructs for him; Cullom is eulogized; Blaine's ad-ministration of the State Department is also commended, and the party pledges itself to repeal the compulsory State educa-tion law.

The Republicans of Illinois took J. G. B. at his word. In a convention where admiration and devotion for the statesman from Maine were the ruling passions, where every mention of Blaine was the signal for wild scenes of enthusiasm, a resolution to instruct the Illinois delegation to vote for the nomination of James G. Blaine at the National Convention was defeated by a vote day Are Not Instructed. DOVER, DEL., May 5.-[Special.]-The Republican State Convention was called to order at noon. Senator Anthony Higgins and General James B. Wilson, of New Castle county; George V. Massey and Dr. George W. Marshall, of Kent, and J. Frank Bacon and George F. Pierce, of Sussex, had been elected in cancus as the national delegates. The platform praises Harrison, and in speaking of Blaine says:

In the conduct of the foreign affairs of the country under the President and his great Secretary, James G. Blaine, the national honor and dignity have been maintained in striking contrast to the feebleness and pushlanimity which marked the administration of his predecessor.

General James H. Wilson made a speech and received an ovation. He said: I hope to see the day when all the English-speaking people on the North American continent are one in government as they are in speech and literature. I go further, and express the hope that the day will come when all men speaking our language will be united in one world-encircling confederation

The national delegates were not instructed, but Harrison is their favorite. Delegates at large are unknown in Delaware, the six delegates being named by districts.

LADY ALTERNATES SELECTED

By the Republican Convention of Wyom ing, and Harrison Indorsed. CHEYENNE, May 5.-The Republican State Convention met here to-day, there being several lady delegates in attendance. The Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in his address, paid a glowing tribute to President Harrison and James G. Blaine. Resolutions indorsed President Harrison and complimented James G. Blaine upon his masterly diplo-matic efforts; devotion to a protective tariff moment later the orator impressively objected to; liberal pension legislation is of, and gold and silver in equality urged as a proper monetary basis.

The following delegates were elected to the Minneapolis Convention: Frank Mandell, Attorney General Potter, E. R. Din-widdie, Frank M. Foote, Charles E. Vegner and Colonel S. W. Downey. Among the alternates elected are two ladies, Mrs. Theresa Jenkins, of Larimie county, and Mrs. Cora G. Carleton, of Uintah.

and fet Dislike Not To. ROANOKE, VA., May 5 .- [ Special, 1-The Republican State Convention convened at noon, and after hearing a vigorous protective speech from General William Mahone, State Chairman, who took occasion to de-nounce the recent debt settlement because it chested the creditors out of $5,000,000 they were honestly entitled to, effected a temporary organization.

The following delegates were elected: General William Mahone, J. Brown Allen, A. W. Harris and Hon. Henry Bowen. The platform indorses Harrison's administration, praises Blaine, calls for immediate action on the free silver question, indorses the McKinley bill, demands efficient cient coast defenses and a navy that shall inspire due respect throughout the world. A minority report was presented instructing the delegates for Harrison. This was bitterly opposed by the Mahone men and a lively debate ensued. The prospeets are that the convention will be in ses-

THE BUSINESS WORLD.

Farquhar, of Pennsylvania, a Successful Missionary Abroad

IN BEHALF OF THE WORLD'S FAIR.

He Shows British Manufacturers Where Their Interests Lie.

FIRES, FAILURES AND RAILWAY NEWS HARRISBURG, May 5 .- A. B. Farquhar,

Executive Commissioner of the Pennsylvania Board of World's Fair Managers, arrived home Wednesday night after a tour of several weeks through the principal countries of Europe. Mr. Farguhar was warmly received by the American consuls, and found they are very much interested in the Columbian Exposition and are earnestly striving to secure large exhibits.

General E. Burd Grubb, the American Minister to Spain, brought about a special meeting of some of the most influential men of that country, at which Mr. Farquhar attended. The general interchange of views which took place aroused considerable enthusiasm, and Spain's exhibit, Mr. Farquhar says, will be most generous.

In France, says the Executive Commissioner, the artists, of whom there are a great number, are quite enthusiastic, and there is no doubt of an elegant exhibit of paintings from that country. In some of the large manufacturing towns of England, Mr. Farguhar discovered a spirit of indifference toward the Exposition; but after he had talked with them they seemed disposed to send an exhibit of some sort to Chicago. This indifference grew out of their hostility to the trade barriers erected by the United

This indifference grew out of their hostility to the trade barriers erected by the United States between the two countries.

Mr. Farquhar argued in a practical, business-like manner. He said that no matter whether England does or does not exhibit, the varied industries of America will be on exhibition at Chicago, and visitors will be there to see them from all parts of the globe. If England can afford to be without representation, Americans had nothing to lose. The wideawake Englishmen were not slow to see the force of Mr. Farquhar's argument, and many of them promptly signified their intention of exhibiting.

While abroad Mr. Farquhar saw the necessity of each country naving a separate representative at Chicago to receive and have general supervision of the exhibits; and he sent a letter to the Director General of the Exposition embodying his views of the matter. At the coming meeting of the Executive Committee of the Pennsylvania Board of Managers, he will recommend the appointment of a representative of the exhibitors of this State. This official will look after all the exhibits, thereby relieving the Individual exhibitors of the necessity of employing an agent to do the work.

Mr. Farquhar was very much gratified to know that 480 applications for space have been made by Pennsylvanians, and has no doubt that the display of the Keystone State will be a creditable one in every sense.

The Flour Output Still Decreasing. MINNEAPOLIS, May 5.—The Northwestern Miller says: There was another small de crease in the flour output last week. The aggregate production for the week was aggregate production for the week was 178,450 barrels, against 181,545 barrels the previous week and 125,190 barrels for the corresponding time in 1891. Though the demand for flour the past week has been only moderate, the current manufacture of patents was probably sold. The domestic demand is still only moderate, Prices show a triffe further shrinkage.

DULUTH, May 5 .- J. T. Jones, representing P. B. Kimberly and Carnegie, Phipps & Co., has agreed to lease five mines on the new Mesaba range and ship 1,250,000 tons of ore each year, paying a royalty of 80 cents a ton to the mine stockholders. Mr. Jones says he can mine the ore for 30 cents a ton. The ore has been contracted for. This is the largest mining deal that has ever been known in

The contract for the erection of the Newsboys' Home on the lot donnted by Mrs. Schenley at the corner of Old avenue, Forbes and Shingiss streets, has been awarded to Rose & Fisher for $21,985. The extra work will probably cost about $5,000 more. As the Home is to be built upon the site of the old canal basin it is likely that $1,000 will have to be expended in concreting for a solid foundation. Altogether it is probable the new structure will cost in the neighborhood of $30,000. Of this amount there is in the Newsboys' Home building fund $26,120 in cash. #### STUFFING THE BALLOT BOXES.

Census Figures Don't Count With World's Fair Sunday Closers.

CHICAGO, May 5 .- Long petitions for closing the World's Fair Sundays have lately been showered upon Colonel John T. Dickinson, Secretary of the National Com-mission. It begins to look as though the people who are clamoring to have the gates shut on Sunday are stuffing the ballot box. Last night when Barney Galligan footed up the list of the petitioners he found that 11,038,150 men, romen and children had asked to have the Fair closed on the first day of the week. It was considered somewhat peculiar that the number of petitions from several States exceeded the total population as shown by the census of 1890. When Barney Galligan made this discovery his eyes hung out like door knobs. Barney is a Sunday closer

The Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor has sent in a great many petitions. The girls and boys of this society seem to be putting in all their spare time getting people to sign the petitions. It is a "fad" with the society in a dozen or more states. Some of the petitions look States. Some of the petitions look as though all of the names might have been signed by one person; but, then, nobody would think of accusing young people of Christian propensities of trifling with peo-ple's names in that way.

NORRISTOWN, May 5.-Thomas Kehoe is excavating a cellar under his old frame hotel building at the corner of De Kalb and Washington streets, and, according to a statement made by one of the laborers engaged on the work, unearthed enough coin yesterday to pay for the improvements and have sufficient left to buy a nice farm.

During the afternoon the pick of an Irishman struck an iron-bound wooden box, which was speedily uncovered. Mr. Kehoe was watching operations at the time, and, witnessing the resurrection of the box, had it carried to his home. He refuses to divulge the value of its contents, but says they consist wholly of gold and silver coins, and he adds: "I will say this much: It's a nice pile."

The man who lugged the treasure to Kehoe's home says it weighs at least 15 pounds. The place was occupied years ago by John Ruby, a close-fisted bread baker, who long since removed to Reading and died. It is supposed that the money repre-sents his hoardings. They Were His Especial Care. Dr. J. O. Flower, of Pittsburg, who is at resent in New York, yesterday received a cablegram announcing the death at Stratford-on-Avon, of his cousin Charles Flower. Mr. Charles Edward Flower was known to all traveling Americans for his freehearted hospitality, and to all Shakespearians the world over for his admirable con tributions to Shakespearian literature, and for his generous gifts to Stratford-upon-

He presented to the town a memorial theater, which cost over £30,000, and personally superintended the annual production of its playa. He laid out, at his own expense, a park on either side of the Avon. He was one of the committee that determined the site of the fountain that Mr. George W. Childs presented to Strat-ford, and his last undertaking was to restore the old grammar school, bringing to light the cross timbers and the frescoes, and so give the main street the medieval appearance it had lost.

His principal literary work was the Memorial Theater edition of Shakespeare, which he completed last year just before his sight failed.

The Flowers have always had Americans under their special care. The grandfather, George Flower, came to the United States in 1817 as the associate of Morris Birkbeck, in 1817 as the associate of Morris Birkbeck, and founded an English colony in Albion, Edwards county, Ill. He improved the land and stocked his farms with sheep from England and Spain. He fought against slavery in Illinois, and, finally, died in the country that he had helped to settle.
