THE WESTERN PRESHETS. Water Still Higher in Illinois, While Kansas City Is Threatened.

OTTAWA, ILL, May 6 .- Heavy rains brought the floods to-day up to a point two feet higher on the south bluff. Boats were being rowed through the streets to remove people from their water-soaked homes, The power house of the electric railway has several inches of water over the main floor, compelling the abandonment of the line. The glass factory district is all under water, and the Pioneer Company has been com-pelled to shut down. The loss in this city alone is fully $75,000. In the farming dis trict it is indescribable. A dispatch from Kansas City says: Owing to the recent heavy rains, the Kaw river rose to an alarming extent, but is now fall-ing. Several houses in Argentine were inundated and families were forced to move out. A great amount of driftwood and dead stock came down with the rushing current.
