Bradstreet's and R. G. Dun Say Bad Weather is Retarding Trade.

A GREAT ABUNDANCE OF MONEY. The Usual May Strikes Are Not Nearly So Numerous This Year.

FIRES, FAILURES AND RAILWAY NEWS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAMS TO THE DISPATCH.) New York, May 6.—Special telegrams to Bradstreet's point unmistakably to a decrease in the volume of general trade, due to large part to cold, stormy weather West, Southwest and Northwest. Country roads there are no better, and collections in general are only fair. Work on the farms is reported to be a fortnight late, in some instances later than that.

ALL WAS CONFUSION.

Wild Scenes in the A. M. E. Zion Grand Conference Yesterday.

A CHURCH AUDITOR IS ASKED FOR. Members Engage in a Lively Fight Over Sunday School Funds.

NEW BISHOPS TO BE ELECTED TO-DAY

The third day's session of the Grand Conference of the A. M. E. Zion Church, at Wesley Chapel, on Wythe avenue, was as full of storms as an April day. Bishop Thompson presided, and on several occasions he had to tell the members of the church that "they were like a flock of geese," and that "if they didn't shut up they would put them out."

How the Disturbances Started. The first disturbances in the afternoon was a motion to appoint a committee on Sabbath School Union. Nearly the whole conference arose in a body and claimed the floor.

Whoever Refused to Sit Down. "It is not a point of order then that you want," said Mr. McIntosh angrily, addressing Mr. Wheeler. "But you wish to call attention to my language."

AFRAID OF THEIR DESERTS. A Judge Who Has Sentenced 73 Murderers Causes a Prison Panic. ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 6.—[Special.]—Judge Parker, of the United States District Court at Fort Smith, Ark., and who during his term has passed sentence of death upon 73 murderers, principally from the Indian Territory, the last two of whom were executed a week ago, is in the city.

LIVING ON A BOAT COMPANY. Two Chinamen Having a Soap Till Their Names. BOSTON, May 6.—[Special.]—Bing Kee and High Sam, who claim to be British subjects, inasmuch as they were born in Hongkong, are detained on board the steamer Halifax, while Uncle Sam's agents are trying to determine whether they have a right to land, or if not, how to get rid of them without precipitating a quarrel with John Bull.
