The Matinee Girl Was Mad. The crowd received the wind coldly and surlily. They were not to blame, for the wind managed to scurry in and out among that gaily-dressed throng with an utter disregard for sex or condition. The bare-looted newsboy forgot to wait for the baseball score and hustled about to sell his papers. The sporty boy on

BAID ON CAR RIDERS.

Pennsylvania Bailrosd Police Capture 40 People During the Week.

The Pennsylvania police made a midnight raid on car riders Friday at Conemaugh. A haul of 21 people was made. Yesterday they were sent to the Ebensburg jail for 20 days. In the crowd was H. Adams, alias Harry Officer. Most of the men were quite respectable, and able to pay their tares.

A tew of them had come from Altoona to attend a ball in Johnstown and they were rigged out in their best suit of clothes. Others were found in box cars with their shoes off and their coats and vests under their heads as pillows. They were calmly sleeping the sleep of the just when they were gobbled by the police. Two of the riders broke away, waded the Conemaugh river and escaped. The raid at night was a surprise, as other onslaughts on these people were made dur-ing the day. The total number of riders arrested during the week on the Pittsburg division was 40. Presbyterians Going to Portland.
