BASEBALL NEWS OF GREAT INTEREST

Two defents in one afternoon is somewhat of a bitter pill for local baseball cranks to swallow. Such a calamity has little or no pain about it when the other fellows are the victims, but when home talent are the sufferers it is quite another matter, Yesterday afternoon the baseball sluggers of this bailiwick were downed twice by the Senators; the same Senators who used to for any team in a good sized League. handed young men, both tolerably known the citizens of hereabouts. Messrs. Knell and Killen were the s cause of the catastrophe, and last eveni Arthur Irwin and his band were smiles over because of the achievements of th South Paw terrors. There were over 5,000 people on grounds, and most certainly they beca weary long before the second game ended. Cincinnati The contests were close enough, but there was a prevailing presentiment to the effect that our sluggers were doomed to defeat simply because a pair of steady left-handers were to face to them. And the fears turned out to be well founded, because hitting either Knell or Killen was simply out of the question. This inability to hit a good left-handed man is becoming remarkable. What They Cannot Hit.

is almost considered an axiom here that a left-handed batter cannot hit a leftstring left-handed, viz., Beckley. With an exception or two the right-handers could not fathem the tricks of twirling indulged in by Manager Irwin's pitchers. The truth is, that Knell and Killen are excellent pitchers irrespective of their South Paw qualities. Knell is quite an accomplished young man in the pirching business, and he will fool many teams besides the Pittsburg.

But our own pitchers did very well, inoced. Old Sport Galvin pitched a remarkable game and it was only in the tenth inning that he was mark enough for the | Son, 2; Fontz, 2. Time-One hour and 30 minut isitors to hit his delivery hard enough to core two runs and win the game. Had there been any hitting at all in the game on the part of the home team that fatal tenth form to-day and had the Giants completely there been any hitting at all in the game on the part of the home team that fatal tenth from to-day and had the Giants completely form to-day and had the Giants completely at his mercy, one scratch single in the ninth liming would never have been reached. The Washington team have only their pitche hit at all steadily the Washingtons at likely to be beater. They are not in th front ranks eather in histing or fielding an a the first game vesterday they made suf cient errors to lose many a game if a time that now and again could have been mad at the tena reflects great credit on Mar arer Irwin. They are better than they eve were and will give a good account of them

A Very Exciting Contest.

The first game was one of the most exciting that has ever been played here. When the ninth in ing ended and neither side had scored, therewas, indeed, some lively shout-ing. And when in the tenth the home players the first run of the game the crowd ene wild, but the enthusiasm was shortlived, as the visitors went in and thumbed out two great big runs right off the stick two greating runs right off the stick.

I. During the progress of the nine alongs there were some very exciting ages. In the eighth uning Shugari led with a good three-larger between the with a good three-larger between the standard form. A run looked off with a good three-bagger between the center and left fielders. A run looked Corkhill went to but and sent a lively PHIL'A. "R B P A E LOUISVILLE R B P A 1 wounder to Dowd, and Shugart started for ome but had no earthly chance of cetting here. He was put out between the bases. Mask followed with a tolerably longity to buffee, and had Shugart still been on third e might have scored on the throw in. But is uncless to ery over spilt milk.

In the teath inning, after Farrell was out, Beckley surprised everybody by making a single over second base. He reached second while Hoy was fumbling the ball. Bowd numbled Corkhill's grounder, and beckley went to third, and scored on a wild throw by Radford. Everybody thought the game was won, but the visitors' turn was vet to take place. Where Richardson Came In.

Richardson started the second half by knocking out a single to right field. Knell sperificed him to second, and he scored on Don'd's single to right, Dowd going to second on the play. A passed ball sent Dowd to third, but he was thrown out at the plate when trying to score on Radford's infield hit. It diord got to second on the play, and secred the deciding run on a single by Hoy, and the great game was

The second contest was also one of the exciting sort. Frank Killen and Mark Isaldwin were the pitchers, and both started out in great shape. The fourth inning was seached before a run was made and then the he visitors drew first blood. That very only man, Milligan, started off the second iown the right foul line for three bases. A accifice hit by Killen scored the run. The eighth inning came and the local eroes got their turn. Earle started out ath a single to center and stole second. Baldwin and Miller each knocked out flies which were caught. Louis Bierbauer was next up and he sent a hot one to left for a base and Earle scored, tieing the score.

Flais looked e. couraging. But the awful second half of the inning cause, and Donovan started it with a single pessed ball sent him to second, and Dufsee's eacrifice sent him to third. Larkin knocked a grounder to Beckley and Jake ponds a had throw to the plate, allowing Denovan to score. Milligan's double scored Larkin. Richardson was caught out and Killes get his tase on balls. Dowd was hit with a pitchest ball, and a single by Radford scored Milligan and Killen. The score:

The Washington team are putting on a wonderful sport, and if they can maintain their present gait they will soon pass some more clubs. The Chicagos are also getting down to better work, and yesterday's two defeats was a big blow to the Pittsburgs.

A GOOD ENGAGEMENT. Manager Hanlon Makes Excellent Terms With the Baltimore Club, player, will be pleased to know that he has made an excellent engagement with the Baltimore club. He is to receive a salary of $3,000 for the calance of the season for managing the team and an additional $1,000 if he plays.

Yesterday Ed had a flual settlement with President Temple, of the local club, and everything was highly satismetory to both parties. Last evening the Baltimore manager said: "Mr. Temple has acted like a rentlen an to me, and I have certainly nothing to complain about. I received a check to day which in all respects is thoroughly satisfactory. I have lived happily in Pitisburg, and I leave it reluctantly, I assure you. I want to return my thanks to all the people in Pittsburg who have treated me so well, in Pittsburg who have treated me so well, timore club. He is to receive a salary of the food.
$3,000 for the calance of the season for managing the team and an additional $1,000 if he blays.

Washington, 5. Time of game-One hour and 45 and to the press. While here I have worked my best to make baseball a success, and I have had many happy days here. I wish Pittsburg weil. Pittsburg weil."

Manager Haulon will move his family to Baltimore in a few days.

THE home team played admirably yesterday out-side of their batting.

HAIN prevented the Western League ball game at Indianapolis yesterday. YALE defeated Brown University, with Wood-cock, of Pittsburg, in the box, 2 to 0. PETE MCSHINNIC, the local player, is too busy at present to Join a professional league.

STALEY is proving his value to the Boston team. He is pitching in magnificent form these days. FRANK KILL N was presented with a handsome SOVERODY in Louisville gave Tom Brown a bat circled with flowers. The Kentuckians have got 'em bad. NEW ORLEANS has signed pitcher Weber, of the Mohawk Browns. He joins the Pelicans at ARTHUR IRWIN is delighted with his team, and has strong hopes of their finishing near the top of the heap. PRESIDENT WILLIAMS has posted Pitchers Con Murphy and R. L. Hart as available for Western League Clubs.

OLD SPORT pitched a spiendid game, and had his colleagues bit a little bit, would have pitched a winning game. McMailon, of the Baltimores, doesn't believe in a pitcher latting in the game, and declines to carry an individual bat bag. A NOTICE has been posted on the entrance to the grand stand of the local ball grounds stating that no questionable characters will be admitted.

PITCHER KNELL insisted on getting his foot out of the box yesterday. The crowd and Jake Beckley objected, but Umpire Hurst declared the trick legal. MANAGER CHAPMAN has about completed ar rangements for the Clevelands playing off the two postponed gemes on Sunday, the 15th, at Eellpse Park. Now that Connor is gone, some of the New York reporters are moving by systematic misrepresenta-tion to also work Jim O'Rourke out of the New York team. MANAGER LEVIN thinks Dowd is the fastest straightaway runner in the baseball profession, and is willing to wager that he can bent Billy Hamilton in a 100 yards dash.

CUSHMAN's men are known as the "Indians," the name having been given them at Minneapolis. The name "Brewers" does not suit the boys, as they are all temperance men.

SHUGART was told in yesterday's game, when he made the three-base hit, not to attempt to run home except on a safe hit or a long fly by the first man up. He failed to comply and was put out. MANAGER SELEE, of Boston, has an idea that some of his men are smoking too much, and will request them to let up a little on the weed to see if it will not help them meet the ball with more freedom with the stick. VON DER AHF expresses bimself as satisfied with Stricker's cantaincy. He says he does not intend to release Werden, and contemplates no further changes in his team. Chris also avers that his men are well behaved and that not a fine has yet been imposed upon anyone.

UNCLE ANSON has lifted up his voice to assert: "There isn't a man in the Chicago team can be called a good sacrifee hitter, and anybody who can hit the ball at all can become quite proficient as a hunter if only he will spend a little time in prac-ticing. The boys must practice bunting."

Great Contrast in the Training Methods of Jackson and Slavin.

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH,] LONDON, May 7.-Peter Jackson is training at Brighton for his fight with Slavin in a samewhat peculiar manner. He does no sweating, but takes long faunts inland generally by himself, and he never spars with any one because he says it has tendency to make him slow. He has reduced himself in three weeks nearly 15 pounds, and will enter the ring weighing about 185 pounds. Slavin is training at Dover Court on the Savin is training at Dover Court on the East coast and his method of procedure is the very opposite of Jackson's. He says his fighting weight will be considerably over 190 pounds. There is little or no betting, but what wagering there has been has favored Jackson. Jackson.

Jack Slavin and Con Riordan, of San Francisco, have been matched for £200 a side and a big purse. The men will fight at the Ormonde Club on June 2. The fancy here favors Slavin, but the match ought to be a good thing for Riordan.

Fred Johnson, who is matched to fight George Dixon, will leave for New York on the Majestic Wednesday. He ought to whip Dixon if he gets into good condition. He Jack Davis Gives Him a Plenty in Nineteen Very Lively Rounds.

BURLINGTON, IA., May 7.-It took 19 rounds for Jack Davis, of Portland, Ore., to knock out Gipsey Gleason, of England, here to-day. Both men are welter weights, and fought for $ 00 n side and a purse of $300. Both men were in good condition and went into the fight to win.

In the early part of the fight and at times even up to the twelfth round, Gleason appeared to have a little better of Davis but the latter continued to try to land with his long swinging blows on Gleason's neek. Finally in the nineteenth round, just after a clinch, Davis succeeded in landing an upper cut on Gleason's mouth that sont him to the ent on Gleason's mouth that sent him to the ground for good, the fight being awarded to Davis. Some of Gleason's friends claimed a tool but the majority of the spectators up-held the decision of the referee.

The Big Fights in New Orleans Will Be on

Three Successive Nights, NEW ORLEANS, May 7.-The Olympic Club has yielded to the request of railroads and others and will fix its three big fights for three successive nights, so that visitors will not have to remain here longer than abso-lutely necessary. The first affair will be Fitzsimmons and Pritchard on Monday night, September 5, McAuliffe and Meyer will need Tuesday night, and Sullivan and Corbett on Wednesday night.
The Metropolitan Club will try and arrange a fight, and has matched Siddons and VanHeest ior a return fight at 123 pounds on the 7th inst, for a $1,200 purse.

A Very Queer Decision. Syracuse, N. Y., May 7.—James Kennard, the St. Paul "Kid," boxed six rounds before the Syracuse Athletic Club last night with the Syracuse Athletic Club last night with Prof. Fred Warner, the club's boxing instructor, for a purse of $125. The "Kid" weighed 115 pounds, and Warner 130. Honors were about even till the last round, when the "Kid" forced the fight hard, and got in three blows to his adversary's one. He nearly knocked Warner down once. When time was called the "Kid" was very fresh, but Warner was considerably winded. The referee gave the fight to Warner, to the dissification of the crowd, who thought Kennard had the best of it. NEW ORLEANS, May 7 .- [Special.]-The Olympic Club of this city has changed the date of the three big events, the Sullivan-Corbett, Myer-McAuliffe and Fitzsimmons-Pritchard fights, from September 3, 5 and 7 to the 5th, 6th and 7th of the month. The object of the change is to defeat the plans of the rival Metropolitan Club to use the intervening dates. Broke His Arm, MARSHALLTOWN, IA., May 7.-In a slugging match here between W. M. Nelson, of Chimarch here between w. M. Nelson, of Chi-cago, and Jim Sellers, a local pugilist, both colored, Nelson's right arm was broken in the second round and Sellers was declared the winner. Sellers dodged a terrific blow by Nelson, whose fore arm struck his open head, the ulna snapping like a pistol shot. The Ring.

D. T.—The contest between Slavin and Jackson is to be one of D rounds.

The First Game Between These Colleges

for Three Years.

The Sewickleys gave the champion East End Gyms quite a good game yesterday before a good-sized crowd. The Gyms batted hard but fielded poorly. On the other hand the visitors played a great game in the field, but could not hit Gumbert, who was well supported by Steen. In the fifth the Gyms made four earned runs on singles by Steen, Thompson and D. Barr, a two-bagger by Gray and another single by Cargo. Grady made some great catches in left field. Score: E. E. G. A COMING TWIRLER,

Something About the Most Talked of Ama teur in the Country. There is probably no single individual playing ball who is attracting more atten-tion than Freshman Clarence Bayne, pitches and captain of the University of Pennsyl vania team. College men and professional players who have had some of the most effective pitchers before them affirm that Bayne has the most puzzling derivery in the country. For that reason a dozen of Clarence Bayne. more of the big clubs are trying to secure his services, among them the Washington Leaguers. The management of that organ-Learners. The management of that organization has no doubt been influenced by that excellent judge, Arthur Irwin, who says that he would rather have Bayne than half of the paid pitchers in the bir League. Bayne in appearance is an ideal athlete. He stands 5 feet 11 inches in height, he is very active, strong, supple and energetic. He is also quite a fast runner, and the very best barter on the heavy-hitting college team of which he is a member. which he is a member. It is not known for certain that he can be induced to enter the professional arena. He is but 19 years old, and belongs to the class of 35 at the university. If but half of what is said of him is true, he will without doubt be an acquisition to any club that may be able to secure him. THE LUCKY RIGHT SHOE

Did Not Help Princeton Out and Harvard Won the Game, PRINCETON, May 7.—[Special.]—Before 4,000 excited spectators Harvard and Princeton began the first game of baseball they have played together in four years. It was, of course, a Princeton crowd, and the rooters yelled in platoons for the Orange and Black. An explosive "Siss, boom, ah, Princeton!" from the left field bleachers was answered by another from the right field, and the choes had not died away before the refrain was taken up by a delegation of shouters in the central stand. Occasionally a melancholy yell of Harvard issued from a corner of the stand, where about a dozen lonesome looking persons carrying crimson flags were grouped. When the tigers took the diamond for practice the crowd rose en masse and indulged in a unanimous "Siss." The betting was 5 to 4 in favor of the Crimson.

In the third inning Young asked that the game be called, and motioning to Drake, the changed pitcher of Princeton, asked him to take off his right shoe. Thereupon the pitchers deliberately sat down and changed right shoes. Young considers Drake's shoe was taken up by a delegation of shouters in a mascot. With the exception of Mason, Harvard played a sharp fielding game, ran bases well and hit had. The Princetons could not hit Highlands, fielded miserably and ran bases without judgment. It was a crushing defeat. The score:

Looking for His Address.

Daughter-For the life of me I can't find Daughter—For the life of me I can't find his name.

Mother—Whose name?
Daughter—Why, before leaving home this morning, Harry told me to send his summer suit somewhere to be cleaned and fixed up, and to save me I can't tell where.

Mother—Why, you stupid girl, there is only one place for work of that kind, and that is DICKSON, THE TAILOR'S.
Daughter—Oh, yes! Dickson, the Tailor, I remember now. 65 Flith avenue, corner Wood street: Telephone 1558.
