THE TRADE OUTLOOK.

The Week Past Has Broken the Record in Receipts of Bananas.

SHOE LEATHER MANUFACTURERS

In the Fast Contemplating a Curtailment of Production.

HIDES AND CALFSKINS ARE QUITE DULL

OFFICE OF THE DISPATCH, PITTSBURG, SATURDAY, MBy 7. In lines of general produce the market fentures of the week past have been the heavy receipts of tropical fruits and dairy roducts and the declining prices in both ines. Since last Monday there have been re-June July MESS POEK. ceived in this market fully 40 carloads of bananas. One firm alone received 22 cars. Very little of this stock was left at the close the week, though large quantities of lowgrade and over-ripe stock were unloaded at ie lowest prices of the season. Pincapples have also been received in ery large quantity, and only the best are in request. As the season is here when dairy reducts most abound, prices are on the de-cine, and quotations on creamery butter re fully 3c per pound below prices of a cek ago, with a prospect of still further

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour reduction the week to come. In anticipation of another drop, dealers are reported as cutting prices in the past few days.

In Cereal Lines.

It will be seen by reference to home market column that receipts of grain and lay have been unusually large for the week. There is no longer the scarcity of hay there has been of late, and prices have found a lower level. The improvement of grazing has no doubt had an effect in putting a check to the appeard movement of his.

Flour and millized are slow as ever. At present price of wheat there is no margin of profit to the flouring mills of this city. Said a representative of one of our flouring mills: In there flour must go up or wheat must come down. We cannot pay the market price of wheat there is no margin of the flouring mills of this city. Said a representative of one of our flouring mills. There flour must go up or wheat must come down. We cannot pay the market price of the flouring mills of this city. Said a representative of one of our flouring mills. The flour weaker and dult; low own. We cannot pay the market price of hear and come our even on flour. It is only question of short time when the consumer ust pay more for his brendstuff.

Hides and Leather.

Advices from New England indicate that anners of shoe leather contemplate a shut own of 30 to 60 days, owing to extremely low prices. Stock has of late been a drug on the market and prices are so low that rofits are well nigh obliterated. The ovement to curtail production is designed clavate the price of leather and at the ame time reduce the price of blies and alfakins. As a result of this proposed curiment of production, the hide and calf market has been very dull and slow for week past. While our quotations are hanged, the seller is much more cager at the buyer, and markets have not been low any time this summer as they have a for the week past. Up to May, cal-tes were in active demand, and all offered Sheepskins are fairly steady. llowing are prices paid by dealers and cas for stock delivered here: 1 green saited steers, 60 lbs and over

CHICAGO-A right about face upturn is prices, with light trading, were the features Saturday on the Board of Trade. Compared with last night, wheat, after its long decline, made an advance of 11/2 and to night shows a net gain of 3/c. Corn is 11/ce up, oats 3/c and pork 123/c. The firmness was mainly attributable to war talk, it being reported that the Russians were massing troops on the Austrian frontier and the troops on the Austrian Frontier and the preparations were more warlike than for some time. The weather, too, again turned colder, with snow in some sections of the Northwest.

The leading rutures ranged as follows, as corrected by John M. Oakley & Co., & Sixth street, members of the Chicago Board of Trade:

Sugar Not Far Behind in Activity and Strength - Reading Lacks Life, and Lackawanna Is Raided Down - The Bank Statement Unfavorable - Bonds

New York, May 7 .- The stock market today was quiet and in the main strong, but was as narrow as at any time during the week, presenting few features of interest and the general list showing only slight fluctuations. The great scature of the day was the extraordinary animation in Omaha common, which rose to first place in the dealings, while reaching higher prices than in many months. The stock rose from 50% last night to 52%, but a portion of this was lost, while the preferred stock was stub-bornly held at the highest point. Rending was active, as usual, but displayed no vitality, and was traded in within narrow limits with the rest of the market. The Industrials were the most prominent feature after Omaha, and a substantial rally in Sugar, owing principally to the covering of shorts, was helped by a rise in Chicago Gas, which carried its price above 80 on the expectation of increased dividends in the future. A bear drive was made at Lackawanna, which was supposed to be to shake out enough stock to enable the operators interested to cover their shorts, which seems at present to be the object of most of the raids. Prices yield readily to these attacks, owing Prices yield readily to these attacks, owing to the lack of speculative interest in the market; but stocks are so tightly held that the buying to coverimmediately sends them back again, and little is gained.

The issue of the bank statement which was an unfavorable exhibit, had some influence in creating some reaction in the late deallings, and many of the list were carried down below the opening figures. The market never rallied, but closed heavy, with most stocks within the smallest fractions of last night's figures. Sugar, however, was up 1%, and Omaha 1½, while the losses were insignificant.

185, and Ominia 175, while the losses was all significant.

past week was apathetic as a rule, sales an de a respectable aggregate, and the mar-ket was generally firm. All the important changes were for the better. Lors s were for small fractions. The leading features of the week were sharp advances in Airbrake, which closed $5 a share higher than a week ago on the declaration of an extra dividend, and in Manchester Traction, which improved nearly $4 a share, due to a large and constant increase in earnings and talk of a dividend at the coming meeting. Central Traction and Electric (old) finished $1 each better than a week ago. New Electric was also than a week ago. New Electric was also hisher.

Changes for the week in the actual list were: Philadelphia Gas up ½, Central Traction I, Electric I, Airbrake 5, Underground Cable ¼, Manchester Traction 3½, Duquesne ½, Fractional concessions were made by Luster and Switch and signal. Pittsburg Traction was offered down ½ in face of the dividend.

Sales Saturday were 10 Manchester Traction at 41, 10 at 445, 6 Duquesne at 27½, 50 at 28, and 28 switch at 16½. Sales on call for the week were 2,000 snares and $1,000 bonds. Duquesne Traction led with 500 snares, followed by Philadelphia Gas with 335.

Last quotations on the unlisted tractions were: Manchester, 44½ bid. offered 44%; Birmingham, 26½ bid, none offered? Duquesne, 27% bid, offered at 28.

It people who handle money told straight stories, the local marker put something to its credit during the week. Several bankers reported improvement in the loan department, but added that there was no lack of funds. The discount rate was unchanged all through, hanging around 5@6 per cent. An Exchange broker yesterday offered to loan on call $100,000 at the inside rate, and agreed to let it run 30 days. The Clearing House statement for the day and week shows these results.

Saloon to Be Built Near General Alger's Bouse and Right in the Rear of a Church-The Deatons Moved Too Slowly to Prevent It.

DETROIT, May 8 .- [Special.]-The new Union depot, now nearing completion on Fort street, is near the residences of General Alger, J. F. Joy, the widow of Zach Chandler and other wealthy persons, and directly opposite is the Fort Street Methodist Church. All the available ground in the vicinity being occupied by elegant residences or massive buildings of manufacturing concerns, it seemed probable that there would be no saloons within two blocks of the station, and the wealthy residences of Fort street felt that while it was bad enough to have the railroad terminus thrust upon them, they would escape the cheap saloons.

Directly back of the Fort Street Church there is a small lot, 30x75 feet, which for years has been fenced in with the church property and has been supposed to belong to the church. The trustees of the church, however, knew better, and feared that the land would be grabbed for saloon purposes. They set about to lease the land, built is store and run a drugstore under one of the deacons' names, in order to meet the expense of the lease. Accordingly the dea-cons called on Captain Dickinson, executor on talled on Captain Diekinson, executor of the estate to which the land belonged, and talked over the matter. They held two or three meetings, and finally decided to lease the land.

Several weeks elapsed, and when they called on Captain Dickinson again they found that Andrew Naley and Joseph Henry, barkeepers, had discovered that the 30 feet did not belong to the church, and, without waiting, had closed a ten years' lease of the land at $800 a year. A saloon will be erected on the land, and within 25 feet of the pulpit the bar will be in operation.

FOURTEEN YEARS OF SUFFERING. Mrs. Shoemaker's Experience in the United States and Canada.

A letter was received at this office a week o nore ago, says the Detroit News, which contained statements of so positive and surprising a nature that it was thought best to make a thorough investigation before publishing it. The writer of the letter is Mrs. S. Shoemaker, who now lives at Eikton, Mich., but whose home

They are vouched for as facts by J. C. McDonald, Esq., Justice of the peace, and C. Elford, postmaster, both highly esteemed citizens of Duart. Mrs. Shoemaker's letter is published as she wrote t, and deserves attention.

o the Editor of the News:

For fourteen years my life has been one of misery. My nerves were completely shattered, and at times It seemed as though sleep had gone from me forever. For four years I did not have one good night's sleep. My appetite was variable and food did not digest. My heart was so weak that at the least noise or excitement it almost stopped beat-faith in all medicine. When I was in the depths of despair I happened to hear of Paine's celery compound. From what I heard I was inspired with fresh courage and hope, and I commenced using it. By the time I had taken a dozen bottles I was once more strong, able to do my own work on a farm. To-day I can eat anything from pork to pastry without its disagreeing with me. Everyone in this village knows how I suffered changed me from a helpless, despairing woman to my present state of health and strength. I hope you will publish this letter and spread as widely as possible the knowledge of a means that will bring health and happiness to homes where sickness and suffering make life a burden.

Yours truly, MRS. S. SHOEMAKER. Investigations prove that Mrs. Shoemaker's statement is vouched for by many or the best citizens in Huron county. Charles Dornan, a druggist in Elkton, told the News representative that Mrs. Shoemaker's statement was true, and that Paine's celery compound had effected many almost as marvelous cures in that section. The discovery of Paine's celery compound has
