

THE BRIGGS APPEAL

Made to the General Assembly by the Committee of Prosecution
MAY NOT BE ENTERTAINED AT ALL
Great interest in the question coming up in Portland pretty soon.
SURE TO BE A SPIRITED DISCUSSION

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.
NEW YORK, May 12.—Probably no General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States was ever more faithful to the Church at large, or excited more interest, than the one which is to open at Portland, Ore., to-morrow week—Thursday, May 19. Aside from the great interest taken in the revision of the constitution of faith, the celebrated Briggs case, as it is called—the question, substantially, whether Dr. Briggs is orthodox or unorthodox in his teachings as professor of Systematic Theology in the Union Theological Seminary, as judged by his writings—will also come before the Assembly, and on the decision or determination reached by the General Assembly in that case, depends, according to very general belief, whether there shall be another division in the Church—a division between the old and new school, and the consequent creation or organization of another church.

The Briggs case cannot very well come up in the General Assembly until the 23rd instant, and it is more than likely it will not be reached until the end of the month—that is, until the General Assembly is well into the second week of its session.
The Appeal May Be Ignored.
The only way in which it can come before the Assembly is on the appeal of the presiding committee of the New York Presbytery against the decision of that body dismissing the case. That appeal will probably in the first instance be referred to the Judicial Committee, when appointed.
The General Assembly, however, may decline to entertain the appeal in any event, it will be very difficult for the General Assembly to prevent a discussion, to some extent, on the merits of the case, even on the question whether the appeal shall be entertained or not.
It is believed that the committee of prosecution will find themselves checked at the General Assembly by the complaint to the Synod of Dr. Briggs and his friends against the decision of the Presbytery last fall, when the case against him was dismissed. It will be remembered that after the case was dismissed a motion was made to dismiss the committee of the Moderator declared the motion out of order on the ground that the committee was a committee of prosecution, representing the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and therefore an original party independent of the Presbytery.

A Complaint to the Synod.
On an appeal being made to the House against that ruling, the Moderator was sustained by a vote of 64 to 57. Against that decision Dr. Brown and others gave notice of a complaint to the House, and the House meets next autumn. According to the law of the Church that complaint acts as a stay, and in the opinion of many Presbyterians well versed in the law of the Church, the general Assembly must, in obedience to its own laws, reject the appeal of the committee against the decision of the Presbytery, while the question is sub-judice before the Synod, and in the language of one of the friends of Dr. Briggs, "back the committee of prosecution off again home."
The complaint of Dr. Briggs and his friends to the Synod against the ruling of the Presbytery has been regularly made. It shows clearly the strength of Dr. Briggs' position, and also the interesting fact that the Presbytery has already practically reversed its own judgment in the matter. According to section 35 of the Book of Discipline "whenever a complaint, in cases non-judicial, is entered against a decision of a judicatorial body, signed by at least one-third of the members recorded as present when the action was taken, the execution of such decision shall be stayed until the final issue of the case by the superior judicatorial body."
Two Strings to the Bow, at Least.
The complaint of Dr. Briggs and his friends against the ruling referred to has been regularly taken, all the forms according to the Book of Discipline have been complied with, and it is believed that it will prevent the General Assembly entertaining the appeal of the committee of prosecution, especially as the Moderator has itself also a complaint before the Synod in the same matter, and are thus appealing on the same matter to two different bodies at the same time. They are supposed to have taken that course so that if they fail before one judicatorial body they can fall back on the other.
The most interesting thing, however, in the complaint of Rev. Dr. Briggs and his friends against the ruling of the New York Presbytery on the question whether the committee of prosecution was an original party or not, is the fact that it is signed by 114 members of the Presbytery, many more than the required number. The Moderator's ruling, it will be remembered, was sustained by 64 votes to 57, the total number of those voting being therefore 121. Of these 114 signed Dr. Briggs' complaint, thereby practically reversing the Presbytery's ruling, and consequently overruling the Moderator by 66 to 55. From this it is clear that many who voted on the question of sustaining the decision of the Moderator have changed their minds, presumably because they did not understand the question. The question, shall the Chair be sustained? is always decided without debate.

Basics of the Briggs Complaint.
In their complaint to the Synod, Dr. Briggs and his friends say:
The committee, and a creature of Presbytery, had no right to appeal from the decision of Presbytery in voting by a large majority (94 to 25) to dismiss the aforesaid case. Yet this, the action of the Presbytery in sustaining the ruling of the Moderator, as above, permitted them to do. By this appeal of the committee, the Presbytery is placed in the absurd position of being compelled to defend its own action in dismissing a case, not against the complaint of any individual, nor against the appeal of any who have suffered personal detriment by a judicial decision, but against a committee which was appointed by and derives all its authority from the very body against whose judgment it now proposes to maintain its opinion. This anomalous situation results from the action of the Presbytery in sustaining the Moderator.

FOUR AGAINST ONE.
Negro Frank Roberts Murder the Officer Who Tried to Capture Them.
TOCOCA, GA., May 12.—March Carter, of Toccoa, discovered four negroes drilling into the Toccoa National Bank's vault this morning between 3 and 4 o'clock. Alone he entered the building, contemplating the capture of the gang; but the instant he stepped through the door he was discovered, and a desperate fight ensued. It was four against one. This morning the four Toccoa citizens discovered the dead marshal just outside the bank door. At first the affair was a mystery, but when the bank door had been opened and the safe tampered with the mystery grew less.
Beside the body of the dead marshal were footprints that led toward the river, and in a box car was found the bloody pieces of steel with which the marshal's head had been crushed. The tracks from the car led to Jim Rodman's house. Rodman was arrested, and after an interview with the officers, William Roberts, Robert and Bob Anderson, other negroes, were pulled in. The evidence before the coroner's jury shows that the four negroes are responsible for the marshal's death and the safe blowing. It is feared they will be quickly dealt with.

FOUGER & BOLD TARGET

For Attack by the Friends of the Revenue Marine Service.
WASHINGTON, May 12.—[Special.]—Commodore Folger, Chief of the Ordnance Bureau of the Navy Department, has become a target for attack by the friends of the revenue marine service from the Treasury to the Navy Department. The Commodore yesterday made an argument before the House Committee on Naval Affairs in opposition to the bill, notwithstanding that Secretary Tracy gives the measure his official endorsement and support. The friends of the revenue marine transfer say it would be bad enough to have an officer of the navy not holding confidential and personal relations with the Secretary to oppose the bill which the Secretary has so strongly recommended in his annual report for the last two years, and by special letters to the Houses of Congress, but they regard it as simply astounding and utterly demoralizing to the friends of the bill for a bureau officer, wielding influence by reason of the patronage which has been given him by the House of Representatives, to do it. They say the defeat of the bill means the humiliation of the Secretary, who has earnestly committed himself to its passage as a matter of great benefit to his department.
They argue further that if a Cabinet officer were to so antagonize the public policy of the President of the United States he would be compelled to resign his office if he did not have respect enough for himself to point out that the same rule should obtain with the Secretary and his Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance.

FIGHTING FOR INDEPENDENCE.

Three French Warships Sent to Put Down a Population of 1,000 Natives.
SAN FRANCISCO, May 12.—The brig Galilee has arrived from Tahiti, bringing the news of an uprising of natives of the Leeward Islands, growing out of the change from an independent native government to French rule. Three French war vessels were sent to the scene. One of the passengers said the whole trouble arose through trying to change or annul the treaty of 1847 between France and England by which the three Leeward Islands, or Raia, Hushine and Borabora, were allowed to be independent.
Now a change has been inaugurated. France has given over to the English Government the islands of New Hebrides for a penal colony, and in exchange the Leeward Islands were to be put under French Government. The change is a beneficial one for the natives, but they have so long enjoyed full independence that they hate to feel the restriction that any flag puts upon them. On the islands of Hushine and Borabora the natives at first rebelled, but later on gave in to the Government when informed by the British Consul at Tahiti that such a change was authorized. The natives on Raia, however, armed themselves and prepared for a fight. The entire population on the island numbers about 1,000. To quell the disturbance three French war vessels went to Raia. Peaceable means were to be used, if possible, to gain the settlement of troubles. No further information reached Tahiti previous to the sailing of the Galilee.

TWO EASTERN EMBEZZLERS.

One of Them Stole $350 of Lodge Money to Set Up Housekeeping With.
PORTSMOUTH, May 12.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Maurice E. Kurtz, charging him with embezzling $350 from Washington Camp No. 295 Patriotic Order Sons of America. Kurtz was treasurer of the lodge. He was recently married, and the money alleged to have been taken by him is said to have been used to set up a household. Kurtz has disappeared.
A dispatch from Chester says: Agent H. H. Barr, the alleged Reading Railroad embezzler, has been released on bail. The bail was reduced from $10,000 to $2,000, as he is very ill with pneumonia and could not survive at this time a long confinement. The amount of his shortage is said to be $9,800.

STOLEN BONDS TURN UP.

They Were Negotiable, but Were Never Sold by the Thief.
ALBANY, May 12.—[Special.]—In July, 1888, the bank artist, John Price, now serving a 10 years' sentence at Dannemora, slipped up behind P. K. Dederick, just as he left his carriage in front of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, and abstracted from the carriage a package containing $35,000 in negotiable bonds. To-day the bonds were received by ex-District Attorney Hugh Reilly.
The package was intact and the accumulated interest makes them worth about $43,000. There is no clew to where they came from except that they were sent from New York City. The mystery lies in the fact that they were returned to all as they were negotiable.

A Conservative to Wear Mackenzie's Shoes.
TORONTO, Ont., May 12.—A bye-election for the House of Commons took place to-day in East York, and resulted in the return of W. F. MacLean, proprietor of the World, by about 200 majority. Mr. MacLean is a Conservative. The vacancy was caused by the death of ex-Premier Mackenzie.
