juvenated Art Society.

A pleasanter entertainment than the tea of the Vassar Students' Aid Society yesterday has not taken place in Pittsburg this senson. But the pleasure derived from the graceful attentions of the young ladies who acted as hostesses was not greater than that resulting from the knowledge that the cause was one which has the best qualities of being helpful without interfering with the independence of spirit of those benefited by it. Assisting bright girls to procure a college education is a noble work. The society has pursued this object steadily for some time, and with the most flattering success. The headquarters of the society are in Boston, while in Pittsburg there is a | the American Revolution, are attracting so membership of 40.

The qualifications for entering Vassar are a high school education. The examinations are to be held May 31 and June 1 and 2, and will be conducted by Miss Phillips, 344 Ridge avenue, Allegheny. There are five appli-cants this year, all bright, intelligent young women, and it is expected the competition between them will be keen. An era in the progress of women was marked last week by the biennial convention in Chicago of the women's clubs of the United States. The four delegates sent by Pittsburg are all women of brains and progressive ideas, and there is no doubt that this city will be well represented in all that bestows credit upon a city from a feminine point of view. The Pittsburg delegates were Mrs. C. I. Wade, Mrs. Hugo Rosen-berg, Mrs. Ida L. Easton and Mrs. W. J. Glenn, besides a number of visitors in the conin the progress of women, who traveled to Chiengo for the purpose of hearing the views of some of the most notable examples thereof. While the women cannot expect to attain all that they desire at one stroke, there is no doubt that such conventions as this at Chicago go a long way toward that At all events Pittsburg can congratulate herself upon having contributed her share toward it by sending delegates who are competent to deal with any ordinary issue that may come to the surface.

The Junta Club annual dinner is one of the events to which all who are favored with invitations look forward with peculiar pleasure. Composed of some of the brightest minds in the city, the banquets are naturally delightful in every sense of the word. That which took place last week was no exception to the rule. The menu was perfect, and the decorations unusually artistic. Among the flowers used were sweet peas, gloximas, perles, goutler and mermet roses, all carefully arranged by A. M. & J. B. Murdoch so as to give the effect. The menu cards were of heavy archment, with a large monogram em-ossed in gold on the outside, the whole besecured with white ribbon. Could any thing be more delicate? The speeches were bright as their environment, which i saving enough to prove that the entertainment was one to which all will look back with singular delight.

The Sewickley Valley Club is proving that it has more talent than is usually found in amateur dramatic societies. The artistic manner in which the organization gave the two pretty comedies, "Sugar and Cream" and "In Honor Bound" last week was a surprise even to the friends of the members who were prepared for good work. There is no reason why amateur companies should not do as good work as professionals if they will only give their mind to it, and the Sewickley Club is evidently determined to illustrate the truth of this proposition by the excellence of its performances. It is whispered that the club will soon attempt something much more ambitious than any of their previous programmes.

The closing of the season at the Duquesne Theater leaves a handsome house at the disposal of social affairs. It is said that the Tuesday Night Club may give its performance of "Diplomacy" in the Duquesne this week. It will be a treat to admirers of this clever club to see them on the stage of one of the handsomest of the regular theaters of the city. Moreover, if the Duquesne Thea-ter is used there will be more room for those who are fortunate enough to receive invitations to the performance. Generally the list has to be curtailed to some extent to keep it down to the capacity of the Pittsburg Club Theater.

A great deal of interest is felt in the advent into Pittsburg society of those magmificent artists, Mr. and Mrs. Georg Henschel. To-morrow evening the one hundred and seventy-eighth reception of the Art Society will be held at the Pittsburg Club Theater, when the distinguished artists will be the guests of honor. They will give a programme of songs and duets, Mr. Henchel taking the pianoforte. They have a very large repertoire, and they will give some of the best selections from it for the pleasure of those at the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Hensehel have been lionized in all the large cities of Europe as well as in America, and it only remains for Pittsburg to meet them and add its laurels to the wreaths they wear so gracefully.

The social features following the musical programme are in charge of a special committee composed of the following officers and members of the society: Mr. and Mrs. George A. Macbeth, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Albree, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Scovel, prise given Tuesday evening by the Blue Light Club to their worthy President, Mr. William H. Durr. The club having assem bled by pre-arranged notice, the President was ushered in, and the Secretary, Mr. William Houck, in a few well-chosen words, preilam Houck, in a few well-chosen words, pre-sented him with a beautifully engraved gold-headed cane. After recovering from his surprise, the doors of the dining rooms were thrown open and all seated to a bounteous spread, at which the President presided. Short addresses were made by prominent members, after which all adjourned to the parlors, where the evening was spent in an enjoyable manner, and, when the new day had began to grow old, parted with handshaking and well wishes to all.

The Rev. D. H. A. McLean, D. D., and Mrs. McLean, of Rochester, Pa., celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage last Thursday. About 80 guests were present, including one son, three daughters, and a including one son, three daughters, and a host of nephews, nieces and grandchildren. Dr. McLean, now retired from the pulpit by the loss of his sight, was a minister in the United Presbyterian Church for more than 50 years. His wife was the daughter of Andrew Patterson, a prominent merchant of the olden time in Mercer, where Dr. McLean had his first pastorate. But three persons, besides the bridal couple, of those who were at the wedding were present at its golden anniversary Thursday—Mrs. Jane McLean, of Pittsburg: Mrs. Eva Baskin, of Mercer, and Robert Patterson, of Beaver. Among the clergymen prosent were the Rev. Drs. W. A. Mehard and R. Audley Brown, of New Castle, and J. D. Sands, of Pittsburg.

A delightful musical and literary entertainment was given at the U. P. Church, on Prospect street, Mt. Washington, last Thursday evening. Prof. Evans, the blind mu sician of Sharpsburg, rendered several fine selections and one original song. Prof. Fox selections and one original song. Prof. Fox, gave all varieties of recitation and song, delighting both old and young. Miss Bird, with her sister accompanying, sang two beautiful songs in a pleasing manner. Mr. Carl Braun, of Prof. Zitterbart's Orchestra, with Miss Ardella Armstrong accompanying on the piano, rendered several choice selections on the violin, one from "Il Trovatore" elleiting prolonged applause, the audience insisting on a repetition of the performance. Altogether the entertainment was a very enjoyable one.

Miss Mable Sproal, of Chicago, who is the street, Allegheny, was given a very pleasant surprise party Monday evening. Several hours were enjoyably spent in dancing, card playing and music. Grand Army Day, The Grand Army Day Committee will meet in Select Council Chamber next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The important question of the manner of celebrating the question of the manner of celebrating the day will probably be decided at this meeting. Some of the comrades are in favor of the old style of celebration—a parade in the day and campfires at night. Others favor the picnic idea. It has also been proposed to have a sham battle out at the Homewood Driving Park or elsewhere and the Schenley Park plenic plan has advocates.

Some of the comrades would like to go to Rock Point again if the objectionable element could be kept out, say on a plan of invitations and card orders. One objection unyed against Schenley Park is that the street car lines are not equal to transporting comfortably the regular patrons during an ordinary day, let alone the multitude that Grand Army Day would bring forth. Wildwood Park and other places have friends and it looks as though the committee will have a hard time settling on a plan and place satisfactory to a large number.

The presence of President Harrison, Secre-tary of the Navy Tracy, and other members of the Cabinet is confidently expected.

Post 236 was inspected Friday evening by was mustered in and three propositions for membership were read. Inspector Sias commembership were read. Inspector Sias complimented the members for their attendance and good appearance. Everything was found in good condition. The ladies of Circle No.
7 did not forget to have the customary lunch, to which ample justice was done, after which speeches were made by Inspector Sias, Comrades Frank, Buck, Dettis and Fink, all of Post 151. The ladies who served the lunch were Mesdames Kaufman, Jones, Sloan, Garland, Forsythe and Slothawer.

The System of Promotion That Will Be Presented To-Morrow.

PUPILS' DAILY WORK TO COUNT.

The Principal to Judge the Material to Enter Under His Care.

SOME BITS OF EDUCATIONAL GOSSIP

The sub-committee appointed by the Central Board of Education has been consider ing a change in the method of admission to the High School. Several plans have been suggested, but the most important one is that which will be submitted to the committee to-morrow by the Scoretary, Charles Reisfar. Secretary Reisfar desires that parents of pupils and educators generally study his plan as given below, note down flaws or improvements and act accordingly. Mr. Reisfar's plan is built upon a careful

Mr. Reisfar's plan is built upon a careful digestion of plans in vogue in other cities, with many new ideas of his own.

The objections to the present system are numerous. By this old system there are two examinations, one in December and another in June. The principal of the High School prepares the questions, and the results of the written examinations decide whether the pupils will be admitted or not. The hard study or forced process in preparation for this ordeal, the nervous tension under which the pupils are held, and the fact that the brightest pupils often make the lowest percentage from want of assurance are only some objections.

Secretary Reisfar's plan is to be found in the following rules for promotion of pupils in the sub-district schools and from these to the High School:

First—There shall be no stated examinain the sub-district schools and from these to the High School:

First—There shall be no stated examinations below step 15. Pupils shall be advanced upon recommendation of the teacher, subject to the approval of the principal. Proficiency in dally work, satisfactory deportment and regular attendance shall be taken as sufficient evidence for the pupil to take up the work of the next step.

Second—Promotions to step 14 to be made upon the result of written examinations to be held in the month of June. The lists of questions for said examinations to be prepared by a committee consisting of one principal and two assistant principals, to be named by the City Superintendent and the questions prepared by this committee shall be approved by the City Superintendent and the principal of the High School. Drawing and writing books to be accepted. The principal and Assistant shall conduct the examinations, examine the papers of their respective schools and determine the pupils that are entitled to promotion to step 14.

Third—The Central Board of Education

Third—The Central Board of Education a shall provide a uniform system of record books for each assistant principal, in which books the standing of all her pupils shall be kept; the record of each pupil's work in the several branches for the month also, deportment, attendance, habits of study, and average these recorded estimates three times during the term, in November, March and May, During the months of December and May the principal and assistant shall subject the pupils of step 14 to such oral and written tests as will indicate their progress and proficiency and be helpful to teacher and pupils. These tests shall be on all studies in which examinations are now required for admission to the High School. When such tests are written all pupils' work shall be preserved for the inspection of the City Superintendent and Principal of the High School. The Assistant Principal of the High School. The Assistant Principal is to revise the teachers' monthly estimates of their pupils' proficiency, and to approve the same when averaged. They shall give teachers such instruction and other assistance in estimating the proficiency and progress of their pupils as will secure requisite uniformity.

Fifth—On or before the first Monday of June in each year, the principal shall file in the office of the Central Board of Education a certificate for each pupil entitled to admission to the High School. This certificate sinall give the record of the pupil for the year as shown by the assistant principal's record, and shall be issued only to pupils who have attained the rank in scholarship now required for admission to the High School.

Sixth—During the month of June it shall be the duty of the City Superintendent. tep 14.
Third—The Central Board of Education

The Rev. Dr. F. N. Boyle, of the First M. E. Church, has returned from the West.

Mrs. J. J. Seegman, of Nashville, Tenn., is the guest of Mrs. C. Davidson, of Braddock.

Mr. C. F. Anderson leaves June 1 for San Francisco and sails on the 19th for Australia.

Mrs. Anna Beacom-Holbrook, of Tacoma, Wash, is the guest of Mrs. Sam Taylor-Hill, of Beaver.

Miss Pauline Weaver has returned to Youngstown, O., after a pleasant visit with relatives in Allegheny.

Principal of High School) shall have power to reject pupils when in their opinion the pupils have not attained the required scholarship, and no certificate for admission to the High School shall be valid until approved by the City Superintendent and Principal of the High School. The Superintendent and Principal of the High School shall visit the pupils of step 14 as often as convenient, noting the methods of teaching and governing, the proficiency and classification of pupils.

Eighth—The Superintendent and Principal of the High School shall, at the July meeting of the Central Board, present a report giving the number of pupils recommended by the principal of each school for admission to the High School, the number they (the Superintendent and Principal of the High School) rejected in each school.

Ninth—In case the parent or guardian of a pupil is dissatisfied with his or her non-promotion to the High School such pupil shall, on application of the parent or guardian, have the privilege of a written examination, which examination shall be by the High School faculty, under the same rules as examinations for admission to the High School are now conducted. aminations for admission to the High School are now conducted.

Article 10 provides for annulling certificates of any assistant principals who violate provisions of the articles above, and article I provides that the record books shall be open to all interested.

It will be seen that the daily work of the pupils in the schoolroom will count in the plan of promotion and both teacher and pupil know at the end of each day's session that the tasks of the day just completed will have a direct bearing on their hope for promotion at the end of the year. In a nutshell the Superintendent will be responsible for to all interested the Superintendent will be responsible for the ward schools, and the High School Prin-cipal will be the judge of the material which will enter the High School.

Gossip of the Schools. THE O'Hara school will hold reception day Thursday, May 26.

NEARLY every school in the city will have representatives in the 1,500 school chorus at the Fourth of July celebration in Schenley

Pirtsbure schools will have no exhibits at the Exposition this year, but they will concentrate their energy for the Columbian centrate the Fair of 1883.

Next Saturday examinations for provisional certificates will be in order. Physiology, music and reading will be the studies for this day. The examinations, contrary to the usual customs, will be held at the Miller street building, which will be amply large. MISS JOSEPHINE GRO, of New York, the young musician, has just issued a new piece, young musical, has just issue a new pace, the "Keystone March," and dedicated it to the teachers and pupils of the Pittsburg public schools. Manager Johnston of the Exposition has had something to do with it. He is a relative of Miss Gro.

ALREADY the youngsters of the public schools are looking longingly toward the schools are looking longingly toward the last week of school, for a picule is the pleasant prospect of the windup of school days in many districts. The Ralston school will picule at Idlewood on the 22d, of June, the Lawrence on the 23d, the Howard on the 24th, each at Idlewood. The High School pupils will congregate there a day at the latter end of the school term.

What a Fraud

To change the formula of a baking powder and to keep right on quoting old "certificates"-and "testimonials" to show that the new mixture is also "absolutely pure."

Puzzled by the wonderful success of Cleveland's baking powder, competitors are changing the make up of their own powder, trying to imitate the superior quality of Cleveland's.

Cleveland's baking powder is made as it always has been made, of pure cream of tartar, (specially refined in our own factory) soda, and flour. It is growing more and more into public favor, because it does the most work, the best work, and is perfectly wholesome.
