THE LOCAL CLUB AFTER TOM BURNS

It was just the luck of our sluggers to drop another game to Anson and his now famous Colts vesterday. There were 2,800 people who saw the performance, and it is safe to say that few of those present left the grounds very well pleased with the exhibition. The contest was strongly in contrast with that of Monday. In all respects it was inferior to the good contest of Monday, and the mistakes made in it caused a sadness that was very impressive at times. One of the rankest decisions ever made on a ball field characterized the game, and it is hard indeed to understand how Mr. Tit Hurst decided not to call Canavan out in the sixth inning after Farrell had fairly touched him when he (Canavan) had run over third base. It is not the policy o this paper to "roast" umpires, but when ne of those officials makes a mistake as palpable as calling black white at noonday there is nothing left but to say that the umpire is hardly capable of fulfilling his duties correctly.

Pitcher Woodcock Did Very Well. One very interesting feature of the contest was the first appearance in the city o Pitcher Woodcock, the young left-hande from Brown College. There were many people at the game to see the young man | utes. Umpire-Sheredan. "tried," and he had every encouragement as far as the cheers and the applause of the spectators were concerned. But the general work of his colleagues was far from being cheering. They made many glaring mis-takes, but despite that fact he maintained his nerve wonderfully. Judging from his work yesterday he is a very good pitcher, an excellent base runner, a good hitter and a thoroughly good fielder of his position. He is beyond all a cool and intelligent ball player. He has several very deceptive curves and tolerably good speed. He was naturally a little nervous at the start off, and gave the first two men their bases on balls, but he then steadied himself so effec-tively that the side should have been easily retired without a run had not Bierbauer made a very unfortunate error. Probably body would feel the mistake keener than Bierbauer, and it was one that the best of people are always liable to make.

The mistake of Bierbauer proved to be a very costly one and so did another that Miller made. Had these errors not been committed the result might have been otherwise. But the team do not always play that way. They are certainly in the midst of misfortune, and Woodcock need not think that yesterday's performance was a sample of their regular work.

Timely Hitting Was Again Absent. There was again an absence of timely stick work and this was another cause of

The team can also improve considerably in keeping their heads level when in a "tight hole," a thing which they did not do vesterday. In the first inning matters looked very cheerful for the home players. Miller led off with a single to left and got to second on a passed ball. Bierbauer got to first on a wild throw by Canavan, Miller going to third. Schriver tried to catch napping at third and threw wild, allowing Miller to tally. Farrell's sacrifice sent Bierbauer to third and he subsequently scored on Beckley's long fly. In the second half Woodcock gave Wil-mot and Dahlen each a base on balls. Wilmot stole third, Dahlen of course going to second. Ryan was put out by a fly and Anson was retired at first by Woodcock and Beckley. Dungan then sent a lively grounder between first and second bases and in running to pick it up Bierbauer some-how stumbled and could not recover in time to throw the runner out. During this mistake Wilmot and Dahlen got home by taking all chances.

They Went to the Front. In the third inning the home talent wen to the front. Bierbauer led off with a three-bagger and scored on Shugart's single. A sacrifice each by Farrell and Beckley saw Shugart to third and Smith got his base on balls and got to second on a steal aided by a passed ball. But Corkhill failed to hit a safe one and was put out at first. In the fourth inning a base on balls, two sacrifice hits and a passed ball scored another

And the Colts scored one in their half, Canavan's single, Cooney's sperifice and a single by Schriver tallied the run.

Matters were exceedingly close, and the score was tied in the sixth. Canavan made a double, and reached third on an error by But Canavan overran the base, and when on the bag Farrell touched him out, but, strange to say, the umpire called him safe. The decision was a rank bad one. A single by Cooney scored the run.

And the visitors piled up two more in the seventh. Ryan knocked a long fly to center, which Miller muffed. Miller threw the hall to Shugart, and the latter was so slow in throwing the ball home that Ryan scored. A life hit by Dungan, an error by Shugart and a single by Gumbert scored the other run.

Two bases on balls and two sacrifice hits scored one for the home team in the eighth, and in the second half singles by Wilmot and Dahlen, an error by Smith and a sacrifice by Ryan scored one for Anson's side.

The Local Club Making Efforts to Sign the Chicago Thirdbaseman, The management of the local club made efforts to sign Tommy Burns yesterday. The local officials and Manager Anson had a a long conference on the matter, and so had Manager Buckenberger and Burns. Noth ing, however, was definitely done, and Tom-ing, however, was definitely done, and Tommy left last evening with the Chicago team for home. Burns is wanted here to play third, so that Farrel can go to the outfield. All hope of not getting Burns has not been given up yet, and if he is signed he will captain the team.

The Cincinnati team landed in the city last evening, and will be ready to tackle the home players this afternoon. Either Mullane or Chamberlain will pitch for the Reds, and Galvin for the local team. The Reds are vuite a lively lot.

SOME PLAIN TALK. The East Liverpool Ball Team Want to Tackle the Alliance Players,

The following statement from the Eclipse Baseball Club of East Liverpool explains it-

We would like to say a few words to the Allance club in regard to their statement in yesterday's Disparcii. The statement that Manager Trayls refused to accept the challenge is not true and well the Alliance club knows it. The Edipse challenged the Alliance to play at Pittsburg at either Expesition or Recreation parks on any date suitable to them for $100 a side and the entire gate receipt, and use same players that played at Alliance May 6 and 7, and we have never heard a word from the Alliance club in regard to it one way or the other, except that they would like to have so per cent of the gate. We won't play in that way. We want to either win or lose all. The truth of the matter is the Alliance club have not sand to play away from home unless it would be at Canton, where most of their players come from, and where they have everything in their favor. They are running a paid club, and our club is composed of players who work hard every day in the shops. We will meet the manager of the Alliance on May 2, ready to sign articles of agreement, and post our $100 for a game under the conditions of our challenge. We propose to make the Alliance club either play or keep quiet, and mean business from the start. So all the Alliance club will have to do will be to moet us on the 24th. Manager Slicker, of the Jeannette ball club, writes as follows regarding the challenge of the Keystone club: lenge of the Keystone club:

I see by to-day's DISPATCH that the Keystones still Insist to Issue challenges to play the Jeannettes for a stake of $100. Now, I stated in Monday's DISPATCH and state now that the ciub will not play for any purse or stake with that club or any other club. If the Keystones want to play us we will play them on the following condition: To play on the East End Gym grounds, or the Wilkinsburg grounds, with the same guarantee ($200) which we gave them on May 14; if ther want us to play on the Exposition grounds we will play them for a guarantee of $5000. If they want to play a game on any of the above conditions let them answer through

THE DISPATCH, if not, let the controversy end; we have played them and beaten them, and will pay no attention to any article than the above if they do not accept.

SENATOR BARBOUR'S SUCCESSOR. At Least Thirty Men Who Would Gladly

Go to Washington. RICHMOND, VA., May 17 .- [Special.]-Governor McKinney's intention in reference to appointing a successor to Senator Barbour is a matter of much speculation here. It is asserted here that he remained over in Washington with a view of consulting national Democrats, and that the only three names he heard suggested there are John Randolph Tucker, Fitzhugh Lee and John Goode. In Virginia there are no less than 30 gentlemen named, and in more than one instance they are not known outside their own counties. Mr. Thomas S. Martin is among the younger men the most urgently named, his backer being Senator Daniel. Martin is from Albemarle, and is a lawyer of much ability. It is conceded that Senator Daniel owes his election to Martin, who organized his forces for him the latter had just couducted a winning camnaign against Mahone. Fitzhugh Lee also has a strong organization. Among other names mentioned are several of Governor McKinney's personal friends. The main objection urged against Mr. Tucker is that he is too near Daniel's district. Holmes Conrad, of Winchester, is regarded as a strong dark horse. If the Governor should fail to make the appointment before the meeting of the State Con-vention Thursday, it is not unlikely that an attempt will be made to get that body to ndorse one of the candidates.

BALGOWAN AN EASY WINNER.

He Captures the Merchants' Handicap

From Rorka Without Any Trouble. Louisville, May 17 .- The track at Churchill Downs to-day was little short of a quagmire and the weather was wretched. Just before the first race what promised to be a fierce storm began and for an hour the rain poured in torrents and the wind blew a gale. poured in torrents and the wind blew a gale. There were about 2000 people at the track, however, and a majority of these made things pleasant for the bookmakers, as these lucky individuals were by no means deleful when the last race had been run. The event of the day was the Merchants' handicap, and while but two horses started—Balgowan and Rorka—still the tip on Rorka was so successfully spread around that as good as 4 to 5 was to be had for some time against Balgowan. He was never in trouble and showed himself to be by long odds the most improved colt in the West.

the cyclers who will finish the last stretch of the thousand mile fast dispatch relay run which will be commenced here to morrow at noon and end in New York. The start will be made by A. E. Lumsden and E. C. Bode, both well-known local cracks. They will ride to Grand Crossing, eight miles distant, when a fresh pair will take the dispatch from General Miles addressed to General Howard at New York.

Two objects are in view—an agitation for better roads and the testing of the utility of the bicycle for American military purposes. Advices to-day were that all along the route the bicycle organizations have prepared to join the fivers over their respective 10 or 15 mile courses. The route is through South Bend, Toledo, Cieveland, Erie, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse and Albany to New York City. The entire distance is expected to be covered in 90 hours or less—a rate of 15 miles an hour or better.

ENGAGED FOR TEN YEARS.

Then the Couple Quarreled, and a Breach of Promise Suit Is the Result. TRENTON, N. J., May 17 .- Dr. Mozart Jenkins, a popular young physiciau of this city, had papers served upon him to-day in suit instituted by Miss Emma Carslake, of this city, for $20,000 for breach of promise. The complainant is ill in bed, and the only facts obtainable in the case were given by her sister, Miss Anna Carslake. She says Dr. Jenkins and her sister had been engaged for nearly ten years, and that he had always, up to a month ago, made his home with them. At the time they had a quarrel because of the doctor's attention to a woman in Bordentown. After the quarrel the doctor moved elsewhere, and has neglected his fiances. Dr. Jenkins denies the sister's version, but admits that he has received papers in the suit. The doctor is popular and has a good practice. He was the family physician of Mrs. Parnell, mother of the Irish leader, during her residence in Bordentown.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

ASHLAND, PA., May 17 .- [Special.]-Great excitement prevailed at Mt. Carmel last night caused by two shots fired in quick succession and the report coming from the house of John Klotch. The neighbors hastened in the direction and upon entering the house found Klotch standing in a room on the second floor, his hands still grasping a smoking revolver. A glance was sufficient to know what had taken place, on the bed lay the form of Mrs. Kloch and a Polander named Anthony Jenkinski writhing in pain and the blood flowing from wounds in their bodies.

Klotch is a respectable Polander, and was employed as a watchman at the Mid-Valley colliery. For some time past he has had suspicion of the unfaithfulness of his wife, and he determined to keep a close watch until he had ample proof to verify his suspicions before he took any action. Last night he left the colliery at 10 o'clock, four hours earlier than usual, and upon reaching his home he entered very carefully so as not to arose any of the occupants. He had not proceeded far when he noticed a strange hat lying on a table in the diningroom. He went to a trunk, and, arming himself with a revolver, he crept noise-lessly to his wife's room, where his sus-He went to a trunk, and, arming

Mayor Tilbrook has approved of all items in the appropriations with the exception of the engineering and treasury departments. The Mayor desires to increase the city engineering force, and is not objecting to the increased number of clerks in the Treasurer's department, but he declares the city cannot appropriate money for offices not cannot appropriate money for offices not yet created. For this reason he vetoed a part of the bill, but the Councils in both branches easily passed the bill over his head. The Mayor is indignant, and says Councils are not acting according to law.
