

A TALE OF TROUBLE.

Mrs. Flannigan, of Bell's Alley, Allegheny, Wants Satisfaction.

SHE OBJECTS TO BEING MOVED

Without Her Permission Being First Asked for and Obtained.

LEVIED UPON, SOLD OUT AND ARRESTED

Bell's alley had the promise of a sensation until yesterday, when the matter was amicably settled by the aggrieved one having her wounded feelings dressed by the aggriever.

The case is one of interest and is told of, down in Bell's alley, with bated breath. Mrs. Kate Flannigan rented a house in Bell's alley, Allegheny, from Mrs. Bell, also of Bell's alley, through Mrs. Bell's agents, Messrs. Scott & McMillan, who are not of Bell's alley but of Pittsburgh. According to Mrs. Flannigan's tale of woe she rented the unimposing edifice at No. 1 Bell's alley about the first day of April and paid the money in advance for the first 30 days' rent. She further declares she took out no lease nor gave any written promise that she would continue in the habitation. The month of April flitted away in its own peculiar way, and so did the remuneration for her first month's rent. When the soft May days edged into the Flannigan household the simoleans, as vulgarians say, did not find their way into the purse of Mrs. Flannigan, and she was unable to pay the rent in advance as she had previously done, and Messrs. Scott & McMillan became somewhat annoyed thereat.

This Is Where the Trouble Begins.

Accordingly, when the second day of May came around and the May rent didn't, the gentlemen interested Constable Heiner in the case, and the latter swooped down on Mrs. Flannigan and levied on her property. Five days later, Mrs. Flannigan declares, an appraisal was made, and several days after the appraisal the constable made another swoop, so-called, for the purpose of making a sale. Mrs. Flannigan said she had the door locked, but that the constables used a key from some other person's pocket and entered the house, to the great consternation of her children. The constables made the sale, and, in Mrs. Flannigan's own words, sold her $8 clock for 10 cents, and her other articles at correspondingly ridiculous figures. Mrs. Flannigan objected, and her objections had an alarming effect upon her offspring, for the latter set up a dual wall. Then the constables became incensed and Mrs. Flannigan was turned over to the police and she was arrested for disorderly conduct. The following day she was fined $5 and costs for this offense. She became quite indignant, and when she learned her children had been sent to the Home of the Friendless she became more so, and threatened in vigorous language that she would bring suit against Scott & McMillan for false ejection and illegal sale of her property, and suit against the city of Allegheny for false imprisonment.

Here is Where the Trouble Ends.

Now the agents for Mrs. Bell recite a tale of somewhat different character. Mr. McMillan states that Mrs. Flannigan has no case either against the agents or against the city of Allegheny. He says there was a lease taken out for the house at No. 1 Bell's alley, but the signer thereof was James Flannigan, and in consequence of this he was legally entitled to sell his property upon the non-payment of the advance rent. Mr. McMillan declares, in addition to this, that when the sale was made Mrs. Flannigan was unduly excited, but in consideration of the fact that her room is to them preferable to her occupancy they will return her property if she will only remove it. Therefore the case has been amicably disposed of and the august hearing of some eminent jurist will not be afflicted with the contradictory details of the case. And again is quietude dominant down in Bell's alley, Allegheny.

A TRAINLOAD OF KNIGHTS

Leave for Philadelphia to Attend the Grand Commandery.

A special train of five Pullman cars filled with Knight Templars left yesterday morning for Philadelphia to attend the session of the Grand Commandery of Pennsylvania, which opens to-morrow. Among the party were Postmaster James S. McKean, Charles Raer, the well-known tobaccoist; Samuel A. Stoen, of Hall & Steel, contractors; James E. Morris, the photographer; James Youngson, John W. Haney, and William Bell, cashier of the First National Bank of McKeesport.

A NEW TURNER HALL

Dedicated on Mt. Oliver With a Parade and Appropriate Exercises.

The Mt. Oliver Turners dedicated their handsome new hall, erected at a cost of $5,000, on School street yesterday. In the afternoon all the Southside German societies paraded under the marshaling of Peter Augustin. The dedicatory address at the hall was made by J. Hsen. In the evening a very creditable musical and literary programme was rendered.

LOOKING FOR A CAMP.

Colonel Perchment and His Staff Visit a Number of Sites.

Colonel Perchment has not yet decided on a site for the encampment of his regiment. Last Wednesday afternoon the Colonel, accompanied by several officers of his staff and the line, visited Kittanning and examined several sites in that neighborhood. The citizens of the town made them several very favorable offers for the encampment, but no decision was arrived at. Yesterday the Colonel with a number of his officers visited Ohio Pyle Falls and looked over several locations. A site will probably be chosen before the close of the week.

Get rid of it, if you have Catarrh. Don't merely relieve it for a time with poisonous, irritating snuffs and strong caustic solutions. While you seem to be getting help, you may be getting harm. Stopped in this way, it's usually only driven to the lungs. You're worse off than ever.

But you can get rid of it completely, with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. That's been proved over and over again, in thousands of the most hopeless cases. By its mild, soothing, cleansing and healing properties, Catarrh in the Head and all Catarrhal affections are perfectly and permanently cured.

Some physicians will tell you that Catarrh can't be cured. They mean that they can't cure it. Dr. Sage's Remedy can. And to prove that they believe it, the proprietors of this medicine will pay $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh. They don't see one often, but they'll pay the money when they do.

Rheumacure SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM GOUT & MIGRAGE. It will not raise the dead; but hear what a New York gentleman has to say about it: New York, May 4, 1892. McKinnie & Chessman Mfg. Co., Pittsburgh, Pa.

GENTLEMEN-For several years I have been troubled very badly with rheumatism and learning of Rheumacure and its certain cure, I purchased a bottle, and after the use of half the bottle I was entirely cured. I then gave the remedy to Mr. O. S. Bailey, the well-known livery man, and cured him. Then I went to New Orleans, where I met Mr. Chas. Johnston, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who had just returned from Hot Springs and got no benefit. I gave him a bottle and cured him in three days.

The reason I give this letter, is because I think it is my duty to relieve the suffering of mankind. Yours very truly, EDWARD KERNEY, Of Van Tassel & Kernay, Thirteenth street, New York.

THE WEATHER IS THE CAUSE

Of this most severe and sudden price cutting in fine Summer Millinery. In anticipation of pleasant weather we imported and had trimmed in our own workrooms thousands of pretty Hats, Toques and Bonnets, but the cold rains which have prevailed nearly all this month have seriously dampened our millinery ardor. Still, we're not to be downed by the weather. In order to counteract its bad influence we have cut down the prices, not of all trimmed, but untrimmed, Hats and trimmings as well. The seven examples mentioned below will give you a fair idea of the good things awaiting you.

For this beautiful and fashionable Empire Hat, in plain or fancy straw or lace; tastefully trimmed with rich moire and satin ribbon in all different colors, and topped off with exquisite flowers and fine tips. The regular price of this hat is $12.

For this truly handsome Hat, in all new combination of colors, and tastefully trimmed with fine ribbons, flowers, aigrettes and Rhinestone ornaments. The regular price of this hat is $10.00.

For this charmingly pretty Hat, made of fine Black Lace and Jet, trimmed with Moire and fancy ribbon, and a liberal addition of fine flowers, ribbons and piques. The regular price of this hat is $9.75.

$4.25

For this "chick" fancy Straw Hat, made of Neapolitan and Hacked braid; trimmed in a most artistic and tasteful manner with choice lace, very fine ribbon and magnificent flowers. The regular price of this hat is $8.50.

For very stylish and jaunty Hat in various combinations of fine Milan and fancy braid, trimmed with crepe de chene, velvet and moire and fancy ribbon. The regular price of this hat is $8.
