GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) CHICAGO, May 23.-Thirteen was after all an unlucky number. Captain Anson and Third Baseman Dahien were under the shadow of its influence to-day. Each was credited with an error, and each misplay let in a run. Had the hoss and colt played perfect ball the blue and red would not have triumphed over the white and black. and 14 straight victories would have gone to Chicago's credit. Those two BALTINORE R B P A EPHIL'A. R B P A F runs played mischief with the colts. One tied the game and the other won it. Both misplays were made on hard hits that be came easy grounders, and in each instance the ball bounded from the hands of the fielder, and while it was all going on two of the visitors touched the plate.

It Was Greek Against Greek It was Pittsburg against Pittsburg in the box. Both pitchers are Smoky Cityites. Baldwin in addition to being touched up lively was wild in giving five men bases on balls. The Burns crew did not hit the ball often, but when they landed on it they lammed out its stuffing. Three of their seven hits were phosphoresent doubles and still another was a star-swirling triple. Five of the slugs came in pretty punches tied with ribbons. Yet only four of their five runs were earned. The hits were im-partially divided between seven men.

Marcus Antony Baldwin came to the pest with a slow, indolent ball that loitered about the plate like a boy on his way to school. After Wilmot's out in the first Dablen swiped a double into right and It van hit safely into center, Dahlen scoring and Ryan reaching second on the throw in. Buldwin shot a wild one to Bierhauer and Ryan trotted to third. Raymond threw Anson's grounder high to Miller, and Ryan, who had started for home, recturned to the sack in safety, scoring later on.

Mark Was a Trills Wild. Dungan singled into right, Ryan was hit by Baidwin in the third and made the circuit on sacrifices by Ansou and Dangan and Canavan's base crack. Gumbert hit in the fourth, stole second, went to third on a wild throw by Miller and tallied on Ryan's single. That ended the run-making for Miller was the first Pittsburger to make a hit. It was a two-master, but on second. Gumbert could not find the plate in the fourth and Miller went to first. Then Bierbauer jumped on Gumbert for the second hit of the game. Nothing less than a double satisfied him. Shugart flew out to exploding immediately after that, and be-tors the din ceased Miller had lugged in the blue and red's first run and Beckley was blowing off steam on third, having made a three-basser. Old Dad Fumbled the Ball,

Next Elmer Smith caused the hearts of the cranks to palpitate. He touched off a wicked bounder that Auson ought to have strangled, but Dad lost the ball, which bounded ten feet in front of him, and Beck-ley made the third goal of the inning. Anson had reason to regret this ninff in the eighth, when Shugart singled and Beckley flew out to Canavan. Then that dreatful man Smith swooped upon the ball and sent it waiting like a banshee into right for a pair of sacks, on which Shugart tied the score. Then to the horror of local sympathizers that youngster Dahlen gave a repetition of Auson's performance in the sixth. and when he finally got the ball Smithy was grinning on the visitors' bench and the game was lost. LOUISVILLE, May 23 .- Louisville and Cincinnati played two games to-day and broke even. The first game was a pitcher's battle, in which Muliane came out with first honors. Muliane, inspired with his success in the first game, thought he could repeat the tent in the second, but the Louisvilles got on to him in the fifth and sixth innings and pounded out seven runs. Jones pitched very effectively for Louisville. Weather cool. Attendance 2,167. Score:

TRACK RECORDS AND TALK.

Longstreet Runs in Good Form and Easily

Defents Judge Morrow. GRAVESEND RACE TRACK, May 23 .- The nighty Longstreet redeemed himself to-day and he is once more occupying first place in the affections of the racing world. He and Judge Morrow had a short but decisive tussle in the St. James Hotel stakes at even weights, 126 pounds, and Longstreet showed his true form by running away from the Brooklyn handicap winner and beating past the winning post by a good length and a half. The 5,000 spectators threw their bats in the air and cheered the great son of Long-fellow. Taral rode a superb race on the winner, although he was favored at the end by having a weakling in the younger Covington on the Judge. The lad could not ington on the Judge. The lad could not help his mount and with a stronger finisher up Longstreet would have had a much harder passage.

The sport began with the defeat of Kingston, who was sent to the post a little short of work for a bruising race. The brown horse is now on edze, however, and it will be a good horse that beats him from now on. The weather was perfect, and the track in fairly good condition. Its top dressing was wet, but the bottom was perfectly solid, and this fact explains Longstreet's good race.

The Turf.

ORME has been definitely scratched for the English Derby. TOM HAZLETT offered $15,000 for Alaha, according to the St. Louis papers.

AN English Jockey named Hall, attached to the Rotnschilds' stable, was thrown from his horse at Buda-Pesth last Thursday and instantly killed, This McKeesport driving park and track will be put in good condition and will be kept so during the season. A syndicate of horsemen have leased the place and will improve the track and have races there during the summer. Sister of Mercy, the dam of Bashford, was eagerly sought for by the late William Astor at the Rittson sale, but, stopping to partake of a glass of wine, George Long stepped in and bought the mare, which was in foat with Bashford at the time.

BRITTON still believes that he had Azra beaten with Huron in the Kentucky Derby. Poor Britton has undoubtedly gone daft, and this is concurred in by "Monk" Overton, his brother-in-law, who says the boy makes very queer statements at times.

THE proportion of foals that have been dropped stillborn at Marcus Daly's stud in Montana is about five-sixths of the entire number. The veterinary surgeons appear to be unable to diagnose the cause of the trouble, but the theory is that the mares have aborted through sympathy. A REPERSENTATIVE of an Eastern training firm led Jimmy Tompkins, trainer of the Oakdale stable, to one side yesterday and offered him $12,000 for Falero, but Jimmy only shook his head. The owners of the colt are thinking seriously of taking down that $20,00 Derby with him, and they would not part with him for any price. The same agent is said to be after Azra.

MATTERS are not moving smoothly in two of the leading Western-stables. Trouble has arisen between Trainer Tucker and Owner Corrigan, and the two are reported as having parted company. Differences of opinion as to the manner of handling the horses are said to be the cause. Report also has it that the Scoggan Bros. and Trainer Cadwallader have agreed to part company.

The Wilmington Race, WILMINGTON, May 23.—The ten-mile bicy-cle race of the Warren Athletic Club came cle race of the warren andway this after-off on the New Castle rondway this after-noon. There were 22 entries in the race, and hundreds of spectators eagerly watched the wheelmen finish. C. B. Jack, of Wilming-ton, won the race in 34 minutes and 39 sec-

Braddock R:flemen Won. BRADDOCK, May 23.—[Special.]—The members of the Braddock and Pittsburg rifle teams to the number of 20 met at the range in Hawkins' Hollow in a contest to-day. The Pittsburg team was captained by Will C. Boyle and Braddock team by D. A. Stoner. The Braddock team won by 40 points. Stoner made the highest score, 83 out of a possible 100. Brooks, of the Pittsburg club, came next, with 80. The Pittsburg team thought the range the finest they ever shot over, and it is possible that it will be made a permanent range for the rifle teams of Western Pennsylvania.

Lipschutz the Winner. New York, May 23.—The fifteenth and last game of the chess match was opened by Showalter with Ruy Lopez. He obtained a fair game, but soon was troubled by pressure of time. On the thirtieth move he played his king to R.3, which was nothing less than a blunder, and lost the game right off. K.K. T.S.Q instead would have given him rather the better game. Two moves later the Kentuckian resigned the game and match. Final score: Lipschutz, 7; Showalter, 1; drawn, 7.

While under the influence of fliquor he attacked "Bill" Allerton, a sporting publican, with a butcher's knife, frightfully cutting him. It is expected that he will receive ten years' penal servitude.

THE Coney Island Athletic Club has decided to reduce the general admission fee to future contests of the club to $3. It has also been decided to give a six-round bout between well-known boxers before each big attraction. The limit bout on Decoration Day, when "Bobby" Burns and "Cal" McCarthy fight, will be between "Billy" Plimmer and "Tim" Marphy, the ex-champion annateur bantam-weight boxer of America.

Griffen.

"ALEX" GREGGIANS writes from California to Arthur Lumley as follows: "I will accept your offer to meet "Brooklyn Jimmy" Carroll or anyone else in the middle-weight class, before the Coney Island Athletic Club for a purse of $2,500, provided the articles of agreement read that both of us will weigh in at the ringside at 158 pounds. The most I ever weighed was 135 pounds, when I fought George La Blanche. I am now engaged in training "Joe" McAuliffe for his fight with Godard, and would like you to set down the date for my contest for September or October, as the Godard-McAuliffe match will not take piace until June 20.

One of he Shasta Stage Robbers Paying Up for His Crime.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23 .- [Special.]-Abe Jones, the Shasta stage robber, was sentenced to-day to 20 years in San Quentin. Jones, with young Howard and another fellow, robbed the stage last year, wounded the driver, and secured several hundred dollars from the express box. Wells, Fargo & Co. hunted him down afterward and shot him as he was entering his father's house at midnight. Jones was betrayed by Howard's disagreeing, though the evidence was clear. MINOR GATHERINGS IN THREE STATES

SHENANDOAH, PA., May 23.-An attempt at arson was made at this place last evening, when plans were laid to burn the property of J. M. Robbins, West Center and Jordan streets. The buildings in this vicinity are all frame, three stories high, and had the plotter succeeded in his nefarious work it might have resulted in a repetition of the awful calamity of 1883, when half the town of Shenandoah was burned to the ground. Harry T. Hall, a photographer, occupied the third floor of one of these buildings and it was here the plot was to be put into effect. Hall is said to be a hard character, and to assist him in the scheme it is said he had hired William Richter, of Syracuse, N. Y., a photographer in his employ to do the job, his object being to burn out the gallery and secure the insurance. Hall purchased some turnentine, excelsior and a candle, and arranged them so that after burning an hour the flame from the candle would com-municate to the turpentine, making blaze enough to clean out the whole place before the fire department could respond.

After giving instructions to Richter to light the candle at 6 o'clock, Hall left for parts unknown. When the hour arrived, however, Richter's courage forsook him and he informed Mr. Robbins, the landlord, of the plot, who immediately had Richter placed under $1,000 bail and then sent detectives on the track of Hall. He was finally traced to Frackville, where he was captured while calling on a lady friend. He showed fight, but was secured. To-day he was com mitted to the county jail without bail to await trial.
