RESULTS OF THE RUNNING RACES

How pleased local cranks are when the home sluggers defeat that lively, though somewhat cheap, team of ball players from Cleveland. A few people have had an idea that Pittsburg's champions were not in it with the gay little neople from Cleveland, but those who saw vesterday's game think differently. True. the contest was not ene of the most bril- | nnce, 1,420. Score: liant, but the hom representative won with something to spare. If there wer any luck about the business, the fellow from Cleveland were somewhat lucky i getting as many runs as they did.

The Bad Weather Was There.

The weather kept up its record, as a drie zling rain fell until nearly 4 o'clock. As result there were barely 1,000 people on the stands. When the contest did start the rain kept away, but the huge black clouds were very threatening until near the finish of the The game was one that was full of interest from start to finish, and to win it the home players had to do some uphill work, and they did it well. The visitors began as if they intended to thump Elmer Smith clean out of the lot, but after they had got a good whack at Elmer's pitching in the opening he seitled down and pitched a really good game. To be sure at the end of the first inning every member of the little crowd of speciators thought that the home players were out of it completely, but such was not the case. Mr. Cuppy, or Koppee, copped it exceedingly hot at stages and just when hits would tell most our sluggers slugged and they slugged with a vengeance. They nearly knocked the stuffing out of the ball and that is just what won the game. There's nothing like timely hitting and if our thumpers can keep up their gait of yesterday they will down lots of people.

Harry Raymond Surprised Them. Raymond was in wonderful form both in fielding and in batting. He hit the ball safely three times, and they were corking hard hits at that, one of them being a threebagger. It was a beauty. The majority of the home players hit the ball hard, but some very fine fielding kept the safe hits down. In one instance O'Counor caught a fly ball from Smith's bat only about two feet from the right field fence. The catch was indeed a great one, and it is safe to say that Jack O'Connor will not repeat the feat very often.

In the second half of the first inning th visitors piled up no less than four runs and everybody said: "It's all over." Child's got his base on balls and reached second on Burkett's sperifice. Davis followed with a hit scoring Childs, and Miller tumbled the ball long enough to allow Davis to reach McKean went out on a pop up fly to Bierhauer, and then O'Connor made a single, scoring Davis. A wild pitch sent O'Connor to second, and McAleer got his base on balls. Virtue made a single to left, and Miller again fumbled the ball, allowing O'Connor to score. Zimmer came next with a two-bagger, scoring McAleer. Cuppy struck out and the terrible inning ended.

It Began to Look Brighter.

In the second inning matters began to look brighter for the sluggers. Beckley led off with a two bagger to right field and reached third on Smith's sacrifice hit. Ther Harry Raymond stepped up and whacked the ball past Burkett for three bags scoring Beckley. Farrell got his base on balls and stole second. Mack reached first on a fum ble by Cuppy, Raymond scoring. Farrell scored on Corkhill's sacrifice, Corkhill being safe on Childs' wild throw. There were no more runs made until the seventh inning, when the home players took the lead. Raymond led off with a sin-gle to center field and Farrell knocked a rounder to Cuppy who threw the bail wild to second, Raymond reaching thir | on the error, and Farrell being safe on first. Mack made a double after Farrell had been put out at second and after Corkhill was out, McKean fumbled Miller's grounder and

And They Tied the Score, In the second half the visitors scored one on a single by Childs, a stolen base and two This tied the score.

The eighth inning came and the home players went salely to the front. Beckley started out with a three-bagger to right, and singles by Smith and Raymond followed. Then came a base on balls, two errors and a sacrifice hit by Mack, which petted three runs. In this inning, when Smith and Raymond were on third and second, Captain Tebeau ordered Cuppy to give Farrell his base on balls, McKean taking a position behind Zimmer and McAleer coming in to second base. With the bases full, Mack knocked the ball in front of the plate, and Zimmer thoughtlessly threw the ball to first and allowed Smith to score In the ninth inning, Shugart's triple and Beckley's single scored another run. After two men were out in the second half a "life" hit, two singles and an error by Bierbauer scored two runs. The score:

THE STATE LEAGUERS.

They Will Open Their Local Season

Exposition Park To-Day. The Pittsburg State League Club will play their opening game at Exposition Park this afternoon with the Danville team, and, if their good work since the opening of the season is any criterion of their ability to play ball, they certainly must have a good team. Manager Torreyson has secured some excellent material and promises to make a strong bid for the State League pennant, and the contests at Exposition Park during the next two weeks promise to fill up the gap during the absence of the league team. The new League has made an excellent start and it only remains for them to play good ball and they will draw large nudiences to their games. The team are all pretty evenly balanced and the contest for the pennant is likely to be interesting. Leb-anon, Altoona and Pittsburg seem to be fa-vorites for first honors, although Altoona has already lost two games, but, after their heavy batters get their eye on the ball, they heavy batters get their eye on the ball, they will come to the front.

The signing of Danny Shields by the local team has completed a very strong infield. Bobby Cargo is holding down third base in great shape and hitting the ball hard. Manelee is pitching in his usual good form and Cote's back stop work has been the feature of the opening games. The game this afternoon will start promptly at 4 o'clock and the admission will be the pepular price of 25 cents. The two teams will line up as follows:

'I think Pittsburg has a good ball team, and if luck hadn't been dead against them they should have won two games at Chicago. They have something to learn about how to act when in tight places. In some respects some of them lack judgment, but they'll improve. It is claimed by the plaintiff that prior to the opening of the basebail season Dahlen signed a contract to play for the Milwankees during the present season, and was paid $500 in advance. Suit is therefore brought to recover this amount.

The Italians were from Jackson Center, a small mining town about ten miles from Mercer. For some time the inhabitants of the place have been the victims of petty midnight robberies.
