He had allowed them the use of his name until about eight months ago, when he withdrew even that. present system and to protest against the andamus proceedings.

Delinquent Tax Collector Samuel Grier made an explanatory statement to the committee. He said:

I am glad that this movement against the delinquent tax office has occurred. It gives me an opportunity to show to the citizens and taxpayers how the collection of delinquent taxes was carried on under the act of The delinquent taxes were placed in

The amount in the hands of the city solicitors during the past ten years to be entered as liens is $32,142 46; of this amount $11,475 42 CHAIRMAN MIDGLEY has forced the Michiwas collected and paid to the City Treasurer. $575 01 was duplicates, and there are about ran Central and the Lake Shore Railroads to ask for a renewal of the pro-rating arrangements with their Western connection where-by the latter may be able to meet Canadian Pacific competition from St. Paul to the sea-board by way of Chicago.

$575 01 was duplicates, and there are about $600 entered as liens and not paid, leaving a loss to the city of $19,492 03. There still remains five or six books of ward collectors that have not been settled. This will increase the loss of taxes consider-ably more than the above amount. Under the present law 1 am allowed but two years to softle each book or the taxes are lost to the city and my bondsmen are responsible. These figures were taken from the books of the City Treasurer, and the above amount was lost under the act of 1850. Since the city has been collecting under the acts of 1877 and 1878, she has not lost $1 of delinquent taxes. Now let the citizens and taxpayers judge whether the act of 1860, under which the city has lost thousands of dollars, and under which James S. Butan wants the delinquent taxes collected, or THE Wisconsin Bee Line and Superior Railroad Company, which proposes to build a line to Superior, Wis, and which has ala more to Superior, wis, and which may hi-ready absorbed the Weyerhauser Railroad, has executed a mortgage of $15,000,000 to the Central Trust Company, of New York, to secure funds for the construction of the road. The proposed line will be about 700 miles long.

dollars, and under which James S. Butan wants the delinquent taxes collected, or the acts of 1877 and 1878 are the best for the city's interest. After I was elected Delinquent Tax Col-lector thousands of dollars of the delinquent taxes that were placed in the hands of the ex-City Solicitor, and that he did not collect, were turned over to me for collection. I succeeded in collecting $2,307 76. These taxes could not be collected by process of law, as they were outlawed on account of not being entered up. If I had not collected them they would have been lost to the city. security holders have passed a resolution requesting Drexel, Morgan & Co. to under-take the reorganization, formulate a plan and appoint a committee. THE announcement that the Northern Pacifle Railroad had at last established a line of steamers between Tacoma and China and Japan was confirmed in New York Tuesday. An arrangement has been completed with an English syndicate by which a new com-pany, called the Northern Pacific Steamship Company, has been tormed. The president is Sir William Pearce, of London.

ident Palacio Says the Government Has the Advantage Over the Revolutionists Passengers on the Last Steamer Report to the Contrary. NEW YORK, May 25.-[Special.]-The Red "D" steamship Caracas, which arrived

today from Venezuela, brought conflicting reports of the way the revolution was progressing in that country. Jose Alfonse Ortega, the present Venezuelan Consul General at New York, received a letter from Andueza Palacio, the President of the Republic, by the Caracas. This was dated May 19, the day the steamship left La Guayra. President

Palacio said the Government had the advantage of the revolutionists, and was gain-ing ground every day. The center of the Republic was quite peaceful in consequence, he said. Only a small number of revolu-tionists remained, and these would soon be dispersed. The strength of the revolution-ists was on the Western boundaries and along the Guiana frontier. The letter also said that the Government was reorganized under the new Constitu-tion, and the various districts would soon

e called upon to elect representatives to the revolutionary troubles. It was reported that the Government man-of-war General Rivas had been captured in the Orinoco by Crespo, the leader of the revolutionists.
