However, the sun came out a little after c'clock and the teams took a good practic miliarize themselves with the mudd park. Desnite this condition errors wer in the case of the Pittsburg Pitcher Galvin spoiled an otherwise clear score for his side by a fumble of Donovan's grounder in the opening inning. Five hits but he kept them scattered, and on two oc-casions the Senators were retired with men on second and third bases. Meanwhile Pittsburg had tailed to gauge Knell with the exception of Bierbauer until the fourth side with a clean single to right field. Beckley bunted successfully, but was declared out for running out of line, and then Rayand came to his companion's rescue with a liner over Radford's head.

Farrell Kept Up the Fun." Farrell kept up the stick work, but Ravmond and Mack were thrown out at second by Milligan in attempting to steal and by Danny Richardson's quick handling of Corkhill's grounder to short. "There comes old "17," sang out Foghorn Miller as Galvin ambled up to the plate in the fifth inning. There was a smash and a crack in the sky, the result being "Pap's" safe arrival at second. Larkin fumbled Miller's hit along the first base line, and Bierbauer and Shugart, after giving chances to retire the side, were enabled to score the first baseman's head. THE STATE LEAGUE.

Danvilles Fall Very Easy Marks to Torrey son's Lot of Hustlers.

Pittsburg team of the State League had quite an easy task in defeating the Dan ville representatives yesterday afternoon at Exposition Park. The weather was damp and cold and the grounds were in a wretched condition. Less than 300 people were present to see the game.

The contest, if such it could be called, was a very poor one, as the visitors were never in the hunt. They are, to say the least, a very poor lot of players, some of them ap-parently not having a knowledge of even the rudiments of the game. Their fielding was bad; their batting worse and their was bad; their batting worse and their judgment very, very bad. But they are to be strongthened to-day.

Henry Jones pitched for the home players, and, although he had little or no speed, he managed to get through the game with only four hits recorded against him. Cote, who is really a good little catcher, supported him well. Miller had an off day and fielded miserably.

riserably. Rhoades was something of a mark for the home players and he was hit hard, but he had some very poor fielders behind him. Umpire Murtin's decisions were, generally speaking, very wide of the mark, both on bails and strikes and on bases. But his bad judgment affected both sides. The score:

MARIETTA, May 27.—[Special.]—The annual field day of the Marietta College Athletic Association to-day was one of the most successful ever witnessed here. The sports were all put through in excellent manner according to the programme in spite of bad weather, and the young athletics who participated were all in excellent form. Several local records were broken, notably the mile dash which was won by Brokaw, '92 in 5:26. The running high kick by same contestant was 8 seet 6 inches; putting the shot by Baker, '92, 31 feet 1 inch, and the standing Baker, '92, 31 feet 1 inch, and the standing high kick which was won by Baker, who broke the State record, kicking 7 feet 61/4 inches. There were 24 events on the programme, all of which were of more than ordinary interest. The Mitchell medal for the best all-around athlete was won by Brokaw, '92.

THE California stables of L. U. Shippee and Ira Ramsdell have arrived in Chicago and are safely quartered at Washington Park. "ALFY" LAKELAND is training "Mr. Frank-lin's" 2-year-old colt by Maccaroon-Majolica at Sheepanead, and will start him in the 2-year-old stakes there at the spring meeting. His Highness is at Sheepshead Bay, and the colt has grown into a fine, noble looking animal, and if he is not the star of the year there will be much disappointment in certain quarters.

TEUTON'S reported breaking down dispels all hope of bringing this formerly good horse to the post for the Suburban. Fit and as good as he was when he ran away with the first Wheeler handleap he would have possessed a chance of winning second to that of no horse entered for the great race. ond to that of no horse-thered for the great race.

The owner of Sir Walter presented Garrison with $2.00 after the colt's victory in the Great American stakes Thursday. It is going very far to say that the "Snapper" earned that much by his riding, but he certainly did great work on the youngster. In fact, with an equally strong rider on Don Alonze the positions would probably have been reversed.

Against the Shenango Valley. NEW CARTLE, May 27 .- [Special.] - One of the His Wife Comes to Pittsburg to Grow most important cases ever brought in this county was heard by Judge Wickham, of Beaver county, to-day in the Lawrence Joseph Pachsil, an Arabian, called at county courts. It involves the right of the New Castle and Shenango Valley Railroad THE DISPATCH office yesterday. He has a peculiar story to tell of his young wife's Company occupying tracks between New Castle and Middlesex. The title of the case is "The New Castle Northern Railroad Com-pany versus the New Castle and Shenange According to a custom in vogue among the Arabians Pachsil and his wife sepa-rated, he staying in his native land to build up a trade as a merchant, while Mrs. Pachsil and her child came on to Pittsburg Valley Railroad Company." The former company desires to secure the ejectment of the latter. The road is now leased by the Erie system to get into New Castle. It was were to unite again when both had amassed enough to keep them the rest of their lives. About six months ago she wrote her husband that she had been very fortunate as a vender of feuits and that she and her daughter Sadie would return to the latter. The road is now leased by the Erie system to get into New Castle. It was first owned by a company called "The Marginal Kailroad Company." It then fell into the hands of the New Castle Northern Company. There were two factions in this company, and one of the factions, known as the Negley party, was holding an election at one of the city hotels, completely ignoring the other party, known as the Wallace faction. The latter got out a paper at court, with the result that the whole Negley faction was placed under arrest and brought into court for contempt.

Quarrel alter quarrel ensued among the members of the company until a receiver's sale was asked for and appointed. A receiver's sale was advertised and twice postponed, but on the third day it was sold to the company known as the New Castle and Shenango Valley Kailroad Company. The Northern Company had a number of debts for right of way, etc., but the new company refused to pay them, and the farmers never received their money for land used. The Shenango Valley Railroad leased the road to the Erie system, and for a year or two this system has been operating the line. The plaintiff states that the whole transaction of the sale was fraudulent, and that the New Castle and Shenango Valley Railroad has the sale was fraudulent, and that the New Castle and Shenango Valley Railroad has no title to this road. The defendants deny all allegations, and claim that the New Castle Northern never had any title.

The case came to a sudden termination The case came to a sudden termination this afternoon, when the attorneys for the defendants sprung wise questions of law as to whether the ejectment asked for should not cover the whole line owned by the New Castle and Shenango Valley Company, instead of just that part in Lawrence county.
