SEPECIAL TRLEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE.1

WASHINGTON, May 28.-Two games of baseball for one price of admission drew out a big crowd this afternoon, the Senators' victory yesterday over the Pittsburg contingent being of material benefit, so far as gate receipts were concerned. Honors were easy, each side taking a game, the series thus far played resulting in four victories for Washington against one victory for Pittsburg. Throughout both contests today the greatest enthusiasm prevailed, the crowd enjoying the heavy slugging and the indiscriminate slaughter of pitchers. In the final game placing Danny Richardson at short proved a wise move on the part of Manager Irwin, for the position was never played better here than has been shown in the work by Senator Hill's constituent from Elmira, in the three contests with the Pittsburg team. Connie Was in Excellent Form, Connie Mack's work behind the bat for Pittsburg has also evoked the most flattering encoulums and President Young, of the Learne, remarked in the grand stand that he had never seen him doing better, while his throwing to bases was unsurpassed by any catcher in the United States. There was a daring exhibition of base running by Tommy Dowd in the eighth inning of the second game, by which he tied the score, but all of no avail. Dowd had been given first base on called balls, and made a steal of second, when Robinson came to the bat in place of Paul Radford, who had sprained his ankle. Playing well up between second and third bases, Dowd seized the opportu nity when Robinson bunted a ball to Bald win to steal home with what he hoped would be the winning run. As he turne third base Baldwin was in the act of throw ng the ball to Beckley, but Dowd kept or or home base and by a daring slide got under Mack in safety, with the most desperate piece of run getting ever witnessed at a hall ground in this city.

A Triumph That Didn't Last Long. His triumph was short lived, however for his good work was wasted by the pitching of Killen, who had been put in as Gast-

In the first game the run getting began or the local nine in the first inning by the mute trotting to first on four bad balls, capering home on a sacrifice by Larkin and a single by Duffer. Foreman proved an enigma to the Pittsburgs and for seven innes ciphers were all that they could ob-Shugart, being the only break in the monot ony of one, two, three, varied with an occa-sional base on balls. Washington kept up lick in the second inning and practically decided the contest by making three runs on a timble by Bierbauer of Foreman's grounder, Dowd's base on balls and singles by Radford and Hoy. In the seventh inn-ing another run was added to their score, Radiord making a tally on his single and successive sacrifice hits by his comrades.

Managed to Saye a Shut Out. In the eighth inning Beckley started off ith a single and made the circuit on Raymond's base on balls. Farreil's high fiv to enter, and Connie Mack's clean hit over second. No more runs were made in this came on either side, although Miller pened up the ninth with a double, but ald get no further than third before the

But the rooters had their hearts in their mouths all through the second contest, and was not until the lucky seventh of the Vashingtons that they were afforded an op-oriunity to loosen up their lungs, and they Washingtons that they were afforded an op-portunity to loosen up their lungs, and they took every chance with a vengeance. Blanks were in order on both sides in the first inning, and then the Senators renewed hostilities in the run etting line. Duffee opened up with a lugle, stole second and scored on Danny hardson's triple to right center. Gastright sacrificed himself for his captain and Bond gave Mack a foul fiv. Pittsburg bond gave Mack a foul fiv. Pittsburg Farrell drove a grounder at Dowd, which and barbed wire fence whiskers. There was a mixture of sheepskin and shin bones, out Farrell landed at first. Mack sent him along a base by waiting for bad balls while Corkhill flow out to Radford.

They scored Five Big Runs, Smith filled the bases through the kindss of Gastright, and Miller sent in a comple of runs with a timely single to right. Herbaner struck out, but this did not dete right for a single apiece, and when Ray-mond finally put a fly into Duffee's hands five red-legged Pittsburgers had crossed home plate in safety. "Turn the tables on hem, boys," whispered Burns, and for the ase on balls and another corking single by litter just when it was needed. Then Pittsburg took a rest until the eighth. The trouble began for them, however, in the seventh when a leather hunting expedition was organized and when it was over Smith was disgraced and Mark Baldwin succeeded Enocking the Pitchers About Lively. Meanwhile Killen had taken the place of instright, and on his second effort with the strick be pounded the ball over Corkbill's head for a three-bagger. Dowd and Radford ingled, while Hoy cleared the bases with a riple, and came in on Donovan's single. Jarkin cracked out a double and Duffee ingle, the result being six runs and a tied core at 8 to 8. Although Mack started well the seventh with a clean single, a cipher was the best the Pittsburgs could get, and the score was still a tie. When the eighth began Killen had been thrown out at first, when Dowd took a base on balls and by the daring stealing already detailed put his team in the van, on sacrifices by Robin-son and Hoy. Then the fun started for Pitisburg. After Shugart was given first, Robinson threw Beckley's grounder wild to Larkin and the runner was safe at third be-tore he stopped, and Dowd kept in line by a wild throw home of Raymond's easy hit in the direction of second base. Farrell trotted to first and Mack lined the ball out. as he was told to and the game was won. Corkhill's sacrifice and Baldwin's force out helped to swell the score until it was be-yond reacn of Washington. The scores:

GYMS TAKE A TUMBLE

The Mansfields Trove Too Much for Them on the Home Grounds, The game between the Gyms and Mansfields yesterday afternoon, was very excit-ing, and the champions lost through errors at critical points. Carelier Fari was a whole team in himself, and to the fine coaching of his team in the field and his oase running can the Mansfields credit thear victory. The Gyms batted Woodcock pretty freely, but were unfortunate in pla cing their hits. Patterson in center field robbed Charles Addy of a two-bagger, and the Gyms of the game by making a phenomenal catch when two men were op, hases. The Gyms were caught in a weak condition, Gray and Sack both being absent. Thompson's pitching was as usual the feature of the game and he was well shipported by Steen. He stroke out il men. Woodcock four. Chairman Barbour protested the game before it began upon the grounds that Woodcock and Earl were kinder contract with the Pittsburg League club. The score in full, is as follows.

THE STATE LEAGUE

Pittsburgs Win Another Game by Defeating the Johnstown Tram.

Quite a large crowd witnessed the Pitts burg State League Club win its sixth consecutive victory over the Johnstown team yesterday. The game was interesting and ex-citing throu-hout, and for a time it looked as ii Johnstown would get away with the game.

A feature of the game were the pitching of Manefee and Neves and the batting of Cargo and the catching of Cote. The Pittsburg club will play at Johnstown and Altonia on Decoration Day, after which they will return home and play at Exposition Park until June 15. The team has been putting up an excellent game of ball and deserve to be patronized. Score: PITISBURG. R B P A E JOHNST'N. R B P A 1 the only fault that could be found was that the grounds were too soft to permit rapid action or to allow of the best results. As it was, many of the students made records which, to be broken next year, will require extraordinary effort and unusual talent. Early in the afternoon the grand stand date them, let alone the young men who were there to look on. And the ladies wore the colors of the colleges they represented, the blue and the yellow and the white and the red—everywhere the gayly colored ribbons waved with the soft breeze that came up toward the middle of the afternoon. In the grand stand were the non-competing students of the Western University, the Washington and Jefferson, the Westminster, Geneva and the Allegheny Colleges, and they had their class "yells" with them. Their voices were good, and when a champion wan an event there was plenty of music in the air emanating from the par-ticular section in which his classmates were segregated. It is estimated that there were fully 2,000 people present, and of these more than one-half were ladies.

The Contests Begin in Eurnest. Half past 2 o'clock witnessed the first event of the programme, the 100-yard dash, and from that time until 7:15 o'clock in the Wilson's High Jump, 5 Feet 5 Inches. evening there was no cessation. Some times two events were on at the same time, for this was found necessary in order to clear the list before darkness. Manager H. S. Calvert, of the Western University, was everywhere, and it was due to his active efforts that the entire affair went off so successfully and without a hitch of any kind.

The other officers were: Marshal, B. F. Mevay, of Washington and Jefferson; Referee, T. S. Fullwood, of this city; Starfer, George H. Smith; Judges, W. E. Patrick and O. D. Thompson, of the '3 A's:" Field Judges, J. S. Gillespie, of Sharpsburg, and Ludlow Livingstone, N. Y. A. C., and W. E. Koch, of Cambridge, Eng., Timekenners

Sterrett and McEiree, of Washinston and Jefferson, and Mitchell and White, of Geneva.

The high kick resulted in a tie between Wilson, of Westminster, and Martin, of Geneva. They both kicked the tambourine at 9 feet ½ inch but could get no higher. The ground was too soft to permit of extra work in this line. Anderson, of Washington and Jefferson, dropped out at 8 feet 9 inches and Du Rarry, of Western University, at 8 feet 8 inches, They took second and third places respectively. The others in the contest were close, of Western University, and Sterrett, of Washington and Jefferson, who concluded not to compete. The running high jump attracted considerable attention, and was won easily by Wilson, of Westminister. He cleared 5 feet 3 inches easily, and could have gone higher had the ground been more solid. Rhea, of Western University, was a good second at 5 feet 2 inches, and Leffingwell, of Allegheny, owne third at 5 feet 1 inch. Anderson, of Washington and Jefferson, dropped out at 4 feet 8 inches, and Witherspoon, of Western University, and Graham, of Allegheny, went out earlier.

More Buces and Pole Vaulting.

More Rices and Pole Vaulting. The 120-yard hurdle race was run at the opposite side of the grounds, where every-nody could have a good view of the young leapers. Steele, of Western University, won this easily in 18% seconds. Kearney, of Geneva, came in second, but he was declared the hurdles. The second place was there-fore given to Sterrett, of Washington and Jefferson.

The college record was broken by the pole vaniters, Gailey, or Westminster, clearing the bar at 9 feet. He won by vaulting over the horizontal at 8 feet 6 inches, with Marshall, of Western University, second at 8 feet 4 inches. Marrin, of Geneva, was third at 8 feet 4 inches. Marrin, of Geneva, was third at 8 feet 4 inches. Marrin, of Geneva, was third at 8 feet 4 inches. Marrin, of Geneva, was third at 8 feet 4 inches. Marrin, of Geneva, was third at 9 feet 10 miles. The 220-vard dash war won by Steel, of Western University, easily in 24% seconds, with Sterrett, of Washington and Jefferson, second, and Hanley, of Westminster, third. Patterson and Mitchell, of Geneva, and Mitchell, of Washington and Jefferson, were not very far behind.

Jackson, of Westminster, threw the 16-pound hammer 89 feet 11 inches and won the prize and Martin, of Geneva, with 78 feet 5 inches was given second place with Blackwood, of the same college, third. The others in the contest were McCaffrey and Neal, of Western University; Cowan, of Washington and Jefferson, and Freeman, of Allegheny.

The mile run was won by the smallest of the entries, McGrew, of Western University, in five minutes. Marshall of the same college was second and White, of Geneva, third. McCloskey, of Geneva, was Geneva, third. McCloskey, of Geneva, was the only other runner.

The events did not take place quite in the order mentioned owing to the fact that in some instances they had to be doubled up and the hop, skip and jump was placed last. The Western University feit proud of its success, having won more than half of the total points of the meeting, and last evening they wound up the most auspicious day in the history of the college by a hanquet at a downtown restaurant. the history of the college by a hanquet at a downtown restaurant.

To celebrate their victory the students of the Western University met at Newell's case on Fifth avenue last night and gave their faithful trainer, Davy Sheehan, a glorious ovation "Davy" responded to the enthusiastic recoption tendered him in true sportsman-like style, Messrs, McGrew, McKirdy, Gill, Richey, Hamilton, Davis, Pittock, Goehring, Liggett, Casey, Riddie, Neale and Hanson responded to teasts. SLAVIN AND JACKSON.

Everything Ready for the Big Contest To-Morrow Evening-Slavin Is Still a Favorite and a Large Bet Made That the Battle Will Not Last Four Rounds. [BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, May 28.-[Copyright.]-Preparaions are complete for the fight between Slavin and Jackson at the National Sporting Club on Monday night. This little affair will be about as expensive for the specta-tors as any prize fight in the history of the ring. The members of the club who desire to have seats reserved for them have subto have seats reserved for them have sub-scribed anywhere between 5 and 100 guineas for this privilege and members who intro-duce guests pay 25 guineas for each one. Nevertheless the club will be crowded and the audience a distinguished one from a sporting, financial and social point of view. Both Slavin and Jackson are in fine con-dition, though the very hot weather of the last lew days has affected the former con-siderably.

last lew days has affected the former considerably.

Jackson has been swimming a great deal in fresh water and looks thin in the neck and face, hence rumors that he was sick. He says that he was never better and able to last 12 or 14 rounds no matter how hot the fight. George Piesse, Slavin's backer, to-day made two wagers or £1,000 even that the fight would not last four rounds. The betting to-night is six to lour in favor of Slavin. The only element of discord in connection with the fight is found in the decision of the directors of the National Sporting Club to refuse to allow Charley Mitchell to enter the club either as one of Slavin's seconds or as a spectator. This is tonia races to-day were: to enter the club either as one of Slavin's seconds or as a spectator. This is due to the circumstances that Mitchell one night got drunk in the club and was with difficulty restrained from thrashing a percentage of its membership, and that in another inebriate moment he assaulted George Piesse, who, aside from being Slavin's backer, is an influential member of the club's committee.

Slavin still hopes to have Mitchell behind him in the ring, but it is almost impossible that the committee will allow him to enter the club, although he has tendered many applogies and his father-in-law, Pony Moore, has offered large sums of money to wipe out the affront.

Famous Checker Visitors.

Harvey L. Hopkins, President of the Chi-cago Chess and Checker Club, arrived in Pittsburg yesterday, accompanied by Charles Hefter, the famous Chicago checker expert and problemist. The gentlemen are here to witness the team match of the Twin Cities and suburbs against Penusylvania on Decoration Day; also to consult with the Decoration Day; also to consult with the players regarding Pennsylvania's representation at the Checker Congress to be held at Chicago during the World's Fair, and the classification of players—the professional, semi-professional and amateur classes, with these representative gentlemen from Chicago, Dr. Schnffer, or New York, and exchampion Reed, Pittsburg has in her midst three of the first six great players of America. Ohlo is also sending her quota of gentlemen devoted to Dameth, showing the great interest taken in the coming team match.

Everything is now ready for the pool tournament for the State championship, which begins at the World's Fair rooms, which begins at the World's Fair rooms, East End, to-morrow evening. There is considerable local interest in the tourney and a deal of speculation as to who will win the emblem. There will be a panude of the players to-morrow, and the opening games will be as follows: Kranse, Philadelphia, versus Krepps, Jeannette, and Gusman, Allegheny, versus Swoger, Pittsburg. The contests are sure to be interesting. Wouldn't Give Up the Money.

The foot race yesterday at Homewood be-tween Salmon and Gesthier ended very untween Salmon and Gesthier ended very un-satisfactorily. The distance was 100 yards and the contest for $50 a side. Gesthier fairly won by about 18 inches and the referee de-clared him the victor. The backers of Sal-mon, strangely to say, objected to the stakes being paid over, and they were witheld. After the race the referee could not be found and his name was not known. The contestants were matched again.

The Homestead Shooting Match. There was a good attendance of spectators resterday to see the shooting match a Homestead between P. Denn and J. S. Ross. The contest was for $100 a side and there was a large amount of money bet on the result, Dean being slightly 'avorite. The latter shot at 21 birds and Ross shot at 20, at 21 yards rise, gun below the elbow until the bird was on the wing. Ross won by killing 19 birds and Dean only killed 14.

A Grand Entertainment. All arrangements have been made for the grand athletic entertainment which takes place at Homestead next Tuesday evening. Besides the wrestling, club swinging and musical features, there will be splendid box-ing exhibitions by Johnny Reagan, Ed Smith, Billy Hawkins and many others. The entertainment is under the auspices of the Homestead Athletic Club. A big crowd is expected.

Lasker Wins the First. London, May 27 .- The first game between Blackburne and Lasker was opened by the former with a Ruy Lopez. Lasker won after 43 moves. The match is being played at the British Chess Club, King street, Covent Garden.
