Another Philadelphia journalist, of a different belief from Mr. Smith, was Charles H. Heustis, of the Philadelphia Enquirer, H. Heustis, of the Philadelphia Enquirer, accompanied by George G. Brennan, en route to the Minnesota metropolis. Mr. Heustis expressed himself as being very decidedly for Blaine. "He will surely be nominated," he continued, "and the success of the party depends upon him. In case the Secretary writes another letter or comes out in a thetament that he will not accent the nomistatement that he will not accept the nomination President Harrison will doubtlessly be the candidate, and if that occurs I sadly fear for the Lepublican party on the result." Dr. G. S. Warford, of New York City, was upon the same train, and said that the only name heard in New York at present was that of the man from the Pine Tree was that of the man from the Pine Tree State. "The impression prevails," he con-tinued, "that Blaine will be the choice of the convention, and that there will be a bitter war between the two political parties. The two parties are hinged. Blaine and Harrison and Cleveland and Hill, which ever candidate is nominated the amoring testing will be nominated the opposing faction will be apt to raise more or less trouble, and it is hard to foretell the results at the election."
