GIDEON'S BAND IN GEORGIA.

One of the Secrets of the Alliance Give

Away by a Talkative Preacher. AUGUSTA, GA., June 2,-Gideon's Band is the latest factor in the politics of Georgia Its existence threatens to destroy the little vitality which the People's party has left in the old Farmers' Alliance. Several nights ago at a joint discussion in Livo nin between the Democratic Alliance men and the People's party folks feeling rose high. Rev. J. T. Vernon, a Baptist preacher and President of the County Alliance of Hart, forgot his discreton and told the whole story.

"There is," said he, "an inside degree in the Atliance order to which only a limited number are allowed. It was organized during the meeting of the State Alliance last year. I was appointed organizer for my county. The number to be taken was 30 in each county. This inside circle was to in each county. This inside circle was to direct and govern the policy of the order, to decide who should or who should not offer for public office. We were oath bound and not even the other members of the order should know of our existence. The name of Gideon's Band was selected." President Livingstone, when questioned regarding the band, refused to speak.

WEST VIRGINIA DIVIDED

In Its Preference, Gorman Being as Lucky as Cleveland,

WHEELING, W. VA., June 2 .- Following is the complete Democratic delegation to the Chicago National Convention elected at the four district conventions held yesterday in this State. The delegation is about evenly divided between Gor-nan and Cleveland, but in only one district were they instructed. This was in the Second, which instructed for Cleveland. At least two of these delegates, however, are snown to prefer Gorman. The list is as ollows:

First district—Delegate at large, James B. Caney, Ohio county; district, John J. Davis, Harrison; Merchrod Arnold, Doddridge. Second district—Delegate at large, B. F. Wartin, Taylor county; district, J. E. Wat-on, Marton; J. A. Robinson, Mineral, Third district—Delegate at large, J. W. St. Jair, Fayette county; district, A. F. Math-ws, Greenbrier: W. E. Chilton, Kanawina. Fourth district—Delegate at large, J. N. amden, Wood county; district, T. F. Car-senter, Putnam; J. H. Russell, Cabell.

A SENATORIAL DEADLOCK.

'armers' Alliance Men in Louisiana Refuse an Offer From Democrats.

NEW ORLEANS, June 2 .- [Special.]-It aving become evident that with four Demcratic candidates for the United States enate in the field it was impossible to elect Senator, a conference was held to consider e matter. The proposition was made that se question be submitted to a Democratic aucus, but the Farmers' Alliance delegates etused to go into one. It was then sug-ested by General Gibson's friends that the enstorship question be referred to the pop-lar vote, and that a general white primary lection be held to determine who is the income of the Democrats. This suggestion not well received by some of the other undidates, but has not yet been refused. it is rejected it will probably be decided , postpone the election of a Senator to the ext session of the Legislature.
