ALL THE BASEBALL NEWS OF INTEREST

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. BOSTON, June 4.-It was well for Boston that Captain Beckley arrayed his college to-day. The latter needed the game badly and each man went upon the field wearing some little token with which to appease Dame Fortune. and in that way to find again the road to victory. They went gun-ning to-day with a vengeance and found Woodcock very much to their liking. They not only bagged plenty of safe hits, but they scored more sacrifices, which answered just as well, than were ever before made by them in a single game. Boston took the lead in the first inning and held it, the visitors being unable to crowd them hard owing to the effective work of Stivetts. Had His Fye on the Balt.

Tominy McCarthy had his eye on the ball tp-day and started off with a two-bagger. Duffy's scratch hit to Beckley enabled him to reach third and he scored on Long's sacrifice. Pittsburg's chances looked bright after Bierbauer had hit safely, but he was caught napping and was run down between first and second bases. With two men out in the second Farrell hit safely and stole se cond Mack made frantic efforts to knock the cover from the ball, but he could not hit and another chance to score was lost. In the third the Benneaters took another step forward Tucker scoring on Shugart's fumble, McCarthy's hit and two sacrifices. The bases were filled when Kelly took up the stick and only one man was out. The Triumvirs rubbed their hands and wondered how many runs their gilt-edged players would make. The Great King's Falture,

The great King Kel swung his bat with a mighty swing and managed to send the ball to Woodcock. The latter quickly threw it to the plate, forcing one man, and then Kelly was caught before he could reach the first bag. It was a pretty play and was loudly applauded, even if it did dash the hopes of the Beancaters. Boston made up tor that mistake in the fourth inning, when two runs were scored on a base on balls, two hits, a wild throw by Shugart and a sacrifice. Nerved to desperation by the victorious tramp of the Bean Eaters upon their necks, the visitors took a brace in their half of the fourth inning. Bierbauer gave Nash a hot one, which the latter threw wildly, and Bierbauer was on second when the ball was returned. Shugart atoned for his errors by dropping the ball in left field for a single, and Bierbauer was advanced a base. Beckley lifted the ball far into righ field, and Bierbauer scored on the sacrifice, Shugart taking third. The next two men were easy victims, and only one run was

The fifth was another interesting inning. in which the visitors came within an ace o scoring after two men were out. Wood on Miller's single. Before the latter could steal second, Bierbauer sent an easy grounder to Long and Miller was forced at second. Again in the sixth did the Smoky City lads make the Beaneaters tremble, for their lead was altogether too slight to give them much encouragement. With Shugart out, Beckley was given his base and reached second on Long's fumble of Smith's grounder. Farrell sent another grounder to the same player, but he did better work this time and caught Smith at second, Beckley taking third. Farrell thought he could easily steal second with Beckley on third, but Kelly made a quick throw and he was caught before Beckley saw his chance. The Bostons had four men on bases in the eighth inning, but only one of them scored. Stivetts was forced out at the plate on a good throw by Shugart. Duffy came to the rescue with a single on which Tucker secred, but the other two men were left on third and second bases respectively. Farrell and Shugart were responsible for Bos-ton's run in the muth inning. Each made a wild throw, and with the aid of two sacrifice hits, Lowe crossed the plate. Not to be outdone in little courtesies of that kind Duffy dropped Beckley's fly in the last of the ninth inning and that player took two bases on the error. Smith's sacrifice ad-vanced him to third, and a passed ball by

The following table shows the correct standing of the clubs for the League penmant. It will be seen that the contest is a close one. The Cincinnati and Philadelphia teams are making remarkable spurts, and the latter have finally pushed the Clevelands out of the first division. The Pittsburs are sadly handicapped for pitchers, or else they would have been much higher. Following

THE STATE LEAGUE.

Torreyson's Team Gets a Double Victory

From the Allentowns. Torrevson's world beaters twice defeated the hitherto invincible Allentown club in two well contested games yesterday. Jones and McCullough were the opposing twirlers in the first game, and Menefee and Lukens in the second. The latter is the Norristown pitcher who Harry Wright was so anxious to secure. The features of the game were the excellent backstop work of Cote and Clark, and the general work of the Pittsburg team. President Temple and P. Kegr witnessed both games, and seemed to be sizing up the Pittsburg team for future use. The actual attendance was about 1,290, and encouraged the State League people to such up extent attendance was about 1,200, and encouraged the State League people to such an extent that they will play in Pittsburg for the bal-ance of the season, notwithstanding the re-ports to the contrary. Mr. Buckenberger says that it is suspected that one or two clubs have been tampering with the player as he has been in the sulks for several days. He wanted to be released and his request was granted. He will likely go to Washington or New York.

Manager Buckenberger adds that himself and Captain Burus are on the ontlook for a good pitcher and they expect to secure one shortly.

THE ENGLISH DERBY.

large Amount of Money Won on Sir Hugo's Surprising Victory. London, May 4 .- [Copyright.]-This year's Derby was an unusually interesting one. In the first place, it was the only pleasant day in three weeks, and in the next an outsider won. It is estimated that 203,000 people were on Epsom Downs, and among them were hundreds of Americans.

Lord Bradford won £25,000 by the success of Sir Hugo. How much the trainer and stable generally won is unknown. But as 66 ol could have been obtained against the to I could have been obtained against the horse at the start they had every opportunity of making a small fortque. The history of this horse is instructive to students of ethics of the English turf. He won a race and somely as a 2-year-old, but in both his races this sea-on he ran like a common plater. He never showed to advantage in the 2000 guineas or at Newmarket, yet a few days later in the Derby he decisively beats a dozen horses who had even more decisively benten him. Lord Bradford rather gives himself away when he says he knew his horse would run well, yet no one here dares himself away when he says he knew his horse would run well, yet no one here dares to say that the horse was "run dark" to hoodwink the British sporting public. The British libel law is too strong.

Another queer piece of work was that of the Epsom Grand Frize, for which Curio was made fayorite. He was defeated, however, with the utmost case by The Lover, a horse he had previously beaten in a canter. The English racing this season has conclusively proved that the horses of the year are a poor lot.

English Brewers Will Advance Jackson $150,000 to Stay in England.

MITCHELL TO TRAIN JIM HALL. Match-Making Among the Local Sprinters and Lots of Money Put Up.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

LONDON, June 4.—[Copyright.]—When it was announced that the National Sporting Club was £680 short of the purse that was offered for the Jackson-Slavin fight it was thought that one or both men would have to go short, but the full amount of £1,750 was paid to Jackson, and Slavin got his £250 all right. The fact that the club was short in this purse is sure to have a' had effect on future international matches. Jackson has had several good offers to remain in England. A syndicate of brewers and distillers have offered to furnish the colored champion with £30,000 to open a nammoth saloon in London. Jackson will not consider the offer, as he is bound to return to America with Parson Davies. When asked if he would challenge Sullivan for the cha pionship of the world, Jackson said:
"No; Sullivan has announced his inten-No; Stillvan has announced his inten-tion of retiring from the ring, and I will not force him to break his resolution. But I want to settle matters with Corbett, and Parson Davies will be in New Orleans when Sullivan and Corbett meet to arrange a match with the Californian, whether he wins or loses Sullivan's." Jim Hall has taken up with Charlie Mitchell and Pony Moore, who will find the money for Hall in his fight with Ted Pritchard. Parson Davies will not have anything to do with the fight, as he thinks Hall has made a very foolish match with Pritchard, confining himself to 160 pounds. Davies thinks the lowest that Hall should fight at is 163 pounds, but he says that Hall can get to the stipulated weight and make a good fight. Hall will train at Mitchell's place in Brighton, and the fight will take place within ten weeks, but no place is selected as yet. The clubs here will fight shy of the contest, as the side bet is a bar that no one will take the responsihility of removing. If it is a gate money show Hall will get none the best of the deal.

Pritenard is hard at work training for his fight with Johnny O'Brien, which will come off at the National Sporting Club on June Pritchard has grown so much of late that he will have trouble in getting down to that he will have trouble in getting down to 158 pounds. It is claimed that he now stands 5 feet 10 inches high. On Monday night Jackson and Frank Slavin meet in a five round go at the Central Hall. The affair is sure to be a hard fight especially if Slavin gets a hard rap or two. Charles Mitchell and Jim Hall also meet at the same time and place. Joe Chownshi is still waiting for a job and also meet at the same time and place. Joe Choynski is still waiting for a job and he is likely to wait. None of the English boxers care to "take him on," not even Jem Smith. When George Godfrey arrived here from Boston it was thought that some of the clubs would make up a purse for the two Americans, but they took no notice of the colored Bostonian, who will probably return to the States at once. The match between Staunton Abbott and Austin Gibbons looks more than ever a certainty. The other night than ever a certainty. The other night Abbott was beaten by Sam Baxter. As he is not one of the best Gibbons ought to win in a couple of rounds.

A VETERAN'S OPINION.

He Thinks the Slavin and Jackson Contest Was Very Suspicious. An old and well-known local patron of the prize ring made the following statement yesterday regarding the recent fight be ween Slavin and Jackson:

"I am convinced that the affair was a sell. Slavin fought just the way for Jackson to defeat him, or to give the spectators the opinion that he was beaten. Figure the fought in his best form than if he was a half-dead man. It took Jackson one hour and 37 minutes to defeat Joe McAuliffe when the latter was not much more than a novice. But after McAuliffe had been under the tnition of the best tutor in the world, Char-ley Mitchell, and was as fit as hands could ley Mitchell, and was as fit as hands could make him, Slavin knocked him out in less than two rounds. Again, Jackson had great difficulty in defeating Godfrey and Kulrain beat Godfrey badly. Slavin nearly killed Kilrain in nine rounds. Kilrain is a stronger man in the body than Jackson, and Slavin's right hand injured Kilrain's body, but Slavin did not hurt Jackson, although he hit him in the body often enough. Jackson and Slavin have traveled together and performed together. Parson Davies is a shrewd man and knows them all. The ring was reduced to 20 feet, and Jackson never complained. All these facts, together with the betting and the manner in which the inatch was made, convince me that it whs a sell. And I may add that all the best judges of fighting, both in this country and in England, who have seen the two men, deemed Slavin by far the superior fighter."

A REAL CHAMPION PUGILIST.

Bob Fitzsimmons Will Pay Pittsburgers Visit This Week.

Bob Fitzsimmons, the famous champion middle-weight pugilist, will be at the Academy of Music this week. Although the tall Australian has been trying for some time to secure a match he has not succeeded as nobody in his weight wants to tackle him. He is eager to fight Jim Hall at catch weight, but the latter departed for England just as soon as there were definite signs of a middle-weight in the world to-day as far as known. He has an unique style of boxing and will be a dangerous man for anybody to meet. Jimmy Carroll and one or two other prominent boxers are with him. Carroll is anxious to have another try at Myer McAuliffe.

Will Fight This Morning.

CHICAGO, June 4.-Henry Baker, of this city, and Dick Moore, of St. Paul, are due to battle for a stake of $700, the gate receipts and the middle-weight championship of Illinois within 160 miles of Chicago to-night. Arran ements have been made for a special train to leave the Union depot after 12:30 to night for the scene of action. Ed Smith, of Deaver, who is here on his way to Wichita, will probably officiate as referee. Betting on the result has been lively, the odds slightly favoring Baker.

L. & O. MAN FOR SUNDAY WORKING.

Agent Harry Horn Is Arrested in Alderderman Rohe's (ffice.

A RULE THAT MAY WORK BOTH WAYS

Everything is progressing favorably for the great foot race between Peter Priddy and M. J. Kennedy. They will run three miles at Recreation Park, next Saturday, and the final deposit was put up yesterday. James M. Sharp, the well-known Southside news agent, yesterday took a hand in the little game as played by the Law and and the final deposit was put up yesterday.

Both men are in active training, and it is needless to say that each is very confident.

Priddy wants the race to be run before dinner time, as the iron workers plenie is next Saturday. If Kennedy is agreeable for the change it will be made in the articles.

There has been a little betting on the result

The list, though a light one for the beginning of term, is a large one for the short length of time the cases have been accumulating in the jail, the last grand jury having cleaned it out by its second sitting but three or four weeks ago. The calendar on which the grand jury will commence work to-morrow comprises 115 cases. These are divided among 31 offenses and charged against 96 persons.

One unusual thing is that there is not a murder case on the list. There is but one person in jail awaiting trial for murder. three-legged race, high kick, one mile race, sack race, standing broad jump with weights, running hop, step and jump, running high jump, standing high jump, throwing 16-pound hammer, throwing 16-pound shot. CORRY, June 4. - [Special.] - The most ter-rific rain storm that has ever been experienced in this locality, began this afternoon about 3 o'clock. The business part of the city is completly flooded, doing immense amount of damage, and at this writing the rain is falling as hard as at any time. Basements of business houses are full of water, and thousands of dollars worth of goods of all kinds are rained. Brown's racket store, which was in the basement of the Brown block, is flooded and his loss will reach $4,000 or $5,000. Several streets are rivers, with the water still rising. The spire of the German Catholic Church, 125 feet high, was struck by lightning and torn to pieces. There are washouts on all the railoads, and all train service is abandoned. The damage in the city will probably reach 25,000. The gas and electric lights have been rendered useless, and the city is in

The rains resulted in great damage throughout this section of the State. Many county bridges were washed away. A bad washout of 200 feet of the Pittsburg, Shenango and Lake Erie track, about five miles out, forced the company to transport a train of passengers to Mendville in Reports have been coming in of heavy storms last night in the Eastern part of the State, which amounted to waterspouts in some places. Berks county suffered the worst. Shenandoah was completely shut off from railroad communication. The lower part of the town of White Haven is four feet under water, the cellars of many dwellings being filled with water between White Haven and Tannery. Several barns near Lancaster were struck by lightning and burned to the ground.

A STEAMER SINES AT WHEELING.

She Was Towing a Barge Laden With 900 Steubenville Excursionists. WHEELING, June 4 .- To-day the steamer

Hunter No 2, belonging to the dock company, of Allegheny, toued an immense barge laden with 900 excursionists from Steubenville to Moundsville, W. Va., pass-ing Wheeling a little after noon. This evening at 5:10, just as the boats were passing Wheeling a little after noon. This evening at 5:10, just as the boats were passing under the suspension bridge on the return trip, the Hunter, which was close to the Wheeling side of the channel, ran into the Wheeling side of the channel, ran into some piles and was turned completely over, lying on her side on the water, her bottom being clear of the water. A hole was knocked in the bull, and, filling with water, the steamer rapidly sank. All the machinery was damaged and the boat is practically a complete wreck. The damage is unknown, but is said to be covered by insurance.

When the accident occurred there was a panic on board the barge, but fortunately no one was hurt. The steamer had only the crew on board, and it is thought that all
