GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, June 8 .- Although the crowd of over 1,000 persons seemed to enjoy the comfiture of the Pittsburgpitcher;and although the home team added another list, the wisdom of playing ball and at the same time placing out men on a day like to-day may well be doubted. Until near the close of the game the rain came down in a very disagreeable way. In the fifth inning it was raining hard enough to call time. Later a heavy, damp mist settled over the grounds. As though the Brooklyn players would not make enough runs by working for them, the Pittsburg battery thought it their duty to give them a couple at the start. It Was a Very Wild Start.

The first three men went to first on balls. After the first two men had got there a wild throw to second by Mack advanced each a base. With the bases full, Tom Burus hit a grass cutter clear to center field, and while he got no further than the quarter, Ward and Joyce scored. made a neat sacrifice, advancing Brouthers and Burns each a base; but Corcoran and O'Brien retired the side. Foutz does not usually allow visitors to get on such familiar terms with the balls he hes as did the Pittsburg batsmen in the inning of to-day's contest. Miller Il a rolling with a grounder Bierbauer let him walk howling three-bagger back of Shugart sent a slow ard and beat the ball to first me home with a second carned y was given first on balls, but

Our Captain Burns Loomed Up.

Italy threw out Shugart at third. Burns hit to left put Beckley on the home plate and Burns took second on the throw in, and rate third Daly's wild throw brought him Mack went to first on balls, but out Daly to Ward in an attempt to seal second. Each team had two men on bases in the second inning. For Brooklyn, Daily was hit by a pitched ball and advanced and on a passed ball. Fourz took first Ward went to first on halls. Raldwin threw Daly out at the plate on an attempted bant by Joyce. Brouthers hit to Baldwin. The pitcher fielded home Bookley before Brouthers reached first. In the third luning two run outs added xeltement to the game. First Burns, of covered himself with glory and mud, tried to make home because it looked as though Mack's especial high throw to second would settle in center field.

Where Bierbauer Fooled Brooklyn Burns. Just as Burns was rounding third, howerbauer by a great leap stopped the all and returned it to Mack. Burns saw is danger and turned toward third. Mack threw to Pittsburg Burns, who returned the ill as the Brooklyn player tore home and dack nut him out. Daly, Corcoran, Foutz, and and Brouthers were necessary to put Beckley out between first and second The Brooklyns tied the score quite unexpectedly n the jourth inning. Ward singled, Jovee ocked a high ball over Bierbauer's head, and it went far out to the long grass. Joyce got around home with Ward ahead of him. the next inning a base on balls and by Griffin, Coreoran and O'Brien notical two runs. Errors by Shugart, Mack s parrities by Burns were responsible for runs in the sixth. No runs were made in the seventh. Brouthers' base hit, steal of second, Burns' sacrifice and Chiffin's two-barger carned a run during the Griffin came in on Shugart's wild Lattened Up Their Batting Average. The Brooklyns used the ninth inning in odding to their batting averages. A twolorgoran, both of which were driven right hem, and a three-base hit by O'Brien, with Daiy's sacrifice and a base on balls vielded six runs. Ward commenced the me with a base on balls and Foutz it on a fly to Farrell.

Pitisburg did not score after the first ning until the eighth. Shugart started off with a two-bagger. Beckley was out on Durley O'Brien's running catch, Joyce threw wild to first, letting Farrell stand by Burns singled and Shugart erossed the plate. Mack singled and Farrell got home. Tommy Burns fumbled the hit, owing his namesake to make the third run of the inning. Pittsburg did nothing in the ninth. The score: PRODUCTN R R P A E PITTSBURG R R P A

Mr. Byrne Explains.

New York, June 8.-[Special.]-C. H. Byrne called at the Sun office last night and said his position regarding the releasing of playvictory to its ers for the benefit of the weaker teams does not seem to be understood. He is willing to help the weaker teams, and will try to get the other strong clubs to do the same. He is sure that there is no prospect of a return to the eight-club circuit, as the present arrangement runs for ten years. He said he was unaware that any League meeting would be held in the near future. The Brookly Club will release three or four men in a few days. E. B. Talcott yesterday admitted that the League officials had had several informal talks, and that a certain matter he could not now speak of would shortly be acted upon. Further than that Mr. Talcott would say nothing. help the weaker teams, and will try to get

FATTY CHILDS is a phenomenon, says the Brooklyn Daily Fagic. At a distance he looks like a hig Faster egz done in bine and white. A closer inspection shows a pudgy little fellow, cut off above and below and well rounded. When running he works his arms and legs like a treadmill, but the way he covers the ground is something wonderful. He could give ban Brouthers ten yards in a hundred and beat the Brooklyn first baseman out. He covers a great amount of ground.

The Local Baptist Association Rejoins the State Body.

CHAPMAN TURNED DOWN AGAIN.

His Fight Against Rev. Bonsall Stricken From the Record.

INTERESTING POINTS OF THE DAY

There were two interesting features of the Pittsburg Baptist Association's final session yesterday. One was the decision made to return to the fold of the State body from which the city organization secoded nine years ago, and the other was the renewal and defeat of the fight against Rev. Bonsall, of Beaver, begun by Rev. Chapman on Tuesday.

The return to the Baptist State, Mission Society was the result of the efforts of Rev. Morgan, who represented the State body and who presented a resolution reciting that on June 6, the State Board had adopted steps looking toward a re-establishment of fraternal relations based on the following promises: "That after the consolidation the State body will not interfere with the Pittsburg Association in its mission work; that money raised by the Pittsburg Association and expended in its own field need not pass through the hands of the State Treasury, and that every effort will be made hy the State body to insure harmony hereafter.

Opposed to the Affiliation.

Prof. Carey opposed the affiliation strongly. The Pittsburg Association, he said, had done noble work by itself for nine years, and he believed that the home association should be independent. 'She is not," he said, "in need of aid from the State, but the State is in need of aid from us, and I do not think we should place our-selves under the dictation of another body." His protest, however, did not avail, for when the vote was taken there was but one negative cast. This action again makes the Pittsburg Association a part of the general

Rev. Mr. Chapman, of the Thirty-seventh Street Baptist Church, who on Tuesday had attempted to prefer charges against Rev. A. . Bousall to have his name stricken off the roll, resumed his attack yesterday by pre-senting a resolution directed very point-edly against Mr. Bonsall and touching upon Rev. Mr. Woodburn's conduct during the Briggs trial, showing that Bonsall had the same views as Woodburn. Before the resolution was read, W. S. Shallenberger, of Rochester, dexterously disposed of it by a motion to postpone indefinitely.

Chapman Claimed He Was Right. Later in the day a resolution to strike any reference to Mr. Chapman's resolution from the minutes caused him to object strenuously. He said there was nothing in his paper that could offend any reasonabl person, as it was a conservative and mild statement of facts. Said he: "The man who will write pages and pages to tell what he thinks of the divinity of Christ is a poor he thinks of the divinity of Christ is a poor minister of the gospel. The action this morning was wrong and disgraceful. The Republican Convention at Minneapolis would not tolerate such a proceeding as this body did."

There was considerable discussion of a general character after this, and when the question came to a vote Mr. Chapman was defeated by 35 to 33, and no reference to his paper will appear in the official record.

The report of the Foreign Mission Committee showed the membership composing the association to be 5,981. Between the years 1890-1891 there was contributed to the Missionary Union $2,589. Nineteen churches, aggregating a membership of 1,099, gave, however, absolutely nothing. "It is useless, "the report says, "and worse to pray Thy kingdom come" when those through whom the kingdom is to come withhold that which is needed to Christianize the world." Last year 18,549 persons were baptized. There are 417 missionaries under the control of the union. The report advises that this centennial year be signalized by the Baptist Church by raising $1,000,000 to send 100 new missionaries into the field. A few changes are noted. Dr. S. W. Duncan becomes Foreign Secretary of the society in place of Dr. J. N. Murdock, and Dr. R. G. Seymour succeeds Dr. R. M. Luther as District Secretary for Pennsylvania and other States. In Charge of Important Trusts. The trustees appointed on the sustenta-tion fund were W. E. Lincoln and J. H. Skelton. Those on the Church extension tund were Dr. W. A. Stanton, W. S. Shal-lenberger, D. E. Richards, W. S. Brown, J. A. Murphy, John Wood, W. P. Serbert, G. F. Eaton and Henry Johns, Jr.

At last night's meeting addresses were made urging the importance of sustaining the denominational newspapers, and a reso lution was adopted recommending to Bap-tists, The Exponent, a local journal. Moderator Riddle announced his appointment of delegates to the General Associa tion They were Revs. W. A. Stanton, D. D., F. G. Reddick, R. E. Williams, H. C. Applegarth and Dr. Riddle, the Moderator. Rev. A. J. Bonsall read the report of the Committee on Obituary, showing that dur-ing the year there were 79 deaths, divided among 34 congregations and the Greensburg church lost its pastor. Rev. Bonsali delivered an address review-ing the life of William Carey, the pioneer missionary of the Baptist Church. He was born in Eugland August 17, 1761. He saw the need of missionary work and advocated it, and finally offered himself and was the first of the Church sent to India. He was 40 years a missionary and seven years getting his first convert. Before his death, June 9, 1834, he saw planted in India 46

The Growth of Christianity.

Rev. C. A. Hare, of McKeesport, spoke of "The Present Missionary Outlook." He said that wonders had been wrought in the last century, and no one dare say the missionary outlook for the future was not very bricht. Statistics, he said, show that the Christian population of the world is increasing twice as fast as the heathen population, and if it continues in the same proportion before the twentieth century the Christians will outnumber the heathen. The closing remarks were made by Rev. Dr. Seymour, of Philadelphia. He spoke encouragingly of the missionary work, but urged greater efforts. He said the figures showed the American Baptist Union, with three times as many constituents, only gave one-half as much to foreign missions as either the Presbyterians, Methodists or Congregationalists, with one-third as many
