

WORKING ON A SCALE.

Delegates to the Amalgamated Convention Are Divided.

LITTLE, IF ANY PROGRESS MADE.

A Few of the Men Are Now at Loggerheads With the Officers.

NOTES ON OTHER LABOR MATTERS

That there is a great diversity of opinion among the delegates attending the present convention of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers was learned yesterday after the adjournment of the day's session. Not only are the men divided as to the arrangement of the new scale, but it is rumored that some of the delegates are not in sympathy with the officers of the association and their methods of conducting the present difficulty with the manufacturers. A few of the men have gone so far as to openly assert that they are sorry that a greater effort was not made to retain their old president, John Jarrett.

The dissension is entirely due to the slow progress of the members in perfecting the new scale, and in connection with this it is stated that the majority of the delegates are in favor of a much higher rate than the scale now in vogue. This increase is not asked for because the manufacturers are expected to concede to the demand, but in case the manufacturers in turn ask for a reduction, it will give the men a chance to make a slight drop in the scale. Some of the delegates do not hesitate in denouncing this scheme as impracticable. They advise when the scale is presented to the manufacturers that the prices thereon be fixed and at such a fair rate that there can be no reduction. It was thought that the iron scale would be disposed of at the close of to-day's session, so that it could be presented to the manufacturers to-morrow, but according to some of the dissatisfied delegates, if the convention does not make more headway than it has since the first meeting, the scale will not be perfected for several months.

Secretary Madden was seen at the close of yesterday's session, but when asked if any progress had been made he said: "We are still discussing the scale." The adjournment as usual occurred at 5:30 o'clock, and while many of the delegates remained in the hall to debate the business transacted during the meeting, others left immediately for their homes. Nothing could be gleaned of what had transpired during the afternoon session by the expressions upon the countenances of the men, for while some bore hard, determined looks, others came out smiling and seemed in an enviable frame of mind. Again, when asked if it was true that there would be a conference to-morrow between the local manufacturers and the Wage Committee of the Amalgamated Association, Secretary Madden ignored the question by saying that he had heard nothing of it.

RENEWAL OF AN OLD FIGHT.

Members of the Builders' Exchange Are Now Charged With Conspiracy.

Now that the fight of the independent builders and contractors against the members of the Builders' Exchange has been renewed, the question is, how will it end? During the last struggle, while the Court refused to grant an injunction against the Builders' Exchange it was intimated that the plaintiffs might win a victory in the Criminal Court. Accordingly suits have been entered before Alderman Means of the East End, by Thomas Buchanan and Ellsworth W. Haslow, builders and contractors, against Hamilton R. Barnes, William Vain, John Carr, L. L. Yoder, D. E. Sheridan, G. D. McAfee and H. M. Kerr, charged with conspiracy in inducing dealers in builders' supplies not to supply material to any builder or contractor not a member of the Exchange.

PROSPECTS OF SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Engineers at Carnegie's Lawrenceville Mill Object to Their Helpers' Discharge.

Unless the wages of the engineers at Carnegie's Lawrenceville mill are returned to their former standard and the firemen and water inspectors re-engaged, serious trouble is expected at the works to-day. The engineers are up in arms on account of the reduction of their pay by the increase in work caused by the discharge of their helpers. Yesterday they gave their manager, Patrick Dillon, notice that they would wait until to-day for a reversal of the decision. The engineers say they are made to do their work with the increased duties and if there is not some arrangement made to return them to the former scale they will refuse to work.

Twenty-five plumbers passed through his city yesterday on their way to Washington, D. C., to attend a convention of plumbers which begins to-day and will continue until the end of the week. It is said that 700 delegates will be present.

CRITICISED BY THE CORONER.

A Pole Is Run Down by Cars at the Keystone Mill and Died From the Shock—A Thorough Investigation Is Promised.

A Pole, supposed to be named John Olex, an employe of the Keystone mill at Sobo, was run over by the cars in the mill yard yesterday afternoon, and was horribly cut about the lower limb. He was sent to the Homoeopathic Hospital, where he died at 8:15 o'clock. His death is attributed to shock, and Dr. S. M. Binehart, of the hospital staff, noted on the certificate of death to the Coroner "was only in the hospital three hours."

When the body was removed to the morgue and viewed by Coroner McDowell, that official became very wrothy. No evidence of any attention being given to the man was apparent. The bones of the legs were hanging in a crushed and torn mass, with the dirt and cinders of the railroad track ground into it. The coroner said: "That's a shame. We are human here, and that poor fellow has received no attention whatever, not even has the dirt been washed from his wounds and body, let alone any effort made to save or prolong his life. The wounds show no evidences of dressing or of any surgical attention of any kind and I don't know but what something might have been done for him had an effort been made. Think of it, three hours in the hospital, and the body being sent here in that condition. You can rest assured this case will be thoroughly investigated, and we will see if the fact of his being run over is altogether responsible for his death. The man was about 22 years of age and a perfect specimen of physical manhood. His home or friends were not known at either the hospital or morgue. An inquest will be held to-day."

CAUGHT IN THE DARK.

Arrest of an Allegheny Man Who Insults Women and Children. For the past two weeks the Allegheny Police Department have been receiving complaints from the residents of Ridge avenue, Irwin avenue and other squares in that neighborhood about the actions of a man who located himself in the west park and insulted women and children. Detectives were put to work on the case, but the man was evidently on the alert, as the officers were unable to run him down. Yesterday afternoon Assistant Superintendent of Police Glenn, while passing through the west park, was complained to by a girl who said that she had been insulted by a man. Superintendent Glenn at once started after the fellow, and managed to capture and locked him up in the station. The prisoner gave his name as A. McKling, and his residence on Federal street, where he has a wife and family.

JUST BORROWED THE RIG.

The Police Looking for Four Very Unconscionable Young Men. J. W. Corbert, the Oakland liverman, reported to Captain McLaughlin last night, at the Fourteenth ward station, that four young men had taken a team of horses and carriage from his stable in a peculiar manner early yesterday afternoon. About 4 o'clock the young men alighted from a Fifth avenue cable car at the stable and walked in where the two-horse rig was standing hooked up in charge of a driver. They explained to the driver that they had ordered the rig and the young men jumped in and drove off. At a late hour last night the police had heard nothing of the missing team.

TOO MUCH BASEBALL.

Many Complaints Against Players Who Use the Public Streets. The police department has received 15 complaints in the last three days about boys and men playing baseball on the street and an corresponding number of complaints of broken windows. One old gentleman complained that he had to pass through a crowd of the players and was struck with a bat. Orders have been issued to stop the fun, and to-day 20 officers will don citizens' clothes and try to arrest some of the participants and prosecute them. The majority of the complaints are against mill and shop men, clerks and warehousemen who play on the street in the dinner hour.

BRIDGET FOX IS IN LOVE.

And Also in Jail, and Where She Will Go Next is a Mystery. Bridget Leahy, better known as Bridget Fox, was a prisoner in the Allegheny lock-up last night on a charge of disorderly conduct. Bridget had quite a load of beer on, and just to save the police trouble she came to the Bureau of Police herself and began to do a waltz and make love to the front office force, but her love making was of such a boisterous character that she was locked up. The prisoner is the woman whom the workhouse and jail officials refuse to receive and just what the Allegheny authorities intend to do with her is a mystery.
