e Unsettling of Beliefs a Question of the Deepest Interest

MINISTERS AND THE CHURCHES.

Few of the Topics to Be Discussed in City Fulpits To-Morrow.

EANINGS FROM CHURCH FIELDS

t is a question of no little concern to a ltitude of persons as to what a preacher uld do when he finds himself to be out sympathy with the doctrines of his treh. This is an age when old beliefs being shaken to their foundations, and tor and people are more or less influed by the spirit of inquiry which is oad. The writer believes that the manly v to defend heresv is not within but side the orthodox churches. It does not mittic fair thing for a minister or theoical professor, who gains his livelihood m the contributions of the orthodox, to e advantage of the opportunity thus afled in assailing the old-time beliefs. The ter believes in the largest liberty, but leves that the narrow gauge people who wre to the old landmarks have rights ich should be respected.

in influential elder of a prominent Preserian church not long ago advised his tor that he had ceased to believe in eterpunishment, or the inspiration of the e, and miracles, and desired that he uld be relieved from his office as elder. is was the manly thing to do.

CAN'T FIND THE PEGLEG MINE. Another Fruitless Attempt to Locate the

Mythical Treasures of Gold. SAN FRANCISCO, June 17 .- [Special.]-Thomas L. Doran and his friend Jack Bell have just returned from a fruitless effort to find the famous Pegleg mine, in the Colorado desert. They started on Washington's Birthday with a complete outfit and map of the district in which the mythical mine is said to be located. They spent three months in the beart of the desert, thoroughly exploring the country about Carissa Springs, in San Diego county, which conformed to the site of the mine on their map, but they failed to find the three golden hills strewn with nuggets which have lured scores of prospectors to their death, and they found nothing better than death, and they found nothing better than low grade silver ore. They suffered intensely from heat in the desert, and had a lively experience with earthquakes. The counted 700 shocks in one day. The country was badly split up by these schocks, and the old Yuma road was rendered impassable in several places. Doran has not lost hope of finding the Peg-leg mine, and declares he will start again in the fall.

An azgravating sore throat is soon re-lieved by Dr. D. Jayne's Expectorant, an old-time remedy for bronchial and pulmonary affections.

The well of Gillespie Bros., on the Roonie farm, located almost two miles due east of Sistersville, is reported in the sand, and is reported good for 150 barreis a day. This widens the field that much to the east, or if the Morrison & McCornick well is dry, the Roonie well may be on a spor running south-east from the Twitcheil & Hershberger, Ludwig & Mooney and Jones & Tennant's big wells up the river. Johnson & Co, expect to finish up two wells next week on the Wells farm in the southern edge of the town. McDonaid and Other Fields.

Few people have any idea how impure

Few people have any idea how impure even the purest drinking water is. The very best water known is full of germs. They are the most prolific creatures of which we have any knowledge, for a single one may be the causative parent of more than sixteen mil-lion five hundred thousand descendants in a day. They are also possessed or great vitality, for they can be carried great distances in water without losing their power of produc-ing disease. They can be frozen or even boiled without being destroyed. They may be kept dried for years and yet when placed in a suitable medium will come to life and producers for malaria, fever, grip and most serious diseases. "But," you say, "what can be done to avoid them, since they cannot be killed by boil-inst". There is but one thing which will effectively destroy them, and that is coming to effectively destroy them, and that is coming in contact with spirits. A small amount of pure spirits in the water will effectually kill in contact with spirits. A small amount of pure spirits in the water will effect ally kill them and destroy their evil effects, but is should be borne in mind that nothing but the purest and best spirits should be used for this purpose, and that nothing is equal to whiskey. Not the ordinary whiskies which are upon the market, but something far above them-scenething which is highly en-dorsed by the scientific world. Such a whiskey is Duffy's Fure Malt, which is to-day more popular than ever before in its history, and which is doing wonders to de-stroy the germs of every disease. There are hundreds of families that use it constantly in connection with their drinking water, both at the table and between meals. Be-ware of any druggist or grocer who seeks to offer you something he says is 'just as good." Buffy's is the only pure medicinal whiskey upon the market. 8 DATENATE O. D. LEVIS (next Leader.)
