ALL THE PASEBALL NEWS OF INTEREST

There was another game recorded yesterday afternoon at Exposition Park in favor of the Cleveland players and against our Pittsburg sluggers. The contest was extremely exciting toward the finish, but the WASH'GT'N REPAEBOSTON REPA visitors got such a good lead in the early part of the game that they couldn't be caught, although the home representatives made a very bold stagger to overhaul them. Mr. Opportune Hit did not appear, and if he had the result would likely have been different. There would have made a wonderful change in the score, but nobody was equal to the task of doing it.

It Wasn't a Bad Game.

There were about 2,500 people present, and they enjoyed the game as far as can be expected when defeat is the result. The contest was one-sided for a while, but the locals gradually crawled nearer to their opponents, and even got so near that a long safe hit might have tied the score.

Elmer Smith pitched an excellent game, and no mistake, but Dame Fortune was dead against him. Hits of the scratchiest kind imaginable were made against him, and exactly at the time when they would yield runs. Only seven hits were recorded against him, but several of them were turned into hits by the ball bounding in the infield just beyond the reach of the fielders. That kind of lucky hitting won the game, and nothing else. Shugart was out of form in his fielding, but his errors were not such ig factors in the way of run-getting as were the little seemed hits.

On the other hand the home players hit
Davies harder and oftener than Smith was hit, but the hits of the home players were made at the worst possible stages for yield-

Where the Blg Hit Was Wanted. If Gumbert's three-bagger had been made in the fifth inning instead of the ninth matters would have been different. Of course Davies pitched a good game. He is a fine pitcher and keeps his brain coel at the most critical moments. Umpire Macullar too was a little against the home team in the way of judging balls and strikes, but he called a fair two-bagger knocked out by Tebeau "foul" and that somewhat evened matters up. The decision caused Captain atay to bick as he only can kick.

The Clevelands are a good team of ball players and they have excellent pitchers. That's their great source of strength this

The visitors were the first to score a run and it was in the first inning. Childs led off with one of the little scratch hits referred to and was safe. He reached second on a passed ball and then Burkett followed with another puny and lucky infield hit sending Childs to third. Davis struck out and Childs scored on McKean's long fly to Corknill. Tebeau knocked a long fly out to left center and Corkhill made a really brilliant running catch.

Quite a Lucky Inning. The third inning came and it was certainly fraught with remarkabis luck for the visitors. Childs led off with a single and Burkett got his base on balis. Davis got a lucky single to right, scoring Childs, Burkett going to third and Davis to second on the throw in. McKean followi with a scratch hit, the ball bounding over the fielder, Burkett and Davis scoring.

In the fourth inning a single by O'Connor, a stolen base and an error each by Mack and Gumbert scored O'Connor.

The score was 5 to 0 against the home players when they made their first run. In nihe fifth inning, after Smith and Mack were out, Corkhill get his base on balls and Gumbert reached first on a fumble by Childa. Miller followed with a fine single to right, scoring Corkhill, and Bierbauer got his base on balls, filling the bases. Shugart was anable to knock the ball away safely and he went out at first, retiring the side with the bases full.

In the seventh, after Corkhill and Gum-bert were out, Miller made a single, and an-other single by Bierbauer sent him to third. Davies made a wild throw of Shugart's grounder and Miller scored. In the ninth after Corkhill was out, Gumbert knocked out a three-bagger to left field. He could have made a home run on the hit, but he was stopped at third. The catcher contin-ued to play right back for Miller and allowed Gumbert to walk home. The score PITTABURG R B P A E CLEVELAND R B P A E

London, June 18.—[Coppright.]—The new sporting club was opened this week. It is called the Barn and has a lot of influential people behind it. Sir John Astley is the ostensible head, but he is acting for other people, who don't like to have their names publicly connected with any such enter-prise. One of the peculiarities of the club is that it will endeavor to suppress all accounts of fights that take place within its walls, which will never work if it comes to a big fight.

Handicap in Very Fine Style.

An Immense Crowd Witness the Race and Thousands of Dollars Bet.

THE WINNER OF THE CHICAGO DERBY

SHEEPSHEAD BAY RACE TRACK, June 18.—The Suburban Handicap has been almost since its inception a race of surprises, but that of this afternoon was an exception. Montans, the first choice at 2 to 1 in a field of 11 horses, winning the rich prize by a head from W. J. Spier's Major Domo, who, in turn, defeated Captain Sam Brown's 3-year-old colt, Lamplighter, by a head. The race was a grand one, the result being in doubt up to the very last stride. The day broke with a clouded sky which threatened a down-pour of rain at any moment. Because of this militating feature there were not more than 25,000 spectators when starter Rows gave the word go. Only a few drizzling splotches of rain fell, and despite the heavy rain of a few days the track was fast. It was a rattling, betting race, and the 80 book-makers were well loaded down with money of all denominations when the crowd emp-tied itself out on the lawn and into the stands in order not to miss a single feature The Horses All Started Well.

There were four false breaks, none of them being further than a sixteenth of a mile in length. Locohatchee acted obstinate and refused to go up to his horses. At the fifth attempt they were running in a compact bunch, all being in motion. Starter Rowe glanced over the bunch, saw that the Rowe glanced over the bunch, saw that the riders were waiting for the word, and quick as a flash down went the flag, while above all else could be heard his voice, shouting "Go." The crowd stood on tip-toes and glanced nervously up the hame stretch as the flying mass of bright colors, eager faces and swaying bodies of the horses came toward the judges' stand, the first time around. Lambley, who has no peer at getting away from the post ahead of all other jockeys, occupied first place with Major Domo. Littlefield, another quick beginner, had Russell at Domo's heels. Then came the Western colt, the long-tailed Poet Scout, His Highness being fourth and Locohatchee last. Russell made a bold bid for the inner rail as they were bold bid for the inner rail as they were leaving the home stretch preparatory to making the turn into the back stretch, but Lambley appreciated his advantage and cut the rail so close that spectators expected to see his leg crushed.

The Favorites to the Front. At this point Locobatchee was absolutely last, while the favorite, Montana, was only a length in front of him. Major Domo was speeding along in front of his field as steady as if he were a machine instead of a quad-ruped. Garrison, however, did not become raitled or disheartened. He knew that the leaders were going too fast for so early in the race, and that they would be all pumped out in the finish. In the middle of the back stretch he made his first move on the favorite. Ten lengths in front of him he saw that the horses that had been hugging the rail began to veer over to the middle in their efforts to keep up with their companions. The alert Snapper drove Montana with his hands a few times. His rush electrified the spectators and with one voice they cried out "Why, look at Montana, He is not beaten after all." They were right. Garrison had just commenced to make his run. Lambiey, on Major Domo, glanced over his shoulder and saw the favorite coming his shoulder and saw the favorite coming through the bunch with a remarkable burst of speed. Turning into the stretch Garrison settled himself for business, and Bergen and Lamplighter also began to ride. A furlong from the finish and Domo was still a length in front of Montana. With only a sixteenth to go Domo had still half a length the best of it. Lambley began whipping for dear life. Garrison assumed his famou position, his back taking on a hump, and he looked for all the world like a jack rabbit about to spring.

A Real Garrison Finish.

On came Montana as steady as a piston rod while Domo swayed painfully. Gar-rison's admirers cheered him and his gal-lant horse repeatedly as they passed by the judges first in the race for the great Suburban, with Major Domo a head away. Lamplighter finished at the Major's throa atch. In another stride he would have been second and Domo would have been third. There was an open space of day-light of about two lengths between Lamplighter and the long tailed Poet Scout. His Highness, second choice, was fourth. The fractional time was: First quarter 24 seconds, half-mile 49 1-5; three-quarters 1:15 3-5; one mile 1:40 3-5; mile and one-eighth 1:54 4-5, and the mile and a quarter in 2:07 2-5. The first fractions show that Major Domo set a terrific pace from the instant that the flag dropped until he began to stop in the final furiong. The winners' share of the rich prize was $18,000 $5,000 to second and $2,000 to the third

At the quarter Yo Tambien 1cd by a head, Gulinda and Nolus close up with Wadsworth, who got off inst eight lengths away. At the half Lew Weir led by a neck, Yo Tambein and Gulinda third.

At the mile Yo Tambien led by one length, Wightman and Huron neck and neck. Yo Tambein was a neck in front of Wadsworth, with Gulinda third.

At the mile Yo Tambien led by one length, Wightman and Huron neck and neck. Yo Tambein won by a length and a half, Wadsworth second, half a length in front of Azra third. Wadsworth made a splendid race, getting off last and running to second place. The time, 2:40%, for the distance, a mile and a quarter, was good, considering the condition of the track. The jockies and horses were covered with mud when they came in. The winner was heavily backed to win. Club field day with the "3 A's" called quite a large crowd of the friends of the members yesterday afternoon to the association grounds, formerly Recreation Park. And there was an extensive sprinkling of ladies, who seemed to take as much interest in the events as did their escorts. The grounds are in a state of repair, necessary for the big meeting of July 2, so that there were small inconveniences with which the competitors had to contend, but other than the delay of half an hour, the torn up condition of the track did not seriously interfere. Records were perhaps not quite so good as they might have been, especially in the mile races, both toot and wheel, when the competitors had to cross the uncompleted cinder path that is in process of formation, but as the events were between members only these were permublice. On the only, there was no grumbling. On the whole, the affair was very well managed, and the events followed each other in quick succession, once they obtained a start.

The opening event was the 100-yard dash, in which the only scratch starter was Paul, in which the only scratch starter was Paul, and he concluded to run only a part of the distance, dropping out after the others had gotten off. There were only two in the mile run, Haley, scratch, and Wade with 25 yards start. Haley ran well as usual, catching up with Wade in the second quarter and sprinting ahead easily at the finish. Time, 5:10 1-5. He made the first quarter in 1:05. Putting the 16-pound shot brought out Messrs. Duncan, Laughlin, Paul and McConnell and the first named won with 30 feet 7 inches to his credit.

The 220-yard dash was a very interesting event, and brought out the first real applause. Laughlin started at scratch, with Hunter 10 yards, Painter 8 yards and Arnsberg 10 yards in front of him. The course was just where the people in the grand stand could watch every move of each runner. Laughlin rapidly closed up the gap between himself and those in front, and made a magnificent spurt when within 100 nade a magnificent spurt when within 100 feet of the string, crossing it about a yard in front of Arnsberg, who came next. Although there were three entries in the Petticord started. Arthur L Banker and Petticord 15 seconds' start and the latter made good use of the time; in fact he had made good use of the time; in fact he had reached the 220-yard post when Banker was started. The gap was a huge one and both rode more than ordinarily well, but Banker gradually closed up until coming down the home stretch he was but a few lengths behind. Mr. Petticord crossed the wire in 3:15½ and Banker was only one-half a second behind. The track interfered somewhat with the time but it was a good received.
