FORTY YEARS AN OFFICE HOLDER

HIS GRIP ON SUFFERING MARYLAND

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

WASHINGTON, June 19.-The possibility that Cleveland will fail to secure the necessary two-thirds majority to nominate him, on the first ballot at Chicago, that this will sefeat him, that the choice will fall on a dork horse, and that that dark horse will be Senator Arthur P. Gorman, causes much uneasiness among the best Democrats of the non-politician sort in Congress and in this city.

There has never been a "Gorman movement" in Congress. What there has been of a Gorman movement originated with the smallest class of Maryland politicians who are in office about the Capitol and others who have been in office and who still linger about earning a livelihood in one way or another, and not always a reputable way, and, more important than these, the Maryland Democratic politicians who acknowledge the bosship of Gorman, and who assist and feed upon his management and authority. These have been shouting for Gorman eve since the Hill-Cleveland fight in New York made another than Cleveland possible. They have thrust Gorman into the faces of everybody, have kept his name in the air, and their vocal efforts have led Democratic and other correspondents to take up the cry and teach the people in every part of the country that Gorman is the most likely dark horse in the Democratic stable.

Gorman and His Bad Gang's Grip.

The fact that he is a Senator of the The fact that he is a Senator of the United States means to outsiders that Gorman is a man in every way worthy of the office of President. If they ever knew of his acts as a political boss, and the desperate attempts made to cast him out by the very best element of the party in Maryland, they have probably forrotten the facts. Repeatedly a grand and enthusiastic movement to dislodge him and his gang has been initiated by the most prominent business and professional men in Baltimore, whose Democratic belief is of that old inshioned kind which frowns upon dishonesty and kind which frowns upon dishonesty and crime either in the getting or the holding of office. But Baltimore is Maryland, and Gorman's ganz of Baltimore heclers was always strong enough to hold the fort against any assault, by the foul methods in which they are adjusted and the two men. Eugene they are schooled, and the two men, Eugene Hirgins and Freeman Rosin, who have been denounced by the respeciable Democrats of Baltimore as only fit for the penitentiary, are at Chicago handling Senator Gorman's

He Has a Record That's Unenviable. In Maryland the majority of the people do not seem to object to that sort of thing, but with other States of the Union, and with the is possible the case would be different. Let me predict that if Gorman be the candidate a very dark political, and, I may add "busisoningt Mr. Gorman, and it will be little less than miraculous if he, with all his ability for scheming and with lieutenants versed in all the deviltry of ward politics, and with the committee and leaders of the party to assist them, will be able to surmount the

When I says "business" record, I do not when I says "business" record, I do not mean it in the ordinary sense. Mr. Gorman has nover had any business except politics. His name has been connected with various business enterprises, but all came to him through his ability to manipulate State and municipal Legislatures, and he is roundly accused by business associates as having been more of a wrecker than a promoter of business. For instance, after having been a director and for a time the President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Camal, he attempted to wreck that valuable waterway, reaching from Comberland to the navigable Potomac at Washington and to turn over its bed to a allroad with which he is connected. The stockholders of the canal were powerless, out offered it in their need to the Baltimore and Ohio Railway Company, which, to present the construction of Mr. Gorman's rail-ond, stopped in and guaranteed the unpaid boads, saved the canal, and its placid bosom's now thickly dotted with freighted boats, and the bray of canal mules takes the piace of the shrick of the engines of Mr. Gorman's peake and Ohio canal was peculiarly brutal and dishonorable on account of his connection with the company. Since his fallure he has had his revenge on the Baltimore and Georgetown, with a branch from the main line. He bailled the road with legal obstacles until it failed to have the cars run-ning before the limit of time expired, and then prevented any renewal of the agreement with the State. The grading was ment with the State. The grading was nearly done, and a long line of trestle work built for a mile on the river's edge to the Georgetown bridge spanning the Potomac, and this abandoned work pays tribute to the wrecking powers of Mr. Gorman.

It would require a volume to give a history of such transactions in which the Maryland Senator has been engaged, to say nothing of the sinister record of his career in political management. He is a millionaire. It is not easy in a State like Maryland, mainly poor and unproductive, for one land, mainly poor and unproductive, for one to gather together $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 It muy be entertaining to see what is neces sary, judging from the career of Senator

Forty Years an Officeholder.

The Senator was 53 years old last March. At the age of 13 he was appointed a page in the Senate, and since his time as page he has been Postmaster of the Senate, Col-lector of Internal Revenue for the Fifth district of Maryland (evidently he was something of a Republican in that day); was for several terms a member and Speaker of the Maryland House of Delegates; was elected to the State Senate for four years in 1875, re-elected in 1879, but was immediately thereafter elected to the United states Senate, and has since been twice re-elected to boay. His coming term in the Senate not expire until March 3 of the last year of this century.

Here is a man who has been holding office for 40 years, ever since he was 13 years old. The highest salary that ever atmehed to any office held by him is that of United States Somator, which is not sufficient to pay his grocery bill. It is by such means that men become millionaires in Maryland, and possibly in some other States.

Depew Can Have Braine's Place.

Whether or not Dr. Chauncey M. Depew has been tendered the office of Secretary of State is as yet one of the mysteries. One gentleman, a high official, who professes to know all about the matter, declares that Mr. Depew would not have the office, and that it has not been tendered him. The general theory among those who are accustomed to make shrewd guesses from slender premises is that if Mr. Depew had not been tendered is that if Mr. Depew had not been tendered the appointment someoody in the neighborhood of the White House would have found it advisable to say so. The closeness of everybody's mouth on the subject, and also an occasional hint from one or two of the senators who called at the White House yesterday, leads to the conclusion that Mr. Depew has been given to understand that he can have the office if he will accept it.

Mr. Depew before he took the cars for New York this afternoon was urged to give some into of the situation, but he smilingly turned the subject to the really pleasant one of possible cooler weather.

"The statement published that Emmons

I dined at his home in Chicago Sunday, June 12, and be, with his wife, drove to the station Sunday evening to bid me goodby. He was in perfect health and in the best of spirits. I never saw him in a happier frame of mind and full of hope for the future. His last words to me were: The result of the convention is all right. Give my love to everyone in Maine. You will see us all this summer. Don't have any misgivings for father. His fame is sure."

LOOKING FOR BLOODSHED. STRIKING OREMEN IN MINNESOTA

DEFT THE MILITIA. They Overawe a Sheriff's Posse of 45 Men. and Troops Are Called Out-Both Sides Witt Shoot to Kill-Five Millions In Danger. Tower, MINN., June 19.-The opinion was general here to-day that it will require strong measures, and perhaps bloodshed, to restrain strikers from interfering with men who will be put to work to-morrow at the Minnesota Company mines. They are a determined set, the main disturbing element being Austrians, many of whom have served in the army before coming to this country, and who do not fear anything, from firearms to dynamite. Their success in compelling the Deputy Sheriffs to leave the mines yesterday on peril of their lives has added to their recklessness, until some of them, if threats count for anything, seem to think they own the earth.

There were about 600 men in the strike yesterday, according to Deputy Sheriffs, and by a clever flank movement they completely surrounded the deputies, many of whom had never smelled powder. The Sheriff saw that his men were weakening, and came to the conclusion that discretion sherill saw that his men were weakening, and came to the conclusion that discretion was the better part of valor.

To-day rumors are current that the strikers will force the whole mining contingent, to the extent of 1,500 men, to go out. These rumors were so aiarming that Shoriff Sharvy determined to send for two additional companies from West Duluth before attempting to start the mines. Company A, Third Regiment, Minnesota National Guards, arrived this morning with 47 men. They were quartered with some 40 deputy sheriffs armed with Springfield rifles. Both officers and men of the militia company were anxious to-day to take possession of the mines and hold them against the strikers. The Sheriff and General Manager B. H. Bacon, of the Minnesota Iron Company, are determined not to risk a probable pitched battle without more men. All forces are waiting the arrival of the West Duluth contingent, when the mining machinery will be started. It is the determination to show no mercy if the strikers make an attack, but to shoot low and kill, as it is believed that if a mercy if the strikers make an attack, but to shoot low and kill, as it is believed that if a lew of them are killed it will bring the rest few of them are killed it will bring the rest to their senses, although yesterday, when they closed in on the deputy sheriffs, they shouted: "You may kill a dozen or more of us, but we will paralyze you in the end."

The difficulty arose with a portion of the surface men who took a holiday contrary to the rules, and were discharged. There is, also, some bad feeling over a reduction of 10 cents made a month ago on wages of some of the men working above ground. This reduction was made because it was very hard to get men to work below in the mines, on account of better wages being made on the outside of the pits.

The mines are rather hard to guard against The mines are rather hard to guard against a large force of determined men, well armed with revolvers, rifles, sticks, stones and knives. The mouths of the shafts are all on a tableland or eminence, from 100 to 300 feet above, the surrounding country, and include an area of 160 acres on which are nearly a dozen working shafts, with expensive hoisting machinery which must be protected. Still more important than this is the large boiler and machinery of the company, which furnishes the motive power to pany, which furnishes the motive power to hoist the ore out of all the shafts. It is a very expensive plant, perfect in its kind, which must have cost nearly $1,000,000. The strikers could, if so disposed, by putting in a few blasts, cause $5,000,000 worth of loss in a few minutes.

North of the mines is a wilderness of bush into which the attacking party can secure good shelter, enabling them to approach the works from all sides. They came down yesterday on the poor deputies in this manner like the wolf on the fold, with a babel of tongues, swearing in several unknown languages, like enraged animals.

ACCIDENT AND MURDER

Two Men Ejected From a Freight Car. Struck by a Train and Killed-Their Chums Attack the Trainmen and Shoot

ERIE, June 19.-[Special.]-Five young Erie molders, Alto Stablein, George Van Alten, Frank Sapper and two others whose names are not known at present, spent Saturday in Buffalo and attempted to steal a ride back to Erie on a freight train. At St. Angola they were put off the train by Brakeman Lorella Newton.

Within five minutes from the time that Stablein and Van Alten were put off the freight train they were struck by another The former was instantly killed, while Van Alten died in a short time. When Sapper and the other two saw their mangled companions, they accused Newton of being the cause of the accident. The trainmen were then attacked by the molders, who used revolvers. Newton was shot through Onto company by preventing them from the chest and will die. Fireman McGuire reaching Washington, otherwise anciens was also hit but not seriously injured. The assailants were driven off. Sapper reached Erie to-day and was arrested to-night. He stouty maintains his ignorance of the affair. He said that he had been ejected from the train before reaching Angola, but the dying statement of Van Alten implicates Sapper. The bodies of Stablein and Van Alten were brought here to-night, and Newton has been taken to Buffalo.

Startling Address at Wheeling. WHEELING, June 19.—[Special.]—Rev. M. F. His theme was: "Why I Lett the Ministry of the Methodist Episcopal

The speaker stated that he utterly rejected the doctrines of the trinity, vicarious atonement and future retribution. On the contrary, he advanced arguments on behalf of a new creed, partaking of Universalism, Unitarianism and even more liberal beliefs. His aim is to found a new church.

MAKING A PLATFORM

For the Nominee of the Chicago Convention to Take His Stand Upon.

TARIFF THE PRINCIPAL PLANK,

But the Force Bill Will Be Denounced in Bitter Terms.

NICARAGUA CANAL COOLLY TREATED

CHICAGO, June 19.—The platform of the Democratic party has been almost lost sight of in the struggle between the Cleveland and opposing forces. It has, however, derived consideration from gentlemen who may reasonably be looked upon as probable members of the Committee on Resolutions. The tariff plank naturally will stand forth and be the principal issue on which it will be sought to run the campaign, but the force bill will come in for almost an equal share of attention, and it will have as much virility as can be given it in dignified English. Democrats say that the Republicans have thrown down the gauntlet on this bill, and that they are only too glad to take it up and meet their opponents.

The tariff plank will not (in so far as its general declarations on the tariff question go) differ much from the tariff plank of 1888. It will demand that the people be relieved from burdensome and unjust tax-ation, and that the tariff be reduced to such an extent as an economical administration of the affairs of the Government will per-

The McKinley Bill Denounced A special plank will be devoted to the McKinley bill, which will be denounced as a measure framed for the advantage of special classes and which a measure framed for the advantage of special classes, and which raises the prices of articles of necessity to the consumer. It will also be denounced as fostering trusts and resulting in the formation of combinations of capital to stifle competition, oppress labor and mise the prices of articles controlled by the trust.

The Democratic party will declare its continued devotion to a freedom of action, and will demand the enforcement of laws for the prevention of trusts and the enactment of such further legislation as may be necessary. It is probable that there may be recommended legislation which will remove duty on articles controlled by trusts as one means of restraint on the operations of these concerns. hese concerns.

The force bill plank will be a ringing dec-

The force bill plank will be a ringing declaration against placing the polls in the hands of Federal officeholders, and will declare that the security and liberty of the people demand that the Government shall not interfere with the conduct of elections and the free expression of the will of the people. people.

The silver plank will be very general in its terms. Mr. Patterson, or Colorado, has the support of a number of coadjutors in an attempt to have the convention declare in favor of tree coinage, but the party selected.

favor of free coinage, but the party senti-ment is against a departure from established lines in this campaign, and the most that can be expected is some such declaration as was contained in the Indiana platform, which declared in favor of a supply of money of uniform value and in sufficient abundance to meet the demands of trade.

Silver Demonetization Assailed. Gold and silver, the platform will probably say, have always been the money of the people of the United States, and the denonetization of silver by the Republican national monetary conterence will be approved.

The "billion dollar" Congress will be denounced for extravagant expenditures and for the passage of measures by which the necessary appropriations for the support of the Government were largely increased. The restoration of the Democratic party to power will be asked of the people in order that the laws increasing the Government expenditures may be repealed and relief given from heavy taxation. Attention will be called to the large reduction made in the public debt under the "honest and economical" administration of President Cleveland, and with this will be contrasted the "depleted condition of the public treasury" under the present administration.

The administration of President Harrison

ent administration.

The administration of President Harrison will come in for a measure of consideration, and the conduct of the Pension Office is likely to be especially condemned.

Among the miscellaneous matters that will have a place in the platform are likely to be free American registry to ships chiefly owned and controlled by American citizenship; the maintenance of a navy adequate to the protection of American interests and the honor of our citizens; the exclusion of Chinese labor; the restriction of immigration and a better enforcement of the immigration laws.

Chility Nicaragua Canal Indorsement.

Chilly Nicaragua Canal Indorsement. The Nicaragua canal has a number of strong supporters here and an indorsement of the prospect is likely, but perhaps with some provision not committing the United States to its construction.

The World's Fair managers have practically taken possession of all delegates to whom they could lay siege, and under the e-cort of competent and accomplished dip-iomats they have been shown the greatness lomats they have been shown the greatness of the undertaking, and impressed all with the fact that the Democratic party ought not to give it a less hearty indorsement than did the Minneapolis convention. The Democratic party is by history and tradition less disposed than the Republican party toward Government connection with all matters extraneous to the usual administration of public affairs, but the World's Fair managers are confident the Resolutions Committee will recognize the propriety of doing public affairs, but the World's Fair managers are confident the Resolutions Committe will recognize the propriety of doing well by the Exposition project.

One new feature of the Republican platform was a declaration in favor of the cession of the arid lands to the States, but western representatives will ask the aid of the party in making this appeal to the suffrages of the settlers scattered oner the Rocky Mountain region.

A vigorous effort will also be made to secure the adoption of a resolution looking to the election of the President and Senators by the direct vote of the people.

SILVER MEN SPLIT.

No Pacific Coast Men at the Caucus-Their Absence Blamed on the Machinations of the Cleveland Managers - Hill Not Strong Enough for Them,

CHICAGO, June 19 .- The silver phalanx met in caucus to-night at the rooms of the Montana delegation in the Grand Pacific Hotel. Prior to the caucus there was not a little tendency shown to arrive at a tacit anderstanding as to the candidate best available to keep Cleveland out of the nimination. The name oftenest heard in the confidential talks wherever a group of pro-silver Westerners were gathered was that of ver westerners were gathered was that of Gorman, of Maryland. Hill's letter was generally discussed, and the popularity of the New York Senator with the silver men was visibly increased, but there seemed no growth of confidence that he could win out, even though Cleveland were successfully shelved.

even though Cleveland were successfully shelved.

"The trouble with Gorman," said T. M. Patterson, of Denver, with evident regret in his tones, while answering questions about the Maryland Senator, "is that his own State delegation has been steadily working and talking for Cleveland. We have been able to obtain no assurance that Gorman is a candidate. The western men have not, however, got beyond preliminaries, and a general movement on their part toward any one candidate is yet premature. What we are first working for, and what we propose to fight for if necessary, in the convention, is a declaration pledging the party to restore the coinage to where it was in 1873. With a platform of that kind, almost any candidate accepting it and making the run could scarcely help being satisfactory to us."

could scarcely help being satisfactory to us."

Mr. Patterson did not mention Cleve.and, but there was no doubt that the "alm st" distinctly excepted the ex-President.

The caucus of the silver men was quite a lively affair. Martin Maginnis, of Montana) presided, and Barnard Brown, of the same State, acted as secretary. A notable feature, and one that caused much comment was the absence of many representatives of the Pacific coast States. Not a man was present from California, Oregon or Washington. Mr. White, primarily there in the interest of silver, was supposed to be present for the purpose of furthering all Western interests, and the unanimous staying away of the Coast delegates was a keen disappointment. Their action was attributed in large measure to the machinations of the Cleveland managers, and was regarded in the light of retaliation for the outspoken hostility of the advocates toward the ex-President.

Rather heated difference of opinion arose as to whether any but silver producing states should be invited to the more general meeting which it was agreed should be held # for His Team of Ball Players.

stiver, Including those from the Southern States and elsewhere, whether sliver producers or not. The Colorado and Montana men strenuously opposed this proposition, contending that only delegations from west of the hundredth meridian ought to have an active voice until something definite in the way of a general policy had been decided upon. The idea of temporarily restricting the representation to the Rocky Mountain districts prevailed, and an executive committee was appointed to bring matters to a focus.

Nothing definites as to a presidental preference was arrived at in the meeting. The names of Hill and Cleveland were mentioned incidentally in the speech making, the incidentally in the speech making, the former receiving decided manifestations of favor, and the latter being treated with loy indifference. Except in conversation among the groups in the room, no reference was made to Boies, Gorman or any of the favorities sons.

A letter in his pocket to his wife showed it to be a case of suicide. Pendleton was 43 years old and was born at Iowa City. In 1876 while on the stage, he clandestinely married Riss Alice Worthington, daughter of George Worthington, a millionaire resident of Enclid avenue. He retired from the stage for a time, but afterward supported Joe Jefferson, his life-long friend, Clara Morris, and other leading lights of the profession. The Worthington family became reconciled to the secret marriage, and in deference to their wishes he left the stage and lately came with his wife and four children to Cleveland. Last December he suffered an attack of paralysis, from which he never recovered, Despite all the efforts to keep the fact from him, he learned that his case was incurable and that insanity was overtaking him. Lately he had several relapses of total loss of memory, not being able to recognize his own children. Saturday morning he was permitted by the doctor in constant attendance upon him to take a walk, and he never returned.

In my judgment, I would say that the Chairmanship will probably go either to New York, Pennsylvania, or Illinois, although, of course, I have no definite information on the subject." There have been many surprises in the baseball arena this week, and if reverses continue during the coming fortnight the result of the contest for the championship will be very much in doubt until the last games are played. A week ago no one expected to see the Chicagos suffer such a series of humiliating defeats as they have mes with at the hands of the Brooklyns and Pittshurrs. Neither was it thought that the New Yorks would take the pride out of the Brooklyns as easily as they have, or that the Philadelphias would drag the Bostons off their high horse. Yet such have been some of the unexpected incidents. Then the Clevelands thought it was time to settle down to more steady work and they have been playing in remarkable form within the past low days.

The Wiseneres All Upset.

The Wiseneres All Upset. These unforeseen events have so upse the wiseacres that they dare not predict the esult of the contest and are not so ready to

With a continuance of such work as the Philadelphias, the New Yorks and the Cincinnatis have been doing of late why should not one of these clubs prove to be a dark horse in the race? They're all in positions to play more steadily than the present leaders, for whom every club is now lying in wait. Some of them have nothing to gain, but they are anxious to humiliate their ambitious rivals. Even the tail enders play with more than ordinary energy when they encounter the leaders.

On the other hand the Bostons and Brooklyns are showing signs of nervousness. The strain is telling on them. Ward never was more anxious to win than while here and his playing indicates this. He could not throw a ball at critical points in the game and his fielding was remarkably unsteady. The Giants took advantage of this and won their games.

But with the defeats anathined by the Philadelphias, the New Yorks and the Cintheir games.

But with the defeats sustained by the leaders the race for the pennant is becoming more exciting, and the chances of several more clubs making a bid for it are bright, and are growing brighter daily.

THE St. Louis Browns' record of 11 runs in one uning is the best in the League. BOB EMSLIE is giving satisfaction, and rank with Gaffney and Lynch as umpire. TONY MULLANE says he will leave the diamond after two years more of ball playing. IF Gennis is as good as reports make him he will be a very useful man for the local team. BASTIAN is playing his old-time Philadelphis game with the Athletics in the Eastern League. THE Ed Daubs, of Lawrenceville, and the A Branters will play two games at Idlewild for $25 and the on Thursday next. THE R. F's defeated the I. C. I's Saturday by a soure of 24 to 16. Charles Loughson, of the winning team, was presented with a bouquet.

THE manager of the Silver Kings writes this paper stating that his team defeated the Athletics, of Beaver Fails, Sturday by batting and also that his team will may the Athletics for fun or money. THE McDonalds want to play two games on Jul 4 with any of the following teams: All American Coreapolls, or the Amateura, of Braddock, Ad dress John Rodgers, 124 Winslow street, E. E. CONNIE MACK is making a great record catching every game for Pittaburg. His head and tace have been cut by foul tips, and his entire body has been burt by wild pittches, but he pluckily keeps or catching.—Boston Globe. "THE Man with the Lost Voice" is what they call Tim O'Rourke out West. If Tim and Curt Welch erer floubled up and sang "Comrades" with General Hi Hi Dixwell playing the accompaniment on the accordion, Barunn & Balley's agents would start out with nets.—Exchange.

Miscellaneous Sporting Notes. "PITTSBURG PHIL" lost heavily on Poet Scou the Suburban race Saturday. THERE is a very strong desire in the East to have the Sullivan and Corbett battle take place near New York.
