They Attempt to Perform Missionary Work Among the State Delegations—Questions That Flower Couldn't Answer Satisfactorily—Powerful Arguments Presented.

CHICAGO, June 20.—Governor Flower has been doing missionary work to-day. This morning he, with Hon. Amos Cummings, Hon. Bourke Cockran, General Sloum and Speaker Bush...

"Cannot Mr. Cleveland command more independent votes in New York State than any other Democrat?" Thus spoke Mr. Ochs.

"I think likely he can," replied Governor Flower.

"Is it not a fact, too," pursued Mr. Ochs, "that the same influences are now operating against Mr. Cleveland in New York that were opposed to him in 1884 and 1888?"

"It is not true, too, that the contest against Mr. Cleveland in 1884 was fiercer in 1888 than in 1884?"

Flower's Explanation Fell Flat.

To this Governor Flower's response was that Tammany always supported the regular ticket...

"Did not the voice and influence of Mr. Cleveland vary largely to your election?" a delegate asked of Mr. Flower...

"We came away from our conference with the gentlemen with an impression that they had begged the question, and met our inquiries weakly, and a delegate...

The Mississippi delegation was also a fallow field for missionary work during the day in behalf of the several Presidential candidates...
