BALLOTBOX STUFFERS IN A FIX.

The Appeals Court Sustains the Sentence

TRENTON, N. J., June 20.-[Special.]-By unanimous vote the Court of Errors and Appeals to-day sustained the conviction of Jocob Moshell, J. Thomas Derancy, James Hart and Thomas Fallon, the Jersey City

ballotbox stuffers, who were sentenced to 18 months in the State prison for their crime.

These men constituted the election board in district of Hudson county, and were the first of the big batch of stuffers to be tried

They were indicted for "conspiracy to subvert the laws." Their counsel have all boxes was not carried out by conspiracy. The Supreme Court at its last term affirmed the judgment of the Hudson county court, where the conviction was had, and now the court of last resort in the State unanimously indorses the finding. It is said that the case will be appealed to the United States Supreme Court. Thirty-five men charged with ballotbox stuffing have been convicted le satisfaction in cer

suring an umpire when the home baseball team lose, but there are now and again instances where it would be highly unfair to not draw public attention to the rank and incompetent work of the man who officially judges the game. The good of the national game demands it. In vesterday's game between the Clevelands and the home cam there was one of the exceptional instances above referred to. There never was a more barelaced plan of robbing a team out of a victory than that indulged in by Umpire Maculiar yesterday afternoon at Exposition Park, and in full daylight view of about 1,500 people. Macallar declared Beckley out at the plate in the fourth inging when he was absolutely safe. Had the run scored the game would have belouzed to Phisburg without an extra inning. No Excuse for I impire Macullar.

There was no excuse for the blunder, whether it was intentional or whether it was not. The crowd, it is needless to say, gave Macullar one of the most terrible matings that any umpire has received in this city. It was a downright blunder of the most egregious kind, and this is not said as a means of palliation for the defeat. It is said as a matter of sound truth, because it is never the policy of this paper to deal unjustly with the umpire. The truth is that Macullar is not by any means a learne after his work of vesterday. For the sake of the dignity and patronage of the grams, he had better be relieved from ting any more the performance of a buty that he evidently has never been de-

That blunder resulted McKean and Virtue scoring. Under the well to keep the game going for ten ioning type is of infinite worth to the side h resolves to help out.

Not Wanted Here Any More.

The only pity for the locals was that h didn't choose to champion their cause, is to be hoped that we've seen the last Mr. Maculler here as an umpire. If he does come here again the attendance will suffer, because dozens left the game yesterday as soon as he made his remarkable de-

As far as run getting and playing were concerned the contest was an excitting one and would have been pleasant and envable had Macullar not tarnished it with is incompetency. Baldwin pitched an adtirable game and would have shut the visitors out had he and his colleagues been was carned off his delivery and he displayed his best form throughout the game. The game would not have been ended at the enth inning it Smith had not muffed a fly at that stage and allowed the winning run Also in the second inning a mos palpable error by Baldwin himself contri

The visitors commenced the run getting in the second inning. McKean led off and knocked a grounder to Beckley. Baldwin ran ahead of McKean and covered first and Bleckley gently threw the ball to Mark, who Just as gently let it fall to the ground.

In the fourth Bierbauer reached first on a fumble by Tebeau and got to third on Shugart's single and scored on Beckley's safe bunt and Young's wild throw, Shugart reaching third. Beckley stole second and Farrell and Smith struck out, Mack shed first on McKean's wild throw to first and Shugart crossed the plate. Beckwas close at his neels and Virtue threw the ball to Zimmer, the latter getting it just as Beckley touched the plate. Beck-ley was not touched by the ball until he ous on the plate, but he was called out.
In the tenth inning Childs led off with a single over second base and reached second on a sacrifice by Burkett. Davis flew out to Farrell and Smith muffed McKean's fly and Childs scored the winning run. The INFECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

AKRON, O., June 20.—If the heavy rains of the spring and summer continue much longer, Akron may have a flood equal to the Titusville and Oil City disaster. The water in the chain of lakes south of this city is higher than was ever known. An alarm was sounded Sunday night and ever since men have worked like beavers near the Summit reservoir, whose banks it is feared will give away if the enormous body of water now contained therein is increased by heavier rains.

The guard lock used to keep the water back near Summit Lake was closed this morning, and men are on the lookout all along the line for any signs of danger. If the banks of the reservoir should give away, millions of tons of water will be emptied into the Ohio Carel which passes hundreds.

To Tablien, the winner of the Garfield Derby, and Wadsworth, who ran second, are to meet again this week.

"PHIL" DWYER has determined to turn Portchester out, as no one but young "Phil" seems to be able to do anything with him. millions of tons of water will be emptied into the Ohio Canal, which passes hundreds of dwellings, stores and factories.

Nearly the entire contents of the Turkeyoot Lake, the two reservoirs, Lons and Summit Lakes, representing a superficial area of 9,000 acres, would be discharged ino the canal, and the latter would become rushing torrent capable of carrying everything before it.
