

LAST DAY OF SCHOOL.

Eighty-Five Children Released for Their Summer Vacation.

ANNUAL FETE AT THE FORBES.

Scholars Picnic in Allegheny and Other Rural Groves.

DEDICATION OF THE ALLEN BUILDING

SCHOOL is out, and the glad event was announced yesterday by 85,000 wild, thrilling and unsurpassed shrieks from as many lusty lungs.

There are days and there are days, but the day when school-children are liberated is the day of more noise, and more enjoyment than any other day of the year.

The weather was in for a lark too and showered down heat and water enough at various times to do for the entire year.

just played, and the latter seemed to enjoy it more than the others. Some of the girls raised a merry badian by taking each and every opportunity to shriek and giggle.

Twelve hundred youngsters dispersed themselves in their strange, imitable way down at the Forbes School while indulging in the third annual lawn fete.

Music, Ice Cream and Cakes.

Miss J. C. Simpson, the superintendent, aided by her 27 teachers, made the day one of delightful success. They had ice cream and cake for each individual pupil and a jolly good time in addition.

The Knox School children went to Allegheny, and had a dizzily delightful day. There was everything there that was conducive to enjoyment both to the frivolous-minded youth and to the similarly-minded elder.

Within the shades of Idlewild were the Howard school children let loose and when "Mary called the youngsters home" they were loiter, happier and more weary than they have been for many long tedious days.

The Southside school children were also very much in it, so far as pleasure went, as they were given a carte blanche on the ice cream, cake and lemonade larders, and incidentally played, that is those who could.

The youngsters from the Moorhead School made an onslaught on the silence at Hulton Grove, with results astounding to the native insect inhabitants thereof.

The Humboldt School children were at Kinney's Grove, the Washington School pupils at the Arsenal grounds, and taken all in all, the various men and women that will be had a very thrilling time.

The dedication and reception of the Allen public school building, Alleentown, Thirty-first ward, was held yesterday afternoon. The exercises were of a delightful character and the little children were merry, and made happy the hearts of all who were present.

District Attorney Burleigh Takes a Long Breath and Shows

HOW TO MAKE A NEW RECORD.

Another Effort Made to Save the Life of Dennis Cloonan.

THE NEWS OF THE COUNTY COURTS

District Attorney Burleigh in the Criminal Court yesterday gave another example of speedy punishment meted out to a criminal. This case is likely the fastest on record; 36 hours after the commission of his crime the man was in the penitentiary.

He was James Mackey, colored, who broke into the store of Minnie Torosky, on Penn avenue, near Twenty-eighth street, about 6 o'clock Thursday morning. He was caught and locked up, and an information made against him. Yesterday he was indicted, tried and convicted and sentenced two years to the penitentiary.

At 6 o'clock in the afternoon the children paraded from the old school building to the new. They were led by Director J. H. Foran and were seated in the new quarters.

Mr. Foran presided, and the exercises opened by class singing. Recitations by Mamie Griffith, Pearl Floyd, Carlotta Shirley, Julia Colvin, Ella Ott, Rose Simonson were first heard.

CHARGES HIS WIFE WITH DESEDITION.

Novel Suit Brought to the Criminal Court by a Husband.

An unusual case has been returned to court and to-day the odd spectacle will be presented in the Criminal Court of a woman being tried for desertion on information of her husband. He is Alex. Russenberger, of Sharpburg, and he sued his wife, Margaret Russenberger, before "Squire Eleosor for desertion. He alleges that she "wantonly deserted the affiant and her home and since her departure refuses to return to him; also refusing to prepare his daily meals for him and do anything toward his comfort as a dutiful wife should."

It is the first case for a long time of a husband suing a wife for desertion.

OUTRAGES IN CHINA.

The Mob, Which Daily Becomes More Malignant in its Hatred.

A PROPOSED ENGLISH TAX ON U. S. GRAIN

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH: SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The steamer China arrived to-day, bringing the latest news of the anti-foreign excitement in China.

The North China Daily News says missionaries having fixed the guilt of the attacks in both instances on a leader of the Literati in Kiennan, named Chiao Chiu-pui, and having apparently substantiated the accusation, the British Consul has demanded the punishment of this man.

This is a difficult matter, for Chiao is a man of great power and influence, besides belonging to Kiennan, to which city special privileges were granted after the suppression of the Taiping rebellion. It is said that any attempt to arrest this man and bring him to trial would lead to a rising of the whole countryside, and that the authorities are in such a dilemma that they will probably refer the matter to Peking.

A correspondent of the same paper declares that the troubles at Kiennan were due mainly to the rashness of Dr. Riez and two young women of the Zenana Mission who had recently arrived from England. They ventured into places where the anti-Christian feeling was so strong that the more experienced missionaries would never have dreamed of going. The result has been to arouse the bitter hatred of the Chinese mob which may lead to attacks on other missionaries.

Feril on the Increase in the Cities. Reports from Chin Kiang and other parts on the Upper Yang-Tze river show that in all large cities the missionaries are in great peril, as a wave of anti-foreign sentiment is sweeping over China and has incited large disorderly mobs. The latest reports that arrived in Shanghai before the vessel sailed say that foreigners were badly maltreated there after the departure of the British gunboat Ek, but no details were received. At Chin Kiang the foreign colony was only saved by the prompt arrival of the United States steamer Petrel.

It was the common rumor in Chin Kiang that the Roman Catholic and other missions in Tan Yang on the first of the fifth moon (the 26th of May), and to murder missionaries and foreigners generally, but the Roman Catholics are to be their objects of attack. Wagner, Senior Consul, sent a telegram to the Governor of Kiang-Su Province, at Soochow, requiring that official to take immediate steps for the prevention of bloodshed and outrage at the threatened places. Three soldiers were actually caught at Tan Yang a few days ago posting placards calling on the "people to burn missions and murder "foreign hogs and goats," but they were not punished.

An Execution That Was a Farce. It is declared by the Shanghai editor that the execution of the man as leaders of the Kolo-Hivei Society has been a farce, as the Mandarins knew they were decapitating the wrong men. It is charged that several prominent men in this great foreign-hating society are officials of a high class, and that the government dares not molest them. The real leaders are at large, and are responsible for fomenting all the mischief along the Yang-Tze river. These fellows have good material to work on, as the ig

HIRES' ROOT BEER. Look for this Label. It's on every Genuine Package. Hires' Root Beer is a loss to everybody but the Counterfeiter himself. They mean loss of trade to the dealer, and loss of pleasure and health to the drinker. Hires' Root Beer is the most popular and healthful drink of the day. Don't Be Deceived. Look for the Label. Get the Genuine Hires'. Profit by the experience of others as given below and avoid counterfeits. Pittsburg People Know the Difference. "We have been handling different kinds of Root Beer, but our customers say that Hires' is by far the best." COLLINS, HEYL & CO., 519 Wood St., Pittsburg, Pa. The Flim Flam Game Again. "Some of our dealers, when I have asked for Hires' Root Beer have endeavored to get me to take some other kind. I have tried several other makes, but I will not use any if I cannot get Hires'. It is the genuine article." Dr. W. M. SNYDER, Lowell, Mass. How It Pays to Handle Hires'. "During last season some of our neighbors did not handle your Root Beer; dealing in a cheap and inferior article. We profited by their mercenary motives and sold over two gross." EGGERS' PHARMACIES, Allegheny, Pa. A Relief from Dyspepsia. "I have been using your Root Beer in my family and consider it very refreshing and healthful drink. It is also a relief from dyspepsia with which I have been troubled for fifteen years." M. E. HAMILTON, Wilmington, Del. Been the Rounds and Solid for Hires. "I have bought several bottles of your famous Root Beer and find it better than anything else in the market, and I have tried several others, but they are not as good as yours." A. F. "I bought some Root Beer sometime ago represented 'as good as Hires,' made by —, and a greater fraud and swindle was never placed before American people. It tasted like oil and was nothing like yours. I always find your Root Beer delicious, refreshing and invigorating, and nobody should be deluded into the idea of ever using these imitations and frauds, made simply for gain." A. A. WRIGHT, Griffin, Ga. Hires' Root Beer is largely used in Hospitals, Sanitariums and Sick rooms. It is true that its taste is delicious, but it is also true that the Roots, Herbs, Barks and Berries from which it is so skillfully prepared are the very source from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. This is the plain reason why Hires' Root Beer is so healthful. It can't help it. While its taste is delicious, great tonic and medicinal qualities also go down with every quaff, so health and strength remain after the pleasure has departed. This is strictly true—but true only of HIRES'.
