about Mr. Terry being a back number must have said, because he is not only or that it ever had. is not unreasonab to say that the lo cal team hav never had a pitcher who performed any better than Terry did yesterday afternoon at Exposition Park, and the 1,500 people who saw him shut the Reds out will long remember his effective pitching. The Wild Men From Cincinnati.

Those Yah-whoops from Cincinnati are not an easy lot of fellows to down by any means, and when it comes to shutting ther out somebody deserves all the good word and high opinions that can be showered or him. There is always fun in seeing th Cincinnati team play a game. It kickin would win them the pennant they would soon be in possession of all the pennants in the United States. It is impossible to equal Holliday and Latham for noise, and chile the latter does now and again deal in witty sayings, the "Bug" can never rise be youd imitating a man yelling at a herd of hogs in front of him. Holliday gave excel lent imitations of this vesterday afternoon much to the merriment of the good-nature

The crowd was indeed a good-natured one, and bestowed its applause freely on almost all the players. Terry was the recepient of a handsome floral design and Impire Mitchell was presented with a splendid floral horseshoe. Donavan was greeted with applause, and Latham was also cheered. There were many stages where the crowd was highly amused and where there was much to kick at from a spectator's standpoint. The contest was really one between the pitchers, and at a very critical time Chamberlain showed the white feather. He even went so far as to walk deliberately out of the box and si down on the bench. Considerable coaxi was needed to get him into harness again, and in the meantime Latham was shouting Called Chamberiain a Quitter.

"I told you he was a quitter." Chamberlain was disgruntled because the O'Neil nor Browning got a ball tha Shugart knocked out. It was in the sixtle inning. Shugart sent a line drive between O'Neil and Browning and the ball got par them both. As a result Shugart got to third base. This rattled Chamberlain so much that, as stated, he left the box. O'Neil was probably most to blame, if anybody could be blamed, and he came in to explain matters. But Chamberlain resumed his pitching, and the game proceeded.

There was another demonstrative stage in the fourth inning. Latham led off and knocked a fly to Smith. It was difficult to get and Smith muffed it. Latham tried to cake second on it, but was thrown out by Smith. Latham nearly went mad because of his being called out and about half of the Cincinnati players ran to second base to argue the matter with Umpire Mitchell. Had he just imposed a few good and stiff fees and ordered one or two players out of the game he would have been doing his duty. Latham knew that Mitchell was a "new starter" and was trying his best to in-timidate Mitchell in every way. Both Latham and Vaughn indulged in very vulgar language and loud enough for all the specta-

Terry Was the Stumbling Block.

The great trouble with the Reds was their inability to find Terry's measure. Had they made a few hits they would have been worth more than all their questionable howling and yelling. Terry had them at his merey, and only twice during the nine innings did they hit the ball safely. And he did not send a man to base on balls. The Reds only got four men to first base, and not one of them reached second. That certainly is great pitching. To be sure, Cham-berlain pitched a fine game also. He was in good form, and if his colleagues could have hit the ball his effort would have been a winning one.

The sixth inning was reached before a run was made. After Bierbauer was out, Shu-gart made his second three-bagger, the ball going to left field. Beckley followed with n long fly to the right tence and Holliday muffed the ball. Beckley scored, and would have scored even if Holliday had held the ball. In the ninth inning, Donavan, who is a good base runner, got to first and second on a wild throw by Smith. Elmer Smith's sacrifice sent Donavan to third, and he scored on Corkhill's safe bunt. The score:

Will Defy the Law

Toleno, O., June 24-President Gunnels to-day announced that the Toledo club would play Chris Von der Ahe's team in St. Louis next Sunday, and that on succeeding Sundays he would play at home, allowing the authorities to administer the Sunday law as they wished. The Council voted to repeal the ordinance sgainst playing Monday night, which leaves it with the Sheriff to serve warrants for breaking the State law. This cannot be done until Monday, allowing the pames to be uninterrupted. The ministers' tirade against the press has resulted in all the city papers depounding sulted in all the city papers denouncing them, and the open Sunday law people have thereby practically won the battle.

colored champion Keystones went to pieces to-day before the heavy hitting of the Eclipse and stacked their errors up moun-tain high. Dantels pitched for the locals, and kept the hits so well scattered as to allow the visitors but a small chance to score. The same teams play again to-mor-row.

An East End Game To-Day. The East End Gyms and Sewickleys will play a cnampionship game this afternoon at East End Gym Club Park, beginning at 4 East End Gym Club Park, beginning at 4 o'clock. The Gyms will present the following team: Steen, c.; Ilamilton, p.; Doyle, s. F. Barr, 1st b.; Gray, 21 b.; C. Addy, 3d b.; Will Thompson, I. f.: Gumbert, m.; Walter Thompson, r. f. Both of the star twirlers of the champions will play, but they will give Hamilton, quite a clever young pitcher, who has been doing good work for the second team, a trial. This game promises to be quite interesting, as Manager Richardson's boys always put a great deal of life into the game, and compel their opponents to hustle.

Shadvalde, 8-West Newton, 6. Shadyside, 8—West Newton, 6.

West Newton, June 24—[Special.]—The Shadyside team from Pittsburg defeated the home nine this atternoon by a score of 8 to 6. The game was interesting from start to finish, but the superior fielding of the visitors won them a hard earned victory. This is the first game the home team has lost this season. The batteries were Sullivan and Jordan for the Shadysides and Jones and Banker for the West Newtons. Jones struck out il men and Sullivan seven. It was a well played earns throughout.

Wouldn't Stand the Decision. TOLEDO, June 24.—The game between Toledo and Milwaukee this afternoon was interrupted in the first half of the fourth inning over a rank judgment by Umpire Guenther. Nichol, of Toledo, while at bat, was hit by a pitched ball, and was refused his base by the umpire. Captain Nicholson would not abide by the decision, and Guenther declared the game in favor of Milwaukee by a score of 9 to 0. The score up to that time was 1 to 0 in favor of Milwaukee. Weather clear. Attendance, 300.

His Arm Was Hurt. CLARION, June 24.—[Special.]—The report of the baseball game between the Clarion Nor-mals and the Kiskiminetas club played June 23 is incorrect. In the first place Horner compelled to pitch the game out after the Kiskiminetas pitcher had hit him on the arm, which has affected his arm so badly that he cannot raise it to-day. The Kiski-minetas club has been offered $100 to play another game here Saturday, which offer they declined.

Allegheny College a Victor. MEADVILLE, June 24.—[Special.]—The Alle-theny College team defeated the Cochranton club to-day in a closely contested ten-inning game. Black's home run in the last inning won the game. The feature of the game was the sharp fielding of both clubs. Score:

Beat the Brookvilles. BROOKVILLE, June 24.—[Special.]—The Kis-kiminetas club defeated the Brookvilles here to-day in a hotly contested game. The features were the fine fielding of both teams. The score stood 7 to 4. Hits—Brookville, 8; Kiskiminetas, 4. Struck out, 8 each. Batterles—Brookville, Whitehill and Brewer; Kiskiminetas, Wilson, Aitman and Altland.

MR. TERRY will do. DONOVAN is quite a good base runner. "RED" BITTMAN has been appointed subs impire for Cincinnati.

CHARLEY FARRELL's third base playing yester lax was certainly gilt-edged. THERE is a rumor abroad that Baltimore ha CHAMBERLAIN'S "baby act" in yes ENGLAND, the one-armed pitcher, has signed with the Wilkesbarre State League club. MILLER had his right thumb split yesterday by foul tip, but he continued in the game. SEATTLE papers say that Gil Hatfield's playing s not excelled by any shortstop in the country. LEXINGTON is expecting a call to take Macon's BASERTT would like to go to St. Louis, where he can be with "his old pals," Glasscock and Buck-THE Reds wouldn't long be near the top if Cap-ain Comiskey was to leave them. He keeps them

THE Eastern League has been reduced to eight BROUTHERS has already struck out more times than he did all last season. He struck out for the tenth time last Tuesday. BILL JOYCE has got 50 bases on balls in 54 game and has made 59 runs on 22 hits. He has made si doubles, ten triples and three homers.

Mirchell umpired quite a good game of resterday. He was apparently "off" once wice, but the decisions had no material effect he result. CINCINNATI has no representatives in the ,300 class just now. Neither has Chicago nor Cleveland, but the other nine clubs are in the list of seventeen sluggers. MANAGER BUCKENBERGER stated yesterday that for three games in Pittsburg the Louisvilles got alone $1.800, and for four games in Louisville the Pittsburgs got little over $400. Pittsburgs got little over $400.

MESSRS. SODEN, Billings and Conant were very mass pleased last night at the way the members of the Bostom team received them when a small reduction in salaries was suggested.

THOMPSON, of the Phillies, has easily done the best batting in the country of late. May 18—June 21 inclusive, 29 games, he made 55 hits, failing in but one game to bat safely. His batting average is .330.

CINCINNATI'S pitchers have done better against Bosson than those of any other club. The hollowness of records is displayed in that showing, however, for St. Louis, Cleveland, Brooklyn and Philadelphia have done better than the Reds in the matter of winning games from the Hub people. matier of winning games from the Hub people.

THE management of the Indianapolis ball team has come to the conclusion that tile club is hopelessly hoodood. The Indianapolis aggregation has been christened the "Bainmakers." When they went away two weeks ago 20 games out of 23 scheduled on the home grounds had been postponed on account of rain. The weather cleared up with the club's disappearance. Snuday last the club got back, and its return was signalized by a thunder storm, so that to date 21 out of 25 games scheduled at home remain to be played off.

Notes of the Amsteurs. THE Shadysides will play the Oakmont club at Edgewater next Friday.

SEWICKLEY at the East End and Tarentum at Mansfield will be the County League games to-day.

A NUMBER of amateur games are scheduled for to-day, and arrangements are under way all over the city for extra games on the Fourth. Some of the citols intend to play two games on that day.

MANSPIELD wanted to transfer its Fourth of July games to Wilkinsburg, but it will hardly be done, for the management of the Gyms will not agree, as it interferes with their home games with Tarentum.

The prorace saw the downfall of the 4 to 5 favorite race saw the downfall of the 4 to 5 favorite Potomac, who was cleverly beaten by the 15 to 1 shot Stonenell. St. Michael opened at 5 to 1 in the city rooms, but the bookmakers were forced to send him to the post a red-hot favorite at 1 to 2. Barefoot at 7 to 5 won the third and Diablo at 2 to 1 the fourth. THE AMERICAN DERBY.

Muddy Track for the Horses to Run for the Big Event. CHICAGO, June 24.—The American Derby of 1892 will be lost and won on a muddy track. Like the Garfield Derby it had good entries and may have just as large a field of starters, but the rain and mus will make the race uncertain. The continuous rains have made the track a mass of mud—not so bad as Garfield, but nearly so.

It will be a severer test of ability than were the day fair and the track fast, but the result will not be satisfactory. Eastern jockeys are arriving here. Fitzpatrick, "the dare devil," the pet of the Tammany Hall sporting contingent, will ride Carlsbad in to-morrow's Derby, and Fred Taral is expected to ride Faraday. At any rate, Holloway, who owns the colt, has offered him $1,000 for the mount and $1,500 additional should he win. Then there are Martin Bergen and others.

$1,000 for the mount and $1,500 additional should be win. Then there are Martin Bergen and others.

Nobody expects a fast race, and it is doubtful if the contest will be as close as the Kentucky Derby or as stubborn as the Garfield. Bashford is the favorite of the trainers. A Bashford may be better than Azra, and if he be, as many believe, then he ought to win. Galindo has many admirers, and "Lucky" Baldwin may again take the prize. The colt was short of work when he ran in the Garfield Derby, but showed a great liking for the mud. He is powerful and game, and plows through the mud like a locomotive through the snow. Carlshad has a good chance, his owner, Swigert, says. His trial was at a mile and three furlongs, and he made the distance easily in 2:23. "Carlshad," said Secretary Swigert, 'could have gone the mile and a halt in 2:38. He will start and ought to have a good chance to win. The colt likes the mud, for he is by Glenels. Faraday, it is claimed, has the derby at his mercy. Were it a good day and track this might be so, though the favorites have fared very poorly in the derby events this year."

Newton, a colt thought to be dangerous, appears to have dropped out of notice. Scalidvar will not race in the mud, and his friends say he must be counted out.

CHAMPIONSHIP TENNIS.

Miss M. E. Cahill Still the Holder of the American Trophy - She Defeats Miss Bessle Moore, of New Jersey, in a Very Exciting Game.

PHILADELPHIA, June 24.—[Special.]—Miss fabel Esmonde Cahill to-day proved her Mabel Esmonde Cahtil to-day proved her right to retain the championship of America, but she had to play her best to do so. Her cool little antagonist gave her a very close shave and for four sets it was anybody's match. Promptly at 3 o'clock Miss Cahill faced Miss Bessie Moore, of the Hohokus Valley Tennis Club, in the presence of the largest audience of the week. Miss Moore was as cool and steady as if merely practicing, and returned the difficult strokes of her opponent with great skill.

Both ladies played well back in the court and made many long railies before finally settling the point, just the kind of a match toamuse the spectators. Miss Moore won the first set after five games all was scored by 7.5. Although Miss Cahill won the two succeeding sets, yet every game had deuce called many times and the difference of a point or two might have changed the result. Aliss Moore took the fourth set by some pretty playing, and when the fifth set began the excitement was intense. Miss Cahill seemed to improve in this set, while Miss Moore fell a trifle off her game. Miss Cahill won by 62 thus retaining the championship.

Following are the scores: Ladies' singles championship round for the championship of America, Miss Mabel Esmonde Cahill, holder, defeated Miss Bessie Moore, challenger, 57, 63, 64, 46, 62, Mixed doubles, final round, Miss M. The Louisiana Legis'ature Not Inclined to Stop Glove Contests. New Orleans, June 24.—[Special.]—There is now every probability that the bill to prohibit glove fights in Louisians which would have prevented the Sullivan-Corbett and McAuliffe-Meyer fights in September will be defeated. Two bills on this subject were offered. The first was referred to the Committee on City Affairs and killed in committee. mittee on City Affairs and killed in committee, all the members being opposed to it. The second bill, which was meant in earnest, was referred to the Committee on the judiciary, which decided to-day to report unfavorably on it. Several of the members of the committee declared that they had been present at the glove fights before the Olympic Club, and that they were humane and decorously conducted. The report of the committee against the bill will be brought before the Legislature in a few days, and the matter indefinitely postponed. There is a strong sentiment in the Legislature in favor of the bill, but not enough to carry it. mittee on City Affairs and killed in con

Wash ington, of this city, to the Seminole kennels, of Philadelphia, who will put him through the Canadian circuit this fall and the Eastern circuit next spring, when it is expected he will add to his already good record. It will be remembered that Troubadour was shown at the last Pittsburg show and won the first prize in the novice class. The price paid was not learned, but it is understood to be a big one. THE attempt to drive a horse 36 miles in three hours at Seaside Park, Bridgeport, Conn., was stopped by the Connecticut Humane Society. FRED JOHNSON, the English champ'on feather weight, is so confident of whipping George Dixo that he has bet $100 that he wins in 12 rounds. DOUGHERTY and Turner, the Australian sporting men who backed Slavin in most of his battle still believe he is Jackson's superior in the ring.

T. J. BARNABLE, of Philadelphia, wants to swim eight miles against any man of Chicago in Lake Michigan. Barnable is also looking for backing against J. F. Fox, of Pittsburg, who recently issued a challenge.

A WHELMAN at Selby, in Yorkshire, England, was recently arrested and fined for not having his lamp lighted, although he was on his way to get oil for that purpose, and according to his watch it was yet a few minutes of the "lighting up" time. A FOOT race for a purse of $100 between Fred Sourbeck and Martin Burke, of the First ward, was to have taken place yesterday on the Seventh street bridge, but there was a misunderstanding as to the signal for the start and the race was declared a draw. It was declided to have it run at Homewood in two weeks over a 300-yard course for a purse of $200.

FRATHEM-WEIGHT JOHNSON is certainly a hard worker. Even the heat of last Wednesday did not interfere with the daily routine of arduous labor. Think of wearing a face mask, three or four sweaters, or reclining under halt a dozen blankets when the ordinary man finds tissue-paper clothing none too light, Johnson works on schedule time, too, with a watch held on him.

THE Buffalo Athletic Club has seven offers from puglilists to go against its 10-pound unknown for a purse of $400. Among them are W. S. Layton, champion 150-pound man of the South, and Steve Borle, of Elmira, who challenges Tommy Ryan, of Chicago. Boyle is the 150-pound man who defeated Charles Lutes, of Pittsburg, last Fourth of July at Elmira, and since has challenged every 150-pound man in America. A match will probably be made with one of these men to fight Buffalo's "unknown."

RELIABLE EXPRESS COMPANIES

WASHINGTON, June 24 .- Monsieur Monith, one of the French Commissi the World's Columbian Exposition, has made inquiry whether special privileges can be accorded to certain exhibitors of diamonds in regard to the transportation of their goods, the value of which is so great that the owners are unwilling to trust them that the owners are unwilling to trust them in the hands of express or transportation companies. They would therefore like to accompany the goods, and so virtually retain them in their own custody.

The matter was referred to the Treasury Department, and Assistant Secretary Spaulding has decided that there is no good reason for any change in the regulations in this respect, inasmuch as the transportation of Exposition consignments is undertaken by responsible companies, at their own risk, and subject to the restrictions of bonds with ample guarantee of safe delivery. He says there ought to be no doubt of the responsibility of these companies, as milions of dollars' worth of property are daily entrusted to their care. ntrusted to their care.

COLUMBUS, May 24.—Men who are taken to the Ohio Penitentiary are seldom glad to enter the dreary portals of the gloomy building, but one was received to-day who was glad to have the great iron doors swing open to admit him, for he feared lynching on the outside. "'Squire" Smith is the criminal, and he is from Elsmere, a suburb of Cincinnati, and is now in prison for 15 years for attempted criminal assault. Smith, who is a colored man, saw Mrs.

Parsons, who is a comely white lady, board a street car one evening. He got aboard the car, rode a short distance and got off simultaneously with his intended victim. Reaching a secluded spot he accosted the lady, who repelled him. When they reachsuddenly placed his arm around her neck and threw her to the ground.

In his efforts to stifle her cries he placed a hand over her mouth and then thrust some smoking tobacco into her mouth. The dry, bitter stuff almost choked her cries for dry, bitter stuff almost choked her cries for the moment, but the sound of approaching footsteps caused him to release her and beat a hasty retreat.

Smith was arrested the following day, and when taken to police headquarters he had a narrow escape from death at the hands of the infuriated husband, who was disarred by the Chief of Police. Mr. Par-disarmed by the Chief of Police. Mr. Parsons subsequently attempted to strike the prisoner through the prison bars. A special Grand Jury was summoned and Smith was indicted, tried and convicted in short-order. During the trial the husband of the lady was constantly surrounded by officers to prevent him from wreaking summary vengeance upon the prisoner. The mother of Mrs. Parsons seized the fellow by the throat and attempted to strangle him, but was pulled away by the officers amid great excitement.

After his conviction Smith confessed the assault and gave the facts in detail. He was in great dread, owing to the open threats of assault and gave the facts in detail. He was in great dread, owing to the open threats of lynching made by the people of Elsmere, who had been aroused by repeated assaults upon unprotected women, and by the fact that Smith was arrested a year ago for a similar crime at the same place.

The opening services of the celebration were held in the church to-night. Bishop J. Mortimer Levering officiated. The music was grand, hymns sung 150 years ago being ren-dered by a choir of 650 voices with full or-

Rival Parades at McKnesport. McKersport, June 24.-[Special,]-One thousand enthusiastic Democrats to-night ratified the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson by conducting a parade through the principal streets of the city. Red fire and tin horns ruled along the line of march, and the wildest enthusiasm prevailed. At 10 o'clock to-night the Republicans took up the cry and inaugurated an enormous parade in honor of Harrison and Reid. Over a thousand men fell into line, and, preceded by the Electric Band, the Republicans paraded the streets until nearly midnight. The two factions, or parties, made the night hideous, each being determined to outdo the other.
