

The Dispatch

ESTABLISHED FEBRUARY 4, 1846 Vol. 66, No. 185—Entered at Pittsburgh Postoffice November, 1865, as second-class matter.

Business Office—Corner Smithfield and Diamond Streets. News Rooms and Publishing House 5 and 60 Diamond Street, in New Dispatch Building.

TERMS OF THE DISPATCH. POSTAGE FREE IN THE UNITED STATES.

THE DISPATCH is published daily except on Sundays and legal holidays.

Contributors should send copies of articles. If compensation is desired the price of publication should be stated.

POSTAGE—All persons who mail the Sunday issue of The Dispatch to friends should pay the postage.

THE HARRISBURG FATALITY. The fatal accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad.

A SUCCESSFUL CO-OPERATION. The association of workmen to carry on the business of industrial enterprises.

THE END OF GORMAN. It is a pleasure to note that H. Arthur Gorman, of Maryland.

A MEDICAL OFFICE BUILDING. A novel project in the line of building enterprises.

WHOLESALE DEALERS SELLING LIQUOR. Inugs have been warned that they are liable to be prosecuted.

ENGLAND'S COOLER CLIMATE accounts to some extent for the heat of the political situation.

LIMITATIONS OF THE LEVEE. It is an indication of awakening common sense that the New Orleans Delta is being re-occupied.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD TELEGRAPH OFFICE had a number of anxious visitors yesterday morning.

HON. ADAIR E. STEVENSON. An active, earnest and uncompromising Democrat.

MUSIC FOR THE WORLD'S PAIR. CHICAGO, June 25.—Washington Esing received word by cable today from F. Ziegler.

DEATHS HERE AND ELSEWHERE. Dr. C. W. Sprankling, Sr., the veterinarian, died at his home in Baltimore Friday.

Joseph Carrs, senior proprietor of the Carrs Iron Works, died yesterday morning at Massillon, Pennsylvania.

Joseph Carrs, senior proprietor of the Carrs Iron Works, died yesterday morning at Massillon, Pennsylvania.

such reductions of prices on protected articles as would not have been secured had our markets been left in the control of the European manufacturers.

There is evidently something serious the matter with the Cincinnati players, for Pittsburgh beat them again yesterday.

So Dewey has decided to keep his diploma for private use until the end of this term, as any rate.

STANLEY's electioneering experience in North Gambeth must make him regret that the Republican rank for the Fourth of July is to be a maternal philosopher when he administers justice at Central station.

With Harrison and Cleveland pitted against each other in the field once more, the Republican mind turns naturally and jubilantly to presages of a repetition of the result of 1888.

It is about time for Parisians to learn that duelling with an ex-cowboy is a serious matter.

In locating the refreshment stands in Scheley Park for the Fourth of July it is to be hoped that the appetites of the menagerie denizens, and conveniences for satisfying the same, have been taken into due consideration.

THEY must have heard of the redoubtable Perry over in France, as French shippers of valuable diamonds to the World's Fair are being asked to insure their goods to the custody of the express companies.

THE only great difference between the campaign of this year and that of four years ago is that the policy of Protection has four years of strong evidence in its favor now that it is backed then.

MRS RALLINGTON BOOTH receives only a week for her services in the Salvation Army.

PRINCE ALBERT, eldest son of the Duke of Edinburgh, who is sojourning in Munich, has exchanged visits with Prince Bismarck.

MRS. NELLIE GRANT-SAINTORS now lives in London and is a woman of wealth. Her father-in-law left his estate to her and her two children, on the condition that they would make their residence in England.

REXEL INSTITUTE, Philadelphia, has been presented by George W. Childs with the autographs of every President of the United States.

SEVERAL visitors to the Democratic Convention here from Chicago, already reached home from Chicago with good health and without much damage to their apparel.

It is rather mortifying to our national glory to have the members of this successful concern explain that its success, compared with other co-operative failures, is due to the good faith of the Swedes with each other, while, if an enterprise pays among Americans, they at once commence trying to out-do the Swedes.

MEASURED from a political point of view and quite without regard to personal considerations, it strikes us that Mr. Gray would have given more strength to the ticket than Mr. Stevenson can do.

It is surely a remarkable thing that the two States which stand at the head of the confused list of States in the Union under Villa, and consisted of constant violations of the civil service reform law in the interest of the "hungry and thirsty."

It is surely a remarkable thing that the two States which stand at the head of the confused list of States in the Union under Villa, and consisted of constant violations of the civil service reform law in the interest of the "hungry and thirsty."

LOOK AROUND

J. M. CARSON, of Butler, Reading Clerk of the late Senate and well-known newspaper man, was in the city yesterday.

THE name of the latest large oil field suggested some reminiscences to a party of gentlemen the other day and one of them remarked: "I have never seen such a well."

A NUMBER of people have left the city to winter elsewhere, but the street-leader is still with us in our midst.

STANLEY's electioneering experience in North Gambeth must make him regret that the Republican rank for the Fourth of July is to be a maternal philosopher when he administers justice at Central station.

THAT disastrous wreck at Harrisburg appears to have been due to some individual's signal failure.

QUEEN VICTORIA hardly feels like visiting and competing with the other attractions at the World's Fair next year.

It is about time for Parisians to learn that duelling with an ex-cowboy is a serious matter.

In locating the refreshment stands in Scheley Park for the Fourth of July it is to be hoped that the appetites of the menagerie denizens, and conveniences for satisfying the same, have been taken into due consideration.

THEY must have heard of the redoubtable Perry over in France, as French shippers of valuable diamonds to the World's Fair are being asked to insure their goods to the custody of the express companies.

THE only great difference between the campaign of this year and that of four years ago is that the policy of Protection has four years of strong evidence in its favor now that it is backed then.

MRS RALLINGTON BOOTH receives only a week for her services in the Salvation Army.

PRINCE ALBERT, eldest son of the Duke of Edinburgh, who is sojourning in Munich, has exchanged visits with Prince Bismarck.

MRS. NELLIE GRANT-SAINTORS now lives in London and is a woman of wealth. Her father-in-law left his estate to her and her two children, on the condition that they would make their residence in England.

REXEL INSTITUTE, Philadelphia, has been presented by George W. Childs with the autographs of every President of the United States.

SEVERAL visitors to the Democratic Convention here from Chicago, already reached home from Chicago with good health and without much damage to their apparel.

It is rather mortifying to our national glory to have the members of this successful concern explain that its success, compared with other co-operative failures, is due to the good faith of the Swedes with each other, while, if an enterprise pays among Americans, they at once commence trying to out-do the Swedes.

MEASURED from a political point of view and quite without regard to personal considerations, it strikes us that Mr. Gray would have given more strength to the ticket than Mr. Stevenson can do.

LORE OF BYGONE CENTURIES

A New Manuscript of Victor Hugo's Recalled From a Mass of Waste Paper. LONDON, June 25.—Reference has been made heretofore to the discovery of the manuscript of Victor Hugo's "Les Misérables" and as to doubts that were entertained in some quarters as to its authenticity.

Samuel Davey, who found the manuscript, says that he is not a great admirer of Hugo, and was one of those who felt that the discovery of his work was a waste paper from a street sweeper.

The National Prohibition Convention meets in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, June 30. The substance of the proceedings will be reported in this issue.

THE question of the nomination for President next year is being discussed in various quarters. The National Committee of the Democratic Party is expected to meet in July.

THE prices of the leading restaurants for some things are simply absurd. For example, why should Pittsburghers be charged 30 cents for a small dish of strawberries?

THE National Prohibition Convention meets in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, June 30. The substance of the proceedings will be reported in this issue.

THE question of the nomination for President next year is being discussed in various quarters. The National Committee of the Democratic Party is expected to meet in July.

THE prices of the leading restaurants for some things are simply absurd. For example, why should Pittsburghers be charged 30 cents for a small dish of strawberries?

THE National Prohibition Convention meets in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, June 30. The substance of the proceedings will be reported in this issue.

THE question of the nomination for President next year is being discussed in various quarters. The National Committee of the Democratic Party is expected to meet in July.

THE prices of the leading restaurants for some things are simply absurd. For example, why should Pittsburghers be charged 30 cents for a small dish of strawberries?

THE National Prohibition Convention meets in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, June 30. The substance of the proceedings will be reported in this issue.

THE question of the nomination for President next year is being discussed in various quarters. The National Committee of the Democratic Party is expected to meet in July.

THE prices of the leading restaurants for some things are simply absurd. For example, why should Pittsburghers be charged 30 cents for a small dish of strawberries?

THE National Prohibition Convention meets in Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Friday, June 30. The substance of the proceedings will be reported in this issue.

THE question of the nomination for President next year is being discussed in various quarters. The National Committee of the Democratic Party is expected to meet in July.

THE prices of the leading restaurants for some things are simply absurd. For example, why should Pittsburghers be charged 30 cents for a small dish of strawberries?

CURIOUS CONDENSATIONS

—There has been no change in blacksmiths' tools for 300 years.

—The watermelon territory of South Carolina this year is 15,000 acres.

—The market price of a wife in equatorial Africa is ten bundles of hairpins.

—A steel rail, of the kind used on railways, lasts, with average wear, about 13 years.

—A church in St. Travers, England, has for 225 years kept up the custom of an annual raffle with dice for gibes.

—A resident of Governor's Mill, N. Y., has never seen a water snake. Neither has he used water for 35 years.

—Several girl students at Cornell are taking the course in agriculture. One Cornell girl is studying veterinary surgery.

—The "loco weed," which is abundant in western Kansas, has a peculiar fascination for cattle, upon which it exerts an intoxicating effect.

—At the present rate of increase in the American production of tinplate in the United States, tin production will reach 100,000,000 pounds during the coming year.

—"Love your wife as you would love your soul, but love her as you would love your fur," is said to be the motto of a matrimonial relation.

—Penny savings banks are connected with the public schools in Connecticut. 17,000 of the 600,000 pupils have deposited over $500,000.

—There is a decided difference of opinion as to the number of days to fight the Confederate side during the War of the Rebellion.

—Natural gas has been discovered on the shore of the Great Salt Lake, within ten miles of Salt Lake City.

—As far as can be calculated the average length of the human life span in the seventeenth century to have been only 35 years, as in the eighteenth it increased to 39, and in the nineteenth to 45.

—At the trial of a Lebanon, Ill., man for the murder of a deaf mute a striking feature of the prosecution was the appearance of several deaf mute witnesses who testified by means of a sign language.

—The idea of wearing a party dress for mourning is not new one. At least 50 years ago a young lady wore a party dress of white cloth which had been through the process of bleaching.

—The great painting of the Chicago fire which was an exhibition opposite the Wisconsin during the recent Democratic Convention, cost that city $250,000.