

A SUBSIDY FOR ITALY

In the Shape of Credit Backing Found Necessary by Germany.

BISMARCK POPULAR IN BAVARIA.

The Genuine Love Match of a Needy Prince Finds Royal Favor.

RUSSIA IS PREPARING FOR CHOLERA

Countdown, 1892, by N. Y. Associated Press.

Berlin, June 25.—The interviews between Signor Brin, Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Chancellor von Capri and the Emperor resulted in a promise of German support for Italian finances on condition that the Italian army and navy be sustained at their present strength.

King Humbert proposed a large reduction in the army, reported to be as much as 50,000 men, pleading the absolute financial necessity for such a reduction. The Emperor succeeded in persuading him against making any reduction, mainly through pledging the assistance of the leading banks of Germany in an operation for the purchase of existing Italian bonds, and also, if required, the assistance of a syndicate to take a new Italian loan. A German banking syndicate has long been silently but not actively operating to distribute throughout Germany large amounts of the Italian loan.

The operations have been fostered by secret promptings from the Foreign Office, which seems to have regarded the absorption of Italian bonds as a subsidy to a needy ally.

The Czar and Signor Joseph.

In an interview that Signor Brin accorded to a number of journalists prior to his return to Rome yesterday, he said he could foresee nothing that was likely for a long time to disturb the pacific relations of the European powers. When asked whether it is true that the Czar had invited Emperor Francis Joseph to a conference at Skierskowitz or Spala, Signor Brin cautiously admitted that he had heard something concerning the subject, adding that the arrangements were still a matter of reserve.

Signor Brin declined to say anything as to the financial position of Italy, except that the new Italian Ministry would be strengthened by the friendly attitude of the German Government. According to the Foreign Office here, Italy will be financially strong if she gets time to arrange her affairs. The Emperor's resolution to maintain the credit of Italy for the sake of the Triple Alliance constitutes a leading element toward restoring financial order.

The King and Queen of Italy and their party arrived at Frankfurt-on-the-Main today. The Thirteenth Hussars, of which regiment King Humbert is Honorary Colonel, were mustered at the station to receive him.

A Prince's Love-Commitment.

King Humbert placed himself at the head of the regiment and marched to the Beckenheim barracks, where he took lunch with the officers. Queen Margherita proceeded to Homberg to congratulate Empress Frederick upon the betrothal of her daughter, Princess Margareta, to Prince Frederick Charles. The Court circle here views the match as not a great catch for the Princess. It is purely a love affair. The Prince did his courting quietly while staying with his mother at Frankfurt.

match, will give a substantial dowry to the pair.

Bismarck's triumphal progress reached its climax to-night at a reception given in his honor at the Rathaus at Munich. The Prince was never popular in Bavaria during his tenure of office, but since his fall, and especially since his opposition to the Emperor, his popularity has been greatly enhanced.

The Regent at Heart Favors Bismarck. The Prince Regent of Bavaria and all the royal family left Munich in order to avoid giving the Prince a reception, but before going the Regent directed the organizers of the fetes in the Prince's honor to spare nothing to make them successful. At the banquet given at the Rathaus all the guests brimmed over with enthusiasm. Prince Bismarck expressed his thanks for the reception given him. He hoped that peace would continue to be assured the empire by the existing alliances, a matter which was of much importance, connected with the security of the Bavarian frontier. Every Imperial Government, he said, was in duty bound to promote an imperial policy in harmony with the national tradition.

The Prince here called for "Hoops" for the Regent of Bavaria. These were given with a good will by all present, and the assemblage then joined in singing "Die Wacht Am Rhein." Some allusion in the speech plainly indicated Prince Bismarck's desire to convey the impression that the policy of Emperor William and Chancellor Von Capri was a failure and menaced the future of Bavaria, as it did that of other parts of the empire. It is believed that the Regent of Bavaria will meet Prince Bismarck privately at Kissingen, where the ex-Chancellor is now going. The Regent is thoroughly in rapport with Prince Bismarck.

No Entente With Russia at Present.

The projected economic entente between Germany and Russia has collapsed under the combined opposition at St. Petersburg of the Minister of Finance and the Minister of War. The question came before the Council at St. Petersburg after the Czar's return to Copenhagen from the Kiel interview. It is believed that the Czar intended the establishment of an entente. Germany offered to make a fractional reduction in the duties on cereals in return for reduced duties on German iron and coal imported into Russia. The Russian Council, backed by the Ministers, vetoed making any concessions to Germany, so a commercial entente between the two countries for a long time to come is hopeless.

Alarming advices come from St. Petersburg, showing that the city is preparing for an outbreak of cholera. The medical department of the Ministry of the Interior has issued instructions giving special information as to the course to follow in case of an invasion of Asiatic cholera. In the chief towns special commissions of doctors have been ordered to be formed to carry out sanitary measures. The commissions will be empowered to require householders to keep their premises clean, and to enforce other sanitary measures in the town. All new comers to the towns will be subjected to an examination, and all who show symptoms of cholera will be isolated. Funeral ceremonies over those who die from the disease will be rigorously curtailed. The clothing of the sick will be burned, and the house will be disinfected.

I HAD GOITRE Or swellings in the neck since I was ten years old: am now 24. I used Hood's Sarsaparilla recently and the swelling has entirely disappeared. It has been very troublesome. When I began I was feeling so discouraged with the goitre and rheumatism I felt that I would soon be dead as alive. Whenever I caught cold I could not walk two blocks without fainting. Now I am free from it all and I can truly recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla. I received a letter from Mrs. Jennie Bizelew, now of Fremont, Mich., asking if my testimony in behalf of Hood's Sarsaparilla was true; I replied it was, and sent particulars. I have another letter from her thanking me very much for recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla and stating that she also has been cured. HOOD'S PILLS are the best after-dinner Pills. They assist digestion.

Rheumacure SURE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM GOUT & LUMBAGO. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 27, 1892. McKinnie & Chessman Manufacturing Company, Pittsburg, Pa.: GENTLEMEN—I wish to advise you of the remarkable effect of the small quantity of "Rheumacure" which I took recently. Suffering, as I was, from an acute attack of Lumbago, and almost helpless at times, within 12 hours after commencing to take the wonderful medicine relief was had, and before the second day the very unpleasant symptoms had disappeared. I have had no occasion to use "Rheumacure" since, but to anyone suffering with Lumbago I can certainly recommend the remedy. Yours truly, W. G. BOWLAND, Resident Columbus Wheel Co.

IT IS EASY

To understand why my summer rates for Fur work are so popular. If you can save such a considerable amount by having your Fur Garments made during the hot spell, or the necessary alterations or repairs to your old Fur Garments made before Fall sets in, it would surely mean poor management to neglect to take advantage of my summer rates. Inspect the styles and workmanship. I am positive that I can please you in every particular—quality, workmanship, style and prices. Bleaching of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Straw Hats still a specialty.
