which have made Aim famous, shone out mightily as he sent Pittsburg from the grounds defeated, and he got revenge. The game was hard fought, each side eager to win it and especially so with the Browns, who wanted the credit of a victory with Jimmy Galvin battling for St. Louis honors against the club which now wishes they had never released him. The game was fought inch by inch, and the bat-tery work of Galvin and Buckley was of that exceptionally high order that only two such artists as they can make it.

Jimmy Was Very Well Supported. Buckley backed up Galvin finely, and not one of the fleety Pittsburgers made a break to steal a base. In fact, when a Smoky City lad would get on a base it would keep him guessing to watch the agile Galvin and the quick maneuvers of Buckley, who caught Beckley and Shugart napping at first. The Browns seemed imbued with the spirit of Galvinism to win, and they went at Baldwin hard at times. Both pitchers were su-perbly supported. Brilliant fielding hits were frequent on both sides, while the game abounded in sharp snappy team work that made the game full of life and interest. The individual work of Pinkney, Buckley, Crooks, Sugart and Bierbauer was noticeably fine. Brodie captured a line hit that was lined out with three-bag intentions. Pinkney's pick-up stops and especially good judgment caused Galvin to ejaculate, "Good boy, George, you're out of sight."

Where Mark Was Touched. The Browns felt Baldwin's pitching pulse The Browns felt baldwin's pitching pulse in the first inning at a lively rate, but great backing up blanked the Browns. In the second inning, however, Mr. Baldwin could not stand the pressure and he got a trifle wild. He gave bases on balls to Brodie and Caruthers. Pinkney's clever sacrifice advanced both. Buckley's bounding hit over Farrell's head, Farrell checked it partially, scored Brudie. Galvin then sten plate and, contrary to the usual response in acknowledgement of a demonstration, he made a hit past Farrell, scoring Caruthers. Crooks hit to Bierbauer, who doubled up Buckley and Galvin. Again in the third Baldwin was put to the test and two mor Baldwin was put to the test and two more runs resulted. Carroll got his base on balls. He trotted to third on a wild pitch and scored on Shugart's return to Mack of Glsascock's hit to short. Brodie singled and Caruthers got his base on balls. Pink-ney's timely sacrifice put Glasscock across the plate. This proved to be the fourth, last and winning run for the Browns made in the first three innings. Up to this time Galvin held the voracious Pittsburgers at

In the fourth, however, they broke down the bars and entered the scoring field. Bierbauer and Shugart singled and Beckley hit to Galvin, who, in the excitement, fum-bled the ball. With the bases full things began to look a little squally for the Browns.

Cur Sluggers Made Some Buns.

Denovan hit to Werden, who caught Bier-bauer at the plate. Smith's single to right brought Shugart and Beckley home. Far-rell bunted. He died on first on Galvin's lightning throw. In the fifth Pittsburg got got her third and last run. Miller got his base on balls and scored on singles by Bier-bauer and Shugart. But one are his bauer and Shugart. But one more hit was made off Galvin after this run was scored He showed his skill and strength to marked advantage, and put the screws so tight to his old comrade that they were glad to retire in one, two, three order to the finish.

A peculiar play came up in the fifth. With St. Louis men on bases Glasscock singled, Brodie hit to Shugart, who threw to Bierbauer to catch Glasscock at second but he dropped the ball. Caruthers sent up a high fly which Bierbauer trapped, catching Glasscock en route to third. Glasscock saw that he was caught at third he threw his cap in the sir, and Brodie, who had reached second before Glasscock was forced out at third, was declared out by the umpire upon the alleged pretext that Glasscock had interferred with the ball. Glasscock and his cap were nowhere near second and the decision was soundly bissed With two out Pinkney singled, but both he and Caruthers were left on Buckley's fly to

Thinks the Money Will Be Paid. Columbus, June 27.—President Williams, of the Western League of Baseball Clubs, speaking of the reported break-up of that organization, said he had received no official information of such action being taken, and did not believe there was anything in it. President Williams thinks the rumor arose over the fact that the clubs of the Western Leazue have not as yet paid in the $150 each pledged to the National League in consideration of protection, but thinks the money which was expected will be forthcoming by derby honors next June over the Epone course.

MAY GO TO ENGLAND.

A Brother of the American Derby Winne May Cross the Atlantic

John Porter, the veteran English trainer, will fit Carlsruhe for the race with the Duke of Westminster's lot. Two years ago Swi-gert was in England, and had an idea that Michael, his good horse, now 4 years old was good enough to land the English Derby. At that time Carisbad was a yearling. He gave up the idea of sending Michael over, but at the time John Porter promised to train anything he might send from America, and Carlsruhe will be sent to him.

YALE'S DISADVANTAGE.

The 'Varsity Crew Have Not a Good Bon for the Big Race,

NEW LONDON, CONN., June 27.—One thing which will militate against Yale's chances of success this year is the fact that neither of the new boats is fit to row the race in. A of the new boats is lit to row the race in. A good crew in a bad boat is likely to be beaten by a poorer crew in a good boat. Yale's paper shell sags badly in the waist. It is very noticeable, and Bob Cook called the attention of a reporter at the quarters to-day to the condition of the craft. "That may beat us," he said. "What we

The cedar shell is also weak, but it is weak The cedar shell is also weak, but it is weak laterally. It is the better model, however. It is understood that a new boat is on the way from Waters. A live stiff cedar shell is what is needed.

Experienced carsmen will say that it is essential for a crew to become accustomed to the boat it intends to row in, and that bad effects are likely to result from practicing in a shell that is out of "kilter," and then getting into another just before a race that feels and acts unlike the other.

There is another thing which may materially impair the chances of Harvard this year. It is whispered that one of the crew has his heart but not his mind in his work, or, in other words, that matters foreign to or, in other words, that matters foreign to rowing occupy his attention. Worriment, it is said, kills a man quicker than hard labor. It takes the "gimp" out of a fellow in a mysterious manner, and in some psycho-logical way it also affects the harmony of action in a crew.

To sum it all up, a poor boat may beat Yale, and poor rowing and something else may beat Harvard.

Pierce Wants a Picht NEW YORK, June 27.-[Special.]-Eddie Pierce is very anxious to try himself with one of the best featherweights in the busi-ness. He has challenged Bobby Burns, of ness. He has challenged Bobby Burns, of Providence, but that worthy, insists upon a wager of $2,500 a side in addition to a purse. Pierce is unable to get that amount of backing, but is per-sectly willing to stake his all, which is about $500, that he can whip Burns. He will challenge the winner of the Dixon-Johnston fight. Neither Dixon nor Johnston is fighting for a stake, and as Pierce has put up the best fight that has yet been seen in the Concy Island Athletic Club, that organization should do all in its power to arrange a match for the clever Fourth ward feather-weight. Burns saw Pierce defeat Kenny, and in consequence is not over anxious to try conclusions with him.

Fitzsimmons and O'Brien.

New York, June 27 .- It is now almost certain that Bob Fitzsimmons and Jack O'Brien, the Welsh champion, will fight in the Olympic Club, New Orleans, on September 5, for a purse of $10,000, and the middle-weight championship of America. The proposition or President Charles Noel, of the Olympic Club, to give O'Brien $1,000 for expenses and put up a purse of $10,000 was cabled to London and O'Brien was notified. The following was received to-day:

Moore Defeated Evans.

DAVENPORT, June 27 .- A steamboat carried 100 Davenport and Rock Island sports down the river to Andalusia, on the Illinois side. A ring was formed and the two welter-weights, Dick Moore, of St. Paul, and Wiley Evans (colored), of California, fought 13 rounds, when the contest was awarded to Moore. Evans was badly punished and was really not in it after the tenth round. The fight was for $250 a side and 75 per cent of the gate receipts.

CHICAGO, June 27 .- Writing to a local paper from London "Parson" Davies, among other things, says: "Matters are running smoothly with us. Jim (Hall) is at Brighton and is doing good work for his match with Pritchard, which takes place August 22. I have just learned from good authority that the Pritchard-O'Brien match is off owing to O'Brien having injured his hip." It is evident from the foregoing that Hall and his manager have not split as reported.

Jackson Broke His Hand. NEW YORK, June 27.—A special London cable to the World says: Peter Jackson did not find out until this week that he broke bone in his right hand while fighting Stavin recently. This pained him so much Tuesday that he could not shake hands. He consulted a doctor, who said he had broken a his wrist. Jackson now carries his arm in a sling.

Tennis in England. London, June 27. - The Americans secured only one victory out of the various games contested during the day. Baddely beat the American player Wright, and Avory defeated H. Colby, another of the Ameri-cans. The contest between Campbell and Bowlby resulted in a victory for the Amer-ican, Campbell playing in superb form. All three games were won by three sets to love. He Prefers Corbett.

LONDON, June 37.—[Copyright.]—Ted Pritchard and Jim Hall have posted their second deposit of £400 a side to-day. In reply to Frank Slavin's challenge, Peter Jackson says he will take three months' rest, after which he will be prepared to meet any man in the world, and preiers Corbett if the latter wins his dight with Sullivan. Miscellaneous Sporting Notes.

THERE is an important letter at this office for Peter Prindy. THE Midnight Alarms Club is ready to meet any club whose members are 12 or 13 years of age.

THE indications are that the Homewood tracks will be in excellent condition for next month's reces. ED SMITH Is now at Oklahoma City, and the newspapers there speak of him as the man who defeated Peter Jackson in five rounds. Edward is getting along very well.

JOHN WHITE, of Soho, wants to run Salmon, Florence Ammon or Culbert a foot race of 100 yards for $100 a side. He will meet shy of them at this office at any convenient time.

THE Railroad League is playing an interesting series. Saturday afternoons have been chosen as the most convenient time for the games and several are slated for each week this season.

BRADDOCK'S HEAVY HAIL STORM. Officers in Two Towns Alight Upon Badly

Wanted Murderers. NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 TITUSVILLE, June 27.-A tornado visited the Pine Creek and Broken Straw valleys this afternoon about 2 o'clock. It was accompanied by blinding sheets of rain. The farmhouse and barn of J. D. Bristol, one mile north of here, were torn to pieces and several other buildings and barns were scattered broadcast. Broad swaths of forest trees lay levele i as if a huge scythe had been at work among them, and many of the wagon roads north are blockaded by them.

The path of the storm was almost directly east and west, passing north and just touching that part of the city up Pine creek and along the Broken Straw valley, beginning at Garland and taking in Pittsfield, Youngsville, Irvineton and Warren. It seemed to have reached its height here. It unroofed houses, uprooted hundreds of shade trees, blew in nearly all the windows on the west side of the Court House and badly dam-aged many dwellings and business houses. Among the partially wrecked houses is the mansion of President Hageltine, of the War-

Among the partially wrecked houses is the mansion of President Hageltine, of the Warren Savings Bank.

Many persons are reported injured. At one place, about three miles northeast of this city, at a lumber camp, a woman and haby were carried 100 rods, and when found they were lying under a treetop, clasped in each other's arms, uninjured. One two-story house was taken from its foundation and carried across Pine Creek, where it was safely deposited on the opposite bank without even disarranging the stovepipe.

The principal money loss will be in the destruction of standing timber. Accompanied by the wind and rain were enormous insilstones. When the storm had passed bushels of them could be gathered all along its path.

Braddock was visited about 4 o'clock by a heavy wind, hall and rain strom. The town its path.

Braddock was visited about 4 o'clock by a heavy wind, hall and rain strom. The town was almost in darkness for ten minutes, and for a time halistones fell in a perfect mass. The wind was, also, very strong, uprooting shade trees and tearing away awnings from business and private houses. Considerable damage is reported from the outer districts. A heavy wind and rain storm passed over the section north of Greenville, and great damage has been done in country districts. Fences and fruit trees were blown down and several barns were unroofed.

A special telegram to The Disparch from Bellefonte says: A heavy rain storm passed over this city between 3 and 4 o'clock this afternoon, doing immense damage to crops. It was accompanied by hall from the size of a chestnut to that of a walnut, which beat down everything growing. The rain caused Coursing dam at Axmann to give away, making quite a flood. Many culverts and bridges were washed away throughout the county.

MINOR M'KEESPORT MATTERS.

Result of the Sunday Braw!—Reynoldton to Test the Saker Law,

McKEESFORT, June 27.—[Special.]—The condition of the Swede who was stabbed in John Harnock's cellar yesterday is precarions. The fact has developed that there were ten men in the place when the fighting com-menced, but all who could be located were menced, but all who could be located were John Varish and Andy Canover, who were

BIGGER GAME THAN COUNTED ON. A Burglar Arrested in Wheeling Wanted in

Newport, Ky., for Murder. who gave their names as Frank Roma and Vincenyo Mini, were arrested here to-day, charged with burglary, by officers from Fairmont, this State. They had a great deal of the stolen stuff on their persons, to-gether with a whole arsenal of all kinds of gether with a whole arsenal of all kinds of weapons.

In examining them, it was discovered that the man who calls himself Roma is really Charles Poli, alias Bohne, who killed Willfam Sprouts at Newport, Ky., March 5. Word of his arrest was telegraphed to the Newport authorities, who have offered a heavy reward for his capture. He is a very dark-featured Italian, though very smart and handsome.

A Bad Man Under Arrest.

WASHINGTON, PA., June 27 .- [Special.]-A suspicious character, giving his name as Ward Munroe, was captured by the local police yesterday, and from letters found in his possession it is thought he is a noted criminal. One letter, to which his mother's name was signed, was written from Benti-voghio, Va. It says: "The man is not yet dead, but you had better get away as far as possible, and do not write for fear of detec-tion." The man will be held until word is received from the Virginia authorities.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor White, of Califor nis. One of the Committee-He Says a Good Third Party Candidate Can Carry the Silver States.

Captain A. W. Barrett, ex-Lieutenant Governor Stephen M. White and A. Mc-Nally, of Los Angeles, registered at the Anderson yesterday morning. They couldn't get rooms and went to the Monongahela House. They were on their way to Washington, and stopped over to see the city. Mr. White is one of the committee to notify Grover Cleveland of his nomination. He thought they would perform the pleasant duty in the second week of July. Captain Banett and Mr. McNally were visitors to the Chicago convention. Before returning home they will attend the annual meeting of the managers of the National Soldiers' Home in Boston.

In discussing the outlook Governor White said: "California is satisfied with Cleveland. The silver States were opposed to him, and they don't like Harrison any better. My opinion is that if the third party people can induce Gresham, or a man of his standing to accept a nomination, they will carry Colorado, Nevada, Moutana and is one of the committee to notify of his standing to accept a nomination, they will carry Colorado, Nevada, Moutana and South Dakota, and will do a great deal of harm in Kansas and Nebraska. There is no danger of the South being broken this year. The Republicans don't make many serious blunders, but the force bill was certainly a bad break. Rather than submit to negro rule, the Southern people will vote for the Democratic ticket forever. For these reasons I think we never had such an opportunity to win. I feel sure that Tammany will be in line in New York.

"The people are getting tired of the tar-riff issue. I don't believe it will cut much of a figure in this campaign. Out in Cali-fornia we have a forcible illustration of how it helps the rich. Spreckles built a sugar refinery in Santa Cruz county. He asked the farmers to grow beets for him, and the first year, not knowing how much saccharine matter the soil contained, he offered them a fair price. The next season he cut down the rate, and the farmers quit raising beets. Then he bought a large tract of land and planted them himself. He gets his sugar bounty yearly, and it goes into his pocket. The farmers who raised the beets never received a cent of it. Santa Cruz county is going Democratic this fall.

An Unknown Man Arrested on a Charge of Impersonating an Officer.

Officer Rosenblatt, of the Penn avenue district, last night arrested a man giving his name as John Meyers and locked him up in the Twelfth ward station on a charge of impersonating an officer. Shortly before 8 o'clock Meyers went into Thomas' saloon, on Penn avenue, and finding a man there who was partly under the influence of liquor proceeded to put him under arrest, representing himself to be one of the city detectives. A short time after Mevers con sented to release him if he would pay a certain sum. Officer Rosenblatt heard of the

On the way to the station the prisoner took out of his pocket and threw into the street's small package. This package was picked up by a fireman, and it proved to be lot of little printed slips in which it was stated that the person who offered it was deprived of his eyesight through an opera-tion, and not wishing to be separated from his children took that method of soliciting alms. On the slip was a verse of poetry which was signed "Charles G. Goodwin." The prisoner was bereft of eyebrows and evelashes, showing that he could easily make himself up for a blind man. When questioned he denied all knowledge of the printed slips and gave his home as Boston,

It cooks the breakfast by night and the dinner by day. It bakes, roasts, simmers, stews, braises and broils. With one quart of kerosene oil burned in a common round wick lamp, 40 nounds of break, meats and vegetables can be perfectly cooked in three charges in eight hours; onlons, custard, fish and meat at the same time without inint or loss of flavor.

One testimonial says: "The cooking is perfect and the fuel-cost scarcely anything, while the case, and comfort of the cook give a calm, benign, religious tone to the temper, unattainable under the cook stove reign."

"The Science of Nutrition and the Ast of Cooking in the Aladdin Oven," by Edward Atkinson, is published by Clark W. Bryan & Co., Springfield, Mass, Price in cloth, 75 cents; in leatheretie, 50 cents, Orders may be directed to them.

The Aladdin Ovens are manufactured by Kenrick Bros, Brookline, Mass., Sole Agents, Catalogue and price list will be sent by mail on request, Ovens can be seen in operation at the New England Kitchens, 142 Pleasant street, Boston, and 341 Hudson street, New York.
