ALLEGHENY CITY HIGH SCHOOL Graduates Deliver Essays and Receive Their Diplomas.

THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE CROWDED

The friends of the Allegheny High School rallied to the commencement exercises at the Grand Opera House last night. This year is the first in which there were graduates from the entire three courses, English, normal and commercial. The total number of graduates was 73, of whom 34 were from the English course, 19 from the normal course and 20 from the commercial course. In the English course the first honor was taken by Amelia Brilles, second honor by Benjamin G. Boggs and third honor by Mary M. Disque. In the normal course the first honor was taken by Nellie E. Kuhns, second by Amelia J. Hill and third by Josephine W. White. In the commercial course the first was taken by Edwin Williams, second by Ella M. Eisenbeis and third by Charles H. Hughes.

The Names of the Graduates.

The following is a full list of the graduates: English course—Eliza Margaret Arthur, Benjamin Grier Boggs, Amelia Brilles, Mary Ella Crumrine, Emilie Blake Fetterman, Horace Greely Gallinger, James Hayward Barlow, Joseph Thomas Horner, Lois Adelaide Harrington, Anna Pearl High, Gertrude Hughes, Harry Martin Lafferty Hunter, Carrie Joseph, John Burk Kleiman, Nellie Kate Marquis, Edward Mayer, Charles Shiras Morris, George Darnie McGraw, Grace McGraw, Nellie Marie Eisenbeis, Virginia Oliver, Marie Hester Orr, Floyd Rose, Betty Rowden Scott, Grace Irma Scott, Gustave William Seston, Elizabeth E. Smith, Daniel Samuel Strauszberger, Francis Herron Trimble, Anna Belle Waddell, Robert Stewart Westerman, Winters, John Zieg, Mary Margaret Disque.

Normal course—Margaret Adeline Aiken, Gertrude Bertha Baetz, Mary Alice Bartley, Nellie Missouri Bartley, Emma Mary Bassett, Lydia Mary Donahay, Cora Bell Duncan, Blanche Alice Gray, Helen Louisa Harbison, Amelia Jean Hill, Nellie Edna Kultima, Ida Lucias Lyons, Adele Elizabeth Minnemyer, Lillian Elizabeth Sains, Mary Anna Seitz, Maggie Thompson, Ida Florence Wall, Sadie Emma Waite, Josephine Wilmshurst White.

Discussing the Human Race. The programme was opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Arundel. The salutatory was delivered by Ira Condit Harper, who took for a subject, "That Fated Race." His remarks were chiefly on the human race and its mistakes, good points, bad points, contests, etc. He then welcomed the audience and bid them make themselves at home at the emancipation of the graduates from their studies.

An essay on "What is a Name?" was delivered by Amelia Jean Hill. She said a rose by any other name would smell as sweet, but people pass away and names live on from generation to generation. After touching on the value of a good name she gave some information as to the derivation of surnames, etc. "The Crank" was the subject of an essay by Amelia Brilles. To be a crank, she said, was to have one's mind filled with one subject. Some such people worried their friends, others were amusing, while others by their persistence have obtained useful changes in government. If the cranks were put out of existence the world would miss them. Many of the world's great personages were cranks on at least one subject. Among them were Peter the Great and Joan of Arc. To-day we have the baseball crank, fresh air fiend, dress reformer, the crank on cranks and others. Some cranks even ask for a clean city government. Many reforms, however, are owed to the influence of the crank.

A Place for Dead Heroes. A discussion on the subject, "Should America have a Westminster Abbey?" came next. Floyd Rose spoke in the affirmative and James C. Hamilton in the negative. Mr. Rose in support of the affirmative referred to England's Abbey with its memorials and tombs to immortalize its great ones and show the nation's reverence for them. It encouraged ambition and was a fitting thing for their heroic dead. In our country the great dead are scattered everywhere and some of their graves are neglected and forgotten. Mr. Hamilton, for the negative, spoke of the character, purpose and result of such an institution. Westminster Abbey, he said, was monarchical and an institution of loyalty. A distinction in birth was made in the very tombs. Its purpose also would be of little use. There also would in this country be money and political influence used to secure a resting place in it for our rich men, and those of merit would be crowded out. It would also be accessible to but a favored few, and the working people of our cities would not have its influence. An original poem, "The Alps," was delivered by Ida Lyons.

The Time We Live In. An oration on "Our Times" was given by Benjamin C. Boggs. He spoke of the questions of the day, including the liquor traffic, and as to the tendencies of the times thought it strange that men should dare criticize the methods of John W. Wansmaker, the Rev. Mr. Parkhurst and others whose aims are for the good of the people. The valedictory address was delivered by Grace Irma Scott. Her subject was the "Modern Witch." Her referring to witchcraft, superstition, etc., she spoke of the influence of woman and called her the modern witch. In conclusion she advised her not to ride a broom stick or marry a "wife of a man." She then bid adieu to the faculty in behalf of the class. The presentation of diplomas by Principal Dodds followed and the exercises were concluded.

Thousands of Dollars

I spent trying to find a cure for Salt Rheum, which I had 13 years. Physicians said they never saw so severe a case. My legs, back and arms were covered by the humor. I was unable to lie down in bed, could not walk without crutches, and had to have my arms, back and legs bandaged twice a day. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and soon I could see a change. The flesh became more healthy, the sores soon healed, the scales fell off, I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking

Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, 3 years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well." S. G. DERRY, 45 Bradford st., Providence, R. I. HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice and sick headache

READERS OF THE DISPATCH. No pains will be spared to faithfully reproduce his photographs.

WATCH FOR THE LETTERS.

Heiskell's Ointment

In a positive cure for all forms of SKIN DISEASE.

We base this assertion on our observation of over thirty years, in which time the very large number of cases of skin diseases have been reported to us as cured, by the simple use of Heiskell's Ointment, without the aid of internal remedies. Many of these were cases of long duration, that had resisted the treatment of the most eminent medical talent in this and other countries. Heiskell's Ointment seems never to have failed in a single instance. Sold by Druggists, or sent by mail.

IT IS EASY

To understand why my summer rates for Fur work are so popular. If you can save such a considerable amount by having your Fur Garments made during the hot spell, or the necessary alterations or repairs to your old Fur Garments made before Fall sets in, it would surely mean poor management to neglect to take advantage of my summer rates. Inspect the styles and workmanship. I am positive that I can please you in every particular—quality, workmanship, style and prices.
