[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] CLEVELAND, June 29 .- For the first time in two seasons the Pittsburg club has won a game on the Cleveland grounds, and they won to-day's not so much on the bad fielding of the home team as on a couple of long drives that came in at just the time when the hero should chase the heavy villain from the stage. The Pittsburgs were late in getting to the grounds. The train on which they came from St.

Louis was behind time, and they dressed on the cars, clapped their caps in their peckets and started for League Park pellmell the moment the train stopped in Cleve-

They Went After Farmer Young.

But the long and tiresome ride hadn't taken the fire out of their batting eyes, and they went after Farmer Young's curves with a vengeance. Still, if Pittsburg's eight hits had all been singles the Pirates wouldn't have been in the game. It was the lucky home run by Bierbauer, the three bagger by Smith and Farreil's double that brought victory. Ehret was in good form and pitched good ball. Cleveland had but little trouble in hitting him, but couldn't get the hits safe, and Shugart's big record of pop flies shows as much as anything how Cleveland came to lose. The management was in hard luck because one of the street car lines leading to the park is tied up by a strike.

More Apologies for the Losers, In the face of that however, almost 1,500 people came out to see the game. Cleveand should have scored in the first inning. Childs took too desperate a chance on Mc-Kean's short fly to Corkhill, and was easily thrown out at the plate. That prevented a score. Then Pittsburg broke the ice in the third. With two out, Miller banged the ball up against the fence in left field for two ball up against the fence in left held for two bases. "Cy" Young sailed an easy dew-drop up to Bierbauer, who did just what "Cy" wanted him to do, batted a long fly. Somehow or other, the ball was perverse; instead of settling down in Burkett's hands went clear over the left field fence and two runs were scored. In the fifth Cleveland saw Pittsburg's two and went one better. McAleer began with a sharp liner to left. Zimmer bunted to right field and Bierbauer stood still and let the ball roll between his feet, McAleer going to third and Zimmer reaching first safely. Young bunted the ball to Farrell who threw to second, but no one was there and McAleer and Zimmer

Childs flied out and Young scored on Burkett's line drive to left. Davis flied out and McKean hit to left field. Burkett tried to get third and was thrown out. In the seventh Zimmer began with a single, went to second on Young's sacrifice and secored on Childs' hit along the third base line. Burkett flied out and Childs was Then came the presentation party. Bur-kett made a beautiful catch of Donovan's hit, and "Cy" Young tried the slow ball on Smith, who cracked it to the fence for three bases. Farrell's long double sent Smith home and Farrell stole third. Corkhill hit to Virtue, who threw home to head off Far-rell. The latter should have been an easy out, but Zimmer held the ball too long and out, but Zimmer held the ball too long and threw badly. Farrell scored and Corkhill in the meantime got to third. Ebret got a base on balls and Corkhill scored on Mil-ler's line drive at Young. The batter was thrown out. Bierbauer hit for a base and Ebret got home. Cleveland did not come within gun shot of scoring in the next two innings. The score: CLEVELAND B B P A E PITTSBURG R B P A E

THE WESTERN LEAGUE TROUBLE.

Louisville Authorities Think That Western

Clubs Will Be Raided. Louisville, June 29.—(Special.)—Regarding the reports of the trouble in the Western League, Mr. Brush, of Indianapolis, says there is not a word of truth in it, so far as h knows. Can it be that the wily Brush is on the outside of the matter? The chances ar 1,000 to any fraction you want to name that he is not. He probably made the denial on "conscientious scruples."

President Williams is out in an interview. in which he acknowledges that the Western League is behind in its dues, but he does not think the organization will go to pieces. His think the organization will go to pieces. His opinion, which is probably largely made up of hope, is that the organization can pay all it owes by July 1.

The Western League owes $1,200 to the League, $150 for each club. This money was due at the opening of the season. If the money is not payed by July 1 the Western League will cartainly be thrown outside the protection of the national agreement. This might or might not break up the organization. It would certainly lose all its best players, as the League clubs would quickly snap them up. A constant prey of the League, the organization could hardly survive long. Williams, it is said, has a plan to sell some of the best players, which he will lay before the other Western League magnates at the coming meeting in Chicago. If this is done Louisville will certainly be one of the purchasers. So there are two good chances for Clausen, Kelly, Motz and the "other man" coming to this city by July 1.

THE DISPATCH PLAYERS WIN.

A Very Bitter Fight Between Two Newspaper League Nines.

The scheduled game in the Newspape Printers' Lengue between The Disparch and Times for July 2 was transferred to yesterday afternoon on account of the inability of the teams to meet on Saturday. The game was called shortly after 3 o'clock, with an audience of about 500 enthusiastic specia-tors. Six innings of the game were an exhibition of as good ball playing as anybody could desire to see, but when THE DISPATCH became leaders both sides became slightly careless. Morgan, of the Times, did the best carriess. Morgan, of the Trines, did the best playing of the day, having three put outs and seven assists without an error. Plays were found in spots all through the game. The umpires did good work with the exception of the decision of Umpire Price at first base in the ninth inning, which was decidedly off color. The score:

Want to Join the Western. JOLIET, ILL., June 29.—It was rumored to-day that the Joliet Baseball Club, of the day that the Johet Baseball Cital, of the Western League, and that it would take Toledo's place. The baseball officials of this city claim that the Johet club will remain in the Illinois-lowa League the rest of the season, though the ball cranks hope the change will be made.

The Three A's Won. Quite an interesting ball game was played yesterday afternoon at the Three A's Park between the team of the Three A's and the Park Institute nine. The former won by 10 to 7. Robinson and Schoyer were the Three A's battery and Walker and Heisey officiated for the Parks. The hits and errors were: Three A's, 7 and 9: Park Institutes, 10 and 12. Walker pitched an excellent game.

EAGAN, who covered second for St. Louis part of last year, is playing for Albany as well as he over did. He made four hits, a home run, a triple, a two-bagger and a single the other day. TELEGRAMS from quite a number of players in the Eastern League to President Williams are to ne effect that the organization will go to the wall soon after July 4. They are trying to get in out of its wet.

PRESIDENT YOUNG, of the National League, announces that the Texas State League has paid the necessary amount for qualification in the national agreement in class "B." This protects the Texas League in holding its promising players. HECKER'S work is the feature of the Juckson-ville, Ill., games. He is covering first in the style and bats hard. A home run, a triple and single was his record in a game a few days ago. The Jacksonville people say he is the best manager, the best captain and the best player the town ever had.

It is seldom you see two good ball players in the same ramily. The two Whites (Jim and Will), the two O'Rourkes (Jim and Jack) and the two Ewings (Buck and John) are about the only instances of this kind. Tony Mullane thinks his younger brother will make a great twirler. He has brought him to Cincinnati from Erie, Pa., and is coaching him for a pitcher. Young Mullane is 19 years old and is left handed.

THE manager of the Oakdale team sends the following challenge to this paper: We, the Oakdale baseball team, of East Liverpool, U., would like to arrange a few games with any 19-year-old uniformed club in Western Pennsylvania or Eastern Ohio. Time was when the Old Man put up a pretty stiff article of baseball. That was before he become sewed up with gout, charley horse and spayin. When a theroughbred breaks down he is turned out to graze en pastures green and relieved from further active work on the turn. Uncle should resire for very much the same reason. He has done well; has played a good game; has earned all he possesses of this world's goods and can now gracefully step down and out, "Chicago Inter-Ocean."

Folly step down and out.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

For years past a violent jealousy has existed between James Gaivin and Timothy Reefe regarding their respective merits as home-run hitters. Both are regarded by pitchers as the softest of all marks, but each has a high opinion of his provess with the bat and withering contempt for the other. It is years since either made a good solid hit, but up to yesterday Gaivin was the possessor of a home-run hit. It is therefore highly probable that when the fat twirler sees how Keefe smashed out a honer at Philadelphia yesterday, the former will shrivel up and pine away, for it is hardly likely he will get another four-baser during the remainder of his career.—The Bun

White Hat McCarty.

The New York papers declare that "White Hat" McCarty is not likely to race in the East, though Eustern owners would welcome nim for the forfeits he owes and would be compelled to pay before he could race. They also question the McCarty horses starting at Washington Park because of that track s respect for the Eastern forfeit list. McCarty is said to owe several thousand dollars, though the Washington Park club officials declare it to be $500 or some such sum, for which they hold two purses won by Heroules and Castanet. The chances are, too, that long before the Washington Park meeting closes all the forfeits will have been paid.

TO-NIGHT'S BIG BATTLE

Everything Ready for the Fight Between Goddard and Joe McAuliffe.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29 .- Preliminaries of the glove contest between Joe Goddard, of Australia, and Joe McAuliffe, of San Francisco, which takes place to-morrow night, have been settled and the California Ashletic Club was to-day engaged in getting into readiness the new wigwam which has been secured for the occasion. The wigwam is capable of seating over 3,000 persons, and it is now estimated every seat will be taken by the time the two contestants enter the ring the time the two contestants enter the ring at 9 r. M. to-morrow.

The men have trained faithfully for the meeting, and the directors of the club have no fault to find with the condition of either. McAuliffe will stand three inches taller than his opponent, and will enter the ring close to 218 pounds. Goddard is expected to tip the scales at 185, giving to McAuliffe an advantage of over 30 pounds in weight. The Australian's friends maintain, however, that Goddard's quickness will more than offset this disadvantage, and that unless McAuliffe's reach proves an unexpected barrier Goddard will prove the victor. McAuliffe money is preponderating in the betting, and odds of 100 to 8 are freely offered in his favor. Hiram Cook will refere the contest, and has warned the principals that the Quoensberry rules must be strictly observed. Alexander Gregarians and Martin Murphy will second McAuliffe; Goddard's brother Herbert and L. Lafferty will second Goddard. Secretary James Chesley will be official timekeeper.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.) WASHINGTON, PA., June 29 .- Robert McCormick, one of the best-known and wealthiest citizens of Washington county, committed suicide at his home at West Middletown this morning.

Mr. McCormick was a single man of about 80 years of age, and had lived alone for several years. For some time past he has been laid up with rheumatism, and several friends had been waiting on him. This morning he was found in bed with a stream of blood oozing from an ugly gunshot wound through his heart. A revolver at his side told the story.

The cause assigned for the deed is that his sister, who is in the poorhouse, claims that the old gentleman has obtained some of her money by false pretense. The sister had prought suit against him and it was referred to a board of arbitrators. This troubled the old gentleman so that he decided to take his life rather than to endure the disgrace attendant with the matter.

CHANGES IN ALLEGHENY COLLEGE

President Wheeler, Feeling the Effects of Age, Resigns His Office. MEADVILLE, June 29 .- The seventy-sixth unnual commencement exercises of Alle gheny College will close to-morrow. The annual meeting of the Board of Trustees was held to-day. Several important changes in the faculty were made. Prof. Fields, of in the faculty were made. Prof. Fields, of the Department of Mathematics, resigns to travel a year in Europe. The vacancy was not filled, it being tacitly understood that the work will be placed in charge of Prof. Dutton, of the Civil Engineering Department. The Professor-elect, Principal of the Preparatory Department, was appointed to the chair of Latin and Greek, and Clarence Ross, class of '81, was elected Principal of the Preparatory Department.

The resignation of Dr. Whoeler as President, to take effect July 1, 1893, was read and accepted. President Wheeler gives as his reason for resigning that he is getting too old for the responsibility. It was decided to devote the Wilcox lund to a new science building, for the erection of which a committee, with President Wheeler as chairman, was appointed.

THE BRADDOCK BUDGET.

Two Painters' Remarkable Escape From Death-The Jr. O. U. A. M. Braddock, June 29.—[Special.]—Two painters, Benjamin Magee and Robert Bobinson, escaped instant death in an extraordinary house at Rankin station, and were on a painters' stage nearly 40 feet from the ground. One of the hooks slipped from the root of the building, twisting the stage half around and allowing the men to swing off in mid-aid. Magee had several ribs broken by the fall and his head cut, and Robinson was injured internally.

The Monongahela District Association of the Jr. O. U. A. M. will meet here Tuesday, July 12. Prof. A. S. Brubaker will make the address of welcome, and other addresses will be made by Justice Chigston, of Turtle Creek, and William Matr, of McKeesport.
