HENRY LOUCKE FOR CHAIRMAN.

The Founder of the Party to Preside at This Convention OMAHA, NEB., July 2.-The Committee on Permanent Organization concluded its labor to-night, and will be ready to present its report to the convention at the opening of its session Monday. Henry Loucke, of South Dakota, was chosen for Permanent Chairman of the con-vention by a unanimous vote. The only other name mentioned was that of Paul Vandervoort, of Nebraska.

Loucke is looked upon as the originator of the movement for independent political action, which has culminated in the foundaaction, which has cuminated in the founda-tion of the party now holding its first Na-tional Convention. Two years ago he was a candidate for the governorship of his State and recruited over 25,000 votes.

A Georgia Man to Preside.

OMAHA, NEB., July 2.-Immediately after the adjournment of the convention the Committee on Resolutions met and proceeded to organize. Hon. Hugh Cava-nagh, of Ohio, member of the General Executive Committee of the Knights of Labor; Hoft. M. I. Branch, of Georgia; Hon. Labor; Hoh. M. I. Branch, of Georgia; Hon. V. Castor, of California, and Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota, were placed in nomination for Chairman, but Mr. Donnel-ly withdrew, and the bullot was taken on the three other names presented. After the first ballot Cavanagh withdrew, and the second ballot resulted—Branch 71, Cator 20.

A CLEW TO MARTIN REED.

The Escaped Murderer Said to Be Hiding in a Flor nce Coal Pit. WASHINGTON, PA., July 2 .- [Special.]-A well-known citizen of Florence was in town to-day and informed the authorities that if they desired to capture Martin Reed, the escaped murderer, they should search coal shaft near his home.' The gentleman said Reed called at his Florence homestead Friday, secured some-thing to eat and then made a bee line for the coal bank near the borough limits. This is the vicinity of where the murderer was last seen. The clew will be run down. A COOLEY HAUNT RAIDED.

Its Keeper, an Od Man, Tarred an Feathered by Masked Men.

UNIONTOWN, July 2. - [Special.]-Wesley Sisler, an old man living in the mountains south of this place, was tarred and feathered by a gang of masked men last night for keeping a disreputable house. His shanty in the mountains for several months past has, it is charged, been the rendezvous of the Cooleys. The mob also looked for Annie Pastones said to be Sisler's partner, but she made good her escape. Annie Pastones is the girl to whom Frank Cooley has been paying

The men had been rejoicing this week in an advance of 2 per cent and in the prospect of full time.

Destructive Ball Near Barrisburg. HARRISBURG, July 2 .- Farmers from the country southwest of the city reported at market to-day that one of the heaviest hail storms in many years passed over a marrow belt last night, doing great damage to crops. Hail fell to the depth of several inches. A similar storm passed over part of Carlisle and surrounding country, beating crops to the ground.

Ohio River Miners on Strike, WHEELING, July 2.-[Special.]-To-day the miners at Boggs' Run mine, in this city, those at Moundsville, Elm Grove and Wellsburg, all the railroad miners in the Wheeling district quit work, the Columbus scale, which they demanded some time ago, having been refused. About 350 men are thrown out of work.

Two Forgeries in Massillon. MASSILLON, July 2.-[Special.]-A bung-ling promissory note for $750, drawn in favor of John Bilticker, and signed by James Wilhelm and Daniel Hoffman, wealthy farmers living near Justice, seven miles south of here, was disposed of yester-day to the first National Bank by the drawes. Mr. Bilticker presented a note signed by the same farmers for the same

The men were hauled up with ropes by the peasants and the coast guards. says: It is hardly probable that the bill will come before the House this session, because in order to bring it up at all the cloture rule will have to be adopted, and, as it takes a majority of all the members of Congress to pass the cloture rule, it is not likely it can be passed now on account of it being so late. And then, not much over two-thirds of the members are present, and many of those who are present are Southerners, and they are bitterly opposed to cloture. If the bill is allowed to take its course at the foot of the calendar it will take five years to get to it. It is barely possible that the cloture rule will be passed and a vote will be taken, but I do not think so. THE PITTSBURGERS RESCUED.
