and Finds It Passing Sweet. HIS LOT IN PLEASANT PLACES.

Living in a Bavarian Palace, Amid Music, Feasting and Cheers.

THE KAISER DARES NOT PROSECUTE

[COPYRIGHT, 1892, BY N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS. BERLIN, July 2.-Prince Bismarck has been assiduously entreted at Kissingen to dilate further on the Emperor and Chan-cellor von Caprivi. He maintains, however, absolute silence, except to categorically deny having attacked the Emperor. His special organs, the West Deutsche Allegemeine Zeitung, the Munich Allegemeine Zeitung and the Hamburger Nachrichten have also

The Hamburger Nachrichten for days past has not made the slightest reference to the situation. This silence does not mean cessation of the agitation. The parties are quietly excited and are arranging themselves for or against Prince Bismarck. The leaders of the National Liberals, though disapproving of the Prince's recent utterances, are ready to resent any interference with him and to oppose the Government if it ventures upon a prosecution. A strong section of the Conservatives are in a simi-

Two Parties Clamerous for Prosecution On the other hand, the Freissinnge party and the Center party want the Government to take immediate action against the Prince. At a meeting of the Center party the speakers declared that the revelations made by Prince Bismarck verged upon high treason and that he ought to be tried for that offence. They denounced him as seeking to embroil Europe in order to avenge himself upon the Emperor and Chancellor von Caprivi, and as compromising peace while giv-ing vent to his ill humor,

The Frankfort Zeitung, a Liberal organ, urges that it is time to end the toleration the Government has accorded Prince Bismarck. The Ministers, it says, should accept the challege he offered. Yet the Government is irresolute over the prosecution.

The official opinion is that if the Prince repews his attack prosecution will be inevitale and prompt.

Meanwhile Prince Bismarck is enjoying repose after his triumphal progress, and his presence at Kissingen has drawn crowds to that place. He resides in a villa belonging to the Bavarian Government, to which is attached spacious grounds and a garden along the River Saale.

Now Living the Life of a Hero. He has a guard of Bavarian soldiers who have been specially detached to honor him. A carriage and horses for his use have been sent by the Prince Regent, of Bayaria. Every night a band plays in front of the villa, and during its performance the Prince, smoking a long pipe. can generally be seen at a window listening to the music. He treats the members of the band at intervals with copious draughts of beer, and hob-nobs with the band master over wine and cigars. The crowd greets him with repeated "Hochs." The Prince seldom goes out, but he receives a large number of visitors. His outings are sometimes accompanied by trouble-some ovations. The injury to the Prince's eye, caused by his being struck a short time ago by a boquet that was thrown to him by a fervent lady admirer, was not at all serious.

In a private letter to a Hamburg friend alluding to the threatened prosecution of himself, Prince Bismarck says he has too much respect for himself not to know the limit beyond which he ought to go. In re-ferring to others, he defies any one to show that he has overstepped the limit.

Bismarck Will Push the Government, The Munich Allegeimeine Zeitung returns to the defense of Prince Bismarck in an arti-cle denying that his criticisms were in-spired by a desire to return to office. It says his summary dismissal precluded all such thoughts. The West Deutsche Allegemeine Zeitung renews its call for the publication of the truth regarding the Prince's dismissal. The simultaneous appearance of the articles in both organs suggests that Prince Bismarck means to push the Government to action. The Neueste Nachrichten, of Munich, prints a report of an interview had by one of its representatives with Prince Bismarck, in which the ex-Chancellor says:

marck, in which the ex-Chancellor says:

Revenge is not my object, least of all upon my successor in office. If I raise my voice I do so for the good of the Fatherland. The commercial treaties entered into by the Government have injured the cattle, cleese, wine and paper industries, and will continue to inflictinjuries upon them as long as these treaties are in operation. It is perfectly clear to me that I should have published a draft of the agreement which concluded the Austro-German alliance, in consequence of the many maladroit and misleading letters on the subject, emanating from Russian sources, but I have throughout remained wholly on the defensive. Though I have had repeated assurances that I enjoy the confidence of the Czar, I have failen into distavor with the Kaiser. The Kaiser has not failen into distavor with me. The ex-Chancellor expressed himself as being so filled with renewed courage that he would be willing to enter the Reichstag next winter.

A WORTHY ENTERPRISE.

Anniversary of the Establishment of the Popular $5 Rate of Treatment.

The Good Work That Has Been Accomplished - Putting the Practice of Medicine on a Business-Like Basis -Review of the Year.

One year ago Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers launched an enterprise which for boldness of conception and integrity of car-rying out to the very letter and spirit of the offer had never been equaled in the history of medicine in this country. This enterof medicine in this country. This enterprise was to treat catarrh and all kindred diseases at the uniform fee of $5 a month, medicine included. Experience had taught them that this disease, especially when complicated with car troubles, asthma, bronchitis, chronic cough, incipient consumption, facial neuralgia, etc., etc., could not be eradicated except by a continuous and systematic course of treatment of three or four months' duration. They reasoned that by the excessive fees charged ordinarily by specialists of $2 or $3 a treatment twice or more a week, with medicine extra, that patients of limited means could not afford to continue under treatment long enough to receive any permanent benefit, and that this is what gave rise to the impression that catarrh is an incurable disease. They also reasoned that if they could only get such patients to remain under treatment with them for several months they could afford to treat all such cases at the low rate of $5 a month, medicine included.

What at that time was simply an experiment, as the $5 rate was extended from month to month to see how the public would receive it, has grown to be a permanent institution. The public at once "took" to this innovation, and a practice was begun by Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers which has grown to be simply remarkable in its extent and character. Besides, the good that they have done by enabling patients to continue under treatment for several months instead of so many weeks, as heretofore, has raised up an army of loyful, healthful beings, who never tire of praising and recommending their method of treatment.

The theory upon which this system of treatment is founded is to reduce the practice of medicine to a business-like basis.

A small sum, $5 a month, is charred patients for treatment by the month and medicines are furnished free of cost. This brings the services of a skillful physician within the reach of everyone and does away with "drug bills." There is no excuse then for a sufferer to silently endure his disease for fear prise was to treat catarrh and all kindred diseases at the uniform fee of $5 a month their patrons and most enthusiastic admirers.

Those who predicted that the $5 rate was something of a day or week have been found guilty of ignorant assertion.

The $5 rate has come to stay.

From week to week the tributes of enthusiastic patients have been paid through the press to the efficacy and thoroughness of the treatment.

To celebrate the first anniversary of their $5 rate of treatment, and in grateful recognition of the indorsement by the public of their efforts, Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers have decided to treat all diseases at the same low rate, medicine included. Heretofore the $5 rate applied only to simple catarrhal diseases and kindred aliments, but in the future it will apply to all diseases. Remember this includes consultation, examination, treatment and medicine for all patients and all diseases. Positively no greater fee will be asked or received.

DEPLETED BLOOD

Chronic Diarrhes, Weakness and Debillty a Result-How Catarrh Brought on a Train of Painful Disorders-Mr. Bowman's Story.

A specialist, whose observation covers a wide range of diseases, is often impressed with the frequency with which catarrh, ec zema, rheumatism, stomach, bowel and kid-ney disease, or some other painful and annoying blood trouble seem to go hand in

The depleted condition of the blood is often due to a catarrhal affection, which takes the direction of a blood or bowel disease rather than the usual nature of such results. The case of Mr. Barnes Bowman, a packer in Messrs. Hogan, Evans & Co.'s glass house, and who resides on Paul avenue, Boggsville, West Liberty borough, may be Boggsville, West Liberty borough, may be used to illustrate this point.

"I had been troubled with chronic diarrhea for two years," says Mr. Bowman, "but which became unusually aggravated the past six or seven months. My appetite became deprayed and fitful, it was seidom I had any relish for food, and what little I did eat caused a heavy bloated up feeling, with frequent eructatious of gas, and almost constant pain in my bowels. It seemed that my food passed away without being at all digested, and I lost flesh and strength steadily. I became so weak and debilitated it was hard for me to keep on with my daily labor. I was more tred in the morning than when I ended a hard day's work.

"My head always seemed duil and heavy with frequent headaches, but I had none of the usual head symptoms following catarrh of the head, excepting bad taste in the mouth and coated tongue. My trouble was principally confined to my stomach and bowels.

"I found that I must do something more than I had done or I would have to give up my work, so I concluded I would consult Drs. Copeiand, Hall and Byers, as I had read of their good work in troubles such as mine. They at once diagnosed my silment as catarrh of the stomach and bowels, and, as their system of consultration and examination seemed so thorough, it at once inspired me with confidence and hope, and I immediately decided on a thorough course of treatment with them.

"The results have been surprising and gratifying in the greatest degree. My bowels are now regular, my appetite has returned, I am galning in flesh and strength daily, have no pain, no duil, heavy headache, no bad taste in the mouth, arise refreshed in the morning, and, in truth, feel as well as I ever did in my liffe. To say that I am plemsed with the treatment I have received from Drs. Copeiand, Hall and Byers but feebly expresses my feelings, and I freely recommend them to all my friends and the public."

Treatment by Mail.

Treatment by Mail.

To the Public: The system of mail treatment pursued by Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers guarantees the same effective results to those who desire to submit their cases through correspondence as to those who come in person. Their "question blank," if properly filled out, will diagnose your case in a thorough way, and, as medicines are promptly shipped, those living out of the city have the same advantages as those who come to the office.

Write for the $5-a-month treatment by mail, medicine free, and rid yourself of the most painful and annoying disease in the catalogue of human ills.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

The Result of Neglected Colds-Str of Mr. Robert Kiein, Who Was Cured of This Most Distressing Affection

Perhaps no one is better known in Beltzhoover, the lovely little borough which over-looks Pittsburg on the south, than Mr. Rob-ert Klein, who makes this statement in innt of Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers' treatment.

"I had been troubled with catarrh and kindred allments for five years," says Mr. Klein. "brought on by exposure. My occupation is that of driving delivery wagon for my father, who is engaged in the grocery business in Beltzhoover, and this duty compelled me to face all kinds of weather summer and winter.

"My trouble first began with headaches over forehead and through temples. Soon after I noticed my nostrils were renerally clogged up so I could not breathe freely through them, and mucus began dropping back into my throat, causing me to hawk and gag to dislodge. This was particularly the case in the morning. I had to courf and spit for quite a while every morning be fore I could ait down to my breakfast.

Mr. Robert Klein, Ecliphoner Borough.

"When I would begin to eat my stomach would grow nauseated and feel full and bloated in a little while, causing beliching up of gas and palpitation of the heart and frequent dizzy spells. My eyes grew weak and watery and I soon noticed distressing roaring or buzzing noises in my ears, with shooting pains through chest to shoulder blades. My mind grew confused, I could not concentrate my thoughts on any subject and finally could not add up a column of figures correctly. My sleep grew troubled by horrid dreams and I awoke in the morning unrefreshed and feeling as if I had slept on a board all night. The least exertion caused palpitation and a weak and trembling feeling, spots before my eyes, etc. I felt at times I would have to give up work. "In this condition I was persuaded to consult Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers and take a course of treatment, as they were curing so many persons of ailments of similar nature as mine. I soon noticed a diminution of all my symptoms. My head became ciearer: my stomach and appetite improved; my eyes, ears, nose and throat troubles passed away; my sleep became sound and re reshing, and I awoke in the morning rested, all ready for my daily work.

"It is with pleasure I make this statement, hoping it may point others, afflicted as I was, the road to health and happiness. Drs. Copeland, Hall and Byers cannot receive too much praise for the good they are doing for suffering humanity."

As to altering or renovating your last year's furs, charges for same also depend much upon the season. Our summer rates for such work are so low that you ought not to overlook this matter. I do not wish to experience a dull season. I have therefore reduced rates for all fur work during the hot months to such a figure as will insure plenty of work in the fur department. Please make a note of this.

Pittsburg, Pa.:

Gentlemen—My wife was laid up, perfectly belipless, for three months with inflammatory rheumatism and rheumatic fever, and after three apparent improvements and as many relapses her doctor said he could "do nothing more for her, she would never get well and might die at any monent."

In this emergency I proposed to the nurse that your Rheumacura should be tried. Before the patient had taken it two full days we noticed an improvement in her condition, which continued steadily to improve for two months, during which time she took four and a half bottles of Rheumacura, and no other medicine whatever.

She is now walking about and is well, but without your Rheumacura just at that crisis in her condition I fully believe she would have died.

Yours sincerely.

CLOSED TO-MORROW ALL DAY.

Can it be? Is it possible? How can they afford it?

Such and similar questions will be asked on all sides to-day concerning the startling statement conveyed above. And, yet, great as the surprise may be, it could hardly be otherwise, taking into consideration this most extraordinary and exceptional offer. Just think! Here at Kaufmanns', where but yesterday thousands of suits were marked at and could not have been sold for less than $18, $20, $22, $25, $27 and $30, you can step in on Tuesday to-morrow being closed — and take your choice for FIFTEEN DOLLARS. This is just what this sale means Every word is gospel truth. There is no room or reason for skepticism; every man can find out for himself; every man is at perfect liberty to step right among our $18, $25, $27 or $30 suit tables and select himself any suit he pleases. Nothing is concealed! Nothing is reserved! Nothing is excepted! Everything is open and above board, and every suit, no matter how fine or how high its former price may have been, $15 buys it now. Our reasons for this money-losing sale? Well, we hardly think they concern the public. However, since this is a bona fide affair, we don't object to telling.

Although the season just passed has been generally prosperous, the impending strikes and lockouts, it must be confessed, have been a great drawback on the sale of fine dress suits; everybody economized to make both ends meet. Thus a man; accustomed to paying $18 for a suit, would limit himself to one of our $10 suits, while he who ordinarily paid $25 or $30, did not find it convenient to go higher than $12 or $15. Thus, while the medium and low-priced suits found feady sale, the fine and expensive ones stuck. But they won't stick much longer. $15 is the wonderful motive power that'll make them go. We repeat, the finest suit of them all goes for FIFTEEN DOLLARS, and you yourself can, if you wish, go from pile to pile, from counter to counter, and take any suit, light or dark, whether it be worth $20, $25 or $30, FOR ONLY $15. Can anything be fairer—squarer plaine

Remember, this sale commences Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock and will continue until next Saturday night. The earliest comers will, of course, catch the best bargains. Don't delay.
