NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.] BRADDOCK, July 3.—A panic was caused among the guests of the Frantz Hotel here shortly after midnight last night by a gas explosion, which wrecked the greater part of the interior of the building. Several persons were injured, although no lives were lost. About 60 persons were in the hotel at the time, including the proprietor, Jonathan Frantz.

The bar had been closed for the night and the only occapants up were the two bartenders, Robert Wilson and John Davis, and Billy Timms and a young man named Albert Kelly. The latter entered the hall by a side door with a lighted torch in his hand, having received instructions to go to the cellar and turn the water off. The instant he pulled the door ajar there was a terrific explosion which shook the whole

In an instant every occupant of the hotel was up. They were unable to get any further than the second floor, as the hall steps had been blown down. The people became terror-stricken when they discovered the situation. The decorations put up for the Fourth caught fire and the sparks flew in every direction. Women shrieked for help with their children clinging about them. Nothing could be heard from the men below, and Frantz, grasping the situation, lowered himself by from the men below, and Frantz, grasping the situation, lowered himself by means of bed clothes to the ground, followed by several other men. Their first thought was to put out the fire, which was accomplished after a hard fight, after which a part of the steps were put up and the frightened people on the second floor were helped down to a place of safety.

During this time several persons grouped their way in the darkness to find the four men who were in the hall and room at the time of the explosion. Young Kelly, who carried the torch, was hurled from his feet and knocked to the other end of the hall, where he was found in a dazed condition, hardly able to speak. He was very seriously burned, and it is feared he cannot recover. He is about 22 years of age. Wilson and Davis were found in the barroom, covered with plastering and bar fixtures. Davis was very seriously injured, and it is a mystery how he escaped death, while Wilson escaped injury. Timms was found in a narrow passage along the side of the hotel, having been blown through a side window. It was some time before he recovered consciousness, but he escaped serious injury.

A clock which hung opposite the bar was twisted off and hurled across the room. Every window in the front part of the house was blown out, and the office was wrecked almost as badly as the barroom. Both side walls were completely cleared of the plastering and laths, nothing being left but the joists. Four or five rooms on the second floor were also damaged. The loss will amount to over £9,000. The explosion was caused by a leak in the gas-pipe running through the cellar. Frantz says it must have escaped suddenly, as he was in the cellar with a light 15 minutes before.

TWO BUCKEYE TWISTERS.

Carey Almost Wiped Out, and the Country

Near Lima Devastated. FINDLAY, July 3.—[Special.]—The little city of Carey, southeast of Findlay, was almost destroyed by a tornado last night. No lives were lost, but the damage to property will reach $30,000 or $40,000. The storm came up at midnight and unroofed and partly demol-ished the Park Hotel and Gault House, the Presbyterian church, the High School build-ing, ten business houses and a score or more of dwellings, besides destroying fencing, shrubbery, farm and outhouses through a strip of nearly 20 miles long and two miles wide. The time of night and the character of the storm nearly frightened the inhabi-tants to death.

of the storm nearly frightened the inhabi-tants to death.

A tornado passed through the section near Lima at 1 o'clock this morning between that city and Kenton. At foraker, a station on the Chicago and Eric railroad, several houses were blown over and three barns were un-nocied. Wheat was leveled and much other damage done.

A Bad Day for the Vets at Beaver.

Beaven, July 2.—[Special.]—The rains to-day interfered with the encampment of James Lysle Post No. 128, of Allegheny, which opened yesterday in the fair grounds here, and the attendance of G. A. R. men here, and the attendance of G. A. R. men was comparatively small. The electric cars brought several hundred people from Beaver Falls and New Brighton, but there were very tew present from Pittsburg. The religious services on the programme for this afternoon were not held, nor was the dress parade, and the veterans sought shelter in their tents and found the time hang heavily. An admission fee of 25 cents was charged yesterday, but to-day the price was reduced to 16 cents.

Pittsburgers in a Shooting Affray. STEUBENVILLE, July 3.—[Special.] — John O'Neal, proprietor of the Atlantic Dancing Garden, was shot through the right hand by Tom McDonough Saturday night. Mc-Denough and Dr. Rosseau, who hall from Pittsburg, were in the barroom when closing time arrived and refused to leave. Both men made a vicious assault on O'Neal, who tried to get his revolver from behind the bar, but McDonough saw his intention and secured the weapon. Both men escaped.

How Braddock Will Celebrate.

BRADDOCK, July 3.-[Special.]-Braddock BRADDOCK, July 3.—[Special.]—Braddock will celebrate Independence Day in a fitting manner. In the morning addresses and music will fill the programme, and races and baseball at Union Park in the afternoon, after which a display of fireworks will be held in the evening from a barge on the river. Rev. Dr. Boyle and Rev. Father Wertenbach, of St. Joseph's German Catholic Church, will speak.

Dropped Dead in a Depot.

HARRISBURG, July 3 .- An unknown man dropped dead in the Pennsylvania Railroad station to-day. He had just purchased a ticket for Hagerstown, Md. A few moments before he expired he remarked to a station employe, "There is not a sicker man in Harrisburg than I." There is nothing about the body by which it can be identified.

Lightning's Curious and Costly Prank. Lina, O., July 3.—[Special.]—Lightning struck the main building of the Lima Brewing Company and ripped up the third floor, which gave way, letting down 2,000 bushels of mait through the lower floors into the celiar. Loss will be $5,000, fully insured.

Both were injured.

Duluth — The Catholic pro-Cathedral. A large number of communicants were gathered in the church, and at 7:45 a lamp near the altar was overturned. There was a panic and a rush for the doors. Before any one could recover the flame from the burning oil ignited the woodwork, and in an amazingly brief period the flame burst out of the roof at the steeple. Bishop McGolrick's residence was also consumed, with most of his private library, one of the finest and most complete in the Northwest, numbering 15,000 volumes. The library of Rev. Father Corbett also went. Loss on both buildings, $10,000.

Value of goods, between $200,000 and $300,000, covered by insurance. The retail department was uninjured, and all books and papers were saved. The building belonged to the Crommeline estate, and the loss on it is probably $15,000; insured.

Baltimare—The layre furniture manufactures.

Baltimore—The large furniture manufac-turing establishment of P. Hanson-Hiss Manufacturing Company. Loss on stock estimated at $150,000; insurance, about $100,000. The building, which is badly dam-aged, is valued at $45,000, and is fully in-sured.

Minneapolis—Smith & Richardson's great sawmill was completely destroyed, and Joanin & Hanson's mill was damaged. Total joss, 885,000: insurance, $85,000. Nearly 300 men are thrown out of employment, but the owners will rebuild as soon as possible.

San Jose, Cal.—A shooting gallery, the Lick House, California Theater, South Methodist Church and a number of business houses on three streets. Losses aggregate about $200,000; insurance, two-thirds. Providence—The storehouse of R. B. & K. R. Knight, at River Point, together with 5,700 bales of cotton and 1,000 pieces of cloth. Loss, about $500,000.

Feeling That Tired

The marked benefit which people overcome by That Tired Feeling derive from Hood's Sarsaparilla, conclusively proves that this medicine "makes the weak strong." J. B. Emerton, a well known merchant of Auburn ton, a well known merchant of Auburn, Maine, says: "About five years ago I began to suffer with very severe pain in my Stomacil, gradually growing worse. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla being convinced that I was troubled with Dyspepsia complicated with Liver and Kidney troubles. I improved at once and am certainly very much better and feel more like working.

INSURANCE DEPARTMENT OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK. I, JAMES F. PIERCE. Superintendent of Insurance, hereby certify that, after a thorough and com-plete examination of the assets and liabilities of the American Casualty Insurance and Security Com-pany, of Baltimore City, made by the examiners appointed on behalf of this department, as of Siat De-cember, 1891, I find the financial condition of said Company to be as follows:

Surplus beyond all liabilities .... ...... 74.882 85

The net surplus shown in the Company's statement is $1.58,280 49, while in the above statement it is only $74,882 85, the difference being caused by increasing the unearned premiums $67,697 64, according to the ruling of this department.

The Maryland Commissioner does not require that the sums paid by persons taking out policies on a team boliers for inspection shall be included in the premiums paid, or form any part of the basis for the alculation of the reserve. This department adopted a different rule some years ago, and includes the inspection charges in its computation of reserve, and the addition to the reserve is caused by adherence to has rule. that rule.

I have also added a further liability to unpaid losses of $15,700, it being the rule of this department to require companies to charge the full amount of all outstanding losses until finally settled, judicially or otherwise.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. CLOSED TO-DAY.

WILL SELL THIS WEEK ANY IN THEIR HOUSE FOR $15.

Can it be? Is it possible? they afford it?

Such and similar questions will be asked on all sides to-day concerning the startling statement conveyed above. And, yet, great as the surprise may be, it could hardly be otherwise, taking into consideration this most extraordinary and exceptional offer. Just think! Here at Kaufmanns', where but Saturday thousands of suits were marked at and could not have been sold for less than $18, $20, $22, $25, $27 and $30, you can step in to-morrow to-day being closed — and take your choice for FIFTEEN DOLLARS. This is just what this sale means. Every word is gospel truth. There is no room or reasons for kepticism; every man can find out for himself; every man is at perfect liberty to step right among our $18, $25, $27 or $30 suit tables and select himself any suit he pleases. Nothing is concealed! Nothing is reserved! Nothing is excepted! Everything is open and above board, and every suit, no matter how fine or how high its former price may have been, $15 buys it now. Our reasons for this money-losing sale? Well, we hardly think they concern the public. However, since this is a bona fide affair, we don't obect to telling.

Although the season just passed has been generally prosperous, the impending strikes and lockouts, it must be confessed, have been a great drawback on the sale of fine dress suits; everybody economized to make both ends meet. Thus a man, accustomed to paying $18 for a suit, would limit himself to one of our $10 suits, while he who ordinarily paid $25 or $30, did not find it convenient to go higher than $12 or $15. Thus, while the medium and low-priced suits found ready sale, the fine and expensive ones stuck.

But they won't stick much longer. $15 is the wonderful motive power that'll make them go. We repeat, the finest suit of them all goes for FIFTEEN DOLLARS, and you yourself can, if you wish, go from pile to pile, from counter to counter, and take any suit, light or dark, whether it be worth $20, $25 or $30, FOR ONLY $15. Can anything be fairer—squarer plainer?

Remember, this sale commences To-morrow morning at 8 o'clock and will continue until next Saturday night. The earliest comers will, of course, catch the best bargains. Don't delay.
