If the manufacturers who object to these reductions will place the kind of improved machinery in their works they will receive the same discrim-ination from the Amalgamated Association. The statement that the manufacturers made no money last year can be accepted for what it is worth. If they object to steel and iron being so low, why do they bring such a state of affairs about by glutting the market? Why don't all of them shut down for six or eight weeks and give the product a chance to rise? The workmen are per-fectly willing to lay idle for this length of time, and consequently all would be bene-

President Weihe spent the afternoon of yesterday in Homestead and upon his re-turn home said: "Everything is quiet up there. Most of the time I was in the town was spent at the headquarters of the Amal-gainsted Association. Nothing out of the ordinary was taking place, and from the present outlook I apprehend no serious trouble."

No new signers are reported since the Lookout Iron Company, of Harriman, Tenn., signed on Saturday night.

STARTED THE FOURTH WRONG.

An Italian Pays 83 for Beginning the Day Too Early.

There were ten prisoners at Central station yesterday morning. Six of them were discharged without fines on account of their offenses being minor ones and the day being the greatest national holiday. Thomas Britton was sent to the workhouse for 30 days. He had tried to incite a crowd of people to assault Officer Murphy when he was arresting a prisoner Saturday night, and attempted to steal the officer's keys. S. Eberman paid $10 and costs for trying to best a backman out of his form beat a backman out of his fare. Mike Sick, an Italian, paid $3 and costs for firing shooting crackers on Sunday, three hours before the Fourth began. John Macilchafy was held over. He was charged with disorderly conduct on a Pittsburg, Virginia and Charleston Bailroad train and pulling the bell cord. He claimed his arrest was a case of mistaken identity and was remanded until to-day.

Two Bright Booklets.

Messra. Paulson Bros. have just issued two booklets, entitled "Ideas" and "Re-flections," which are so genuinely entertaining that they are read through before it dawns upon the reader that they are really advertisements! They are in the best style of modern high class advertising, and cal-culated to entirely please everybody who secures one. The Paulson Bros. will be glad to supply them on request.

Comfortable Homes.

This hot weather thousands of homes have been made comfortable and happy because they bought Marvin's bread in place of mak-ing their own. The houses were not over-heated by the baking fire, and families al-ways had good, sweet, wholesome bread at every meal. TTS
