

BLAND ON HIS BILL.

Free Silver's Champion Feels the Measure Passed by the Senate ISN'T JUST WHAT IT SHOULD BE.

It May Have to Be Sent Back From the House for Amendment.

THEN IT COULD BE TALKED TO DEATH

WASHINGTON, July 4.—Mr. Bland has returned from Missouri and is ready to take hold of the silver fight. His bill was entirely on account of the silver bill having passed the Senate, and he is here to try to get it through the House.

Danger Lurks in the Bill. "It seems to me that by repealing the act of 1890 this bill deprives the eighty-eight million of silver certificates and legal tender quality."

Not at All Doubtful of Success. "As far as the passage of the bill is concerned, I am sure we can accomplish it if we can bring it to a vote."

Mr. Pierce has introduced a resolution providing that on a day to be agreed upon, it shall be in order to propose a suspension of the rules to pass public measures which have been previously discussed and that a majority vote shall be sufficient.

HARRISON'S FOURTH.

He Spends It at the Celebration and at Home Like a Private Citizen.—A Return to Western Dinner Hours.—Mrs. Harrison Takes a Drive.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—[Special.]—President Harrison spent Independence Day at the White House as if he had been a private citizen instead of the ruler of the greatest nation on the face of the globe.

Within the past few days there has been a change in the daily routine in the domestic and the Executive Mansion.

The President did not undertake the task of driving his large and comfortable buggy today, owing to the general display of Fourth of July enthusiasm throughout the city.

There were no official callers at the White House to-day. A few personal friends called to inquire how Mrs. Harrison was getting along and to learn something more about her departure for Loon Lake next Wednesday.

BARRELS OF POLITICAL PODDER Being Sent Out Daily From Washington by Both Parties.

WASHINGTON, July 4.—[Special.]—The political grist mills of both parties have been set going in Washington, and the daily mails are already beginning to groan under the burden of campaign literature dumped into them, franked by Congressmen. The number of speeches delivered in both Houses, for campaign purposes, is limited thus far, but the respective campaign committees are making the best of the materials at hand, and will no doubt be supplied with a formidable quantity before Congress adjourns.

THE TEXAS BORDER TROUBLES.

News of Them Confirmed by Consular Officers in Mexico. WASHINGTON, July 4.—The Secretary of State has received advices from United States consular officers of Mexico, confirming the press dispatches concerning troubles along the Rio Grande near San Antonio.

Instructed to Communicate with the Mexican General commanding in the adjoining province, with a view to co-operate in an enforcement of the neutrality laws and preventing further violence if possible.

WALKED INTO THE RIVER.

Mrs. Joseph Smith Was Disconsolate While Others Seemed Gay.

The wife of Joseph Smith, of 22 Morgan street, Allegheny, yesterday forenoon walked into the Ohio river near the foot of Washington avenue, and pretended that she would drown herself.

At the hospital it was found that her hair was not wet. Being given a nerve quieting she rested peacefully and seemed to give up the idea of death.

ORLADY HAS FAITH.

The Huntington Man Thinks Harrison's Successes Are as Great as 1860.

George R. Orlday, of Huntington, registered at the Monongahela House last evening. He delivered an oration at Beaver Falls during the day.

It is made of pure cream of tartar and soda, no ammonia, no alum. A like quantity goes farther and does better work.

Kirk's DUSKY DIAMOND SOAP. Healthful, Agreeable, Cleansing. Cures Chapped Hands, Wounds, Burns, Itch, Removes and Prevents Dandruff.

AMERICAN FAMILY SOAP. Best for General Household Use.

HOPES TO PROVE AN ALIBI.

A Baltimore Officer Comes to Pittsburgh in Search of Evidence for a Man Charged With Murder—He Registered at the St. James Under an Assumed Name.

W. D. Lyon, an officer from the District Attorney's office in Baltimore, has been in the city for several days trying to collect evidence to prove an alibi for a young man charged with murder.

THE DIFFERENCE.

In politics what one-half knows The other half knows isn't so.

Ask for it at any restaurant or saloon. It is pure lager beer, made from hops and malt, brewed on the premises of the manufacturers, Eberhard & Ober.
