If no other baseball teams were to visi Pittsburg than the Baltimores it is safe to say that our slug gers would be per nant winners this season. The loca heroes met th Orioles twice yes terday at Exposi tion Park and wor each time. It would hardly be correct to say that eithe contest was excit ing, because they were both too easy for the local men. But the good natured holiday crowds enjoyed them, and there were a few incidents during the contests which served to amuse the cranks considerably.

Some Very Unreasonable Kicking.

While the visitors had no show whatever of winning, they freely indulged in abusing the umpire as a means of drawing attention from their poor playing. Umpire Mitchell is a new starter, and the players knowing this take the most unreasonable liberties. There was a sample of this in the second game yesterday. The Baltimores only got four sate hits during the game, while the home players banged the ball away 16 times safely, including three home runs, and yet the visitors had the nerve to blame the umpire for robbing them of the game. The fact is they didn't know what they were fact is they didn't know what they were kicking about, because some of them were arguing tor one thing and others were arguing in quite an opposite direction. Umpires must be more emphatic in dealing with rowdy players. McGraw used some very offensive language and was ordered out of the game, but the umpire allowed him to stay in. McGraw and Halligan were each fined, but the tormer should certainly have been sent to the bench.

The attendance was not as big as on

The attendance was not as big as on Decoration Day. In the morning there were 3,902 people went through the turnstile and the afternoon 4,988, making a total of 8,800 to the decoration. of 8,890 for the day.

Features of the Morning Game. The morning game was one of the very s and uninteresting kind. C two brilliant plays prompted some enthusi-asm, but it soon died away until the eighth inning was reached when a little careless inning was reached when a little careless-ness by Baldwin gave the visitors an excel-lent chance to win. When Mark is playing with much the best of it he invariably be-comes reckless and before he knows where he is he finds hinself in difficulties. In the inning named he began to pitch up some "easy" ones and two runs were scored in year short order. A man was put out and very short order. A man was put out and then the bases were filled. Of course this caused lots of shouting because the crowd's sympathies had gone towards the visitors in consequence of Baldwin's little careless-ness. But the visitors couldn't win at that. Stricker and Shindle made brilliant catches; Bierbauer fielded well and Shugar made one or two very flagrant errors. Me-Mahon was hit hard and he did not pitch a winning game by any means.

In the second inning Mack led off with a fine single to middle field and Elmer Smith followed on with a rattling liner over Welsh's head for a clean home run. Quite a Lively Inning.

Quite a Lively Inning.

The third inning was a lively one. Bierbauer led off with a single and Shugart got his base on balls. Beckley made a safe bunt filling the bases. Mack knocked an easy fly to Welsh and Smith got his base on balls forcing in a run. Farrell made a safe infield hit scoring Shugart and Corkhill's single scored Beckley.

In the second half, after McMahon was out, Shindle reached first on Shugart's fumble and got to second on Van Haltren's sacrifice. Halligan's single scored Shindle, and Schock's single aided by Baldwin's muff of a thrown ball scored Halligan. In the fourth, after Baldwin had struck out, singles by Miller and Bierbauer; wild throws by Gunson and Welsh; a base on balls and a single by Mack scored two more

In the eighth, for the visitors, Shindle led off with a double, Van Haltren followed with a three-bagger to the right center fence scoring Shindle, Halligan's sacrifice scored Van Haltren, Shugart's fumble sent Schock to first, Welsh got a single and Hanlon got his base on balls filling the bases. Stricker forced Hanlon out at second, Schock scoring and Gunson went out at first retiring the side. Robinson started to eatch for the visitors, but had his finger split in the second inning and retired without having had any chances. About the Afternoon Argumen The afternoon game was much too one-sided to be interesting, as the visitors never had the ghost of a show to win. Terry had them completely at his mercy, and for six innings not one of them reached first base. On the other hand, Foreman, who pitched for the visitors, was quite an easy mark, 16 hits being made off his delivery, including three home runs, a three-bagger and a double. Altogether, nine of the ten runs made by our sluggers were earned, and that shows that tall slugging was the order of

In the first inning Bierbauer knocked the ball to the left field fence and when he landed on the home plate the thrown ball struck him on the head. He was considerably stunned but managed to continue the game. It is needless to tell the story of the run getting.

The visitors got their first run in the seventh inning. After two men were out, Halligan hit a slow pitched ball a thump knocking it clean over the right fence for a home run. Tiernan of the New Yorks is the only other man who has accomplished such a teat. Two singles and a base on balls filled the bases in the eighth inning, and Terry forced in a run by giving another base

The Count Objects to a Cut in Salary and Is Called Down, CINCINNATI, July 4.—[Special.]—Count Mullane was the only Red who rebelled over a cut in salary, and he has been served with his ten days' notice.

Captain Comiskey is very angry over President Young's interference in the case of Pitcher Meekin, who, it is said, has been awarded Washington. The Senators took Duryea away with them and are beyond the limit of players. The Cincinnati out averages about 20 per cent, and the players, for the most part, realize that it would be suicide

Monmouth Park Track Reopens With 20,000 People Present.

TOURNAMENT WINS A GOOD RACE. Maens Daly's Sir Matthew Captures the Other Big Event.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

MONMOUTH PARK RACE TRACK, July 4. -Fair weather, a good track and an excelent programme of seven races attracted a Fourth of July throng of 20,000 persons to Monmouth Park this afternoon. It was the first day's racing at the track since 1890, the Law and Order Society threatening to arrest the bookmakers having stopped the proceedings for awhile. With new blood infused into the directorate of the association, however, the Law and Order people were openly defied. None of the 74 bookmakers were molested this afternoon, but there may be trouble tomorrow. The sport was inaugurated with a rushing deleat for the talent, Kingston, the 1 to 2 favorite, being defeated by the 8 to 1 chance, Correction, a most erratic per-

The first of the four rich events, the Independence stakes, went to Gideon and Daly's crack 2-year-old, St. Michael, atter a red hot fighting finish with Comanche. Both colts were quoted 6 to 1 in the betting. Fitzpatrick rode the winner, and his victory was due entirely to Fitz's superiority over Simms. Experiment, the 2 to 1 favorite, swerved from flag fall to finish. Tourna-ment won the first division of the Fourth of July handicap after a heart-breaking finish with Madstone and Reckon. Tournament led from start to finish, setting such a fast pace that Garrison was unable to place Montana in the first three. All went out of the Ocean stakes except Longstreet and Entree. The former easily disposed of the selling plater and won in a gallop.

The Western jockey, Cassius Sloane, then gave an exhibition of elever jockeyship by winning the second division of the Ship by winning the second division of the Fourth of July handicap with Marcus Daly's slashing 3-year-old, Sir Matthew. Foxhall Keene withdrew both White Rose and Alonzo and left Candlebra. Midgely was not strong enough to meet Sloane's rush with Sir Metthew and thereby hangs the tale of Candlebra's defeat. Arab, 4 to 5, won the selling race in clever style, and George Forbes, his owner was asked to ex-plain Arab's defeat at Sheepshead Bay. Just how satisfactory Mr. Forbes' explana-tion was will not be known until the Board of Control talks over the matter. Little Mid, first choice at 2 to 1, won the closing event in easy fashion and brought a memorable afternoon's sport to an end.

BICYCLE RECORD BROKEN.

It Is Lowered a Fifth of a Second at the " Hartford Meeting.

HARTFORD, July 4.—[Special.]—The Columbia and Colt Bicycle Clubs of this city held a joint tournament this afternoon. Four thousand persons witnessed the race. The track was in good condition and some new records resulted. The two clubs offered some valuable prizes and consequently attracted the pick of the racing men. In the one-mile safety race, R. S. Williamson, of Holyoke rode the first quester in 33.55 sec. one-mile safety race, R. S. Williamson, of Holyoke, rode the first quarter in 33 3-5 seconds, and P. J. Berlo finished the mile in 2:31 3-5 both securing special prizes.

In the two-mile handfeap race, George Banker, M. A. C., rode the final quarter in 29 4-5 s-conds. This equaled the world's record for the competition flying quarter, but, later in the day, Peter Berlo, of the Manhattan Athletic Club, took a flying quarter, with Carl Hess as a pacemaker, and lowered the world's quarter-mile flying record one second, reducing the time to 23 4:5. The triplet machine was given a trial for a record mile, and Messrs. George Banker, Peter Berlo and W. W. Taxis, with a flying start and cutting their own pace, finished the mile in 2:14 4-5. This lowers the one-mile safety world's record time of 2 minutes 15 seconds. It is very evident that 2:10 can be ridden upon the triplet. The men were unaccustomed to riding together, and being unfamiliar with the turns, rode about 20 feet wide from the pole. Banker won the two-mile safety race, and finished second in the one-mile safety.

IT WAS A SUCCESS. The Cup and People's Regetta Takes Place

at Philadelphia, PHILADELPHIA, July 4.—Every circumstance combined to make a splendid success of the Cup and People's regatta under the auspices of the Schuylkill Navy to-day over the National course from Falls Bridge to Rockland. Wind and weather were both as Rockland. Wind and weather were both as mild as could be desired and 30,000 people lined both banks of the Schuylkill for the full mile and half over which the course extended.

An interesting incident of the regatta was the breaking of the world's mile record by the steam launch Yankee Doodle. The wonderful little vessel steamed a mile in 2 minutes 13-5 seconds. The best previous time ever made was 2 minutes 12 seconds by the steam yacht minutes is seconds by Norwood.

The races opened with the pair-cared shell and was won teasily by the Atalanta Boat Club, of New York, whose only competitor, the Iona, of Philadelphia, dropped out through the illness of Hechtman, stroke, after reaching the quarter mile buoy. The time, 854, was the fastest ever made on the

The junior single scull race was won by Samuel Roger, Excelsior Boat Club, Paterson, N. J., Charles H. Elliott, Vesper Roat Club, Philadelphia, second. Time, 283 45.

The senior single shell race was won by C. Donegan, Atalanta B. C., New York, by several lengths from Edwin Hedley, Vesper B. C., Philadelphia. Donegan led from the start. Time, 9:24 2-5.

The four-oared shell race was won by the Fairmounts, of Philadelphia: Manhattan, of New York, second. Time, 8:24 3-5.

The double scull shells was won by the Vesper B. C., of Philadelphia, from the crew of the New York A. C. Time, 8:44 4-5.

The most interesting contest of the day was that of the junior eight-oared shells, with entries by New York A. C.; Palisade B. C. Toward the finish Palisade and New York A. C. pulled away from the others and finally Palisade won on a spurt, coming in but two feet ahead of the New Yorkers, while Vesper's bow was but four feet behind that of the second in the race. Time, 8:01 1-5. The Atalanta crew led from start in the senior four-oared gigs, with Fairmount a good second and Iona and Manhattan contesting closely for third place, with the Passaic, of New York, last, in which order they continued to the finish. Time, 8:44.

The regatta was closed by the senior eight-oared shell race between Vesper and Malta, of Philadelphia and New York A. C. Malta spurted strongly at the start, but was stendily pushed by the New York crew and dropped to the last place near the finish, New York A. C. winning from Vesper by haif a length in 7:474-5.

A SUGGESTION.

It frequently happens that people who are advised to use whiskey find it difficult to do so. But this is usually owing to the fact that these people do not select the right quality of whiskey. In addition to purity and age, whiskey requires a special flavor, and it is for this reason very largely that O. F. C. whiskey is becoming so popular, not only with the discriminating and better classes, but with those who cannot successfully take inferior , whiskeys. O. F. C. whiskey is manufactured by the George T. Stagg Co., of Frankfort, Ky., one of the best houses in America, and there is not a bottle of it that is less than ten years old. This, combined with its unapproachable flavor, is what has made it so popular. It can be procured of James Getty & Co., 180 First avenue.
