

THE MARKET CRAMPED

Idle Iron Works Knocked Out by the Non-Union Concerns. MANY SECTIONS ARE AFFECTED. An Advance of 50 Cents Is Now a Very Important Matter.

FOREIGN IRON MARKETS CORNERED

New York, July 7.—Tomorrow's iron prices will be the broken work and the uncertainty of the market situation have restricted business in all markets. The Eastern mills and those of the Western mills which are non-union are picking up considerable business...

The Markets Now Equalized.

In pig iron the expected announcement of a reduction of 1 cent per ton by the Thomas Iron Company has come today, thus equalizing the Eastern market as compared with the Western market...

Review of the Foreign Markets.

The foreign markets are reviewed by cable from London as follows: The only feature of interest in the iron market is that there has been a practical cornering of the "hears" in Cleveland iron, many of whom, it is reported, were forced to settle on the basis of 100 cents per ton...

The Metal Markets.

New York, July 7.—Pig iron dull; American, $14.00; foreign, $14.00; copper, $1.10; lead, $1.10; zinc, $1.10; tin, $1.10.

BUGABOOS ON CHANGE

The Homestead Contract the Biggest, but the Hatch Bill Won't Down—Other News Helps to Depress While Another Cent-Corn Active—Oats Higher.

CHICAGO—Wheat collapsed a full cent today, following the news that it was an equal amount recouped last night. The close this evening was within 1/2 cent of the close the day before.

A large volume of trading was consumed in pork, and the market was active for September delivery. The opening was heavy and lower all round on the weakness of the local operators...

POINTS IN REALTY.

A Manufacturing Firm Looking Up a Site for a Large Plant.

TWO MORE SALES IN THE EAST END.

Wilkinsburg Presbyterians Decide Not to Build and Sell Their Lot.

FEATURES OF MONEY AND SPECULATION

Considerable interest is displayed in manufacturing sites by outsiders as well as insiders—more, indeed, than could be expected in the dull season of the year and in the absence of any special features.

Two East End Sales.

W. A. Herron & Sons were engaged yesterday in closing up the sale for E. H. Wilson, of the East End Hotel, of about 600 feet deep, at a price approximating $5,000.

Presbyterians Make a Deal.

Early in the spring Wilkinsburg Presbyterians who at the time contemplated selling their church property on Wood street and building elsewhere purchased a lot for that purpose from James Doran for $5,000.

Yesterday's Building Record.

Seven permits were taken out yesterday for 15 buildings, all estimated to cost $32,850. Those of most importance are: Keystone Bicycle Club, frame clubhouse on Howe street, Twentieth ward, $4,500; Ross White, brick house on Wood street, Twenty-third ward, $8,400; same owner, four frame dwellings on Herron avenue, Thirtieth ward, $5,000; Louis Berkhoff, brick and stone business house on Franktown street, Twentieth ward, $4,500.

Special Features of Real Estate.

Mr. Need, whose farm on Chartiers creek has been purchased by the city, was circulating among Fourth avenue real estate brokers yesterday.

Additional Points in Realty.

D. Behm & Son sold for John Crossett to Edward Fillinger a house and lot on Miffin street, Seventeenth ward, for $2,000.

The Monetary Drift.

There was nothing new in city banking circles yesterday. The Homestead trouble deterred borrowers and also made lenders more cautious.

Events at Homestead Deter Borrowers and Make Lenders More Cautious.

There was nothing new in city banking circles yesterday. The Homestead trouble deterred borrowers and also made lenders more cautious.

Minor Criminal Matters.

John Karemusk was committed to jail for trial yesterday by Alderman Reilly on a charge of stealing a bag of rags from the B. & O. R. R.
