

IRON TRADE REVIEW.

Keen Competition Among Three Great Sections the Past Week. THIS IS A TIME OF UNCERTAINTY.

Better Prices Expected When Labor Disputes are Settled.

REPORTS FROM ALL LEADING CENTERS.

OFFICE OF THE DISPATCH, PITTSBURGH, FRIDAY, JULY 8. RAW IRON AND STEEL—Business since our last has been very restricted, sales being confined to limited amounts.

Eastern producers are reported to be in a temper to give their Southern competitors a fair sample of Northern cut prices.

What the Eastern Man Says. "Buyers of crude material are not placing orders for any quantity in excess of immediate wants, awaiting the outcome of the next few weeks, in anticipation that a decreased consumption during the coming two months will result in a glut of material."

Prices of Thomas Company's Iron. The announcement has been officially made that July and August deliveries of the Thomas Iron Company's pig iron will be sold at $18.00 per ton.

DULL AUTUMN.

WILL PROBABLY BE THE CONDITION OF THE SEASON MARKET.

An Improvement There Confidently Expected—The Louisville and Nashville Divided, Though Reduced, Is an Agreeable Surprise—Grangers Lead in Activity—Bonds Quoted.

New York, July 8.—The dealings in a few stocks have a few recoveries in the market, but the trading from user stagnation and a heavy tone there was seen during the day.

The Grangers were still leaders in activity. A sharp decline in Louisville and Nashville, of which there was widespread selling for some time on the part of the Grangers in fear of a reduction or passing of the dividend.

The market finally closed strong at the close of the day, with a drop of about 1 percent in Chicago Gas. All leading shares show large fractional gains.
