SEATS LOST BY THE IRISH FEUD. The Newcastle Election Puts Morley in an

Unenviable Light.

GLADSTONE GETS HIS NOMINATION

[BY CABLE TO THE DISPATCH.]

LONDON, July 8. - [Copyrighted.] -Thanks in a large degree to the shameful folly of the Irish Nationalists, four seats in Ireland have now been given to supporters of the coercionist government, and it is feared several more will go the same way. Except in Ireland, the constituencies whose pollings were declared this forenoor did their duty well with tew exceptions, although the results did not come up to the 1885 standard. County pollings practically commenced only to-day, and upon them depends the answer to the question whether Gladstone shall have a large or a small ma-

It looks as though the Scottish counties, as well as the boroughs, will not justify the Grand Old Man's confidence in them. The fact that only eight of his followers have been defeated, has delighted Joseph Chamberlain, and to-day he plucked up courage to denounce Mr. Gladstone as a furious mob orator.

Gindstone and Labor Candidates

Chamberlain now believes that his party will number quite 60 in the new Parliament, but THE DISPATCH'S information does not warrant this confident estimate. A letter from Gladstone is published this evening protesting against the sacrifice of Liberal scats through the hopes of Labor candidatures; but as these candidates are being subsidized with Tory money the protest is not likely to have much effect. People are still trying to fathom the meaning of the extraordinary voting at Newcastle. To judge from popular feeling, as reflected in the local newspapers, Morley had given offense to the townspeople, as well as to the miners, by neglecting local interests and keeping away from the place except at election time. As the Newcastle Chronick neatly puts the case, "Morley's constituents hear him through the telephone and see him through the wrong end of the Morley does not come out of this curious affair particularly well. A week or so ago he publicly declared that he would feel himself insulted if Newcastle did not elect him by a majority of at least 2,600 and that he would resign his seat if the majority should be less than 2,000.

Morley Not So Good as His Word,

The Tories are now challenging him to fulfill his promise and retire, but Morley shows no inclination to make good his words. Not a dozen results of the polling in 61 constituencies to-day have been de clared to-night. One Liberal gain in the Ince division of Lancashire affords ground for the hope that a fair proportion of the 15 Tory seats in that important county may be won for home rule.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon the returns showed two further Liberal gains. The first was in the Chesterton division of Cambridgeshire, where Sir Charles Hall, Conservative, was defeated by H. E. Hoare, Liberal, who changed the former Conserva-tive majority of 976 into a Liberal majority of 398. This was a Liberal gain of 1,374. Another Liberal gain of 2,716 was scored in the Cricklads division of Wiltshire. Here the Liberal-Unionist majority of 1,178 in 1886 was wiped out and a Liberal majority of 998 established in its stead.

This morning's figures show the re-elec-tion of Rt. Hon. Edward Stanhope, Secre-tary of State for War, in the Horncastle division of Lincolnshire. It is a strong Brush down cobwells and sweep the room; That is never cross to a poor old sinner, But serves Marvin's bread and smiles at din Conservative district. Another Cabinet Officer Elected.

the Sleaford division of Lincolnshire. This is, also, a Conservative district, but the Liberals succeeded in pulling down the former majority of 1,308 to 907. The Liberals have gained 2,184 votes in the North division of comerset, and have overcome a Conservative majority of 2,165. The Irish returns show that Timothy Harrington, Parnellite, Secretary of the Irish National League, has succeeded in retain-ing his sent for the Harbor division of Dublin. The Parnellites are jubilant over the defeat of Timothy D. Sullivan, the anti-Parnellite, who formerly represented the College Green division of Dublin. The Parnellite candidate, Dr. J. E. Kenny, beat him by 1,397 votes.

The Penvith division of Cumberland has returned J. W. Lowther, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Foreign office, by a re-duced majority, the Liberals gained 519 votes in a total of 6,973 polled. The figures of the Londonderry city elec-tions show Justin McCarthy was defeated by a majority of 28, the vote standing, Ross, Conservative, 1,982; McCarthy, Anti-Par-nellite, 1,954.

A Seat Lost and a Seat Won.

The Liberals lost a sent in Wales to-day. Their candidate in the Montgomery district was defeated by the Conservative candidate, who overcame a Liberal majority of 173 and established a Conservative gain of 291. The loss of this seat has been counter-balanced by winning one in the Pembroke district of Wales. The Liberals defeated the Liberal-Unionist candidate in the Pembroke district by making a gain of 475 votes. At the last election the Conservative majority in this district was 272.

A dispatch from Dublin says: Crowds flocked to the Court House early to await the counting of the votes. An attack was made early this morning upon the house of John Dillon, in this city, and the windows were riddled by the volleys of stones hurled by the mob. The Freeman's Journal says the Parnellites have abandoned the seven divisions in Cork county, the Leix division of Queen's county, North Tipperary, East Kerry, South Longford, Leitrim, West Waterford and Sligo. They have confined their contests to Ulster and those places where the fight may result in the return of Tory candidates. Tory candidates.
