LOUISVILLE ..... 7 Baltimore ....... Experiments are not often successful with of a young pitcher, partieularly when the youngsters have to go up against such terrors as Johnny Ward is taking around the country. Yesterday afternoon these fellows from Brooklyn landed here and young Mr. Thompson, from the East End

Gyms, was put in to pitch ball to them. The experiment was a failure but it does not show that Thompson is not a good and promising pitcher. One swallow does not make a summer by any means, and to test a youth by making him face the Brooklyn team does not prove the youth to be a failure. Where the experiment was bad lay in the fact of putting Thompson in against such a strong team as the Brooklyns and on a Saturday when 3,300 people were

Thompson Was Very Wild. The young man couldn't get the ball across the plate, and that was the difficulty. He may have been nervous, and if he was it was only to be expected. But it was fortunate for the visitors that Thompson was there or else they would have been heaten just as sure as we live. After they had made four runs in the third inning, the pitchers were change, and then the visitors dn't things so much their own way. But the Brooklyns are a good team, one of the best and no mistake. They fielded in the most brilliant manner, and if they bad failed to do that the ball was hit bord enough to win the game. They are certainly among the most active of base runng will gain it. John Ward is about cheamion as a kicker, or to put it milde r, obctor. He wasn't at Exposition Park, ves-erday, to take the worst of it, and it is robable that he objects too muod.

In the first inning the home sluggers began in a way that cheer in their triends. Miller got his base on brails and reached secand on Pomovan's sacrifice. Bierbauer ider to Corcorau, who fumbled the ball, and Miller got to third and Bierbauer to first. Mack went Beckley loomed up and sent the audience wild. Jake banged the ball past Tom Daly to the left-center fence for a home run, send-ing in three runs. This was indeed joyful

Johnny Couldn't Steal Second, In the second half of the inning Ward was sent to base on balls. While Griffin was at bat Ward tried to pilfer second and was nabbed. Griffin got his base on base on balls and Corcoran's single sent him to third. Corcoran stole second, and Mack's wild throw over second sent Corcoran to third and Griffin home.

In the second inning Thompson was still wild, but no runs were made on account of a double play very neatly done. But in the third inning Thompson was "at sea." Hart started off for the visitors and got his base on balls. Ward made a fine single with the bunting bat and Griffin made a single, scoring Hart, Ward getting to third. Corcorau was hit by a pitched ball and the bases were full. Burns knocked a long fly to Corkhill, scoring Ward. Brouthers got his base on balls and again the bases were full. Joyce came next with a good single to right and Griffin and Corcoran got home Brouthers being nabbed on trying to make third on the play. Daly knocked an easy fly which Miller caught.

In the fourth inning Farrell started off with a single and Corkhill make a safe bunt. Ehret went to bat instead of Thompson and reached first on a fumble by Joyce, filling the bases. This was splendid, for the sluggers. Miller knocked a long fly to Griffin and Farrell scored.

The Cranks Were Much Disappointed.

Donovan was easily put out on first and so was Bierbauer, and this retired the side with only one run, and there was much disappointment. Baldwin went in to do the pitching in the fourth, and he commenced by giving Con Daily his base on balls. Hart struck out and Ward went out on a foul fly to Farrell.

Griffin knocked out a high fly just over first base and nearly above the foul line. Donovan ran for it and muffed it, Daily scoring. The next run was made in the seventh inning, and was made by the visitors. Ward started off for them and got his base on balls. He got to third on Griffin's good single to left, but he was very cleverly thrown out at the plate by Farrell in trying to score on Corcoran's infield hit. Griffin reached second and Corcoran was forced out by Burns, Griffin going to second. Burns started to steal second and was caught between the bases, but while he was being put out Griffin got home.

The home players made their last run in the eighth inning. Beckley got his base on balls and Smith was hit by a pitched ball. Farrell sent out a fine liner, which Tom Daly caught, and he returned the ball in time to catch Beckley off second. Corkhill made a triple to middle, scoring Smith, and

A GREAT RACE HORSE.

Tammany Wins the Lorillard Stakes in Sensational Style.

THE FAMOUS SALVATOR'S BIVAL Entries for the Purse Events of the Home wood Meeting.

GENERAL SPORTING NEWS OF THE DAY

MONMOUTH PARK, July 9. - Marcus Daly's great 3-year-old colt Tammany this afternoon won the rich Lorillard stakes in such an impressive manner that the spectators were convinced that Trainer Mast Brynne's statement that the colt is as good a race horse as Salvator is absolutely correct. He carried 122 pounds, and never being extended in any part of the mile and three furlong journey, covered the distance in 2:2014. Orme, 105 pounds, holds the record, 2:2014. Tammany's performance was the best despite the fact that it was accomplished on a straightaway course.

Taral worked like a beaver on The Pep-per, but Garrison laid his face against Tamper, but Garrison laid his face against Tammany's neck in the last quarter of a mile and guyed Taral good naturedly. Asra ran a good game race, finishing third under whip and spur persuasion, but Huron and Yorkville Belle were never prominent. Shellbark bolted in the first 100 yards and was pulled up. In a clinking finish the Belladonna cold took the July stakes from Dr. Rice by a head. The unnamed cold the sain received and the production of the product of the produ was in receipt of 12 pounds from the Doctor, and it explains the cause of the latter's de-feat. GREEN MORRIS said before the Long Branch Handicap that he had in Judge Morrow the best racchorse in the country, Longstreet excepted. The Judge was sent to the post a heavily-backed favorire at 7 to 5, but he was fairly beaten by the 7 to 2 chance DeMuth and Raceland at 11 to 5. DeMuth was a wild horse and ied from start to finish running the mile and a quarter in the rattling good time of 2:07.

A Western horseman ascribes Locohatchee's defeats to his change of name, as he was named after one of the lucklest men in Chicago. It is said that Curt Gunn fell from the top floor through an open hatch of one of the sky-scraper buildings of Chicago to the ceilar, and fell on top of two men, killing them both. It did not make him draw a long bresth. He only said, "Them poor fellows were in hard luck"

SMITH DEFEATS DALY.

Three-Round Go Between Feather Weights at San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 9.—Sol Smith, of Los Angeles, defeated Dan Daly, of Omaha, in Angeles, defeated Dan Daiy, of Omans, in three rounds at the Athletic Club last night for a $1,250 purse. The betting had favored Smith until shortly before the men went into the ring, when it veered to 100 to 80 in Daly's favor. The battle commenced with both men looking for an opening. Smith finally got in with his right on the back as Daly whirled. Smith made another rush, and was stopped by a hard left on the neck. Smith made several rushes in the second round, but Daly cleverly avoided him. The last round proved a surprise. Daly led a gentle left, just reaching Smith.

The men then came together, and flew around like a fly-wheel in efforts to land, Smith staggering and Daly going to the floor, neither landing. Smith staging to the floor, neither landing. Smith staging to in and dropped Daly with a right-hander on the jaw, the heel of the glove drawing blood from the mouth. Daly remained on his hands and knees about nine seconds, though two of the timekeepers pronounced him out. He was dazed, and, when Smith swung his right at him as he rose. Daly dropped without receiving a blow. He rose and staggered to the corner as the gong sounded, but Referred Joe Goddard had left the ring and the fight was given to Smith. The announcement caused much dissatisfaction to many spectators. Daly whirled. Smith made another rush, Lehman and Beck Matched. William Lehman and Ed Beck, accom panied by their backers, met at this office last evening and signed articles for a tool race. The two sprinters named are to run at the East End Gym Park for $250 a side on July 23. Lehman has to concede Beck three yards in 100. Both are well-known sprinters.

A New Castle Judge Says Foreigners Make Laws for Labor and

YOUNG AMERICA HAS NO CHANCE.

NEWSY NOTES FROM NEARBY TOWNS

Profession of the Law.

PROPERTY TELEGRAN TO THE DISPATCH, 1 NEW CASTLE, July 9.-In court this morning, the examining committee of the Lawrence County Bar Association asked to be excused from serving any longer, saving there were too many applications from law students to be admitted to the bar. D. B. Kurtz stated that he had no less than three applications in his pocket at present. This statement brought forth some caustic re-marks from Judge Hazen, who was on the bench at the time. Said he:

bench at the time. Said he:

We as a people are shutting our doors against young Americans learning any of the branches of skilled labor, and the reason of this is the very stringent laws which are passed and vigorously enforced by labor organizations. Go to any of the works where skilled labor is employed and see who occupy the skilled labor positions. They are Europeans. The doors are shut against our own young men, and about the only way an American boy can get an opportunity of learning a skilled labor trade is for him to have some foreigner adopt him. It is a deplorable state of affairs, but it is true. Go to our steel rod mais and you will find that foreigners are in the best positions.

I visited the Pittsburg Plate Glass Works plant some time ago, and found that every position requiring skilled labor was filled by a European. Understand me, the Europeans are filling those places, but I deplore the necessity which exists for binging them here. The bars are asset filling up in all the cities, simply because young men want to cities, simply because young men want to earn a living and the doors are shut against them by labor organizations and they are them by labor organizations and they are compelled to study law.

In Ohio some years ago, any man who could obtain the signatures of three Associate Judges could be atmitted to the bar, and as it was an easy thing to obtain these signatures the State was soon overrun with attorneys. The State was obliged to take a hand and put a stop to it, and now a man cannot be admitted to the bar unless he first passes an examination before the Supreme Court. In Lawrence county we have 40 attorneys, and in Butler county & and there is not enough business for one-third that number. The examining committee will not be interfered with at present, and it is hoped that they will be more stringent in the future.

A MODEL INSANE ASYLUM

Probably to Be Erected at Alliance by the Commonwealth of Ohio. COLUMBUS, O., July 9. - [Special.]-The con mittee appointed by Governor McKinley to spent yesterday visiting various points near Alliance. The Alliance people have four attance. The Alliance people have four sites, two of which are very desirable. The railroad advantages of Altiance present a strong argument in favor of that city. The institution when finished will be the model institution of its kind in America. The buildings will cost from $500,000 to $750,000, and will require the expenditure of about $150,000 annually to run the institution.

Too Warm for Political Railies. FRANKLIN, PA., July 9 .- [Special.]-The first attempt at a political rally in this county was made this evening by the Democracy. The meeting was widely advertised for ratification of the nomination of Cleveland firing of rockets, the Cornet Band paraded to attract a crowd to the Court House, but it was a failure. About 25 persons railied in the court room, and after the band had discoursed several tunes without increasing the size of the audience, the Chairman of the County Committee stated that the meeting would adjourn until later in the season. It is too warm weather for politics.
