made off Strvetts in three innings. Kelly has a style of pitching which is original and which may be termed "King Kel's" method. It looks as easy as rolling off a log, but our sluggers nearly twisted their backs out of joint in trying to fathom the mysteries of it and could do nothing but knock up little flies or send out infield grounders. The truth is it was too easy and our home heroes hadn't patience to wait long enough. It is safe to say, however, that Kelly's style as exhibited by himself will hardly be tolerated by the Boston club. There was also some unpleasantness in the game which resulted in McCarthy being fined $35 and retired to the bench. McCar-thy in all fairness deserved all that he got. He objected in a very saucy way to a deci-sion of Umpire Mitchell in the fourth inning. Mitchell fined him $10 for his in-sulting talk and then McCarthy used the most foulsome language in response.

Put Him Out of the Game.

"That will cost you $25 more," said the umpire.

McCarthy was finally ordered out of the game. At the end of the fifth inning he went out to his position, but was called in by the umpire. Kelly, who was captain, then arranged to play with only eight men, but the umpire would have none of it. He pulled out his watch to bring Kelly to time and as a result Kelly called Staley into the game, he going to right field. This unpleas-ant incident also had a very bad effect on the temper of audience.

Ehret pitched a fine game for the home players and the visitors could not touch him although they tried very hard to make hits. They would have been shut out with-hits. They would have been shut out with-out a run had some very bad infield play-ing not given them a tally. The truth is the champions were completely outplayed. The second inning was reached before the home players found the measure of the athletic Stivetts. At that stage of the argu-ment Beckley led off with a hot single over second base which Lowe couldn't bandle. Smith thumped out a rating two handle. Smith thumped out a rattling two bagger to right center field, sending Beckley to third. Charley Farrell followed on with another lively single to center, scoring the two runs. This little bit of lively hitting did Stivetts no good as he went all to pieces in the third inning. Donovan started off the third and made a single to left. Bierbauer followed with another to right and Shugart got a base on balls, filling the bases. Long muffed Beck-ler's fly and a run scored, but Bierbauer was thrown out.

Kelly Forced in a Run. Smith got his base on balls, filling the bases, and Farrell also went to first on balls, forcing in a run. Corkhill sent a single to right, scoring two runs. Smith was thrown out at the plate on Ehret's grounder. Duffy muffed Mack's fly and Farrell and Corkhill scored.

In the second half, after Lowe had struck out, Quinn made a single, went to second on a sacrifice by Stivetts, third on a single by McCarthy and secored on an error by Beckley. In the fourth inning Kelly started to pitch and Bierbauer fouled out. Shugart made a single and Beckley was hit by a pitched ball. Smith's sacrifice sent the runners to second and third, and Farrell got his base on balls. Corkhill's single to center scored Shugart and Beckley. Bierbauer started off in the eighth and got his base on balls. Shugart made a single and was forced out at second by Beckley. Smith's sacrifice scored Bierbauer. In the ninth inning, after Enret was out, Mack made a single and was forced out at second by Donovan. Bierbauer and Shugart each made a single, filling the bases, and Kelly hit Beckley with a pitched ball, forcing in a run, and that's all the scoring that was done. The score:
