Gladstone at Last Succeeds in Putting Lord Salisbury in a Minority.

ALL FUTURE GAINS CLEAR

Tories Claim Even Now the Liberals Can't Oust Their Rivals

UNLESS ALL OPPOSITION UNITES.

The Grand Old Man Wins His Own Parliamentary Seat To-Day, but

PROBABLY BY A VOTE MUCH REDUCED

LONDON, July 12.-Up to this evening the Conservatives have elected 210 members of the new House of Commons, the Liberals 179, the anti-Paruellites 35, the Parnellites 5 and the Unionists 31. The net Liberal gain is 37, while the party only wanted 34 in order to extinguish the Government majority.

The Times says it is not manifest that Mr. Gladstone will have an easy task in compelling the Government to resign. Lord Salisbury will be perfectly entited to await the issue of the attack. The Government is opposed, not to one party, but to two, if not three, which must ally to form a majorfity. It remains to be seen whether Mr. Gladstone is able to form such an alliance.

The Daily News'special from Edinburgh save: In view of Saturday's fatigues it was decided in council at Dalmeny Park that Mr. Gladstone should dispense with the carriage tour and go to Penicuick by train, but hearing of the profound disappointment of the villages he was expected to visit Mr. Gladstone determined this (Monday) morning to preface his speech by a 20-mile drive. Less bunting than usual was displayed along the road owing to changes of programme and the shorter route taken, but there was a repetition of the ovations witnessed last week, including the presentation of numerous bouquets and the running of crowds along with the car-

Mr. Gladstone Speaks in a Church,

On the arrival of the party in Penicuick, an old man of 85 who had walked five miles, was rewarded by being introduced to Mr. Gladstone. The party took ten in the manse adjoining the United Presbyterian church, where the speech was delivered. The edifice seats 700 people, but tickets had been issued for 900. It was one of the most intelligent audiences Mr. Gladstone has addressed in the present campaign.

The Heckling incident to-day, in the absence of the implacable brewer, lacked the humor and picturesqueness of the Cors-torphine episode. The audience listened impatiently to the long-winded questions, and rose to cheer Mr. Gladstone on his

Mr. Baltour addressed the Midlothian electors at West Calder yesterday in sup-port of Mr. Wauchop. He said under Mr. Gladstone's plan of retaining Irish representation at Westminster, there would always be a body willing to bring pressure for its own purposes. Though good for them, this would not be good for the country. It is a profound mistake to suppose home rule would remove the necessity of coercion. The offenses with which the coercion act had to deal were more likely to be committed under a Home Rule Parliament than under the Imperial Parliament. By granting home rule they would add to the difficul-

Appealing to Fcottish National Pride

The people of Ulster are of the same race as the Scotch themselves, and if the story of Scotland in the last three centuries means anything, it means that they are a race that would not submit under any circumstances to tyranny in the government of Ireland.

The election in which the greatest interest is felt is progressing in Scotland to-day. This is in the Midlothian district. Party feeling in the district is raised to fever heat, and the polling was never before known to be so heavy. In 1885 Mr. Gladstone had a majority of 4,631 in this district, and in 1886 be was returned without opposition. This year, however, the Liberal Unionists decided to put a candidate in the field, and Colonel Wauchope was nominated to oppose the Liberal leader. He has made an active canvass of the district, as has also Mr. Glad-stone, and the Colonel's work is evidently bearing fruit. So far as can be judged fro polling at this stage of the election there promises to be a large reduction in Mr. Gladstone's former majority.

The Unionists are working determinedly with the sole object of reducing the major-ity of Mr. Gladstone, as not even the most sanguine of them have any hope of defeat-ing him. Vehicles of all descriptions are conveying voters to the polling places.

The Result Coknown Until To-Day.

The churchmen are voting for Colonel Wauchope. The Irish vote, which Mr. Gladstone lost in 1885, is now solidly Liberal. The 14 polling places in the district are widely scattered. The exact result of the contest will not be known until tomorrow, as the couning of the votes does not begin until 10 o'clock to-morrow morn-The ballots are all counted in Edin-

LONDON, July 12.-Since Lord Salisbury's return from Windsor, the Carlton Club has appeared to have received information that the Government will remain in office till it is defeated on a party division. DEATH OF A WAIF.

Found Suffering With Typhold Fever in a Stable-Taken in Charge by the Homeopathic Hospital, He Dies Without Giving a Bint of His Past History.

There died yesterday morning at the Homeopathic Hospital an 18-year-old boy named William Scott, whose death was particularly sad from the fact that little is known of him. On Wednesday of last week Mrs. John Gamble, whose husband keeps a saloon on the corner of South Twelfth and Bingham streets, was notified by one of her children that a boy was lying in the hay loft of their stable who required immediate attention or he would die. This was the first intimation that Mrs. Gamble had of anyone being in the stable, and she hastened to the boy's aid.

Mrs. Gamble found the boy, who was almost burning up with fever. Mrs. Gamble applied all the measures she had at her command, and after some trouble succeeded, with the aid of Examiner Hoffman, of th Department of Charities, in getting the boy quarters in the Homeopathic Hospital, where he lingered until yesterday morning when he died from typhoid fever. The only thing known of the boy is that

GLASS WORKERS MEET

In Sixth Annual Convention to Do Important Business.

EVERY FACTORY REPRESENTED.

Further Progress Made in Fixing Prices of Labor in the Conference.

FOUR MORE SIGNATURES TO THE SCALE

Delegates to the Window Glassworkers' Association of America formally opened their sixth annual convention yesterday morning in the new Turner Hall, on Thirteenth street, Southside. The meeting was called to order at 10 o'clock. President John Eberhardt occupied the chair, and in brief, ringing address welcomed the 166 representatives present. The delegates some from 18 States in the Union, and the entation at the convention is based on one delegate for every ten pots.

The first business upon the programme was roll-call and all other matters transacted at the morning session was simply of an informal nature. President Eberhardt read the financial report showing the excellent standing of the organization. It was an exhaustive paper consuming one hour of the brief session. Just before the noon adjournment Committees on Organization and Credentials were appointed by the Chair. At 2 o'clock the delegates re-assembled in the hall. The afternoon session was devoted to appointing various committees and preparing resolutions. The regular hours for the sessions hereafter will be from 9 until 12 in the morning and from 2 until 5 in the afternoon.

The Programme for the Convention. As was prearranged, President Eberhardt will preside during the entire session, and

William Springer will act as Secretary. The delegates appointed by the Chair to act as Vice Presidents were Thomas E. Unka, of Pittsburg; Joseph Riggins, of Bridgeton, N. J.; H. Landgraft, of Cleveland, and W. H. Campbell, of Fostoria, O. Hugh Swearer, of Pittsburg, and Frank Scott, of Jeannette, were appointed assistants to the Secretary. Outside of the delegates appointed to directly assist the national officers there were several other committees appointed which should not be

The convention will last eight or ten days."

Every Manufactory Represented. When pressed further for some statement regarding the delegates and the present convention, President Eberhardt said: "There is one thing I would like to say and that is this: Never in the history of the Glass Workers" Association have we had a is an exceedingly large number of repre-sentatives here, and as they have all been instructed by their lodges our work will be greatly facilitated. Another thing, every fac-tory in America engaged in the manufacure

A Suag in the Proceedings to Get the Witherow Steel Plant in Shape, The meeting of the James P. Witherov creditors of Pittsburg at New Castle yesterday for the purpose of perfecting the arrangements for the organization of the stock company to operate the steel plant, developed an obstacle that was altogether unexpected. The report of the secretary showed that only $9,200 of the stock re-mained unsubscribed, and during the five months that Mr. Alexander Thomas has been serving as assignee he had collected $5,500.

According to a recent decision of the court the stock company is empowered to proceed to perfect the organization and operate the plant, and they were about to carry out this plan when Mr. Thomas stated that his salary as assignee would be $25,000, and that upon payment of this sum he would step out and turn the plant over to the reorganized company.

The meeting was at once adjourned, the creditors taking the view that Mr. Thomas demanded such an enormous salary in the effort to block the proceedings of the J. P. Witherow Stock Company.

FIXING LABOR'S PRICE.

Pittsburg Manufacturers Have a Confer ence With the Wage Committee Several Important Departments in the Amalgamated Association's New Scale of Prices Discussed. The conference between the Pittsburg manufacturers and the Wage Committee the Amalgamated Association was resumed yesterday afternoon. The session lasted three hours, but nothing of a positive nature was accomplished. At 6:30 o'clock the delegates adjourned to meet again this afternoon. During the conference on Monday the entire time was devoted to the discussion of the basis of the scale, but no con-clusion was reached and the point remains practically unsettled.

It was thought very probable that the bash would again be considered at yester-day's meeting, but after the committeemen had been called to order it was arranged that the afternoon would be devoted to the discussion of the scale proper. The first point taken up was the muck or puddle mill prices. After debating a short time upon this particular branch of the new scale, the committee took up scrapping and busheling, knobbling and heating slabs and shingling. This constituted the day's shingling. This constituted the day's work. To-day the conference will first act upon the bar mills, and if they have time the guide, ten-inch, hoop and cotton tie mills will be taken up.
One of the members of the Wage Committee, after the meeting, said: "The conference will, from now on, devote the whole time to the consideration of the scale proper. The memoranda of argument has been virtually adopted. One foot note is yet to be adjusted. This will not be touched upon for a couple of days, but there will be no trouble about settling it when it is ulti-mately taken up. The price for boiling is also hanging in the balance. From present indications, however, the manufacturers will make a concession in this particular case. It is almost certain that an entire settlement of the new scale will be effected

NO FURTHER DEMONSTRATION.

The Mayor of Corning, N. Y., Issues

Strange and Unwelcome Effet. Delegates to the sixteenth annual conver tion of the American Flint Glassworkers. which began in Cornin, N. Y., Monday, are much exercised over an edict issued by the Mayor of that town. At the close of the opening session the 350 delegates, together with 2,000 local glass blowers, took part in a parade. Memorial services were also held in St. Mary's Cemetery in honor of the 14 glass workers who were killed in a railroad wreck at Revenna, O., over a year ago.
The Mayor has notified the glass men that he will not permit any further demon-stration of a public nature. This is owing to the divided feeling which exists on ac-count of a lockout in Corning a couple of years ago. The Mayor's sympathies are said to be with the employers and it is said he took this measure to show his exact position in the matter. The union men do not take kindly to the edict and many say

John Morrisy, gripman on car 113, of the Butler street branch, while crossing Sixth street on Liberty avenue about 10 o'clock yesterday morning broke through the ranks of the Orangemen. They became angered at this and a number ran after the car. When it stopped on the other side of the street they jumped aboard, and tried to get into the gripman's cab. Failing in this, one ran around in front, and jumping up on the guard, thrust his sword into the dow. The blade penetrated Morrisy's shoulder, passing upward, coming out as the neck and narrowly missing the jugular The man hastily withdrew his sword and started to run, but Conductor Smith jumped off the car and caught him, and called on the policeman at the corner to arrest him. This the officer refused to do, evidently fearing the crowd, who made threatening demonstrations, and the man, whose name could not be learned, escaped. Morrisy took his car through and then left and went to Dr. Clark's office and had the wound dressed. It was aggravated by not being attended to at once, and may result seriously. Morrisy resides on Matilda street.

James Hanz, gripman on car 202 of the Penn avenue line, was cut at the same place, under the same circumstances shortly after. Hapz was not badly hurt however. The sword severed the lower button from his vest, cut through his pants, and inflicted a flesh wound in the leg below the knee. He was not obliged to quit work. As in the other instance, it was stated by the car conductor, the policeman refused to arrest the one who did the cutting.

They Parade the Streets and Picnic Near the Allegheny's Banks.

THE ORATORS REFER TO HOMESTEAD

Under a blazing sun yesterday morning Allegheny county's Orangemen traversed Pittsburg's streets in honor of the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

This annual occasion so well loved by these sons of Erin was commemorated by a parade, followed by a picnic at Hulton station on the Allegheny Valley Railroad. From every corner of the county, save from Homestead, the gallant Orangemen came. Up there the organization has a lodge of 72

The sympathies of those who had to stay at home were with the commemorators of the Battle of the Boyne. Likewise were the feelings of those that gathered on Hulton's green sward yesterday toward the workmen of Homestead. Indeed the ma-jority of the feeling was expressed toward the men up the Monongahela.

In Sympathy With the Homestead Men.

In the groups of friends, which completely dotted the pretty pionic grounds, the sole topic of couversation was of the battle which is now being fought between capital and labor. William, Prince of Orange's victory was a minor event in the minds of the celebrators yesterday, and even when the speakers arose, they, too, had but one topic—the welfare of the Homestead workmen.

James Johnson, of Pittsburg, William Graham, of Allegheny, and R. A. Patterson, of Pittsburg, were the speakers of the day. Their one hope was that the workmen of the Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, would win their cause. Each speaker commented in a glowing manner In Sympathy With the Homestead Men.

speaker commented in a glowing manner on the victories so far won at Homestead.
One gentleman said that if their brothers needed the assistance of the Orangemen, the organization stood ready to lend aid in whatever lawful way it would be called for. He hoped, however, that matters would not take such a serious turn. Comment was then made on the Governor's action in sending troops. The Pinkerton men were given a very liberal turning down.

How the Day Was Spent,

The speeches were the only entertainments arranged for, and after they were over the 2,900 people present enjoyed themselves in many different ways. The best of order prevailed during the day. Lovers by the hundred wandered up and down along the banks of the Allegheny river, or sought secluded woodland spots to tell each other love's story. Others hired skiffs and spent the afternoon rowing over the waters of the afternoon rowing over the waters of Ohio's feeder. The older members of the party were content to sit or walk under the party were content to sit or walk under the protecting shade of the forest trees, meeting old friends and making new ones. Whatever their conversation was in the beginning, before it closed the topic had been drifted to the situation at Homestead.

Sunset brought to a close their pleasan yet to a certain extent sad celebration of so memorable event as the battle of the Boyna.
The four sections of the Allegheny Valley train were soon boarded, and shortly after 8 o'clock the picnickers were landed at Union station The Splendors of the Parade.

No civic parade in Pittsburg was watched with more interest or presented a more beautiful sight than did that of the Orangemen as they paraded yesterday morning. There was but one comment on the parade yesterday, and that was that it was the best lisplay the Orangemen had ever made. The uniforms never shone so brilliantly as yesterday. A pretty feature of the parade was made by the women. They turned out in dazaling orange costumes, waving the flag of America in their hands. The greatest loyalty was shown to the United States; everywhere the colors of America were floating, and they were the most prominent in the parade.

Allegheny Speak-Eastes in Danger. Christ Morhoof, of 155 River avenue, Allegheny, was arrested yesterday aftersoon by Officer Johnson and taken before Mayor Kennedy on a charge of selling intoxicating liquors on Sunday and without license. He was held in $500 ball to appear on Friday morning. Information against Morhoof was made by Superintendent of Police Muth, who says he will give atten-tion to more of the speak-easies of Allegheny in the near future

THE PRODUCTION GOES UP.

The Woodland Oil Company Gets a Good Well Southwest of McDonald-The Greenlee & Forst McLean Well Dry in the Gordon-Butler County Wells.

There was quite a surprise sprung where least expected, in the southwest yesterday, when the Woodland Oil Company drilled its No. 2 Crawford into the fifth sand, and it started off at the rate of 50 barrels at hour. Subsequently it declined to 35 barrels an hour, but it is generally believed that it can be made to increase its production when drilled deeper. The most that had been looked for at this well, in addition to the oil looked for at this well, in addition to the oil from the fourth formation, was a slight increase from the fifth. It is altogether probable that this unexpected find will stimulate operations in that quarter of the field. The additional production of this well and added to it the increase of several others already in the list swelled the total production of the field to 21,000 barrels.

Greenlee & Forst drilled their No. 1 on the McLean lot at Noblestown through the Gordon yesterday, but found no oil. They will drill it to the fifth.

In the northeast end of the McCurdy field don yesterday, but found no oil. They will drill it to the fifth.

In the northeast end of the McCurdy field and south of Fleming Park the Philadelphia Gas Company drilled its No. 2, on the Speciarm, into the sand and will have a producer good for 60 or 75 barrels a day.

The showing at this well further confirms the belief that a fifth sand pool of some magnitude will be opened up in that quarter. This company and the Forest Oil Company are drilling several more wells in that locality that will be important tests.

The Forest Oil Company's No. I Wallace, an important test well to the east of the Meise pool, will get the Gordon to-day or to-morrow. This wells located farthest to the east in the Meise pool, and will, in a measure, define the width of the pool.

Spang & Chalfant have started to spud at their No. 1, on the Bradford farm, southeast of the Wildwood field.

The well is drilled with a view to finding gas.

Butler County Operations T. W. Phillips was agreeably surprised tothe Gottleib Wolf form Herman district where only a 20 barrel well at best was expected. The sand was tapped at 5 o'clock this morning, the bit only penetrating about this morning, the bit only penetrating about six inches, when the well began flowing strongly, the oil going on the ground until 9 A. M. A gauge of the output from 12 o'clpck until 2 F. M. showed 36 inches. The well is nearly surrounded by smail wells and has no particular importance outside its surprising largeness. It is not likely it will hold up at these figures any length of time, although it has shown no signs of weakening this evening. The rest of the Butler fields are comparatively quiet.

It is a hopeless case.

The Forest Oil Company's No. 2 Whitmire has a string of tools stuck with little or no prospects of getting them out.

Johnson & Burk are through the sand on No. 1 Marshall and will shoot to-day. The No. I Marshall and will shoot to-day. The sand is not very good.

Boyd, Marshall & Co.'s No. I Doutbett farm is making 350 barrels per day.

The Brownsdale field wells continue to produce on the aggregate 400 barrels per day with no late additions.

The Gauges. The gauges of the larger wells yesterday were as follows: Meise No. 1, Lynch & Co., 20; Morgan No. 2, Oakdale Oil Company, 25; Robs No. 3, Florence Oll Company, 25; Kirk Nos. 1 and 2, 40; McMurray No. 146, People's Gas Company, 20; Crawford No. 2, Wood-land Oll Co. 35; The estimated produc-tion was 21,000; stock in the field, 55,000.

If you have children you will be interested in the experience of Mr. John Cook, of Pilot, Vermilion county, Ill. He says: "Two years ago two of my family, a young man and a girl, had very severe and dangerous attacks of bloody flux. The doctor here was unable, after a week's time, to check or relieve either case. I threw the doctor overboard and began using Chamberlain's Colle, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. Improvement was seen very soon and my chil-dren arose in a few days from what I feared would be their death-bed. It is a grand, good medicine."

OPIUM SMUGLERS CAPTURED. One of the Most Important Seizures Ever

Made by Customs Officers, WASHINGTON, July 12.—The Treasury Department was to-day informed by Special Agent Mulkey, at Astoria, Oregon, of the seizure of the steamship Wilmington, ply-ing between Victoria, B. C., and Portland, Oregon, for smuggling, and the capture of 902 cans of opium valued at $5,000. The captain and crew of the vessel were arrested and will be tried for smuggling. This is one of the most important seizures ever made by customs officers.

A LADY ADVISES LADIES.

A Few Secrets From Her Own Experience Which Can Be Profitably Adopted by Others.

I know a charming lady who knows more beautiful and attractive women than any other la dy in this city. In conversation recently she said: "I often feel very sorry when I see so many beautiful women so delicate, and suffering so much, and I have often asked myself what the reason is? I think ladies do not exercise the proper care. They do not eat nourishing food, they are careless of their feet, their neeks, their chests. In this way they open the door for diseases and those thousands of troubles which so often afflict womankind, but worse than all they allow their life and strength to run down to a low obb. How many women we see constantly in this condition. They need help they need something to depend upon, something that will assist them, some friend in need. I know this, largely, from my own experience, for I was once in the same condition myself. I thought the matter over carefully, and decided what I would do. I knew I needed a gentle, constant stimulant, something that would assist my vital forces, keep my blood throbbing and act as a tonic. I decided to try Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and its effect has been simply wonderful. I do not know what pains, sickness or weakness are and I am satisfied ladies generally could be in the same happy condition by a proper use of the same means."

This lady's remarks are entitled to the greatest consideration, for they are an indication of what hundreds of ladies have found to be a necessity. It should be borne in mind, however, that it is only pure whiskey which should ever be used, and the recommendations of physicians. Do not allow any druggist or grocer to induce you to take any other. I know a charming lady who knows more ceautiful and attractive women than any
