Herman Hannach Is Tired Doing Business

With Henry Oppenbeimer.

A bill in equity was filed yesterday by Herman Hannach against Henry Oppenheimer. He alleges that in August, 1891, they formed a partnership as Oppenheimer & Hannach in the gents' furnishing goods department, to continue until April 1, 1894. The plaintiff was to manage the business and the detendant keep the books. The defendant, however, it is charged, has failed to properly do his work. He has not kept cor-rect accounts and failed to properly credit Hannach with his interest in the business. He has tried to "squeeze" the plaintiff out of the business, it is alleged, and threatened to do violence to the plaintiff unless he got out of the place. He therefore wants a dissolution of the partnership, an accounting of the proceeds and the appoint-ment of a receiver to take charge of the business.

But before he plays Mr. Maize there are sev-eral in Pittsburg desirons of playing the New Yorker: and if he will inform this depart-ment where he can be mst, a match can be arranged on any reasonable conditions and play can be commenced at once. The players who congregate at Home Ho-tel headquarters will be sorry to learn of the death of Alexander Wallace, at the advanced age of 77 years. Mr. Wallace took a great interest in the silent game, though he sel-dom played, but he would sit whole evenings and watch the players. He was a man well versed on the growth and history of Pitts-burg for over three-quarters of a century. He knew all the old landmarks, and often related to the players interesting anecdotes. versed on the growth and history of Pitta-burg for over three-quarters of a century. He knew all the old handmarks, and often related to the players interesting anecdotes. In the history of these old relick, besides be-ing conversant with Pittsburg from the size of a village, he was well read on all subjects. In polities he was a strong Prohibitionist, and was never afraid to express his convic-tions. He was never happier than in the midst of young men debating some subject, which he always conducted with earnestness, that all felt was the honest belief of the man, which made him respected by all the patrons of the hotel. He had a great hatred for the cigarette, and never failed to warn those addicted to smoking them. He con-demned their use as strongly as he did the use of liquor, and he followed up in practice all the doctrines he taugit. Mr. A. T. Karr, of Pittsburg, went on a hol-iday visit to Guernsey county. O. and mad a rood time with the farmers playing check-ers. He was very successful with nearly all he met, and his old friend, whose guest he was, drove him all over the county to get an opponent to defeat him. At hast they reached the village blacksmith, who, to ac-commodate the Pittsburger, leaves his work and brings out the checker board. And seated on two nall kegs the battle com-menced, which proved to be a Witerioo for the city chap. While the games were in progress the usual country village crowd gathered into the smithy and the only dis-turbing element was an old mule who was trying hard to get a fly to make a move from his ear, and to accomplish the econnety to make a move from his ear, and to accound be the Pittsburg man had found more than his match at the game of check-ers, when the connets closed four games had been played, and the country black-smith had won them all, to the satisfaction of all the hayseds, who greeted the per-formance with a round of applause. The above came up in a game, and the student will readily see that black has the advantage, but is the advantage enough to force the win-to bring out the play? Africa comes the promise that the French Province of Algiers will send to the World's Fair a $150,000 Algerian village. It Played at 96 Seventh avenue between ex-Champion Reed and Joseph Maize, State is something more than a promise, for Dood Sifico, a rich merchant of that country, secured yesterday the privilege of crecting such a village. M. Sitico's Alzerian village will be a mar-vei in its way of oriental construction and highly interesting exhibits. The building will have a Moorish dome, towers, and orna-mental minarets. Inside will be the natives, embracing Kabyles, Arabians and necroes. They will sell jeweiry, embroidery, brie-a-brac, etc., and serve guests in a cafe concert hall expable of seating 1,000 persons. Then, in addition to this hall, there will be a Moorish cafe, a Kabyle house with Kabyle laborers, an Arab tent village with Araba, some desert tents, and an illustration of what an Arabian desert camp really is. There will be 50 people and dancing girls, who will give exhibitions in the concert hall. They will perform to the music of an Algerian band.

MILLIONS FOR VETERANS. Pension Agent Bengough's Annual Report

DISPATCH, FRIDAY, JULY 15, 1892

-Big Sums Paid Out for Back Pay-Drawing Pensions for Service in the War of 1812.

Pension Agent H. H. Bengough vesterday finished his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, and forwarded it to Commissioner Raum. There were, at that date, 41,633 pensioners on the rolls. At the rate per month which they were then receiving it would require $5,548,909 to pay them during the current year, but Agent

Bengough estimates that this amount is $2,500,000 above what will be required for the year ending June 30, 1893. During the year 11,245 original pensions were granted through the Pittsburg office, and their first payments amounted to $1,332,450 03. Many of these new cases were of long standing, and there were large payments for back time. There were 4,002 pensions increased, the net increase in those cases amounting to $223,334 97.

The classes to which the various pensioners belong are as follows: Soldiers of the civil war, 33,455; widows of soldiers of the civil war, 5,073; withows 0 solutions of the civil war, 5,073; mothers, 1,966; fathers, 546; minor-children drawing through guardians, 103; soldiers of the second war with Eng-land, 4; widows of such soldiers, 186; sol-diers of the Mexican war, 191; widows of such soldiers, 106, and there is one pen-sioner who is a sister of a soldier of the Revolution. With the widows of soldiers there are 2,564 children under the age of 16, who draw $2 a month. During the year 4,195 names were stricken from the roll, mostly as the result of death. The annual value of their pensions is $395,217. Many of them were men totally or seriously dis-abled, and they received a high rate of pay. The actual amount paid out at the Pitts-bur: office during the year was $5,992,-283 35. Two pensioners receive $100 per month, granted by special acts of Congress. There are 120 pensioners who are on the total disability list and receive $72 per month. month. The residences of the pensioners are as follows: Pennsylvania, 39,599; Ohio, 382; New York, 381; West Virginia, 146; Kan-sas, 132; Minnesota, 129; Canada, 3; Ireland, 2; Alaska, 2; Connecticut, New Hamp-shire and Utah, 1 each.

VERILY, THE HARVEST TIME FOR BARGAIN SEEKERS IS AT HAND!

The Place to Find Both Bargains and Seeker Is at the House of Boggs & Buhl, Allegheny.

The fact of this popular firm having de cided to build an annex to their already large establishment indicates not only increased growth, but necessitates the dis position of thousands of dollars' worth of nerchandise in order to give the workmen fair chance in tearing down and rebuilding. Hence, not only short lengths of finest im-ported and American dress goods and sliks, but any number of yards desired, are being cut from the whole piece at prices which controlly supers burgers. actually amaze buyers. Nevertheless, they take advantage of the

Nevertheless, they take advantage of the sacrifice, go away, tell triends and neighbors, who in turn come and thus a constant stream of customers coming and going is the result. Hundreds of remnants and dress lengths in greendines, challes, Indias and novelty silks are being picked up at a nominal sum by wary bayers and 'twill never be suspected that the lovely costumes and house gowns which will be created from them ever had their source from the bar-gain counter, since the materials are identi-cal with those which less than a month ago cost double and treble the present prices. Unstairs Seems Jant as Active

Upstairs Seems Just as Active Upstairs Seems Just as Active In giving much for little as the first floor departments, and to see ladies walking off with elegant broadcloth capes and jackets, $18 and $20 ones at $5 and $10, appears to be the rule. A neep out of a side window shows the workmen rupidly advancing with brick and mortar to the height of second floor, and the reason of our great sacrifice in these departments is apparent. B. & B. believe in distributing seasonable goods at the season-able time-even at financial loss-rather than pack away when the roof and walls of this part of the building are torn away. The distribution is being curried on in a most effective way, as crowds of customers attest.
