

GALLAGHER MUST GO.

The House Asks That a Demand for the Doctor's Liberty Be Made

BY THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE.

The Democrats Accused of Working the Matter Politically.

LUKE DILLON A HAPPY MAN AT LAST

(FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

WASHINGTON, July 14.—"This is a great day for Ireland," said an enthusiastic spectator in the House gallery to-day, immediately after the passage of Representative McAleer's resolution calling on the State Department for information relative to Dr. Thomas Gallagher, the Brooklyn physician who is now serving a term of life imprisonment in a British prison for alleged complicity in the Phoenix Park assassinations. Nine years ago this was a famous case. Dr. Gallagher, a naturalized citizen of the United States while on a visit to England, was arrested and summarily tried and convicted. He had been in England only nine days when he was seized. The agitation of this matter in this country has continued from that day to this. Minister J. Russell Lowell, it is said, took no interest in the case; neglected to furnish Dr. Gallagher with counsel, and after his departure from London it was found that he had removed from the office of the American Legation all papers concerning the matter.

Mr. Luke Dillon, of Philadelphia, representing the Philadelphia societies who have petitioned Congress for this inquiry, said to-day the interest in Gallagher's case is not confined to Philadelphia. "Successful after several attempts. Irish benevolent societies throughout the country have passed resolutions and prepared petitions. Efforts to move Congress have been made before. Four times have petitions and resolutions been presented, but they were all rejected in the House Committee on Foreign Affairs."

Mr. Dillon expresses (in behalf of the members of the societies he represents) the liveliest gratitude to Mr. McAleer, who succeeded in securing a unanimous report from the Foreign Affairs Committee and the resolution's passage by the House without a dissenting voice to-day. Mr. Dillon called at the State Department this afternoon. He was assured no effort would be spared to secure Dr. Gallagher's release. The investigation will be made through Minister Lincoln. All American lawyers say Gallagher has an extremely good case. He was charged with and convicted of treason. As he is a citizen of this country his conviction on such ground was clearly illegal. If it is officially found he was convicted irregularly the State Department will demand his immediate release.

England's attitude in this matter is anxiously awaited. She guards her political offenders jealously. Since Dr. Gallagher's incarceration his mother has died. His sister is still living.

Considered a Campaign Trick. The passage of the McAleer resolution is regarded as a clever political trick on the part of the Democrats. It is a direct bid for the Irish vote in the coming Presidential campaign. The agitation among Irish societies over this matter has been so thorough that the action of the Democratic House cannot fail to cause much comment and rejoicing among the members. The failure that attended the frequent attempts to secure its favorable report before will only emphasize the present success. It is understood that the various Irish Catholic societies of the United States will pass resolutions thanking Mr. McAleer and the Democratic House for taking "this tardy, but just action." The campaign possibilities of the transaction are almost illimitable.

Mr. Luke Dillon, who has taken such a lively interest in the Gallagher grievance, is the gentleman upon whose head the British Government at one time set a price of £10,000. He is a clerk in Philadelphia now. About the time the English climate grew too warm for the ardent Clann-Gael he emigrated to this country. Mr. Dillon does not look toward his native land, but the British Government evidently believed him. He is mild, pleasant and bland.

Mr. Peter Hughes, that popular upper-case journalist was guiding Mr. Dillon about the Capitol to-day.

LIQUOR AT THE FAIR.

The Senate Reverses the Action Taken by the Committee of the Whole—A Contract Ahead of the Prohibitionists—Sunday Closing Goes.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The Senate devoted most of to-day's session to the Sunday closing appropriation bill, and passed it before adjournment. The vote of Wednesday in committee of the whole on Mr. Peffer's amendment to prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within the grounds of the Columbian Exposition at Chicago was reversed in the Senate to-day, the vote upon its adoption being yeas 21, nays 23. Mr. Vest's substitute for Mr. Quay's Sunday closing amendment was laid on the table—24 to 17. If the present session had a further prospective term before it of two months, the new matter introduced in the Senate to-day in the shape of bills and resolutions would furnish legislation material to occupy the time fully.

Senator Higgins introduced a bill "authorizing retaliation for unjust discrimination by the Dominion of Canada against the United States." Referred to the Finance Committee. It provides: First—For a duty of 2 cents a pound on fresh fish imported from Canada or in Canadian vessels or in Canadian canoes at the present duties on preserved fish, a duty three times the present duty. Second—A tonnage tax of 50 cents per ton on Canadian vessels passing through the Saint Ste. Marie Canal.

Third—An entrance and clearing fee of 50 cents upon Canadian vessels every time they enter an American port on the lakes. Fourth—The suspension of the long and short haul clause of the inter-State commerce law, so long as it affects competitive traffic between the United States and Canadian railroads.

Fifth—The imposition of the full duties on goods transhipped from one United States point to another over the Canadian Pacific or Canadian territory and crossing the one hundred and fifteen miles of the St. Lawrence.

Sixth—The imposition of a duty of 8 cents a pound on coffee and 12 cents a pound on tea coming from Canada and twice the present duties on foreign merchandise other than the products of Canada imported into the United States through Canada.

Other Bills in the Same Hopper. Mr. Sherman introduced a bill to repeal certain portions of the silver act of 1890—especially the provisions for the monthly purchase of 4,500,000 ounces of silver bullion and for the issue of Treasury notes in payment thereof.

That bill went also to the Finance Committee. So did another bill introduced by Mr. Peffer, at the request of the National Industrial Association, and which provides in so many words that the coinage of gold in the mints of the United States is hereafter prohibited.

Mr. Stewart also had a bill referred to the same committee, reducing by 25 per cent the salaries of all Government employees over $500.

In addition to these four measures, resolutions were offered opening up unlimited fields of discussion. One of these was reported from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, and proposes the appointment of a select committee of seven Senators on the Homestead troubles and on the organization and employment of the Pinkerton force. Another was offered by Mr. Morgan, instructing the Finance Committee to report a bill that will make legal tender money absolutely legal tender irrespective of any contrary condition in contracts. These resolutions were laid on the table, to be called up hereafter for discussion and action.

All Laid on the Same Net. There were already in the same condition the resolution heretofore offered by Mr. Vanocler for a bill to establish a tribunal for labor arbitration, and by Mr. Hale for inquiry as to the relative merits of protection and a tariff for revenue only. The conference report on the diplomatic bill was agreed to, and so was one on the naval bill, but in the latter case the report was not a finality.

Mr. Jones, of Nevada, from the Committee on Contingent Expenses, reported a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of seven Senators whose duty it shall be to investigate and report the facts in relation to the employment of armed men known as Pinkerton men or Pinkerton detectives in connection with the recent differences between workmen and employers, involving bloodshed and loss of life at Homestead, Pa. The investigation is to include the facts in relation to the existence and employment generally of so-called Pinkerton men in the United States. It is to extend to and embrace the reasons for the creation of the Pinkerton organization, its character and uses; also, as to where, how and by whom its men are employed and paid for any services rendered; under what authority of law (if any) they have been so employed and paid.

Work Enough for One Committee. The committee is also to inquire into the merits of the original controversy concerning wages and the terms of the contract between employers and employed out of which the armed conflict arose which resulted in bloodshed, and to what extent that conflict was participated in by persons not native or naturalized citizens of the United States. Also, whether any private corporation, company or organization, in the State of Pennsylvania or other States, has employed an armed force against any of the people of such State or of the United States in violation of the Constitution of the United States; and if so, whether or not armed bodies of men from other States were, for that purpose, taken into such State without the consent of the constituted authorities thereof.

The committee is to consider and report, by bill or otherwise, what legislation, if any, is necessary to prevent the further illegal use or employment of such Pinkerton men or other similar bodies of armed men for private purposes. Laid aside till tomorrow.

The Senate resumed consideration of the sundry civil bill. Mr. Quay, referring again to the provision as to the Chicago Exposition, offered an amendment (in lieu of the Sunday closing amendment adopted yesterday) declaring that all the appropriations made for the Exposition are made on the condition that it shall not be open on Sundays; and if the appropriations are accepted on that condition, then it is made the duty of the World's Fair Commission to make rules to carry it out. After explanation, the amendment was agreed to.

Scaling Down One of the Items. An amendment offered by Mr. Carey, scaling down the items for the Geological Survey to make the aggregate $26,000, instead of $62,000 was agreed to—Yeas, 26; nays, 23.

Mr. Cullom asked a separate vote on the amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the World's Fair grounds.

Mr. Cullom—I thought that both Senators from Illinois voted yesterday for that amendment? Mr. Cullom—We did; and now we want a separate vote. That is all.

The vote was then taken, and the amendment prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors within the World's Fair grounds was rejected—yeas, 21; nays, 23. The following is the vote in detail: Yeas—Allen, Allison, Carey, Chandler, Colquitt, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hansbrough, Hawley, Hisecock, Kyle, Mitchell, Padlock, Peffer, Perkins, Platt, Sanders, Stockbridge, Warren and Wolcott—21. Nays—Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Blodgett, Cockrell, Coke, Cullom, Dabois, Faulkner, Gilson, of Maryland; Gorham, Gray, Harris, Hutton, Jones, of Arkansas; Keim, Manderson, Palmer, Power, Quay, Ransom, Sawyer, Squire, Stewart, Vest, Vilas, Walcott, Washburn and White—23.

Mr. Vest moved as a substitute for Mr. Quay's Sunday closing amendment the one heretofore offered by him, closing the mechanical part of the Exposition on Sundays, and having a hall erected for religious services.

Mr. Quay moved to lay the substitute on the table, and that motion was agreed to—yeas 34, nays 17. Mr. Cullom did not vote, and Mr. Palmer voted no.

The bill was then passed, and the fortification bill was taken up and made the unfinished business. Adjourned until Monday.

KAUFMANN'S GREAT SPECIAL SUIT DRIVE.

$8 ONLY

For Choice From 750 Men's Regular $12, $13, $14, $15 and $16 Suits.

There'll be the hottest kind of a scramble for these suits, and if you're wise, you'll take no chances but come as early as possible. It's an offer that comes but once in a decade. The suits are made of fine Scotch chevots, in fancy mixtures, solid colors and plain black, silk mixed and plain cassimeres and serges, and are cut in sack and cutaway frock styles. Men who would heretofore have sneered at $8 suits will wear these with pride and satisfaction—and (this is the principal thing) a big saving of money. The reason why we sell these 750 suits so absurdly cheap is because they are broken sizes and odds and ends. But for this fact they would be sold at regular prices.
