Scores of Wheelmen Leave for the National Meet at Washington.

TENNIS FOR FIVE DAYS

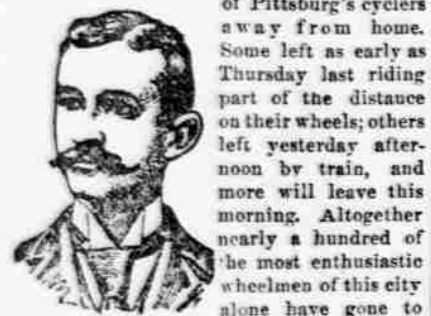

Affords Great Amusement for the Local Enthusiasts.

SEVERAL SURPRISING RESULTS

In the Singles, in Which the Championship Cup Was at Stake.

NOTES GATHERED IN MAST FIELDS

The national meet of wheelmen at Washington has taken quite a large percentage of Pittsburgh's cyclists away from home.

Chairman Raymond, join the immense throng of wheelmen who will fraternize for three or four days, commencing to-morrow morning, at the Nation's Capital.

There are in Washington nearly 10,000 cyclists alone, and it is estimated that by sundown to-morrow 30,000 wheelmen with their owners will be moving silently over the magnificent paved streets, the broad and slightly elevated and the boulevards that are the perfection of thoroughfares for cycling.

These noted riders in the United States will be here, and will be made up as follows: Hichols, pitcher; Dickinson, first; Cook, third; Soutle, shortstop; Cobb, catcher; Upton, catcher; Corbett, right field; Howe, pitcher, all of the Harvard Varsity team—Stearns (captain of Amherst team), second; O'Conner

The large attendance at the tournament of the Pittsburgh Tennis Club during the past week shows that the game has not lost its hold in these precincts. Except on Wednesday, when it rained, the grounds were taxed to their utmost to accommodate those who were anxious to see the contests between the local champions.

The Three A's membership is fast increasing. Since the last report the following have been elected to all the privileges of the association: Henry Sproul, Frank R. McClure, William H. White, Dr. G. A. Mueller, Charles E. Pope, W. N. Frew, Dr. C. C. Lange, Lea Higbee, H. J. King, Louis Marchand, Jr., Stephen G. Porter, Charles G. Keenan, George A. Benney, A. M. Wilson, W. S. Flower, Joseph Fetzell, H. M. Richardson, J. K. Perrine, T. L. Harper, E. D. Speck, Louis S. Clarke, T. S. Arbutnot, J. McK. Speer, J. R. Speer, Charles G. Marchand, William H. White, Jr., Dr. Robert W. McClelland, William S. McClure, Frank M. Hutchinson. Also the following junior members: Harry McClurg, Southard, Samuel W. Grabling, Marshall Bell, Dallas Byers.

The Keystone Cyclers had a great run on Sunday last. They left the city by boat, reaching Brownsville Saturday evening, and left on the return trip early Sunday morning, stopping at Monacaugh City for dinner and McKeesport for supper. They were entertained at the latter place by the McKeesport cyclists. On the road W. H. Robinson set the pace, and he kept the wheels moving at a very lively rate. Those in the party were F. S. Carmack, A. M. Irwin, P. J. Miller, W. M. Miller, W. B. Corbin, W. H. Flower, Joseph Fetzell, J. T. Stiebler, C. S. Crawford, W. G. White and Campbell Bakewell.

Moorhead proved a disappointment to his many friends and admirers at the tournament on Friday. He had worked his way into the finals with ease, and had played a strong, steady game, behaving with a coolness that indicated that he knew he was able to win. It is true that until he met Whelen of Altoona, no one of extraordinary ability was pitted against him, but the ease with which he defeated Whelen promised success in the finals. However, in this round Moorhead was either not himself, or else Whelen's play and tactics were too much for him, for he lost the chance to hold the championship cup which he won in 1890.

Sevickley is in a state of semi-excitement over the circus and county fair that is to be given there on Tuesday for the benefit of and under the auspices of the Sewickley Athletic Association. It was intended to give simply a county fair there last Tuesday, but it was decided to postpone it and add a circus and several athletic events to the programme.

Among the young men of the city, baseball has an increased interest this year. There is scarcely a branch of business or a locality but has its club or its league. There is the School League, the College League, the Suburban League, the Railroad League, the Newspaper League and the County League, not to mention numerous other combinations formed for the purpose of indulging in imitations of the National League.

While on the subject of amateur baseball, it may be of interest to state that in the near future the city will be honored by the visits of crack clubs from other cities, which will play the "A's," one of the best local amateur teams of Allegheny county. On Saturday, July 23, the Cleveland Athletic Club's ball team will be here. This team is said to be stronger than ever, and the championship of the A. A. U. West section lies between this club and the Detroit Athletic Club. On August 2 and 3 the Boston Athletic Association ball team will be here, and will be made up as follows: Hichols, pitcher; Dickinson, first; Cook, third; Soutle, shortstop; Cobb, catcher; Upton, catcher; Corbett, right field; Howe, pitcher, all of the Harvard Varsity team—Stearns (captain of Amherst team), second; O'Conner

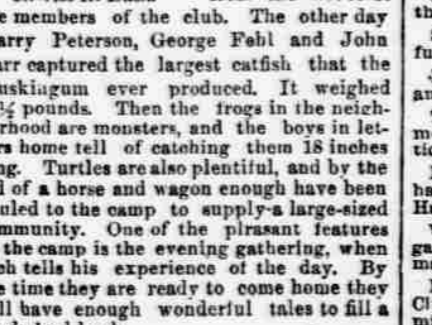

Wheelmen's Rambles. Miss Hunter will probably be at the national meet this week. PAUL MILLER has taken to a light wheel. He has now won the county championship. I. MILLER is trying to increase his July mileage record, and may be seen on his wheel at all hours of the evening. To-day the Keystone Cyclers are off for a run on the Pottsville plank road. Next Sunday they will go to Jacktown. The Allegheny cyclists will have no club run to-day, but next Sunday it is expected that the full membership will be out. MR. AND MRS. AND MISS BARKER have gone to Washington, where George Barker will be in the races and other events. CAPTAIN CLARKSON, of the East End Gym wheelmen, left Thursday for Washington. A FEW white wheels have appeared on the streets lately. Among others Messrs. Kohn and Aul, of the East End Gyms, have bicycles of this color. Messrs. McGowry and Darragh, of the Keystone, went to Economy last Sunday to (next year's captain of Dartmouth team), pitcher; Farren, of Boston, left field. H. S. Cornish, the well-known Athletic manager of the B. A., will play change position with one of the pitchers in the field. This is undoubtedly the finest amateur team in the East, and will surpass any other team which has ever played in Western Pennsylvania. This team made an Eastern tour last year playing all the well-known clubs, and lost but one game. This year they play some Eastern games, but come here for the two games and then go to Cleveland and Detroit. As the League team will play away from home on the dates mentioned these games should draw immensely.

The Johnny Smokers Hunting and Fishing Club is camping on the banks of the Muskingum river, and the boys are having a good time with the fish and frogs. The club has 25 members, all of Pittsburgh, and is housed in tents from which streamers and a silk flag flaunt in the summer zephyrs. The flag was a present from the wives of the members of the club. The other day Harry Peterson, George Pahl and John Barr captured the largest catfish that the Muskingum ever produced. It weighed 87½ pounds. Then the frogs in the neighborhood are monsters, and the boys in letters home tell of catching them 18 inches long. Turtles are also plentiful, and by the aid of a horse and wagon enough have been hauled to camp to supply a large party.

DEMANDS DUE NOTICE.

Exceptions Taken to the City Attorney's Construction of the Provisions of the Street Act—Setting Aside a Multiplication of Penalties—News of the Courts. In Common Pleas No. 3 yesterday Attorney Sol Schoyer took exceptions to certain of the methods of City Attorney Morland. A hearing had been fixed for yesterday in the matter of the opening of Smith street, Twenty-third ward. Attorney Morland and McClure were present, but when the case was about to come up, Mr. Schoyer walked in. He said he represented William Lewis, through whose property the proposed street would run. He added that the construction sought to be placed in the street act by the City Attorney was entirely unwarranted and ignored the rights of the people. The proposed street was not in the present instance no notice was given. Lewis only learned of it by hearsay, and engaged Attorney Schoyer to represent him through the court yesterday and found the case about to be heard. Mr. Schoyer demanded to take part in the hearing, insisting on his client's right of 60 days in which to appear.

The court then heard witnesses as to the necessity of the street, but reserved a decision in order to allow Lewis to appear if he desired. FIVE SUITS FOR DIVORCE. Running Mates Who Don't Work Well in Connubial Harms. Five suits for divorce were entered yesterday in Allegheny county. Attorney J. W. Wilson of Wilkeson & Harner represented Mary E. Harner. They were married October 15, 1891, and lived on the Southside. He charges her with infidelity and names C. Pulley and Charles Smith as co-defendants. Attorney T. M. Marshall, Jr., filed the suit of Louisa Wierzbowska against Marie Wierzbowska. They were married in 1890, and, it is alleged, he deserted her in 1891. Attorney J. W. Wilson and J. W. Harner represented Margaret Henderson against James Henderson. They were married October 20, 1885, and separated in April, 1887. Deserter is charged. August J. Jackson sued for a divorce from Oscar Jackson. They were married February 1, 1878. His treatment and infidelity are alleged. August F. Hobough sued for a divorce from Andrew Hobough, alleging desertion.

A MATTER OF MULTIPLICATION. Judge Porter Decides That It Can Be Carried Too Far. Judge Porter yesterday handed down an opinion in the case of the Commonwealth against F. R. Schmidt and others. The cases were brought to recover the civil penalties for violating the oleomargarine law. Five hundred dollars and costs were demanded, $100 for selling, $100 for exposing for sale, etc., until $500 was reached. Judgment had been entered for the plaintiff and a writ of defense. Judge Porter said such a multiplication of penalties would be unjust, and discharged the rule for judgment.

Suing for a Lost Rat. R. F. Rynd yesterday entered suit against J. Dawson Callery and W. V. Callery, executors of James Callery, to recover $2,137.33. He alleges that in July, 1881, James Callery and others unfenced a rat of logs from his moorings in the Allegheny river, turned it down stream, saved up the logs and used them in the construction of a bridge between Western Railroad bed. The plaintiff did not learn until 1891 what had become of his rat, and now sues for its value.

Appealing From the Assessment. The Carnegie Steel Company, Limited, yesterday filed an appeal through their attorneys, Knapp & Reed, from the valuation placed on 100 acres of their land in Braddock township by the County Commissioners as the last triennial assessment. The land, which adjoins Braddock borough, was assessed at $5,000 per acre, a total of $500,000. It is claimed it should be $5,000 per acre, or a total of $500,000, and the court is appealed to.

Echoes of the Court Corridors. To-morrow the argument list will be taken up. All appeal cases will be taken up and disposed of on that call whether the parties are present or not. In the Criminal Court yesterday, J. S. Switzer, Margaret Evans and William Williams were each fined 25 cents and costs for assault and battery. THOMAS A. WATSON yesterday entered suit against S. B. Davis for $5,000 damages for slander in calling him a thief April 22 in Millin township. A capias was issued for the defendant's arrest.

Neither of the "A's" entries got out of the preliminary round in the singles, and in the regular trials that followed no better, but then they met with old players at the start. The participants in the tournament had a group photo taken Thursday. They were taken underneath the trees at one side of the grounds in their costumes and with their rackets. MOONMAN and R. R. Reed played well together in the doubles, and it was unfortunate that they had to meet Bush and Fay when both were tired from hard-fought rounds in other events. CURRY was revenged upon Arthur Pier for his defeat by him at Sewickley last year. He played a fierce game throughout the two sets of the first round singles, retiring Pier from the chance to play for the Grosvenor cup.
