

WANT A NEW TRUSTEE

For a Braddock Church That Is Now a Mass of Tottering Ruins.

A PATHETIC SCENE IN COURT.

Judge Magee Heeds a Widow's Tearful Plea for Clemency.

TROUBLE IN A LAUNDRY COMPANY

Creditors of the All Souls Church at Braddock will ask Common Pleas Court No. 2 to appoint a new trustee, in the absence of the trustee and pastor, Rev. Ingram N. W. Irvine, for the sale and disposition of the church property.

Back of this is a tale of more or less interest. Attorney E. J. Small, representing some of the creditors of the church, gave the following version of the case to a DISPATCH man yesterday: "During the year 1889," began Mr. Small, "Rev. Irvine began circulating among the Episcopalians of Braddock with the view of obtaining funds for building a church or chapel. He succeeded in raising a considerable amount and proceeded to erect a chapel in one of the prettiest parts of the village. It has since transpired that he had not sufficient money to pay all of his bills by any manner of means. I suppose he had not obtained enough money but at any rate he was forced to raise $10,000 and did so by mortgaging the church and ground for that amount and giving his personal bond that the money would be expended in liquidating the debts of builders and those who finished the building as well as the drafts of the furniture people. The money was furnished by the Dollar Savings Bank of Pittsburg and the transaction was made through Court of Common Pleas No. 2.

SIX MILES OF ILLUMINATION.

Great Preparations for St. Louis' Autumnal Festivities.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 18.—St. Louis will have over six miles of magnificently illuminated streets during the autumnal festivities. There will be not less than 50 arches, some of which are to be startling in their gorgeousness. There will be over 75,000 electric lamps and gas jets in each night's display. The light company of St. Louis has not enough power to stand the strain in addition to regular demands on them and is putting in engines and dynamos especially for the occasion. It is even possible that the city will be obliged to build a plant in order to get enough power. The illuminating apparatus is already partly in position and will be rapidly pushed to completion.

LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

—W. F. Turner, defaulting cashier of the City Savings Bank at Nashville, Tenn., has been arrested in Mexico. —The officers of the American school ship, St. Mary's, now at Cherbourg, will be entertained at a banquet by American citizens. —Vessels from foreign ports are now quarantined at Port Townsend, Washington, and will continue to be held up until saniozopadates in Victoria. —The Scotch societies of Chicago deny that Robert Burns Hutchinson, the descendant of the Scotch poet, has been wantonly neglected by them as reported. —A terrific thunder storm prevailed near Camden, Ark., Sunday night. The electric display was grand, and the damage to property was considerable. —George F. Bouton, charged with the murder of Anton Facke some weeks ago at Dallas, Tex., has been found guilty and sentenced to life imprisonment. —It has been decided to celebrate at San Diego the three hundred and fifteenth anniversary of the discovery of San Diego Bay, which occurs September 29 next.

IN THE CRIMINAL COURT.

Taking Up Law and Order Appeals.—A Widow Makes a Tearful Plea and Receives Clemency.—Turtle Creek Residents File Objections. Judge Magee took up the argument list in Criminal Court yesterday and disposed of quite a number of cases. The appeals in two of the Law and Order Society cases took up a good deal of time. One of these was the case of James M. Thorp, fined by Alderman Robe on June 14, and the other was that of R. Brinkman, who also appealed from the decision of the same magistrate. There was the usual tiresome rehearsal of the old law by Mr. York, and in both cases the appeals were dismissed and the decisions of the alderman sustained.

A HUSBAND'S TESTIMONY

Held to Be Improper When It Reflects Upon His Wife. The opinion handed down by the Supreme Court in the case of D. N. Cornelius against J. T. Houfroy for damages for the alienation of a wife's affection was received at the office of the Supreme Court probatory yesterday. The case was tried in the lower court before Judge Howe and a verdict of $2,000 for the plaintiff given. It was afterwards reduced by the court to $500, but Houfroy appealed. During the trial, which was a sensational one, a scene was created by Cornelius assailing Houfroy in the courtroom. The Supreme Court reverses the lower court and orders a new trial in the case. The ground for this was the admission of the husband's testimony, which tended to incriminate his wife. She, it is asserted, was not a defendant, but his testimony tended to incriminate her, and he was an incompetent witness. The principle of the rule which excludes husband and wife from testifying against each other requires its application to all cases in which the interests of the other party are involved. They are only allowed to testify in cases of personal injuries inflicted by the one upon the other and in certain cases in divorce.

WANT TO WIND UP.

Stockholders in a Laundry Company Ask for a Dividend. A bill in equity was filed yesterday by Samuel F. Frost, J. McC. Hayes and T. J. McClurg against the Empire Laundry Company, E. A. Rohrkaste, President; L. H. and Fred Rohrkaste, Managers, and N. Satter and G. J. Bleichner, Executors of A. Finch, a shareholder. The capital stock of the laundry company, it is stated, is $50,000 divided into 24 shares of $200 per share. The plaintiffs each own two shares. Frost is Treasurer and Hayes a manager. The defendants, it is charged, have assumed the entire control and management of the concern, ignoring the plaintiffs, and are mismanaging and wasting the assets. They have contracted with Ernest Rohrkaste, a relative of some of the defendants, to erect a $20,000 structure for the company for which it has not the money to pay. In conclusion it is stated that the company is insolvent and a dissolution is asked for and an accounting and the appointment of a successor.

Father Mollinger's Estate.

J. J. McTighe, N. Seibert and Henry Terheyden, the appraisers of the personal estate of the late Father Mollinger, yesterday filed the inventory of his personal effects. They consisted of cash, mortgages, stocks, jewelry, ornaments, etc., to the total value of $72,117.08.

The Hum of the Courts.

By Common Pleas No. 1 all rules have been made returnable on Saturday, August 30. FRED C. MILLER yesterday entered suit against Charles Tanney for damages for slander for making remarks reflecting on Miller's wife.

ATTORNEY W. S. NISBET yesterday filed a suit brought by Samuel H. Allen against Jacob Wockley, for damages for malicious prosecution.

The officials of the United States District Court left for Erie yesterday to attend the July term of the court which will be held there this week.
