For Getting Out a Full Republican Vote This Fall Is Fully Talked Over.

NO SECRETARY SELECTED,

But One Is Looked for When Carter Returns From Washington.

DRESS SUITS NOT NECESSARY

During the Cleveland-Stevenson Notification Ceremonies.

ELKINS NOT QUITE PERSUADED YET

SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, July 18.-Hon. Thomas Henry Carter, the new Chairman of the National Republican Committee, has not yet named the Secretary for that body. He departed for Washington to-night, and will not return until later in the week, when he may possibly, he says, be ready with the name of the new Secretary. Mr. Carter wants a man who can devote his entire time to the work. C. L. Magee was at the hotel to-day, and he said again very positively that he couldn't give any of his time to the place. Ex-Representatives Lewis E. McComas, of Maryland, and William O. Bradley, of Kentucky, are the two men now uppermost in Mr. Carter's mind, and yet he admitted before leaving town that almost a dozen names had been considered. Some of his advisers were inclined to think that too much attention was being paid to the election of a Secretary, that he was a mere figurehead, and that it was always the case that an active young man did the bulk of the work.

Advice From the Club Organizers, The committee sat in its parlors in the Fifth Avenue Hotel all this afternoon, listening to James A. Blanchard, A. B. Humphrey, James E. Burke and E. P. Allen, otherwise known as "Yysilanti Allen," of Michigan, who told what the Republican clubs of the country intended doing during the campaign. These clubs are under the jurisdiction of the National Executive Committee and will work in harmony with the Committee.
The Executive Committee, in order to facilitate business, decided that hereafter five members shall be a quorum. A committee consisting of Mr. Clarkson, Mr. Fesseuden, Mr. Manley, Mr. Bliss and Colonel Swords, was appointed to hunt for headquarters. The purpose of Mr. Carter's visit to Washington is to consult with the President, not only as to the selection of a secretary, but also concerning the appointment of an Advisory Committee of five.

This committee, it is intended, shall aid Cornelius N. Bliss, Treasurer of the Com-

Situation in the Empire State.

Dr. Chauncey M. Depew, ex-Senator Warner Miller and ex-Judge William Robertson conferred with Whitelaw Reid at the hotel, while the Executive Committee were in session. All are familiar with the situation in New York State, and all desire the restoration of harmonious re lations between the President and leading Republicans of the State. The situation a present is very unpleasant. One or two gentlemen not convergant with the facts insist that there is an effort going on to exaggerate the unpleasantness. The gentlemen who met in Mr. Reid's room this atternoon knew better than this, and they propose that a reasonable and dignified effort shall be made to restore as cordial relations between Washington and the Republicans of 60 counties in New

John R. Tanner, the Illinois member of the Republican National Committee, talked to-day to a DISPATCH reporter about the situation in that State. "We have a big fight on in Illinois," he said, "but I confidently believe we will win. We know the Democracy intends to make the campaign a tast one from the beginning, and they will find us ready. Our greatest danger would be in a mild and inert canvass. Knowing that the enemy expects to win we ought to be able to get out every Republican in the Losses That Are to be Made Up. "We have been somewhat remiss in the last two campaigns, and have lost some prestige, but the effects of these defeats will be to draw us all closer together for the Presidental and Congressional contests. Illinois has always been Republican, and I think to-day we can feel assured that we can enter the canvass with an advantage of 20,000 or 25,000 votes in the State, without taking Cook county into consideration. There, of course, is where the Democrats intend to make their great gains, if they hope to carry the State.

"Chicago will poll about 45,000 more votes than in 1888. In order to have the slightest chance of carrying the State the Democrats will have to get the support of nearly four-fifths of this increase. I hardly think this probable. Mr. Stevenson adds no particular strength to the ticket, as it is not likely that in a Presidental year he could get any considerable number of Republican votes for the ticket. Some of his neighbors might be disposed to vote for him, but as this would also mean a vote for Cleveland, they will refrain from the dangerous compliments.

LOVE PEAST IN BLAIR COUNTY.

The Greevy and Conrad Factions Unite

Around a Common Board. HOLLIDAYSBURG, July 18 .- [Special.]-The Blair County Democratic Convention met here to-day, and placed the following ticket in the field: District Attorney, Henry Heiding; County Treasurer, F. D. Bechtel; Register and Recorder, John W. McFadden; Director of the Poor, Francis McClain; Coroner, Joseph B. Harney. Major F. Conrad was the only nominee for the State Assembly. George W. Rhine, of Altoona, was nominated for State Senator, subject to the decision of the district con-ference. Thomas H. Greevy, of Altoona, who is now engaged in vigorously contest-ing the seat of Hon. Edward Scull, of Somerset, from this Congressional district, again received Blair's indorsement for the House of Representatives.

The action of Governor Pattison, in refusing to call out the militis to quell the Homestead riots before the civil authority of Allegheny county had been exhausted, and advocating legislation against the im-portation of Pinkerton men ino the State, were indorsed. Twenty persons placed in nomination for officers declined the honors thrust upon them. The Conrad and Greevy factions of the party, that have been belligerent for years, reunited and held a love teast to-day.

A LIVELY TIME IN SIGHT

Indiana County Struggling Hard to Get a

Congressman This Whirl, GREENSBURG, July 18 .- [Special.]-The conferees of the Twenty-first Congressional district will meet at Kiskiminetas Springs to-morrow at 2 o'clock to nominate a Republican candidate for Congress. The canbitt, of Indiana, will make an extraordinary effort to land their man, but it is thought no had feeling will arise. Indiana believes that she should have the prize this time, it having gone to Jefferson four years age and to Westmoreland two years ago. A very lively time is expected, at any rate.

QUAY MORE THAN CONFIDENT.

He Fays Harrison Will Carry West Virginia and All the States He Had in 1888—The Senator to Take an Active Part in the Campaign. PHILADELPHIA, July 18 .- [Special.]-

Senator Quay dropped into the city very quietly this evening and expects to meet a few of the city leaders to-morrow. His coming was without herald, beyond a brief telegram to ex-Collector Dave Martin, who met him at the Continental Hotel shortly after 7 o'clock, and the only other caller was Secretary Frank Willing Leach, whose specialty in this year's campaign is the management of the legislative districts. Mr. Richard R. Quay accompanied his

The Senator will return to Washington late to-morrow afternoon. First on the list of his engagements for to-morrow is his usual conference with Collector Cooper. Mr. Quay would not say that politics had anything to do with his visit.

"You have noticed the opposition to Con-gressman Dalzell in the Twenty-second disrict," was the question of the evening.
"There is a movement out there of some sort," said the Senator, "but what it amounts to I don't know from present

Dick Thinks Weihe a Strong Man. Some one stated that William Weihe, ex-President of the Amalgamated Association, President of the Amaigamated Association, would be nominated by the Democrata. "If he is," answered Dick Quay, "he will get a big vote in Homestead and Braddock, and he is a very strong man."

Mr. Quay admitted to a deep interest in the labor situation in Allegheny county, but had no opinion to express on the subject

"Do you know that Hugh O'Donnell, the Homestead leader, is in town?' Homestead leader, is in town?"
"I have not heard anything about Mr.
O'Donnell beyond what the papers say."
said the Senator. "There are warrants out for the arrest of some of the Homestead people, according to late news, and that is all I Touching his successor as Chairman of the Republican National Committee, Mr. Quay said: "Mr. Carter will prove an effective Chairman, and the choice is a good one. He has had some experience, and will take to the work naturally. The way betore him is plain, as the committee's transactions leave everything in excellent shape. Mr. Quay's Ideas of the Situation, "What do you think of the situation?"

"Mr. Harrison will carry every State that he carried four years ago. He will carry all the new States admitted since then, and he will carry West Virginia. That more than means his election. It will be a break in the South of a healthy character, and here is no doubt of his success.

"Do you expect take a part in the cam-paign?" "I certainly do. Why not?" responded

"Of course you will take possession of that Brigantine Beach cottage after Con-grass adjourns next week?" "That is a matter I shall have to consider after adjournment.

Dress Saits Not Necessary During the C'eveland Nottfication Ceremonies. NEW YORK, July 18 .- [Special.]-The Executive Committee and the Finance Committee of the General Committee of One Hundred having in charge the arrangements for the notification of Cleveland and Stevenson of their nomination, met in City Hall to-day at noon. The money needed to defray the expenses of the ceremony having been contributed by members of the committee, offers of contributions that have been received were declined. Applications for reserved seats and to have space set apart in the garden for campaign clubs and associations are so many that if all were grented the capacity of the house would be exhausted and there would be no room for the general public, for whose benefit the public ceremony was arranged. ic ceremony was arranged.

The programme for the ceremonies in the garden is a very short and simple one. Con-gressman William L. Wilson will deliver the speech of notification to Mr. Cleveland, who will respond. Then ex-Lieutenant Stephen M. White, of California, will notify Mr. Stevenson in a short speech. The latter's response will close the pro-ceedings, and the candidates will go at once to the Manhattan Club, where a reception in their honor will be held. It will be a very democratic affair, the dress suit not being necessary.

HILL WON'T BE PRESENT

At the Cleveland-Stevenson Jamboree Madison Fquare Garden.

WASHINGTON, July 18 .- [Special.]-A large delegation of Democratic Congressmen expect to go over to New York Wednesday to witness the notification ceremonies at Madison Square Garden, but Senator Hill will not be among them. It is understood that he has not been invited. Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, and Representative Mitchell, of Wisconsin, representing the Congressional Campaign Committee, have been authorized to make the necessary arrangements for the committee to visit New York, and it is understood that nearly all the members will be

In addition to the Congressional members of the National Committee, which is to meet Thursday following the notification of the Presidental candidates, a rumor was circulated at the Capitol to-day that neither Senators Gorman nor Brice would attend the meeting at Madison Square Garden. Senator Gorman, however, said that as a member of the National Committee he fully expects to be present. It is possible he may be detained here as one of the Senhe may be detained here as one of the Sen-ate conferees on sundry civil appropriation bill. If his services are not needed here in that connection Wednesday and Thursday, he and Senator Brice will go to New York.

ELEINS' FAITH IN HIS STATE.

He's Sure It's Republican, but Doesn't Want to Kun for Governor.

WASHINGTON, July 18.—[Special.]— Judge Nathan Goff, of West Virginia, ex-Secretary of the Navy and ex-Congress-man, is in Washington, and it is understood that a strong pressure is being brought to bear on Secretary Elkins to induce him to become the gubernatorial candidate in West Virginia this fall. The friends of the ecretary, however, say he would prefer to run the chance of remaining in Harrison's Cabinet, and they are sure that if he knew that his friend would have a second term he would drop the governorship ambition

Mr. Elkins and his friends profess to be confident that the Republicans will carry West Virginia. At a meeting of the West Virginia Association a few nights ago he predicted that they would carry the State.

Hopes of Third Partyites in Missouri. ST. LOUIS, July 18.-Hon. W. S. Wilkins, of Cincinnati, a member of the Napublican candidate for Congress. The candidates are Colonel George F. Huff, the present incumbent, of Westmoreland; W. C. Bond, of Jefferson; Captain Nesbitt, of Indiana, and Mr. Hiener, of Armstrong.

There are three conferees from each of the four counties, and it will take seven votes to nominate. The friends of Captain Nestional People's party, is here negotiating for a consolidation of his paper, the Cin-campaign conducted in Missouri, where the party has a full State ticket in the field, and where it expects to poll 100,000 votes.

HARRITY FOR CHAIRMAN.

The Question as Good as Settled-Sketch of the Career of the Pennsylvanian Who Is to Lead Grover Cleveland's Third Campaign.

NEW YORK, July 18.—It is practically assured that Secretary of State William F. Harrity, of Pennsylvania, will on Wednesday be unanimously elected Chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Although Mr. Harrity has not formally announced that he will accept, ex-Secretary Whitney and others of Mr. Harrity's friends here are fully justified in feeling that he will yield to the pressure brought to bear on him, and it may be considered as settled that he will be the Chairman.

William F. Harrity was born in Wil-mington, Del., October 19, 1850, received his preliminary education in the public schools of Wilmington, and at Clarkson Taylor's Academy and St. Mary's college, in the same place: graduated at La Sall in the same place; graduated at La Salle College, Philadelphia, as Master of Arts, in June, 1871; studied law and was ad-mitted to the Philadelphia bar December 7, 1873; remained with his preceptors as their assistant for six years; has always been in active practice of the law in the courts of Philadelphia; was Chairman of the Democratic City Executive Committee in 1882, when James A. Beaver, as a candidate for Governor, had a majority in that city of but 3,464 over Governor. majority in that city of but 3,464 over Gov-ernor Pattison; was delegate at large from Pennsylvania to the Chicago Convention of 1884, which nominated Grover Cleveland for President; was appointed postmaster at Philadelphia December 1, 1885, and served a full term of four years; was elected Presi-dent of the Equitable Trust Company, of Philadelphia, in July, 1890, and is still its President.

President. He was Permanent Chairman of the Democratic State Convention at Scranton, in 1890, which nominated Robert E. Pattison for a second term; was elected Chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, July 2, 1890, but declined to accept because of business engagements, and resigned the position July 16, 1890; was nominated by Governor Pattison and unanimously confirmed by the Senate as Secretary of State, January 20, 1891; in January, 1892, was unanimously elected by the Democratic State Central Committee of Pennsylvanis, as a member of the Democratic National Com-mittee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the late William F. Scott, and in April, 1892, was unanimously re-elected by the Democratic State Convention for the full term of membership of the Democratic National Committee. Prior to accepting his present position, Mr. Harrity never held any public office except that of postmaster at Philadelphia.

HARRITY DOESN'T GIVE IT AWAY. He Is in the Hunds of His Friends, Though us He Is Always. HARRISBURG, July 18.-[Special.]-Sec retary of the Commonwealth William F. Harrity arrived here to-night from Philadelphia. He talked freely to a DISPATCH reporter upon the national chairmanship of the Democratic Committee. He has decided not to call upon ex-President Cleveland before the appointment of a chairman is made. He will accept the place should the committee elect him.

He said: "I am in the hands of my friends, as I always have been, and I will endeavor to serve them to the best of my ability, wherever they may place me. It would be premature for me to accept a post now which has not yet been awarded."

JOSEPH STOKELY DEAD.

The Ex-County Commissioner Passes Away Unexpectedly Last Evening - Bis Remains Will Be Interred at His Early Home in West Newton.

Joseph Stokely, ex-County Commissioner, died unexpectedly at 5:30 o'clock last evening at his residence, No. 355, Fifth avenue. His body will be arranged for burial in this city and the funeral services will be conducted to-night by Rev. Dr. McGuire, of the Fifth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church. To-morrow the remains will be taken to West Newton and interred in the cemetery at that place. The services and funeral will be strictly private.

Mr. Stokely was born in 1843 at West Newton, Westmoreland county. He came to this city in 1862, when a lad of 19 years. Here he entered into the drug business, which he still carried on when he died. In the year 1869 Mr. Stokely entered into polities and has ever since been closely affiliated with the Democratic party of Alle-gheny county. Early in the 70s he became a candidate for County Commis-sioner, together with William Magee, but was defeated. At the next election he was again a candidate for the same office. Daniel McWilliams had already been selected, but when it came to a decision between Magee or Stokely for second choice, there was a split in the convention.

One of the parties favored Stokely and the other decided upon Magee. Here the friends of Mr. Stokely interposed and after a long controversy with the Democratic Chairman, Jas. H. Hopkins, it was decided that there had been no quorum at the con-vention and the nomination of Magee, who vention and the nomination of Magee, who controlled the majority of delegates, was overruled. To bring about a settlement it was finally agreed that the party should have two tickets. Mr. Stokely was elected by several thousand majority. At the following election Stokely and McWilliams were the candidates. This was about the time the contract for the party of the contract for t the time the contract for the new Court House had been let. Mr. Stokely at this election came off with flying colors. He was for the fourth time a candidate at the next election, but this time he was defeated, and ever since has declined to run for office. Mr. Stokely was elected to the last Gubernatorial Convention as a Wallace delegate and did all in his power to carry out his instructions.

All through his career Mr. Stokely has been honored and respected and no man in Democratic politics in this section of the State is better known. He was unmarried, but leaves a brother and two sisters to

A LITTLE SHORT OF MONEY.

Agent Bengough Gets a Remittance and Mails 19,000 Checks,

Pension Agent Bengough was unable to pay any pension claims all last week owing to the failure of Congress to pay the pension appropriation bill for the year beginning July 1, 1892. For several days he as been receiving letters asking the reason of delay in paying the quarterly amounts, but yesterday he received a credit from the Pension Office enabling him to continue the work, and last night he mailed 19,000 checks to pensioners for their vouchers.

OF LIBERALS.

Forecasts of the Exact Dates of the Events in Parliament.

PLAYING FOR COUNTRY SUPPORT.

The Home Rule Bill to Fe I aid Aside for a Whole Twelve Months.

THE RESURGENT POWER OF SIR DILKE

LONDON, July 18.—The Associated Press correspondent in interviews to-day with several prominent Liberals found a general concurrence of opinion that the course of events will be as predicted in the dispatches last evening. Some Liberals venture to forecast the exact dates of the different events. Thus the momentous division on the amendment ousting the Government is set down for August 19, the resignation of Lord Salisbury for August 20 and the adjournment of Parliament for August 22, a period of one month being occupied in the re-election of Ministers and the formation of the Cabinet, the House formally reassembling at the end of September and the real work beginning about the end of January. Events then, it is thought, will absolutely depend upon the prudence of the Irish members. If they insist upon the immediate precedence of the home rule bill they will play into the hands of the Conservatives, who want the earliest possible reappeal to the country, having full confilence that they will obtain better results at a re-contest. The Conservaexecutive has already convoked meetings of the London electoral agents to discuss the causes of the loss of twelve metropolitan seats and the provincial agents will be summoned here after the London agents' conference. It the Irish support Mr. Gladstone the new Government can rely upon two sessions of office before being obliged to dissolve Parliament.

Foreshadows of the Poilcy. Herbert Gladstone, speaking at Buxton, oreshadowed as the best course a policy exactly stmilar to that referred to in these dispatches of Friday, namely, that the "home rule" bill be postponed for a year, and that the "one man one vote" bill be proceeded with, together with measures for a further democratizing of the rural vote. He declared that a county Government bill, including parish councils, compulsory allotments, registration reform and "one man one vote" provisions must pass before the Liberals went to the country again. Herbert claimed that the redistribution of seats could be postponed, overlooking the inevitable rejection by the House of Lords of any bill abolishing plural voting not accompanied by a measure for a redistribution of seats and reducing the disproportionate Irish vote.

The sum of to-night's position is that the Liberal meaning to play for two or three sessions before dissolving Parliament, will not rush the "home rule" bill. If constrained to give it precedence they will not accept its rejection by the House of Lords as necessitating an immediate dissolution, but will proceed with measures tending to strengthen the Liberal vote throughout the country.

Gladstone's a No Confidence Amendment Mr. Gladstone will move a simple "no confidence" amendment to the address in-stead of one alleging specific reasons and will thus be enabled to limit the scope of will thus be enabled to limit the scope of the declarations of his own policy. He has, as precedents, the facts that in 1841 the Melbourne Ministry was thrown out on a vote of "no confidence," and in 1859 the present Duke of Devonshire's "no confidence" amendment turned on the Derby-Disraeli Government.

A most striking indication of the re-surgent power of Sir Charles Dilke is seen in the manner of his reception at a demonstration of 35,000 miners at Derby to-day. A number of members of the House of , M. P., who presided, Mr. Bayley, M. P., who presided, maintained that the working classes would reinstate Sir Charles Dilke in the important position which he formerly held in Parliament, and the assemblage gave Sir Charles an ovation when he told them what they liked to hear in regard to eight hours, employers' liability, the workmen's state and other subjects.

They Threaten the German Forces and Are

Victorious in an Engagement. BERLIN, July 17 .- A dispatch to the Tageblatt from Zanzibar reports that the natives at Unyambe have revolted and threaten the German forces. The rumor is of serious import as in case of a revolt the important station of Tabora will be endan-

The report is partly confirmed by a dispatch received by the German Anti-Slavery Lottery Committee to the effect that the united troops of Tabora and the expeditions under Count Sweh and Captain Swpring re-cently attacked and captured the fortified town of Quikikoro, belonging to Chief Sikki, after a hard struggle in which three Germans were killed and eight wounded among the latter being Count Sweinitz.

BISMARCK'S ATTACK A FAILURE,

The Most of the Fight Is Over Says an Opposition Paper. LONDON, July 18.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times telegraphs to his paper as follows in regard to the Bismarck controversy: "The Bismarckian organs are beginning to recognize that their grand attack on the Government has failed. The Deutsche Wechenblatt, a Bismarck paper, sums up a long appeal for peace and good will with an allusion to the right of elemency as the noblest ornament of the Crown. "When Prince Bismarck, who has always asserted that he has done no wrong and has nothing to regret or withdraw, is classed by his own friends among those for whom the mercy of the crown can be invoked, it may be assumed that the worst of the fight is over."

RIVAL PARIS SALONS RECONCILED.

Champ de Mars Artists Will Return to the Paiais de L'Industrie.

PARIS, July 18 .- The event of the week in the Paris artistic world is the reconciliation of the two salons. It is now almost certain that next year the Champ de Mars artists will return to the Palais de l'Industrie. The main cause of this is the fact that the Champ de Mars salon has not paid its expenses.

Another cause is the Chicago Fair. For a

Every Group and Class Will Have a Repremoment the division threatened the success of the French fine arts exhibit at Chicago. Finally it was decided to appoint a jury for Chicago made up of an equal number of members from the two salons. This was done and it had much to do with bringing the two salons together once more.

CHURCHES OF THE EAST.

The Latin and Oriental Congregations Will Shortly Discuss the Matter of Reorganization-The Ancient Patriarch General to Be Re-Established in the Person of Monsignor Asrean.

ROME, July 18 .- To the request for infornation which arrived from several quarters the Vatican and the Propaganda answer that the Holy See has approved of Monsignor Ireland regarding Stillwater and Faribault, and for all places where the decrees of the Council of Baltimore can be applied. The Latin congregation and the Oriental congregation of the Propaganda will be gathered together in plenary session in order to discuss, under all its aspects, a vast project of the Pope's for the ecclesiastical reorganization of the churches of the East. It relates, in conjunction with France and with Turkey, to the re-establishment of the ancient Patriarch General of Constantinople, in the person of Monsignor Asrean, at present Armenian Patriarch residing at Constantinople, an eminent prelate who enjoys the confidence of the Sultan and the sympathy of France and Russia. The folowing is the importance of the charge:
At this moment the Catholics of the East, of the Latin right, do not form autonomous communities with civil personality; they are only tolerated. The apostolic delegate at Constantinople has a dependent situstion; he cannot negotiate with the Sultan except through the intermediary of the Ambassador of France. In re-establishing the Patriarch, the Holy See not only unifies and centralizes the church of the East, but gives autonomy, with the civil personality, to all the communities of the Latin rite in the Turkish Empire. In addition, the Patrial Latin 1111 triarch will be able to negotiate directly with the Sultan and personally with the Greek Patriarch, which was not possible up to the present. Turkey shows herself favorable to this plan so grand in its simplicity. It is asserted that France and Russia, for motives of general policy, appear to second Turkey and the Holy See; but the plans encounter difficulties, in applying them, on account of the French protector and of the respective positions of the different committees and of the governments of Europe. The two reunited congregations have the role of studying the possibility and also the practical application of this plan. If the Patriarch is established, the union of the two churches in which the Pope ardently interests himself, will have taken a long step forward.

NEILL OVERREACHED HIMSELF.

He Attempted Blackmall and an Investigation Showed That He Had Murdered Four Girls-No Motive for His Crime Except Love of Killing.

LONDON, July 18 .- Thomas Neill, arrested for attempting to blackmail Dr Harper, of Barnstaple, was to-day arraigned before Sir John Bridge, in the Bow Street Police Court, on the charge of having murdered Mattie Clover by administering strychnine to her. The case has excited widespread interest, as showing how a criminal can overreach himself and place himself within the clutches of the law. If Neill had not, for some inscrutable reason, attempted to blackmail several prominent persons, he would probably have been free to-day to pursue his career of villainy and murder.

When Neill was brought in and placed in the dock there was a general craning of necks to see him. He looked well and his necks to see him. He looked well and his lace betrayed no sign of anxiety or trouble. He asked to be furnished with writing materials and when they were given to him he made copious notes of the proceedings. Mr. C. F. Gill appeared on behalf of the Treasury. He said he would prove the circumstances under which Matilda Clover was murdered and he asked that the prisoner be committed. Mr. Gill added that he would have to refer to the deaths of three other girls who were killed in a manner other girls who were killed in a manner precisely similar to the Clover girl. The Court granted Mr. Gill's request and the prisoner was remanded. A peculiarity of the crimes with which Neill is charged is the apparent lack of motive. The case is believed to be without parallel in the annals of English criminal jurisprudence. Deeming, the wholesale wife-murderer who was recently executed in Melbourne, had a motive for his crimes, a desire to get rid of women he had tired of, but apparently Neill murdered simply for the sake of murder.

ENTHUSIASTIC OVER THE FAIR.

Baron Vialar Predicts That It Will Be an Astonishing Succe PARIS, July 18.—Baron Alfred Vialar, the special delegate of the French Government who was sent to Chicago last month and make a report, has just reached here. He is enthusiastic over the Fair. In conversation with the Associated Press representative, he said:

"I have no doubt that the Fair will be a great success and Europe has much to learn from it. The site is very well chosen. It was well, too, that Chicago instead of New York was chosen, for for-eigners would find New York too much eigners would find New York too much like European cities. There is an American and original stamp about Chicago. While I do not find any very great originality about the Fair buildings, I do find them grandiose. The large scale on which everything has been done astonished mend will assorbe the Europeans who go will astonish the Europeans who go over next year."

MASS IN HONOR OF COLUMBUS. The Pope Directs Its Celebration in Spain

Italy and America October 12, ROME, July 18.-The Papal encyclical on the Columbus celebrations that was issued Saturday directs that on October 12 the Mass of the Trinity be celebrated in the Catholic churches of Spain, Italy and America in honor of Columbus. The encyclical also invites the Bishops of other nations to say the same mass. The Pope says he cannot doubt that Columbus was primarily inspired by the Catholic faith. The difference between him and the illustrious men who before and after him discovered unknown land, was that Columbus was animated by the spirit of religion, which sustained his genius, for-tified his constancy and afforded him consolation in his greatest trials. GERMANY'S GREAT FXHIBIT

A TICKET TOGETHER.

Cleveland and Stevenson Put in a Very Pleasant Summer Day

CHATTING, EATING AND SAILING.

Peculiar Meeting of the Standard Bearers of the Democracy.

THE COMING TRIP TO NEW YORK CITY

BUZZARD'S BAY, MASS., July 18 .-Robert Lincoln O'Brien, private secretary to Hon. Grover Cleveland, came rushing over to the station this morning from Gra-Gables with a big grip of mail. He was too late to catch the early-closing mail at the village postoffice, but succeeded in pouring the contents of the yellow bag containing the ex-President's correspondence onto the floor of the mail car.

Mr. Cleveland spent a good part of the night in clearing up his correspondence, and this morning active preparations were going forward for his departure to New York. The Benedict steam yacht Oneida was moored in the offing awaiting the ex-President's party. While no public statement was made that

Mr. Cleveland will take the all-water route down the bay and out into the sound on the pleasure craft, it was learned from a reliable ource that it was the intention now to embark on the Benedict craft. Mrs. Joseph Jefferson, wife of the veteran actor, is xpected to accompany the Cleveland party to New York.

Meeting of the Two Candidates. When the 8:15 train out of Boston arrived here several minutes late this afternoon, a tall, angular man, square-shouldered and attired in a suit of black worsted, alighted and looked about the platform with an evident air of wonderment if he had reached the right spot. He was accompanied by two other men. He was General A:lini E. Stevenson, of Illinois the General Adlai E. Stevenson, of Illinois, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, and his companions were ex-United States District Attorney N. G. Ewing, of Chicago,

District Attorney N. G. Ewing, of Chicago, and Louis J. Lange, of New York.

Hon. Grover Cleveland stood in the doorway of the Old Colony station chatting with Mr. Josiah Jones, of Sandwich, and the latter's son when the train came in. As General Stevenson appeared, followed by Mr. Ewing and Mr. Lange, Cleveland sprang forward and, grasping the General's arm, reached out his hand as he said, in a hearty tone: "How are you, General?" tone: "How are you, General? The Ticket on the Seat of a Carriage.

Stevenson turned to see who it was, and grasping his hand, said: "I'm glad to see Mr. Ewing was introduced, and the three were soon seated in Mr. Cleveland's carriage and driven rapidly away to Gray Gables. Mr. Ewing was seated in front, beside Ben, the coachman, and Cleveland and Stevenson occupied the back seat.

Mr. Cleveland had driven over early to meet them, and was attired in a new suit of tweed, a fine stripe of brown-and-white, and a gay blue-and-white polka dot tie in the collar of his blue-and-white striped flannel vachting shirt. General Stevenson was dusty and travel-stained.

The visitors were given a sail this after-noon among the islands in Buzzard's Bay in Mr. Benedict's yacht, Oneida. It is only a matter of conjecture when the party will leave for New York, the route being known only to those interested. Mr. Cleveland will only remain in New York long enough to conclude the engagement of meeting the committee appointed to inform him of his

AN ALLEGHENY BOY'S MARIA.

He Drives Off With Horses and Buggies Left Unattended.

There is a boy in the Allegheny lockup who seems to have a mania for stealing horses and buggies. His name is William McKune, and he was arrested about two weeks ago for driving away with a rig. The Mayor let him off with a reprimand, on his promise never to do it again. Yesterday morning the lad jumped into the buggy of William McIntosh, which was standing on Buena Vista street, and drove away leisurely. The owner saw the act, ran in leisurely. The owner saw the act, ran in pursuit and caught up on Bridge street. The boy was again taken to the lockup, and will be given a hearing this morning.

The Mavor is puzzled what to do with him, and says he is satisfied that the boy takes the buggies just because he cannot help it. He has no intention of appropriating the preparaty permanently.

cleanses and repairs the system, returns health and vigor, and builds up flesh and strength. For all diseases that come from a disordered liver or impure blood, Dyspepsia, Billousness, Scrofulous, Skin and Scaly Diseases—even Consumption (or Lung-scrofula) in its earlier stages, the "Discovery" is the only remedy so sure and certain that it can be guaranteed. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money or cure, in every case, you have your money

On these terms, it's the cheapest blood-purifier sold, no matter how many hundred doses are offered for a dollar (or less)—for with this, you pay only for the good you get. Can you ask for better proof of its superi-ofity over all other blood-purifiers?
